NRA MEMBER U.S. WE DO OUR PART

THE WEATHER: Fair tonight and Tuesday; warmer Tuesday.

Pittsburgh Sun-Telegraph

Only Pittsburgh Newspaper Printing International News Service Dispatches.

VOL. 13—NO. 97 30 PAGES MONDAY, NOVEMBER 6, 1933 THREE CENTS

NIGHT WALL ST. CLOSING PRICE

LOVE TRIANGLE CLUE IN GIRL'S MURDER

Troopers Ordered to Guard Election

Today

Four Sweet Platitudes. Punch, Brothers, Punch. Best Plan Is to Run. Prohibition's Last Gasp.

—By ARTHUR BRISBANE—

MEN CLING to old sayings, safe, familiar. Proverbs save thinking and the certainty that no one can disagree with what is said, helps.

New York's four candidates for mayor describe the "paramount issue" of the election.

Mr. LaGuardia, Fusion candidate:

"The paramount issue is the restoration of the control of government to the people."

Mr. Solomon, Socialist candidate:

"The paramount issue is the reconstruction of the government in the interests of the masses of the people."

MR. M'KEE, independent Democratic candidate, says:

"The paramount issue is the restoration of the government of the city to the people."

MR. O'BRIEN, regular Democratic candidate, changes it a little:

"The paramount issue is the election of officials who will best manage the affairs of the city."

No government has ever been "restored to the people," for no people anywhere has ever possessed any government, since tribal days. People see new governments come, watch them to see what happens.

It is the same from Timbuctoo to Brooklyn, under King George, Mussolini, Hitler, Stalin, Kemal, or our government here.

The people get the government they deserve, and as they pay less attention to public affairs than to anything else they do not deserve or get much.

What you can't do for yourself, others cannot or will not do for you.

THE PRESIDENT'S rejection of proposed farm products-price-fixing avoids much card punching.

Each farmer was to produce so many bushels of wheat and corn, raise so many hogs, as his quota. When he sold wheat or hogs, his card for hogs or wheat would be punched for the amount of the sale.

His production and sales quota punched full, he could sell no more, and must eat over-production or get rid of it somehow.

THERE WAS to be "one punch for 100 bushels of wheat," the wheat card, another punch for so many hogs, etc.

Old farmers will recall a song of Mark Twain's that might be revived appropriately:

"Punch, brothers, punch, punch with care, punch in the presence of the passengaire. A green trip slip for a six-cent fare."

FARMERS' organizations had suspended their strike but now order it renewed, in twenty-one states. They want the government to guarantee a fair price.

The individual farmer values his personal freedom, likes to be in business "on his own hook, in his own way." To tell him how much wheat, how many hogs he may raise does not suit him, unless he has changed.

SIR PHILIP GIBBS, who wrote a good deal about the big war, says the next will not come for some years, because youth, presumably not anxious for interment in "Flanders fields," will hold it back.

IN NEW YORK'S Columbia University, 200 young men, representing many groups of students, announced that their peaceful convictions would not let them go to war for the Stars and Stripes under any circumstances.

These noble young Americans are willing to profit by fighting done in the past, 1776, 1812, etc., but would not shed their own ruddy drops.

Laws against immigration should be changed to admit fathers and mothers able to produce sons with fewer white feathers.

These Columbia College Americans will appreciate the wisdom of the old Chinese mother, in Pearl Buck's new book:

"My son, to extricate yourself from the difficulty there are thirty-six ways, but the best of them all is to run away."

TOMORROW, with six states voting on repeal, will doubtless see the official end of prohibition. Women and men responsible for the Eighteenth Amendment were sincere, also those that doubted, but withheld criticism until the serious mistake, with its establishment of crime as a vast industry, could no longer be endured.

That at least three of the six states voting tomorrow will decide against trying to make men good by law, seems certain.

Only time can change men. Time has abolished cannibalism, slavery, torture of witnesses. It will abolish drunkenness, with the help of good cooking and freedom from worry, and put an end to poverty, ignorance, greed, superstition in time.

It will take what we call "a long time," but really a short time in history. We are only twelve thousand years from the late stone age, when every man ate every other man, if he could catch and kill him, and have still hundreds of millions of years to go.

We may be really good, and begin genuine civilization in a million years, or two.

(Copyright, 1933, King Features Synd., Inc.)

GOV. PINCHOT ACTS ON MORROW APPEAL

Herron and Lawrence In Last-Minute Exhortations

State police will be on duty in Pittsburgh tomorrow for the municipal and county election.

Gov. Pinchot issued the order shortly before noon today, and troopers will be assigned from the Greensburg and Butler headquarters.

Official request for the police, following demands from any political groups for their presence, was made by John K. Morrow, chairman of the Pittsburgh Registration Commission.

HEADQUARTERS SET

Headquarters for the police will be established in the Registration Commission in the Courthouse, and it is to that office that calls should be made in the event trouble develops in any voting district which city police are unable to quell.

Morrow asked for 33 troopers, the same number that were present in the election of 1931. Due to labor unrest in the coal fields it is probable that fewer than that number will be assigned to Pittsburgh for the election.

Concerning the calling in of the state police, Mayor John S. Herron announced:

"Through the Director of the Department of Public Safety, I have issued explicit orders to the police to preserve order and to conduct themselves so as to retain the confidence in our police force on election day.

"However, if in the judgment of others the state police are needed, they will be welcome and we will be very happy to co-operate with them to the end that everyone will be satisfied that his rights are being properly protected."

Mayor Herron, Republican, and Democratic County Chairman David L. Lawrence today made last-minute pleas to the voters who tomorrow will decide who

(Continued on Page Four, Col. Two.)

Question Woman Today About the 'Mystery Girl'

CAPTIVE MINERS BACK TO WORK

(OTHER PICTURES: PAGE 3)

MRS. GRACE MULL, 39 . . . . . HELD BY CITY DETECTIVES

Mrs. Mull, held with her husband, Roy A. Mull, 43, and his son, Elmer, 19, for questioning about the 'Mystery Girl,' today identified as Margaret Cecelia Schwickrath, 24, who lived with them at 816 East Ohio steert, North Side. This is a Sun-Telegraph picture.

GIRL MURDER 'TRIANGLE' PROBED

Two North Side Men, Woman Questioned In Sewer Death

The girl nobody knew—the girl whom thousands tried to identify—the girl who was "Boots" Brown, who was Helen Jackson, who was a bit of flotsam on the muddy waters of cheap vice, was given another character today by city and county detectives.

They said she was Margaret Schwickrath, 24, a packing house employe, and one of the corners in a sordid domestic triangle.

That identification was accepted officially at the County Morgue.

Satisfied that they had learned her true identity, the detectives were ready also with a solution of her murder. They had three persons under arrest for questioning and in the relations of two of them with the dead girl they thought they had a motive.

NORTH SIDERS HELD

The prisoners were Roy A. Mull, 43; his wife, Grace, 39, and his son, Elmer, 19, all of 816 East Ohio street. They were questioned at Central Station and turned over to the county officers.

Another angle was being followed out by Detective Peter Connors. That was the report by Mr. and Mrs. Fred Elrod, of Cherry Valley, near Wilkinsburg, that they had seen a man shoving some heavy object into a sewer along Allegheny River boulevard early Monday, October 30. That was the day the mystery girl was found.

Detectives said Mrs. Mull had told them that she had seen the Schwickrath girl at 2 o'clock on Sunday afternoon, October 29, the day before the "mystery girl's" body was found stuffed down a

(Continued on Page Three, Col. Eight.)

Arno K.O.'d in Cabaret Row Over Sally O'Neill As Movie Stars Look On

Actress Denies She Socked Artist's Foe With Chair

HOLLYWOOD, Nov. 6.—(AP.)—Peter Arno, New York cartoonist, was knocked out in an exchange of fisticuffs in the fashionable Embassy Club early today.

Mr. Arno

The argument allegedly was with Drexel Biddle Steel, actor and member of a prominent Philadelphia family, but Steel said the knockout blow was struck by his business manager, Gordon Butler.

Sally O'Neill, film actress, who accompanied Arno to the club and was reported to be the unwitting cause of the fight, was said by some witnesses to have ended the altercation by rapping Steel over the head with a chair.

Miss O'Neill, however, denied she had any part in the fight.

Steel said Arno apparently had taken exception to his speaking to Miss O'Neill as he passed Arno's table. Later, Steel said, Arno came over to his table and made "a pass at me."

RENO ROW RECALLED

Arno, who two years ago in Reno, was engaged in a fight with Cornelius Vanderbilt, Jr., was unavailable for a statement.

Steel said:

"My astonishment about the whole affair was increased because of the fact that I have known Mr. Arno for all of 10 years. The only provocation that I gave him whatsoever was to call him by his own name of Curtis, for his name is Curtis Arnoux Peters, and I can't imagine that as the reason. I can't believe that he objected to my speaking to Miss O'Neill, since that was only common courtesy."

Among those who witnessed the altercation were Joan Crawford and Franchot Tone, both screen players; Clark Gable, film actor, and Mrs. Gable and Doris Duke, heiress to a tobacco fortune.

UPS AND SOCKS HIM

Miss O'Neill said:

"What happened was this: Mr. Arno and I were in the Embassy and when he left the table for a moment I noticed that he was engaged in conver-

(Continued on Page Ten, Col. One.)

Chair-Wielder?

SALLY O'NEILL

Miss O'Neill, the actres, whom spectators said slammed Actor Drexel Biddle Steele, actor and Philadelphia socialite, over the head with a chair after he had knocked out Artist Peter Arno, her escort. Miss O'Neill: 'Oh, no.'

'MARTY' RYAN LEADS MEN INTO PITS

Federal Agents Arrive To Set Up Machinery For Union Vote

The sound of the pick striking against coal—the sign of peace—came from the pits of nearly a score of captive coal mines of Western Pennsylvania today.

Martin Ryan, insurgent strike leader, at dawn led a battalion of nearly 500 men and women over the foggy hills of Fayette County into Colonial No. 3 mine of the Frick Coke Company.

The wives of Grindstone carried their men's buckets.

Ryan, their checkweighman, and his followers were jubilant. The wives left them at the pit mouth. The tenseness of battle was gone. Grindstone, hot-bed of the strike, flew the dove of peace.

STATE POLICE LEAVE

A few hours later, orders came from Harrisburg, presumably from Gov. Pinchot, that the state police were to withdraw. Lieut. Thomas M. Boettner announced he was taking his detail of 25 men back to Butler, and Corp. H. C. Johnson his six to Greensburg, early this afternoon.

Four federal agents from the National Labor Board arrived in the field today to lay plans for the elections of the miners' representatives.

Dr. William E. Leiserson, secretary of the board, and Jesse I. Miller, assistant to the chairman, came to Pittsburgh, and Richard Newstadt and James Dewey, special representatives, arrived in Uniontown. They will confer with operators and United Mine Workers at 7 o'clock tonight.

PLANTS OPEN

The Frick company reopened 12 of its operations, closed for 14 weeks, and the battling miners resumed work under President Roosevelt's peace pact.

Other captive mines reported resuming were four Vesta mines, Nos. 4, 5, 6 and 8, of the Jones & Laughlin Steel Corporation, and the Nemacolin mine of the Youngstown Sheet and Tube Company.

It was estimated more than 6,000 miners returned to work, with a payroll approximating $30,000 a day.

Plants of the Bethlehem Mines Corporation did not reopen. W. R. McMullin, a spokesman, said there may be a statement later in the week.

MEET RAINED OUT

A meeting of union miners at Searight yesterday was rained out, but many of the men moved on to Republic, where they met in a garage. They cheered the work order and the President.

Martin Ryan, strike leader, led a group of 350 back to work at the Frick's Colonial No. 3, where he is checkweighman.

At Colonial No. 1, more than

(Continued on Page Two, Col. Two.)

FAIR WEATHER FOR ELECTION

Perfect autumn weather will mark election day if the prediction of Observer W. S. Brotzman is borne out.

Skies will be fair and temperatures will be higher tomorrow, he predicted, contrasting with the chilly rain that kept most people indoors over the week-end.

The rain here totaled .81 inches, nearly twice that which fell in October, one of the driest months on record. Snow fell yesterday in many eastern points, particularly along the Atlantic seaboard.

First cindering operations were reported in Cambria, Clearfield and Somerset counties when mountain highways became coated with freezing rain.

Snow plows were used in northeastern counties where a six-inch snowfall was reported.

Killer, Serving Life, Dies in Jail Leap

WETHERSFIELD, Conn., Nov. 6.—(INS.)—Dr. Harold N. Guilfoyle, serving a life sentence for the murder of Mrs. Clare Gaudet committed suicide by jumping 40 feet from a gallery in a cell block at the state prison today.

City and County Voters Entitled To Four Ballots

Every voter in Allegheny County and Pittsburgh tomorrow should receive four ballots.

Be sure you get all four!

One will contain the names of candidates for the various offices to be filled.

A second will list the 12 proposed amendments to the state Constitution.

A third will give opportunity to vote for or against modification of the Sunday blue laws.

The fourth will be on the question of repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment.

The candidate ballot needs no explanation.

On the ballot for constitutional amendments there is a short explanation of each proposal, with squares at the right of the text for the voter to mark a cross either yes or no.

The blue law ballot states the question, and at the right is a block with "Yes" and another with "No," and a square in which the voter records his choice with a cross mark. Each borough, city

(Continued on Page Four, Col. Six.)

BALBO OUSTED AS AIR CHIEF

ROME, Nov. 6.—(AP.)—King Victor Emmanuel made Premier Mussolini minister of both the Navy and the Air today after accepting the resignations of Air Marshal Italo Balbo and Admiral Giusseppe Sirianni.

At the same time, the King named Gen. Valle Under-secretary of the Air and Admiral Cavagnari Under-secretary of the Navy.

Balbo was named Governor of Libya, taking the place of Marshal Badoglio.

Air officers described Balbo as de-ected and said he would take a vacation of several months before assuming his new post.

Premier Mussolini now holds six ministries. There are seven he does not occupy.

Italo Balbo, displaced as air minister, was raised to the rank of air marshal from general upon his return to Rome following the mass trans-Atlantic flight he led to Chicago and back. He also led a mass flight across the South Atlantic to South America in 1930-31.

Tries to Slip $10 Into Judge's Pocket

MORGANTOWN, W. Va., Nov. 6.—(AP.)—Because he attempted to slip a $10 bill into Judge Charles G. Baker's pocket, a few minutes before a minor civil case in which he was a defendant was called, William Semk, 53, an immigrant farmer, today was fined $25 and sent to jail for 10 days for contempt of court.

Important Notice To Election Boards

At the close of polls tomorrow night, a representative of the Tri-state Election Service will call upon you for election results. He will carry an identification card as an authorized collector of returns for the Pittsburgh newspapers.

Please give him totals as soon as they are available. Any other co-operation will be appreciated by THE EDITOR.

BANK TAX SUIT WON BY COUNTY

Allegheny County's right to tax savings deposits in banks was upheld today in an opinion recorded by Judge H. Walton Mitchell, in Orphans' Court.

The decision involved the appeal of the executors for the estate of Henry Schuetz, Jr., upon which the county pressed a claim for $2,605 representing the 4-mill tax on savings accounts in three Pittsburgh banks. The state joined the executors in the appeal.

The monies involved were on deposit during 1928 to 1932, inclusive.

Judge Mitchell held that the county and not the state, could collect the tax, explaining that had the Legislature intended that tthe state collect it, stote officials would have to set up collecting agencies. The Legislature passed the act in 1913.

The Schuetz estate was estimated at $182,728.

Il Duce's Marriage Edict Puzzles Envoy

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—(INS.)—Handsome Italian Ambassador Augusto Rosso, considered one of the most eligible bachelors in the capital was bewildered today by reports from Rome that he must marry or resign.

With an air of nonchalance that was not entirely convincing, he endeavored to make it appear he did not take seriously the news from Rome that Premier Mussolini had ordered all bachelors holding executive positions in the Fascist party either to marry or resign.

Needy Will Get Jobs During Mail Rush

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—(AP.)—Postmaster General Farley will play Santa Claus to the needy unemployed, especially those with families, in distributing 1933 Christmas rush mail jobs.

Postmasters were directed today to co-operate with relief agencies and veteran organizations in selecting this temporary help.

Soles Case Listed For New Grand Jury

The case of Robert S. Soles, McKeesport businessman, accused by county detectives of the murder of his wife, Mrs. LaRoux Soles, was one of 550 bills to be considered by the November grand jury, sworn in today by Judge S. J. Snee.

Samuel S. McCready, a clerk, of 811 Bayridge avenue, is foreman of the jury which consists of six women and 11 men.

In Today's Sun-Telegraph

	Page
"The Girl Who Won" (serial)	28
Bugs Baer	17, 29
Bridge Lessons	21
Arthur Brisbane	1
Comics	28, 29
Cross-Word Puzzle	29
Dr. Copeland	21
Editorial	30
Fashion	21
Finance	24, 25, 26
B. C. Forbes	26
Mark Hellinger	13
O. O. McIntyre	30
Magazine, Fiction	21
Pattern	24
Pictorial Education	28
Radio	14
Ripley	23
Will Rogers	17
Mark Shic'ds	17
Society, Clubs	20
Sports	22, 23
Stage and Screen	12
Walter Winchell	12

BAKERIES HERE HIT BY STRIKE

The strike of bakers and truck drivers estimated at 400 of the Ward and Baur baking companies continued today, resulting in reported delay in deliveries to some stores and restaurants.

A representative of the Ward company said 65 per cent of the routes were manned and 50 per cent of the bakers were working. He stated the National Labor Board had requested arbitration.

Sam Wehofer, representing Bakers' Local No. 12 said the strike had nothing to do with the NRA, but only union recognition.

Lieut. W. J. Lavery of the Forty-third street police station was arranging to distribute 10,000 loaves of undelivered bread to charitable organizations he said.

Crash of Meteor Rocks Area in West

NORFOLK, Neb., Nov. 6.—(AP.)—C. J. Adams, Chicago and Northwestern Railroad engineer, today reported seeing a meteor flash across the sky of Northeastern Nebraska early today. It struck near here. Several persons reported feeling the impact.

Lone Robber Ties 8, Escapes With $2,517

CLEVELAND, Nov. 6.—(INS.)—A robber today held up the Citizens Budget and Loan Company in the downtown section here after tieing up eight employes, one by one, as they entered the offices. He fled with loot of $2,517.

Barbara Brings Prince Home to See Papa

By DAVID P. SENTNER

International News Service.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—Barbara Hutton came home with her Prince today.

Slim, debonair, as democratic as ever, the first thing the $10,000,000 heiress to the Woolworth fortune did was repudiate Mae West as a style mentor.

And Prince Alexis Mdivani expressed keen interest in New York politics.

Both said they were very happy, were here only to visit Franklyn L. Hutton, the princess' father, and would return to Paris after Christmas. It is their first visit since their marriage in a gorgeous Russian ceremony in Paris last June 21.

The Princess modishly dressed in a brown Alaskan seal coat, with fur turban and muff—the Russian touch—to match, was as emphatic as Marlene Dietrich on the Mae West question. Asked if she were "going Mae West," she said: "Goodness, no!" and was surprised when assured the redoubtable Mae had swept the fashion world.

Prince Alexis said he might go to California to see his brother, Prince David, who is being divorced by Mae Murray, the actress, and Prince Serge, who is being divorced by Mary McCormic, the singer.

Niagara Falls Going Dry Under Lash of Wind

International News Service.

NIAGARA FALLS, N. Y., Nov. 6.—Niagara Falls was almost dry today.

For three days a strong east wind has been retarding the flow of water in the Niagara River and the falls present a picture rarely seen.

The water level in the gorge below the falls is 20 feet lower than usual.

The Horseshoe Falls on the Canadian side of the river is almost dry.

From Goat Island to the center of the Horseshoe the rock is dry and above Goat Island the river appears to be a mere creek in comparison with its normal volume.

JOHNSON IN MID-WEST TO ANSWER CRITICS OF NRA

ES PROGRESS DE TOWARD RECOVERY

Industrial Czar Again Scoffs at Rumors Of Resignation

CHICAGO, Nov. 6 (AP.)—Gen Hugh S. Johnson, National Recovery Administrator, arrived today on the first stop of a swing through Middle Western states by which he hopes to sound out sentiment on the NRA and meet the objections of its opponents.

After addressing the Chicago Association of Commerce today the General will go to Minneapolis, probably by plane, tomorrow, He said.

"I'm going to let them fire questions at me. We're making progress under the NRA. Naturally there has been some dissatisfaction. We expected that. There has been a certain amount of dissatisfaction in Chicago. But we believe the number of boosters is greater than the number of kickers."

With Gen. Johnson was E. F. McGrady, assistant Secretary of Labor. They were greeted at the station by Gov. Henry Horner of Illinois.

Asked if there were any basis for reports that he was going to resign, Gen. Johnson said:

"Somebody ought to get that story copyrighted."

The NRA Administrator left behind in Washington problems for his aides to handle, a batch of codes for President Roosevelt to approve and a statement informing trade associations that code authorities and other industrial agencies will be given self-government only as they are organized to administer it, and that they will not be given charge of labor disputes until worker representation is provided for on all agencies handling employe complaints.

Coming on top of the week's agitation over the Swope plan for business to take over code administration, lock, stock and barrel, the statement was regarded as an assurance to labor that it had nothing to fear, and a serious urging to industries to create the machinery for desired self-government.

NRA SPOKESMAN COMING HERE

Frederick Vining Fisher, of the National Recovery Administration speakers' bureau, Washington, will address members of the Pittsburgh Chapter, National Association of Cost Accountants, at the Chamber of Commerce auditorium, Wednesday, November 15, at 7:45 p. m.

Mr. Fisher, whose topic will be "The Next Step Under the NRA," was chief of the bureau of platform publicity for the Panama-Pacific International Exposition, 1912-1915; speaker designated by the government to assist states inaugurating community plan organizations, 1917-1918, and organizer for Chicago's inland waterways program.

The meeting, to be preceded by a dinner in the Chamber of Commerce, will be open to the public.

HARD COAL UNION STRIKE FAILS

International News Service.

WILKES-BARRE, Pa., Nov. 6.—An insurgent strike call in the northern anthracite field fell far short of its mark today.

Although no estimate of the toll of idleness was immediately available, an early survey of the area showed that the goal—a complete tie-up in two counties—was hardly approached.

Bona fide members of the United Mine Workers of America ignored the strike demand and reported for work and in many cases they were not molested. It appeared questionable whether the insurgent element was strong enough numerically to picket every operation successfully.

At a few of the collieries no attempt was made to operate, while others were reported working 100 per cent. The survey showed however, that the major producers were operating extensively enough to meet market demands.

Two Educational Week Duties -:- By QUIN HALL

WORK RESUMED IN FRICK PITS

(Continued from Page One.)

500 resumed and other Frick mines approximated capacity.

The Fayette County field, scene of tense picketing and fatal riots while the United Mine Workers fought for recognition of their union, was tranquil over the weekend. The quiet was punctuated here and there by demonstrations of the Workmen's Independent Brotherhood, company union.

BATTLE OF BALLOTS

The next battle, it was predicted, will be with ballots, and instead of between operator and miners will be that of miner against miner.

A delegation of miners reported at the Republic Steel Company's mines in Fayette County yesterday. Officials said they would inform the home office of the desire to return to work, since no work order has been received.

The Frick mines were not operating at capacity, planning to resume gradually with rotating forces.

The decision to return to work was clinched Saturday night when William Hynes, president of District No. 4 United Mine Workers of America, Martin Ryan and others making their reports to local mine union leaders concerning their trip to the White House and interview with President Roosevelt.

Operators and mine officials expect full operation within a week, they said.

Jerry Poole, Negro, who Saturday led the company union's parade in Footedale, was brought to the Uniontown hospital yesterday with a bullet wound in the abdomen. County Detective Jack Hahn reported the injury occurred in a drinking party in a fight for possession of a gun. No arrests were made.

Anthracite Coal Output Curtailed

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6 (AP.)—Unrest in Pennsylvania's hard-coal fields is reflected in the output of the fuel, which fell off to 1,037,000 tons for the week ended October 21. In the previous week 2,090,000 tons were mined.

Production of bituminous coal in the state jumped to 1,309,000 tons in the week ended October 21, although only 907,000 were mined the previous week.

Mark Education Week With School Programs

'Open House' to Be Held for Parents And Public

Special programs for parents and the public will be held in the public schools of the district beginning today in observance of American Education Week.

Founded in 1920 by the American Legion and the American Education Association, the week is devoted to exhibits and programs to acquaint the public with educational problems. Parent-Teacher groups, legion posts and many businessmen's service clubs have special days to emphasize the importance of the observance.

Each school will have individual programs. Among schedules announced is the Prospect School's open house session Wednesday night. Other schools also will hold open house on various days. Dr. Ben G. Graham, superintendent of Pittsburgh public schools, and Dr. James N. Rule, state superintendent of public instruction, urge parents to participate in the observance.

PRICE CONTROL RULED ILLEGAL

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 6.—(AP.)—Declaring the federal government has no power to fix prices, Common Pleas Judge Robert E. Lamberton refused to issue an injunction which would uphold an agreement which ended a city-wide strike.

Price fixing is against public policy and can be legalized only by the State Legislature, the court ruled.

Proceedings had been brought by the Philadelphia Cleaners and Dyers Association against three member firms which were alleged to be charging prices below an agreed scale. Acceptance of the scale was one of the terms which ended a strike paralyzing the industry in Philadelphia.

Counsel for the plaintiff argued that the pact, which also fixed minimum wages, was in accordance with the policies of the NRA. It was made clear, however, that the NRA had not approved the agreement in question.

Even if he had the right to fix prices, Judge Lamberton said he would not do so because "the entire development of our law has been on the theory that the public must be protected against combinations which injure the public."

Byrd Ship Headed For Lands of Ice

ABOARD S.S. JACOB RUPPERT, Nov. 6 (INS.)—This ice-bound flagship of the Byrd Antarctic expedition today was pushing along at about 9½ knots on a southward course, unbroken for nearly 5,000 miles to the continental ice west for Peter Island.

Weather immediately ahead was uncertain. Members of the expedition were busy working on equipment they will handle in overland exploration.

NRA PROFITEERS HIT BY BORAH

PARMA, Ida., Nov. 6.—(AP.)—The administration's "buy now" campaign "is not progressing at all; it is receding," asserts Senator William E. Borah, of Idaho. And to stop a "brazen program of exploitation" through high prices, he has gone on record for restoration and enforcement of the anti-trust laws. He told a western Idaho audience:

"We are gathering the fruits, in a large measure, of the mistaken act in suspending the anti-trust laws last winter.

"It should not have been done. The people are paying for that mistake now. It was assumed that the public would be protected through these (NRA) codes, but that assumption was based upon wrong premises and was made without a sufficient desire to restrain monopolies."

Senator Borah again urged use of both gold and silver to provide a broader metallic base for the monetary system.

FARMERS LAY 'SLAP IN FACE' TO ROOSEVELT

Milo Reno Calls Upon Nation to Back 'Finish' Strike

International News Service.

DES MOINES, Ia., Nov. 6.—Declaring that the farmer has been "slapped in the face" by President Roosevelt, Milo Reno, head of the middle western farm strike, summoned his followers today to renew the strike "with all the power" they possess.

One farm strike picket was killed and three others critically injured when an automobile hurtled into a farm truck halted at a highway barricade near Dakota City, Neb. The commandeered truck was sent careening into the midst of a group of strikers who had thrown logs in front of the market-bound vehicle.

TROOPS LIKELY

Informed that farm strike pickets had stopped a Chicago and Northwestern live stock train at Lawton, Ia., and released eight carloads of sheep and cattle, Gov. Herring said the state would step in with National Guard troops if local authorities are unable to suppress the disorders.

The new strike call, which followed fresh outbreaks of strike violence, was issued in the form of a formal statement.

The statement also called on the country as a whole to support the strike. It definitely ended a strike truce, theoretically in effect until President Roosevelt had an opportunity to pass on strikers' demands for agricultural relief.

These demands the President definitely turned down Saturday.

HINTS THIRD PARTY

The statement also formally renewed strikers' demands that Mid-Western governors declare embargoes against shipment of farm products to market until prices improve. Reno's statement said:

"As a consequence of the betrayal of the farmers by both President Roosevelt and Secretary Wallace, farmers have but one course left to pursue, that is, to strike with all the power that they possess. It will, perhaps, be a long, bitter struggle and no man can foretell the end.

"It is only too evident that the same group that has controlled every administration since 1920 is in complete control at this time. It seems foolish to longer temporize with the situation, hoping it is possible to convert either of the old parties to the cause of the plain people. That there will be a powerful third party launched, that will amalgamate the progressive element of the United States, is certain."

Stockyard Cattle Subject to Taxes

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—(AP.)—The Supreme Court held today in a Minnesota case that cattle owned by dealers and held for sale in stockyards are subject to property taxes.

Flint Die Makers Declare Strike Off

FLINT, Mich., Nov. 6.—(AP.)—Officials of the Mechanics Educational Society of Flint, an organization of tool and diemakers, announced today that a tool and diemakers' strike in progress in local automotive plants had been called off.

The announcement followed the settling in Detroit of difficulties between 29 employers and strikers who a month ago walked out of these shops.

EDSEL MAY AIR WALL STREET WAR ON FORD

Son of Auto Magnate Called by Senate Stock Probers

By WILLIAM K. HUTCHINSON
International News Service.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—A dramatic story of Henry Ford's long feud with bankers may be aired at the Senate banking inquiry through the calling of his son, Edsel Ford, as a witness in the probe of Detroit's banking situation, it was reported here today.

Members of the Senate Banking Committee indicated Edsel Ford would be subpenaed to tell what he knows about the collapse of the Union Guardian and First National banks in Detroit. He undoubtedly will be questioned too about his father's war on New York bankers a decade ago, when bankers tried to get control of the automobile manufacturer's business.

The calling of Arthur W. Cutten, Chicago capitalist, also gave rise to rumors that the stock market inquiry might be extended to include commodity exchanges.

Cutten and Harry F. Sinclair, the oil magnate, were subpened together to tell about a syndicate operation in Sinclair Consolidated oil stock. Cutten, Sinclair, Blair & Co., New York brokers; the Chase Securities Corporation and Albert H. Wiggin split $12,000,000 profit on this deal.

Morgan Aiding Mitchell In U. S. Tax Dispute

Universal Service.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—Charles E. Mitchell, former president and chairman of the National City Bank, is negotiating with the federal government to settle his income taxes. He was indicted, arrested and recently acquitted on three charges of trying to defraud the government out of $1,000,000 in taxes.

Federal authorities explained exoneration from criminal responsibility for non-payment of taxes does not nullify the obligation, or wipe out the debt in any way. Washington officials conceded discussions toward a settlement of the taxes are in progress.

The most startling development in the situation was the authoritative report that J. P. Morgan & Co., sponsored the proposed settlement offering first to guarantee $75,000 and later raising the bid to $125,000 to clear Mitchell of civil liability. The government's attitude was that even $125,000 was too low.

Emphatic denial that he had sold B. M. T. stock short a few days before it passed its dividend last year was made today by Gerhard M. Dahl, chairman of the subway company's board of directors.

MINE WOMEN TO GET LUXURY

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—(AP.)—Luxuries they seldom dreamed of will come into the lives of the 50 West Virginia miners' wives, whose husbands are being selected to carry on the first federal farm factory project at Reedsville.

Mrs. Roosevelt said today that the Saturday discussions at the White House on housing had resulted in a decision to put shower baths and laundry tubs with drains and running water, into the farm cottages.

Beauty, as well as comfort, is being considered, she said, with funds made for window boxes, as well as utilitarian adjuncts.

Pittsburgh Sun-Telegraph.
Volume XIII—No. 97.
Monday, November 6, 1933.
Published evening and Sunday at the office of the Pittsburgh Sun-Telegraph, Telegraph Square, Pittsburgh, Pa. Price: Daily, 3 cents; Sunday, 10 cents.
Entered as second-class matter at the postoffice at Pittsburgh, Pa., under the Act of March 3, 1879.

U. S. BUYS GOLD IN EUROPE

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—(AP.)—The administration raised the RFC price for newly-mined gold to another successive new high today at $32.84 an ounce, and revealed that $2,800,000 has been paid out in purchases of the domestic metal.

Jesse H. Jones, chairman of the Reconstruction Corporation, said that substantial amounts of gold have been bought in the world markets, but he declined to state the actual amount.

The administration watched the dollar slide to a new low level today, but would give no hint whether its gold-buying activities abroad were linked to the skidding exchange rate.

The foreign gold is being bought by the Federal Reserve Bank of New York at approximately the price being paid by the RFC for domestic newly-mined metal.

Jones also announced that since October 16, $93,000,000 has been loaned to closed banks for distribution to depositors.

The deposit liquidation board was formed on that date and Jones said that it soon will have the state committees completed.

COUGHLIN SEES FREE SILVER

DETROIT, Nov. 6.—(AP.)—The Rev. Father Charles E. Coughlin, pastor of the Shrine of the Little Flower, predicted in a speech yesterday that "the President is about to remonetize silver."

Asserting that "one of the greatest moral issues in our nation today is to cancel the money system which, since the year 1873, has been in vogue," Father Coughlin said:

"There is nothing wrong with the National Recovery Act. The fault lies with its team mate—the currency."

Regarding the present monetary standard, Father Coughlin said:

"Sooner than you suspect silver shall be remonetized. Government certificates soundly and solidly backed by silver that has been restored to its normal and natural value in relation to gold shall begin to pass from hand to hand of a citizenry liberated from the fear created by a famine of money."

FORD LAYOFFS GET UNDER WAY

DETROIT, Nov. 6.—(AP.)—Half the men employed at the Ford Motor Company's River Rouge plant here were laid off today, in accordance with a recent company announcement that it planned to bring average working hours within the NRA auto code of 35 a week.

Company officials, while declaring that "half the men are being laid off," did not give the exact figures as to total employment in the plant. In their announcement of the layoff plan made last week they said that 9,000 men would be laid off, probably for seven days.

The last official figure given by the company for total employment at the plant some weeks ago was 45,000.

There were no indications that the Ford company planned a reply to the statement in Washington last week of Hugh S. Johnson, Recovery Administrator, that he would be glad to "consider an exception" if Henry Ford wished to give employment to the men being laid off.

Railroad Bridge Burned in Strike

JAMES, Ia., Nov. 6. (INS.)—A 40-foot Great Northern Railroad bridge near here was destroyed by an incendiary fire, believed to have been set by farm strikers. It was the second railroad bridge blaze in this area in three days.

LITVINOFF TO REACH U. S. TOMORROW

Roosevelt Will Open Parley Thursday Or Friday

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—(AP.)—President Roosevelt and Maxim Litvinoff will discuss Russo-American relations Thursday or Friday.

As shown by schedules made public today, State Department discussion with the Soviet commissar of foreign affairs will be brief.

When Litvinoff reaches Washington late tomorrow, he will be escorted directly to be presented to the President.

Wednesday morning he will call at the State Department and talk with Secretary Hull until lunch time, when both will go to the White House for a luncheon in Litvinoff's honor. The talk with Hull may very likely be his only State Department visit.

HULL TO ATTEND

Others in the White House conference will include Secretary Hull, Undersecretary Phillips, Assistant Secretary R. Walton Moore, William Bullitt, special assistant to Secretary Hull, and Henry Morganthau, Jr., governor of the Farm Credit Association.

While in Washington Litvinoff will be accompanied by a special guard of detectives and a cordon of uniformed policemen will be thrown around the Soviet information bureau headquarters.

Reasons for the unusual preparations to guard the Soviet emmissary were not revealed, but they are understood to be only a precautionary measure.

SPECIAL TRAIN

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—(AP.)—Maxim Litvinoff, Soviet commissar for foreign affairs, will be taken from the Liner Berengaria at quarantine to Jersey City, N. J., where a special train will take him to Washington, a tentative program announced today said.

The Berengaria is expected to reach quarantine tomorrow morning.

Litvinoff will be greeted officially on the Berengaria by James Dunn, chief of the protocol division of the State Department, who will accompany him to Washington.

MOSCOW ASKS WORLD REVOLT

MOSCOW, Nov. 6.—(AP.)—The Revolutionary War Council and the Communistic Internationale today joined in voicing anew Soviet Russia's hopes for a world revolution in separate manifestos issued on the eve of the sixteenth anniversary of the Soviet republic.

The War Council issued order No. 173 signed by Jan Gamarnik, vice commissar for war and the navy, calling on the Red army chiefs "to train each Red soldier to be devoted in heart and soul to the world proletarian revolution."

This instruction is given at the close of the order, which says a more powerful army is needed for defense despite the fact that "the Red army now is stronger and more invincible than ever before."

Litvinoff's Wife To Arrive in Week

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—(INS.)—Washington is going to have its glimpse of Mme. Litvinoff, wife of the Russian Foreign Minister, after all.

Nothing definite in the way of dates has been arranged, but Mrs. Roosevelt told the press women at her conference today she understood Mme. Litvinoff would say about a week later than her husband.

Washington County Waits Ballot Rule

WASHINGTON, Pa., Nov. 6.—Judge Howard W. Hughes was to hand down a decision late today in the equity suit of the Democratic party of Washington County to restrain the County Commissioners from reprinting 100,000 ballots for tomorrow's election with the name of C. L. V. Acheson as the Republican nominee for judge.

Charlie Starr and His Rich Lode

CHARLES H. STARR, THE KITTANNING COAL MINER, SHOWING HIS FORTUNE WITH GOLD

Miner Starr, who deserted Pennsylvania's coal fields for the Colorado gold fields and then ran into six years of poverty for himself, his wife and three sons, at the vein he discovered. It assays as high as $1.50 per pound and the government's paying $32 an ounce for gold right now. He has $100,000 in sight. This is an International News Photograph Service picture.

Kittanning Man's Gold Strike Starts Rush

DENVER, Nov. 6. (AP.)—Charles Starr became angry when he was refused 75 cents credit at a Mancos (Col.) store.

He dug into a pocket of his grimy overalls; then, thrusting a handful of almost pure gold nuggets across the counter, he shouted:

"See that?"

The tradesman, gazing in astonishment, asked:

"Where did you get those?"

Starr told him it was none of his business. He went to another store to make his purchases on credit.

Thus the news of the biggest recent gold strike in Southwestern Colorado got out. It started a gold fever epidemic.

Starr, who came with his family to Colorado seven years ago from Kittanning, Pa., and a partner, G. W. Gilmore, struck the "pay dirt" on their own property.

The prospectors followed the age-old method of seeking "mother lodes." They panned the Mancos River until they found some small nuggets. Then they combed the hillsides to discover the spot from which the nuggets were washed.

Starr picked up a red stone Indian arrowhead near the river one day, indicating the direction to Gilmore, he said:

"It's pointing this way. Let's have a look."

The "look" extended into a three-weeks' search.

They found a small vein of free gold. One chunk contained nearly a quarter pound of gold. Starr shouted:

"It's the mother lode!"

With sweating brows, the men went to a point below the find and began digging into the mountainside.

Since then they have taken about $100,000 from the mine.

Hoover's Luck Changes, Lands Two Sword Fish

International News Service.

ABOARD YACHT SAMONA II, Gulf of Lower California, via wireless, Nov. 6.—Fisherman Herbert Hoover's luck has turned for the better.

The former President of the United States has not only achieved his ambition to land a marlin swordfish, one of the mightiest and gamest of all game fish, but friends had taken two on his cruise with Willitts J. Hole and a party of friends into Mexican waters.

Before he left San Pedro, the former chief executive of the nation predicted he would have better luck in his quest for the sporty marlin than on his recent fruitless trips off Catalina, and he made good on his prediction in a big way.

William L. Honnold, mining engineer and one-time associate with Hoover in Belgian relief, was running his friend an even race for fishing honors with two swordfish, while Arthur M. Hyde, former Secretary of Agriculture, and Harvey S. Mudd, an engineer, other members of the party aboard the yacht, each has one to his credit.

So far the cruise has extended into the Gulf of Lower California as far as Muertos Bay.

Future plans had not been definitely given out, but it was possible further sorties would be made into the gulf or a run made to Clarion Islands, in the Revilla Gredo group 250 miles farther south.

(Copyright, 1933, by International News Service.)

TEXAS, WISECRACK ON LIPS, DIES FAR FROM BROADWAY

CABARET QUEEN STRICKEN ON STAGE TOUR

On Way to Recovery Like Blue Eagle, She Says as End Nears

International News Service.

VANCOUVER, B. C., Nov. 6.—Texas Guinan in death will go back to her beloved Broadway.

Miss Guinan, who went from the plains of Texas to New York where she became a celebrated night club queen, died in her sleep in the General Hospital here at 8:30 o'clock yesterday morning from an ulcerated colitis, an ailment which physicians had tried to correct with an operation Saturday.

Her brother, Thomas Guinan, of New York, and her sister, Mrs. George Smith, of Los Angeles, were reported en route here to make funeral arangements. They were expected to carry out Miss Guinan's wishes and take her body for burial to New York and near the Broadway of which she was such a noted alumna.

Miss Guinan, whose wisecracks were legion, who coined the phrases, "Hello, Sucker," and "Give the little girl a great big hand," lapsed into unconsciousness at 11 o'clock Saturday night with an unintelligible language on her lips. She tried vainly to speak to physicians and nurses.

SHOW MUST GO ON

Miss Guinan was on tour with a theatrical troupe of 40 girls when she was stricken suddenly last Monday. They were to have opened an engagement in Victoria, B. C., Saturday night, but the tour was canceled when her illness became alarming.

These girls, headed by Fay Courtney, dancing star, will be in the funeral cortege to New York. Miss Courtney mourned:

"She was the only mother some of us ever knew."

It was Miss Courtney who revealed that Texas first had become ill more than a month ago in Portland, Ore., but had insisted that the "show must go on" and finally had collapsed in the wings of the theater after the fourth show last Monday.

Miss Guinan was on the operating table an hour and a half Saturday and smiled later in the day when physicians told her she had a 50-50 chance for recovery.

WISECRACKING BATTLE

True to her disposition Texas fought her battle for life in typical wisecracking fashion.

While she was in the hospital her death was reported to her several times. To one of these reports she flipped:

"No, I'm not dead . . . like the Blue Eagle, I'm on my way to recovery."

Her fellow troupers stood silently and white-faced in the hospital corridors as the physicians fought to save her life. Tears flowed freely when announcement was made of her death.

She was the first cowgirl of the films to risk her life in doing stunts without a double.

She wrangled cattle on her father's ranch in Texas, but turned from the life of a cowgirl in the 101 Ranch Circus Company to study for a stage career and obtained a role in an operetta that was to lead her to Hollywood and international fame.

With a broad smile Tex often recalled those early roles. She said:

"I was so far back in the chorus they had to take a brick out of the wall to find me."

Hollywood Mourns Tex As 'Two-Gun Girl of West'

International News Service.

HOLLYWOOD, Nov. 6. Hollywood today mourned the death of Texas Guinan whose career included the making of 225 films and who became known as "The Two-Gun Girl of the West."

Only recently she was here to play a role in a motion picture about the Broadway that added to her fame.

George Raft, the film star, was among the many celebrities grieved over the death of the "night club queen." He said:

"When Texas Guinan died the world of the theater and screen lost one of its greatest women. I danced in her '300 Club' in New York about seven years ago, and there I found out about her heart of gold."

Sally O'Neil, actress, wept openly when informed that Miss Guinan had died. The actress said:

"She was a real friend. I believe she befriended everyone with whom she came in contact and needed help."

Others in Hollywood who were aided in their careers by Miss Guinan were Ruby Keeler, who met Al Jolson who became her husband, in one of Tex's night clubs where Ruby was dancing.

PICTURES ON PAGE 5.

Identifying the 'Mystery Girl' at the County Morgue :-: She Has a Name Now

Photo by Pittsburgh Sun-Telegraph.

DETECTIVE WM. R. HARRIS — JOHN WEIBLE — MRS. CATHERINE SPRINGER — MRS. GRACE MULL

AUNT CATHERINE AND MRS. GRACE MULL, WITH WHOM SHE LIVED, IDENTIFYING THE 'MYSTERY GIRL' AT THE MORGUE

MARGARET CECELIA SCHWICKRATH, 24 . . . IDENTIFIED NOW

A photograph of the woman emphatically identified as the "mystery girl" in the county morgue. She was identified by an aunt and two people with whom she had lived at 816 East Ohio street.

LOVE TRIANGLE HINTS MOTIVE IN MURDER

Two North Side Men, Woman Questioned In Sewer Death

(Continued from Page One.)

sewer drop on Allegheny River boulevard, near Verona.

On that day, Mrs. Mull told the sleuths she and her husband had gone with the girl to a small community known officially as Haydenville, but locally as "The Onion," near Greensburg. The girl, Mrs. Mull said, went for a walk that afternoon and strolled up a hill and out of sight. That, she said, was the last time she had seen her alive.

BROTHER'S STORY

From there the story of how the girl was identified was carried on by her brother, John Schwickrath, who lives at "The Onion" when he is not herding sheep in the West or picking cotton in the South.

His story was this:

Last Friday two men came to his home and said they were roomers at 816 East Ohio street, where his sister had lived.

They told him that she had disappeared from that address, and showed him a Sun-Telegraph sketch of the girl who had been found in the sewer drop.

With his aunt, Mrs. Alice Demay, he came to Pittsburgh and viewed the girl's body. He decided:

"Yes, that's Margaret."

The county detectives were not ready to accept his identification. He returned home and told his story to state police.

With two state troopers he went to the log cabin which the Mulls own at "The Onion."

TELLS OF QUARREL

There they learned that the Mulls had been there on the Sunday before the mystery girl's body was found. They were told there had been a quarrel and that the Mulls had left without the Schwickrath girl.

Meanwhile in Pittsburgh Mrs. Katherine Springer, of 208 East Stockton avenue, an aunt of John Schwickrath, who knew Mrs. Mull, wondered about the girl on a morgue slab.

She questioned Mrs. Mull about scars and other means of identifying the girl, then went to the morgue. She was so positive in her knowledge that morgue officials accepted as official her statement:

"Yes, that's Margaret."

City detectives went to the East Ohio street rooming house and picked up the Mulls. At Central Station the Mulls had these stories to tell:

LOVE TRIANGLE

Mull admitted, detectives say, that he had been intimate with the Schwickrath girl, that he had lived with her for a year, and that he had quarreled repeatedly with his wife over her.

Mrs. Mull, the detectives say, admitted that she knew of the relationship between her husband and the girl. They quoted her as saying:

"I didn't care. I didn't love him. We both worked to support him.

"No, I wasn't jealous. I liked Margaret, and I didn't care two pins about him."

At the morgue, Mull would not voluntarily view the girl's body. He cried:

"She was like a baby to me. I can't look at her."

When he was forced to look at the body he corroborated Mrs. Springer's identification.

At the Mull home detectives found a slate-colored sedan, which they impounded for examination. They announced they were looking for a 38-caliber revolver, which they had been told Mull owned.

DREW GIRL'S PAY

Mrs. Mull is employed in the packing plant where Margaret worked. Last Wednesday she drew Margaret's pay along with her own, detectives said. They asked her why she did so, and quoted her as replying:

"Oh, I thought she'd just gone off for awhile and would be back."

The detectives also asked Mrs. Mull if she thought her husband had killed Margaret Schwickrath. Her answer, they said, was:

"No. He's too damned yellow."

The detectives said they had learned that Mrs. Mull had once threatened her husband with a knife and on another occasion had threatened to shoot him. They said she had admitted menacing him with a shotgun. They quoted her:

"He was no good. He was always drinking."

DANCER'S DEATH LAID TO SPIES

International News Service.

JERUSALEM, Nov. 6.—American consular authorities and Palestine police today began an investigation of reports Joan Winters, American dancer found slain near the Garden of Gethsemane, may have been an innocent victim of international spies.

Cabled reports revealed the girl had written her parents she was arrested as a spy in Turkey last October. On the strength of this police set out to run down the theory the 25-year-old blonde dancer was shot to death by persons believing she might betray them.

Despite the fact that Miss Winters had repeatedly proclaimed herself an atheist, she was given a Christian burial. This was done at the request of her family.

The young Indian found murdered beside Miss Winters was buried Saturday.

CAIRO, Egypt, Nov. 6.—(AP.)—Police released a Moslem Indian, Mohamed Ikram, after questioning him today in connection with the slaying of an American girl, Carol von Niedergesaess, also known as Joan Winters, at Jerusalem last Friday.

'NO WEDDING,' SAYS GARY

International News Service.

PHOENIX, Ariz., Nov. 6.—Gary Cooper, filmdom's most eligible bachelor, emphatically denied here today that he and Miss Sandra Shaw planned to be married in Arizona during a visit here.

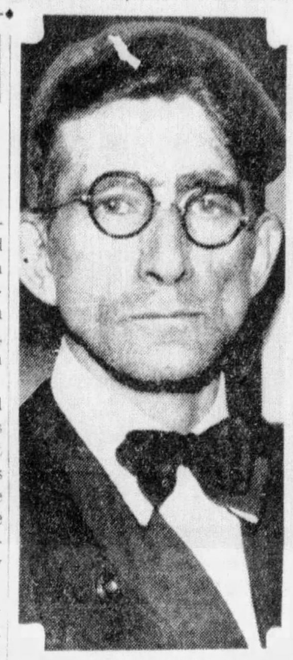
When questioned as to whether wedding bells were in the offing, Cooper declared:

"Absolutely not. I've no idea of getting married here. A gang of us decided we wanted to go some place and came to Phoenix where we plan to stay about a week. I understand there is some fine hunting near here and I plan to take advantage of it."

Clara Bow Removes Dietrich Kidnap Bars

HOLLYWOOD, Nov. 6.—(INS.)—Clara Bow doesn't fear kidnapers. She moved today into the home formerly occupied by Marlene Dietrich, exotic German actress, and the flaming haired Clara declared:

"The first thing I'm going to do is to take down the iron bars from the windows. They keep out the fresh air."



ROY A. MULL, 43

ELMER MULL, 19

Prisoner Mulls—held as suspicious persons—pictured at Central Police Station as police sought by questioning them to throw light on the Schwickrath girl's slaying. These are Sun-Telegraph pictures.

SCARS AND RING IDENTIFY GIRL

The identification of the morgue's "mystery girl" as Margaret Schwickrath was due in part to the insistence of Morgue Supt. John Black that she was the country type.

Supt. Black—once a farm boy—turned down all identifications which made the murder victim a city girl. He insisted:

"This girl is the hard-working farm sort."

The proofs of identity were these:

A scar on the girl's left leg, made, said her brother John, when she was pinched between two mine wagons when a child.

A scar caused by the removal of her appendix.

A ring, which the brother identified as one given to Margaret by Roman Schein, a sailor with whom she corresponded, but never had met.

Her general appearance.

Her brother produced three bills for dental work which had been sent to Margaret. Dr. J. W. McMeans reported that he had seen no signs of dentures in the girl's mouth when he conducted the autopsy.

Two years ago Margaret had a baby, which died three months after birth. Dr. McMeans found no evidence that the mystery girl had borne a child, but he said this was not conclusive.

Slain Girl's Tragic Life Related by Her Brother

Story of Hard Work, Sordid Triangle Told to Police

The story of his sister Margaret's life which John Schwickrath gave detectives today was quite another tale from the hectic account of underworld life which had been fastened on the morgue's "mystery girl."

She was born and reared at Haydenville, he said, and had worked since she was strong enough to weed a corn patch or help with the housework.

Her father died in 1916 and her mother in 1925. She had tried since her mother's death to keep the old homestead as a home for herself and the brother, he said.

John left and a short time later—about a year ago—the girl went to live with the Mulls at their log cabin in "The Onion."

There were quarrels and Mrs. Mull left, according to the story the sleuths say was told them. The girl and Mull stayed on, police declared the neighbors say, and finally Mrs. Mull returned. In March this year the three came to Pittsburgh.

Mrs. Mull and Margaret found work at the Freid and Reineman packing plant. Margaret was employed there until the day she disappeared.

PLAN TO X-RAY SLAIN GIRL

Science was to be called in today to make certain of the identification of the "mystery girl" found murdered near Verona last Monday.

To check up on dental work which had been performed on the teeth of Margaret Schwickrathe, X-rays were to be taken of the jaws of the body at the morgue.

While detectives were certain that the girl was Margaret, Dr. J. W. Means was equally certain his examination had revealed no dental work.

Since it was impossible to open the jaws, Chief County Detective George Murren decided to settle the moot point with X-ray photos.

Settle Preparing Stratosphere Hop

CHICAGO, Nov. 6.—(INS.)—Lieut. Commander T. G. W. Settle today ordered his ground crews to stand ready for the takeoff of his balloon flight into the stratosphere tonight.

Weather indications are favorable for the flight, the Navy balloonist announced after consulting weather charts.

COHAN 'CAPTIVE' IN THEATER

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Nov. 6.—(AP.)—George M. Cohan, theatrical star, spent considerable time yesterday inspecting Faunce House Theater at Brown University. He spent at least an hour more than he and his hosts intended.

Here to visit George M. Cohan, Jr., a freshman at Brown, Cohan was being shown through Faunce House by Dr. Bruce M. Bigelow, director of admissions, and Prof. Ben W. Brown of the english department. Dennis J. O'Brien, a New York lawyer, was with the party.

As the group sat down for a chat in an ante-room, the wind blew the door shut. A spring lock kept it shut. The building was deserted and Dr. Bigelow finally had to climb out of a window for assistance to release his guests.

Notre Dame Head Goes to Hospital

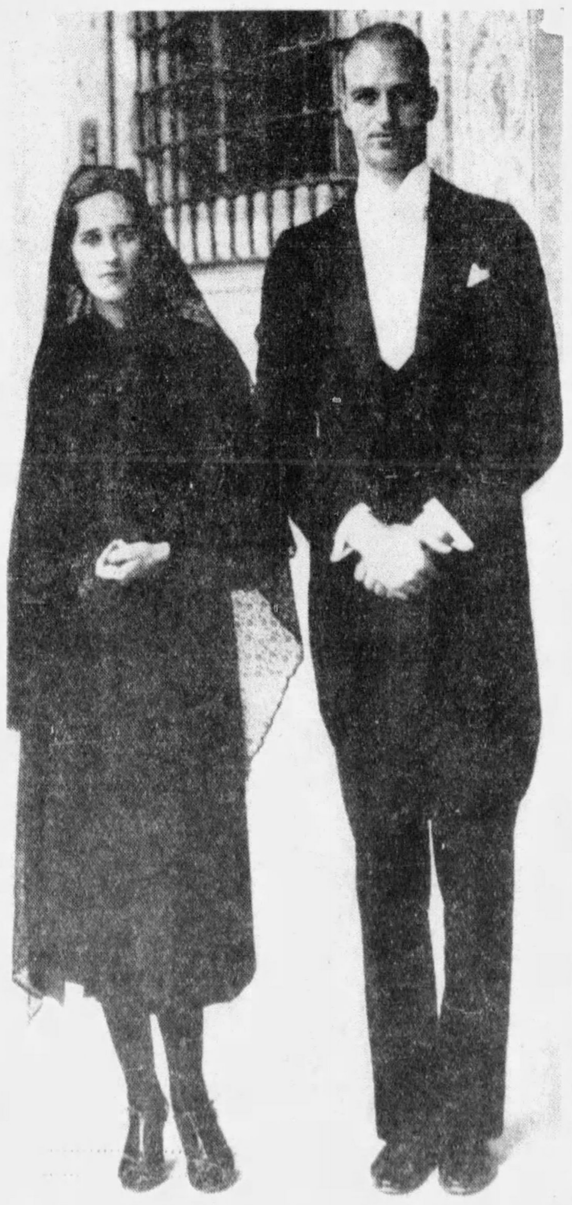
CHICAGO, Nov. 6.—(INS.)—The Rev. Charles L. O'Donnell, C. S. C., president of Notre Dame University, was en route to the Mayo Clinic at Rochester, Minn., today for treatment of a serious throat ailment.

Roosevelt Visits Art Gallery Exhibit

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—(INS.)—Prompted by the presence of two new exhibits, President Roosevelt spent almost an hour at the Cocoran Art Gallery here yesterday before it was open to the public.

He was especially interested in the exhibit of etchings, paintings and drawings of the late Gari Melcher, an exhibit of handicraft of southern mountaineers.

Roosevelts at Vatican



THE JAMES ROOSEVELTS . . . PICTURED AT THE VATICAN

The Roosevelts, son and daughter-in-law of the President, as they entered the Vatican for a private audience with His Holiness Pope Pius XI. Notice Mrs. Roosevelt's dress, the prescribed audience costume. This is an International News Photograph Service picture.

Fiance Absent, So Chinese Bride Weds Rooster

CANTON, China, Nov. 6.—(AP.)—A wedding in which a pretty Cantonese girl married a rooster was solemnized today.

Although her fiance, Shih Kwang Tung, was living in Singapore, the girl's parents decided her marriage must be performed while they were still alive.

Accordingly, a graceful appearing bird from a neighboring poultry farm was selected to act as the bridegroom.

All of the elaborate ritual accompanying an old-fashioned Chinese marriage was observed while the beautiful bride, 18 years old, received the congratulations of friends, and the rooster must remain her "husband."

Mary McCormic to Wed Ann Harding's 'Ex'

International News Service.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—"He is the one great romance of my life."

So Mary McCormic, dynamic Texas operatic star, characterized Harry Bannister, stage and screen actor and former husband of Ann Harding. The theatrical world today awaited the first tinkle of the wedding bells.

Just before boarding a plane for Bridgeport, Conn., in company with Bannister, Miss McCormic said:

"He's my fiance. I'm going to change my California suit against Prince Serge Mdivani from one for separate maintenance to one for divorce.

"Why? Well, I have found again the man I should have married in 1923. He is the one great romance of my life."

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., Nov. 6.—(AP.)—Reports that he was engaged to Mary McCormic were denied today by Harry Bannister.

He said:

"That is absurd. Miss McCormic hasn't even received her divorce. We are not engaged nor have we any such intentions."

Bannister explained he flew to Bridgeport yesterday with the opera singer because both were to appear on the same program.

THE WEATHER

Local Forecast.

Fair tonight and Tuesday, somewhat warmer Tuesday. Lowest temperature tonight between 30 and 35 degrees.

Hourly Temperatures.

12 midnight	39	9 a. m.	37
1 a. m.	39	10 a. m.	37
2 a. m.	40	11 a. m.	38
3 a. m.	40	12 noon	39
4 a. m.	39	1 p. m.	40
5 a. m.	38	2 p. m.	41
6 a. m.	38	3 p. m.	42
7 a. m.	37
8 a. m.	37

Sunrise today, 6:57. Sunset today, 5:10.

Observations for the 24 hours ended at 8 o'clock this morning:

Time	Temp.	Hum.	Wind	Weather
8 a. m.	37	93	NW 7	Cloudy

Temperature and Precipitation.

	1932	1931	1930	1929	1928	1927	1926	1925
High	61	40	35	53	58	54	56	53
Low	41	32	27	36	46	29	37	42
Mean	51	36	31	44	51	42	46	48
Precip.	.00	.01	.00	.00	.00	.01	.04	.00

Bulletin.

Observations taken by the United States Weather Bureau. The morning temperature readings were taken at 8 o'clock. The lowest temperature is for 12 hours ended at 8 o'clock this morning. Precipitation is for 24 hours ended at 8 o'clock this morning.

Station	Temp. 8 am	Temp. L.	Pre. cip.	Station	Temp. 8 am	Temp. L.	Pre. cip.
Atlanta	50	48	.10	Louisville	40	38	.00
Atl. City	44	42	1.12	Lynchburg	40	38	.20
Bismark	30	20	.16	Memphis	42	42	.00
Boise	42	28	.00	Miami	72	70	.00
Boston	30	30	.01	Minneapls	32	28	.08
Brwnsvle	68	68	.78	Montgmry	54	54	.00
Buffalo	30	26	.02	Nashville	42	42	.00
Cnatnga.	50	50	.01	N Orleans	54	54	.00
Chicago	36	36	.01	New York	40	32	.48
Cincinnati	36	36	.30	Oklahoma	34	34	.00
Clevelnd.	40	34	.28	Omaha	28	28	.00
Columbs	36	34	.12	Parkersbg	38	38	.54
Denver	20	20	.00	Parry Sd	22	22	.00
Des Mes.	36	34	.16	Pdelphia	38	34	.00
Detroit	34	32	.02	PITTSBG	36	36	.80
Duluth	24	24	.02	St. Louis	36	36	.00
Elkins	40	40	.96	S L City	28	26	.00
Harisbg	42	32	.36	San Ant.	48	48	.00
Helena	32	24	.02	San Fran	52	52	.00
Huron	18	16	.01	Seattle	42	40	.00
Indnpolis	38	36	.08	Tampa	68	68	.00
Jksonvile	60	60	.01	Washtn	38	36	.64
Kan. City	34	34	.02	Winnipeg	26	20	.04
Little Rk	46	46	.00	YstownPk	24	22	.00
Los Ang	56	52	.00

River Conditions.

The rivers are rising slightly. Stage at Franklin is 0.2 foot. Lock No. 7, Mon. 11.9; Pittsburgh, 9.9. Dam No. 1, 9.0; No. 6, 7.5; No. 10, 8.8; and No. 12, 7.4. The dams are up. The rivers will continue to rise slowly.

In Today's Want Ads—

Jane—"Where do you get all the new clothes?"

Mary—"It's very simple. I found a good dressmaker through Sun-Telegraph want ads.

You, too, can find a good dressmaker by turning to today's want ads for address of those listed below:

DRESSMAKING, coats lined, dress $2, men's suits, coats $2, fur coats $5.

DRESSMAKING, alterations, remodeling, coats relined, 1st class work.

DRESSES, $3.50; coats relined, $2.50; alterations, 1st class work, ref.

DRESSES, $2.50; coats lined, $2; alterations, first class work.

DRESSMAKING, alterations, dresses, coats, furs, hats, very reasonable.

EXCLUSIVE dressmaking and evening gowns.

DRESSMAKING, alterations, linings, draperies, $2.50 pair.

Link Woman Spy Suspect To London Tower Case

International News Service.

HELSINGFORS, Nov. 6.—Mrs. Mary Louise Martin, international spy suspect first described by police as a Canadian and then as an American, today was believed to be the mysterious "Marie Louise" sensationally linked in England's "Tower of London" case several months ago.

In the London court-martial of Lieut. Norman Baillie-Stewart, officer of the Seaforth Highlanders, long kept a solitary prisoner in the gloomy Tower of London, it was alleged he turned over secret British military documents to one "Marie Louise," then described as a "German girl."

Finnish secret police now have discovered that their educated woman prisoner, suspected of playing a leading role in an international spy ring, had American, Canadian and Finnish passports, all under different names.

She is said to have been born in a little Latvian town, the daughter of a peasant. Her recent activities were traced to Estonia and Latvia, and the Estonian police, at the request of Finnish authorities, have arrested several of her immediate relatives in Reval.

Police declared that, as a leader of a "league of espionage," she has had frequent dealings in Latvia, Russia, Estonia, Germany, France, Switzerland and Scandanavian countries.

CITY AND STATE AWAIT FATE OF BLUE LAWS

Voters of Pittsburgh and every municipality, borough and township in the state tomorrow will decide whether or not its residents want Sunday football and baseball. A local referendum ballot will be given each voter, along with candidate ballots and ballots for the various amendments to the constitution.

A majority of "yes" means the lifting of the restrictions of 1794 to permit commercial or non-commercial football or baseball between the hours of 2 and 6 p. m.

Unlike the other amendments up for vote, the changing of the Blue Laws is up to each community. Throughout the state, sportsmen, clergymen, and thousands of interest spectators are supporting the change.

Declaring that the old argument that the church must be protected is answered in this referendum, the Rev. Dr. Frank Edwin Smith, pastor of the First Unitarian Church, today said:

"I have always been for the repeal of the Blue Laws. And I am going to support the repeal at the polls Tuesday."

He said the Blue Laws are not fair, adding:

"They permit many people who care for a certain kind of enjoyment, such as motoring, a chance to secure it, and prevent others from attaining a different kind which they want."

In signing the legislation giving communities the right to decide the issue, Gov. Pinchot said:

"The Bible specifically lays down the principle that the Sabbath was made for man and not man for the Sabbath. I believe the principle is wide enough to cover healthy outdoor recreation on Sunday afternoons."

Upholding the Blue Laws are several church groups, headed by the Rev. R. H. Martin, president of the National Reform Association.

National Reform President Scores Blue Law Repeal

By DR. R. H. MARTIN

President National Reform Association.

Tomorrow under a referendum required by the recent change in the Pennsylvania Sabbath Law, the electors throughout Pennsylvania will vote on whether we shall legalize commercial baseball and football between 2 p. m. and 6 p. m. on the Lord's Day.

There are many reasons why, I believe, the electors should vote against these Sunday sports, but I am willing to rest the whole case against them on the single point that follows:

Throughout our entire American history we have set apart the first day of the week for character building. The other days of the week we devote to making a livelihood. Recognizing the vital importance of a high standard of character among the people in a republic, we have not only set apart this one day for this high task, but to give character-building agencies an opportunity to function to the best advantages on this day we have required the ordinary labor and business of other days to suspend.

WORK OF CHURCH

Our greatest character-building institution is the church. By its services of worship, by its instruction in morals with religious sanction on the Lord's Day, it contributes enormously to building the character of the people and thereby lessens crime, promotes the public peace and morals and contributes to the stability of the nation.

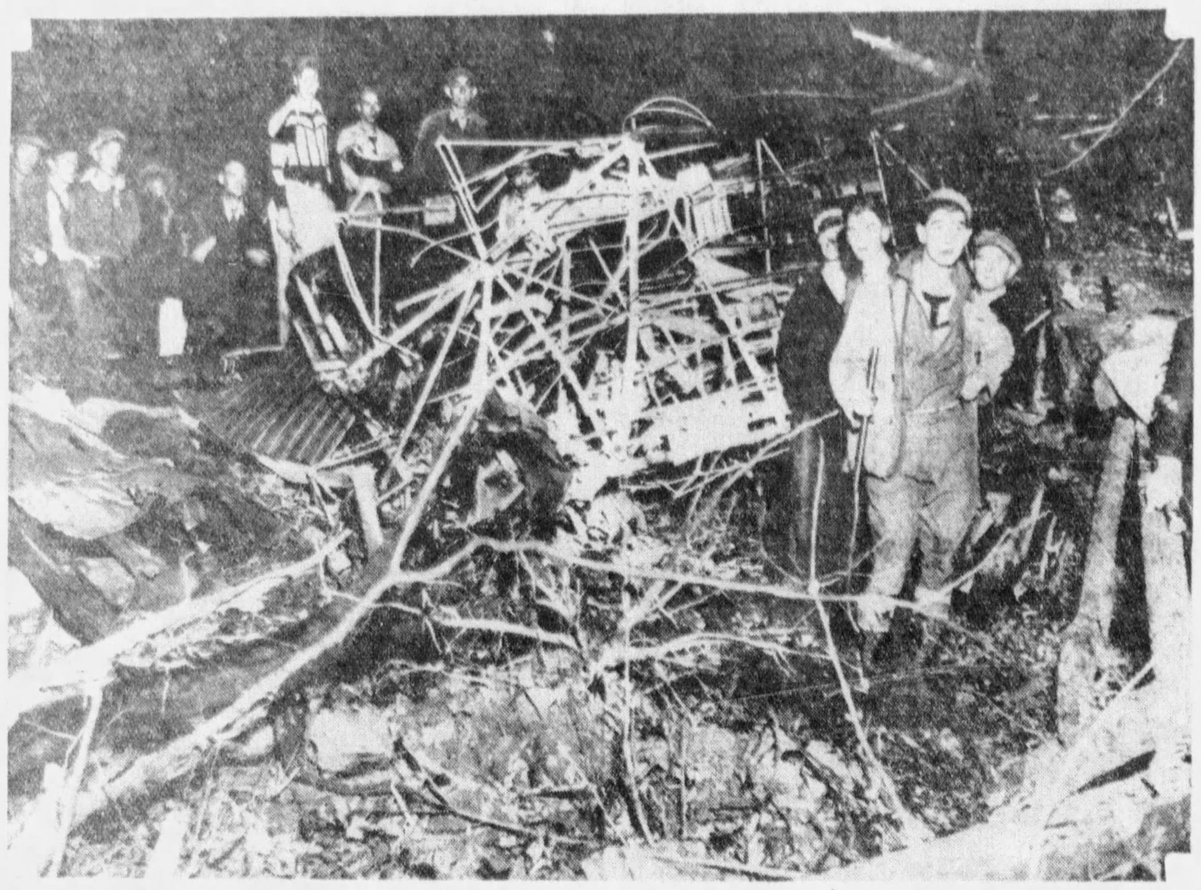
This inestimable service it renders to the community and nation without public expense. The entire cost is provided by those who voluntarily support the church. Although it benefits the whole people, not one cent in taxes is levied to provide it. Think of what this service would cost the public were it provided by taxation as is the service rendered by our public schools.

In 1926 the United States government took a religious census. According to the Bureau of Census the value of the church edifices of the United States at that year was $5,839,500,610 and the total expenditures of the churches for that year in this character-building work was $817,214,528.

SELFISHNESS CHARGED

In view of this unselfish character-building service which the non-profit institution, the church, is rendering to the nation should it not be allowed to have the right-of-way on the one day of the week when it has power to reach the people? Is it not inconsiderate and selfish for those amusement interests which are not in business to build character but to make money, and which already have six days of the week to carry on their business, to ask that they be made a special privilege seven-day industry operating on the Lord's Day, and thus competing with the church for the patronage of the people in the service it is rendering society?

Wreckage of Army Plane Fatal to Two Fliers



THE WRECKED U. S. ARMY PLANE THAT CRASHED IN FLAMES AT MIDDLETOWN, PA. . . . TWO ARMY FLIERS MET DEATH mid-air. Hunters beat through the woods to find the two bodies. This is an International News Photograph Service picture.

The wreckage in which Lieut. Lloyd E. Hunting and Sergt. John J. Cunningham were killed when this plane exploded in shall be the next Mayor of Pittsburgh. Lawrence spoke in behalf of William N. McNair and the Democratic councilmanic ticket, while Herron asked for straight Republican votes.

TROOPERS TO GUARD ELECTION HERE

(Continued from Page One.)

Lawrence warned Democrats to be on guard against any attempt to steal votes during or after the polling tomorrow, declaring that the ballots must be closely watched from the time the polls opened until the ballot boxes finally are delivered at the Courthouse.

LAWRENCE STATEMENT

Lawrence said:

"In the primary election, the Mellon-Coyne machine supporting Herron spent large sums of money for billboard, radio and newspaper advertising, in addition to the huge amounts spent for watchers and workers at the polls on election day.

"But when they went into the general election campaign, they changed their strategy. Instead of buying time on the air or advertising space with newspapers or billboard concerns, they have been hoarding up their financial resources so as to be ready tomorrow morning with the biggest slush fund ever raised for the purpose of buying an election.

"Whether or not they will succeed in their plans to corrupt thousands of the voters of this city, whether machine lieutenants with their pockets filled with cash will be able to nullify the thousands of votes that will be cast tomorrow by the decent citizenship of this community, depends entirely in what numbers the men and women of Pittsburgh go to the polls.

APPEALS TO VOTERS

"With all their money, with all their knowledge of ballot box corruption, there are only so many thousand votes that can be bought or corrupted. They cannot buy or steal this election if the people who are against the Republican machine go to the polls tomorrow and vote and then spend the rest of the day seeing that their friends do likewise.

"And if you believe in the fundamental principles of the National Recovery Act, in the permanent abolishment of child labor, in the permanent outlawing of the price cutter and wage cutter in industry and commerce, in the permanent banning of the sweatshop and in making permanent all the other temporary gains that have been secured by the proclamation of Franklin D. Roosevelt, under the National Recovery Act, be sure to vote for the party that can be counted upon to support President Roosevelt in the critical months that are ahead when the reactionaries of finance, commerce, industry and politics will endeavor to bring about a return to the so-called era of rugged individualism—and that party, my friends, is the Democratic party."

HERRON APPEAL

Herron made a short review of the Republican record, but devoted most of his speech in headquarters at Room 10 to a demand that Republican workers should get out the vote as the best defense to the strenuous Democratic attack which has marked the campaign.

Answering McNair's claim that the public utilities paid nothing in taxation, the Mayor said that they paid $594,671 in city and school taxes, and that the railroads pay $2,406,774 in city and school taxes.

The Mayor and Councilman W. Y. English will wind up the Republican campaign with addresses over Station WCAE at 9 p. m.

Mr. Lawrence and other Democratic speakers will speak over various stations at different times beginning at 6:30, with the final appeal slated for 10:30.

SLANDER, SAYS ENGLISH

At the Republican noonday meeting, Councilman English deplored the fact that "we have never before had so much vicious, downright wicked slander in a political campaign." He expressed the confidence that:

"The Republican voters of Pittsburgh will not be deceived by the noise and ballyhoo of our Democratic opposition."

Headquarters of both parties were alive today with workers getting their last-minute instructions. Republicans will have six watchers at each polling place because of the fact that all of their candidates are also on the Citizens party ticket. Each party has been granted the right to have three watchers to a district.

Elaborate preparations have been made to guard the polls tomorrow and to secure prompt delivery of the ballot boxes.

Judges of the Common Pleas Court, in addition to sitting during the time the polls are open, probably will remain on the bench far into the night to receive and act upon any complaints of improper conduct of election boards or politicians after the balloting ends.

COMPLAINT COMMITTEE

A bi-partisan committee of six lawyers, three named by the Republicans and three by the Democrats, will be in the Court House throughout the day to handle complaints.

Register of Wills Joseph N. Mackrell, who is serving on the Democratic strategy board, today warned against voting the straight Democratic ticket. He urged Democrats to mark a cross beside the name of each candidate, as a single cross in the party column opens the way for corrupt election boards to favor other candidates during the count. He warned that the election would be closely watched for cheating.

United States District Attorney H. S. Dumbauld has taken a hand in the election, the fact that the state will vote on repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment bringing it within the Federal scope. In a warning issued Saturday and renewed today he said that Federal authorities would be on the alert to insure honesty in the polling and the count.

Thomas D. Malone, president of the Police Veterans Association, today denied that his organization had indorsed McNair. Malone, after a meeting of the association yesterday, said that only 23 out of 308 members had participated in the approval of McNair, expressed some time ago.

Malone said the veterans would repudiate this approval by their votes Tuesday.

The bi-partisan lawyers' committee this afternoon warned election officers that they must bring ballot boxes to the prothonotary's office as soon as the count is completed.

MARTIN SEES G. O. P. VICTORY

HARRISBURG, Nov. 6.—Gen. Edward Martin, Republican state chairman, yesterday said late reports on the party's prospects in Tuesday's elections are "even brighter than those of a week ago and we can look forward to Republican successes all over the state."

In a final letter to county and city committee chairmen, he said:

"All over the nation Republicans are looking to us as a leader in the movement for straight party tickets. What you have been doing has had a remarkable effect in every portion of the state and by carrying your activity up to the time the polls close you will give conclusive evidence that Pennsylvania stands the bulwark of Republicanism in a year of vast importance to our party.

"Tell your people a straight Republican ticket on November 7 is the greatest safeguard for the voter, your community, your county and your commonwealth."

Roosevelt to Keep Welles in Cuba

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—(INS.)—President Roosevelt decided today to keep Ambassador Sumner Welles in Cuba indefinitely because of the critical political situation.

Welles had been slated to return to Washington and go to the Pan-American Congres at Montevideo, but his place will be taken in the delegation by Jefferson Caffrey, Assistant Secretary of State.

4 ISSUES LEAD VOTE INTEREST

(Continued from Page One.)

and township decides only for itself on this question.

The repeal ballot has two vertical lists of 15 candidates for delegates to a convention to carry out the will of all the voters of the state on this question. Above one list are the words "Delegates Favor Ratification," with beneath that in parenthesis the word "Repeal," which makes the situation absolutely clear. Above the other list are the words "Delegates Oppose Ratification," with beneath that in parentheses the words "Against Repeal." Actually the vote is whether the new Twenty-first Amendment, which repeals the Eighteenth, shall be approved, but to avoid any doubt the words "Repeal" and "Against Repeal" have been placed on the ballot.

'VOTE FOR 15'

In either column beneath the lists of 15 rival delegates are 15 blank lines. The voter may write in the name of any person he prefers to one of those listed. Then he must mark a cross after the individual names, being sure that he does not vote for more than 15. To vote for more than 15 will invalidate the ballot. For instance, if the voter writes in one name he should vote for only 14 of those listed.

To write in names, however, is to complicate the vote and to serve no good purpose. The personalities of the candidates are of no importance, as all are pledged to vote either for or against repeal, and there will be practically no deliberation or discussion to their action when they meet in convention December 5. The simple way to vote on this question is with a single cross at the head of the column you prefer.

3 SEE VICTORY IN NEW YORK

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—(AP.)—The New York City mayoral campaign closed today after an uproarious three-cornered race fought out amid the uncertainties of national political cross currents and the confusion of tangled party allegiances.

A banker, a Tammany politician and the son of an immigrant Italian bandmaster are the principals.

Tomorrow, some 2,300,000 voters will choose among Joseph V. McKee, independent Democrat running on the ticket of the "Recovery Party;" Mayor John P. O'Brien, the regular Democratic nominee, and former Representative Fiorello H. LaGuardia, Progressive Republican, on the fusion ticket.

All three candidates laid claim to victory. LaGuardia said he would win by a 650,000 majority. Mayor O'Brien put his margin of victory at 499,000, while McKee predicted his election by 300,000 votes.

ACHESON BACKS THOMPSON

M. W. Acheson, Jr., prominent member of the Allegheny County Bar, issued a statement today indorsing the candidacy of A. Marshall Thompson, one of the Democratic nominees for Common Pleas Court, on the basis that there should be a greater representation of the minority party on the bench than is the case at present. Mr. Acheson's statement follows:

"Ever since the adoption in 1873 of the Constitution of Pennsylvania, there has been provision looking to a bi-partisan Supreme Court. This principle of the State Constitution gives emphasis to the circumstance that of the 23 judges in Allegheny County, 22 are Republicans. Here is a situation, then, it seems to me, that makes vitally important the candidacy for the Common Pleas bench of A. Marshall Thompson, Esq., dean of the Pittsburgh Law School and a very distinguished Democratic member of the Allegheny County Bar.

"Thus in addition to Mr. Thompson's outstanding qualifications, after all the fact that he is a Democrat is a reason why he ought to be on the bench in Allegheny County."

Roosevelt Confers On Power Argument

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—(INS.)—President Roosevelt, Attorney General Cummings and Huston Thompson, attorney, conferred today over phases of the New River power controversy involving the government's opposition to the appeal of the Appalachian Power Company for a rehearing in the Circuit Court of Appeals at Richmond.

The New River case has been in dispute for several years. It involves an effort on the part of the Appalachian Electric Power Company to construct a hydro-electric plant on New River.

FOR A QUICK MIDNIGHT LUNCH

You can get all kinds of dairy products — as well as bread, cake, cookies, cold meats, cheese, coffee, potato salad, pickles, etc. — for a meal at midnight, or any time. Isaly's are open early and late—day in and day out.

Let's go to ISALY'S

PRONOUNCED EYES'-LEES

(Political Advertisement)

The neglected, dependent and delinquent children of Allegheny County need the protection of a Juvenile Court free from political control.

GUSTAV L. SCHRAMM

Is Trained, Experienced and Qualified to be

JUDGE of the Juvenile Court

He has been endorsed by social workers, women's groups, the bar association, labor unions, church organizations and editorially by the Pittsburgh Post-Gazette, the Pittsburgh Sun-Telegraph and the Pittsburgh Press.

Vote for

Gustav L. Schramm

Second name on the ballot under Juvenile Court

The Greatest Radio Values ever offered!

NRA

all new 1934 models

ATWATER KENT RADIO

THEIR TRUTHFUL tone makes every broadcast more enjoyable, more real than ever before. And the quality workmanship of Atwater Kent gives you years of freedom from disorders and repairs — lasting radio satisfaction. Buy this dependable radio that millions have proved. And buy it while prices are still at their present low levels now at SPEAR'S!

TRADE IN YOUR OLD RADIO!

Convenient Terms—75c Weekly

FOR FREE HOME TRIAL

Mail coupon if you cannot call at the store

SPEAR'S

Headquarters for ATWATER KENT Radios

OPEN MONDAY NIGHT

7-Tube Superhet in a handsome 6-leg Cabinet. A FULL-sized, FULL-performance ATWATER KENT for 1934 reception—now..... 69.50

5-Tube Superhet in a beautiful cabinet of figured walnut. GETS POLICE CALLS. With large-size Speaker and Automatic Volume Control. Full, rich, TRUTHFUL tone. 34.90

SPEAR & CO.
915 PENN AVE.
PITTSBURGH, PA.

I am interested in learning more about the new Atwater Kent models, and should like further information.

NAME .....
STREET .....
TOWN .....

SPEAR'S Invites You to ★ Try the Worlds most famous Mattress

Through a Special Arrangement With the Simmons Company You Can Test the

SIMMONS BEAUTYREST

for 30 Nights at Our Expense!

Nationally Advertised at 39.50

All the beauty treatments, all the facials in the world won't erase the "tired" lines from your face if you aren't getting the proper rest... and proper rest means rest that really relaxes you, helps you start the day with vitality... the kind that Beautyrest is built to give. 837 tiny coils, each encased in its own muslin pocket, conforming to the contour of your body, do the trick. Start your "beauty" rest tonight. If at the end of thirty nights you aren't satisfied, we'll refund your money and destroy the mattress. Could anything be fairer?

Use Our Convenient Payment Plan

SPEAR'S

Downtown: 911-921 Penn Ave.—East Liberty: Broad & Collins

BOTH STORES OPEN TONIGHT UNTIL 9:30

Beware! Bad Bugs Lurk In Political Handshake

DETROIT, Nov. 6.—(AP.)—Now that election time is here again in many states, Dr. Bert Estabrook wishes to warn Mr. John K. Public that lurking in the hands of politicians are things worse than campaign cigars. The doctor said:

"Bugs! Millions of bugs!"

Being deputy commissioner of health, he feels duty bound to warn the voters and their bosses against the political handshake, explaining:

"Politicians as politicians are all right, but they are potential disease carriers, because of their handshaking exposure to the good old public."

Bound by time-honored tradition to extend the brotherly paw to everybody, politicians pass along lots of fierce germ diseases, such as:

Streptococcus hemolyticus, streptococcus viridans, staphylococcus aureus, meningococcus, pneumococcus, micrococcus catarrhalis, bacillus influenzae, strangely enough not to mention some things harder to spell.

The doctor thought politicians might adopt the Chinese custom. When a candidate grasps a prospective balloter, he could clasp his hands together, shake hands with himself, bow low, exchange pleasantries and cigars.

STATE EXPECTS 4,000,000 TO VOTE

HARRISBURG, Nov. 6.—(AP.)—With a potential vote of almost 4,000,000, Pennsylvania tomorrow will pass upon repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment, modification of its 139-year-old Sunday laws, state bond issues and elect municipal officials.

Normally an "off" year, the 1933 election gains an unusual importance through the selection of delegates to the state's repeal convention and the local balloting on licensing of Sunday afternoon baseball and football.

These, with 12 constitutional amendments, which include bond issues totaling $85,000,000, are factors which raise this week's event far out of the usual class of odd-year elections in the state.

RECORD ENROLLMENT

Final registration - enrollment figures show 3,999,278—an increase of more than 20,000 over the previous record set in 1928—are qualified to vote tomorrow. Republicans with 2,185,182 listed, hold a wide majority but the Democrats, with over a million for the first time in history, have increased their total to 1,087,890.

The number of ballots cast in the election will depend largely upon the weather and the interest aroused by the issues in the rural districts.

Registration in cities declined from last year while the borough and county enrollment mounted. This places an unusually large portion of the current enrollment in the rural districts, where the vote usually is light.

Activity of the Pennsylvania State Grange against repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment is regarded by observers as one factor which may swell the upstate vote this year. The continuation of economy and taxpayers' organizations' drive on state and municipal expenses is another. Rural opposition to changes in the Sunday laws of 1794 is a third.

The recent legislative history of the Sunday law modification movement revealed the strong opposition to the change more than the pre-election activities which have been largely under the surface.

LEGISLATURE BATTLE

Philadelphia and Allegheny County legislators battled a reluctant House to get a Blue Law bill through in 1931, only to see the Senate kill it.

Victory in the House came easier this year, but modificationists were compelled to let the Senate rewrite their measure before it passed that house in a form eventually signed by Gov. Pinchot.

Opponents of repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment have continued their campaigns quietly, but many share the belief, expressed by Gov. Pinchot, a lifelong dry, that repeal is inevitable.

Pinchot, long a spokesman of Pennsylvania drys, announced he would vote against repeal, but said the principal objective of drys now should be to establish control legislation to keep liquor "out of politics."

Wet leaders predict a Pennsylvania majority of two or three to one in favor of repeal.

The vote will be on the election of 15 delegates-at-large to a state convention which meets December 5 to cast Pennsylvania's official ballot in the national poll. The names of 15 drys and 15 wets appear on the ballot.

Of the 12 constitutional amendments, that providing a $25,000,000 bond issue for state expenses has been discussed most widely.

STATE-WIDE CAMPAIGNS

Gov. Pinchot and administration officials have made it the subject of state-wide campaigns in which they emphasized that $20,000,000 of the proceeds will be used for state aid to those out of work and $5,000,000 will go to state-aided colleges and hospitals.

Other amendments provide a bond issue of $50,000,000 for a soldiers' bonus, a bond issue of $10,000,000 to purchase toll bridges, increased borrowing capacity for all counties and elimination of payment of taxes as a qualification for voting.

Foremost among the municipal elections are those of Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, Scranton and Wilkes-Barre, where independent Republicans have shown tendencies of bolting to Democratic candidates.

Four vacancies in the State House of Representatives—two in Pittsburgh, one in Philadelphia and one in Lancaster County—and one in the United States House of Representatives—from the Lehigh-Bucks district—will be filled.

MILLER URGES METRO PLAN

The justice of the peace system was attacked upon grounds of inefficiency and crookedness today by Joseph T. Miller, chairman of the Committee on the Metropolitan Plan for Allegheny County, in answering a whispering campaign that passage of amendment No. 11 tomorrow would mean another burden on the taxpayer.

Miller, who explained that passage of the amendment decides nothing finally, charged:

"There can be no question about the inefficiency and crookedness of the present justice of the peace system. Taxpayers of Allegheny County have been defrauded of thousands of dollars by the activities of some crooked justices and constables who have faked costs on discharged cases."

Passage of the amendment, Miller explained, gives the Legislature, or a commission it might appoint, the right to draft a charter for submission to the voters at another election.

Texas Guinan: She Died After a Final Wisecrack

THE LATEST PICTURE OF TEXAS GUINAN

MISS GUINAN PICTURED AS SHE EXHORTED A SERVICE CLUB RECENTLY

Miss Guinan, who died on a Canadian operating table, in one of her latest stunts: evangelizing in Aimee McPherson's temple.

FARLEY IN PLEA FOR REPEAL

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—(AP.)—Postmaster General James J. Farley last night appealed to the voters of the six states voting on repeal tomorrow to "end the wet-dry debate in 48 hours," prefacing his remarks with the prediction that national prohibition in the United States would end when the returns were tabulated.

He spoke over a national network of the Columbia Broadcasting system.

Addressing his speech to the voters of Pennsylvania, North Carolina, South Carolina, Ohio, Kentucky and Utah, Farley said the "victory for repeal is a victory for sanity, sound sense and good morals."

He declared the return of the "open saloon" would be barred under the new regulatory systems.

In all the debate about repeal, he said, there has been only one argument against it—"the unfounded charge that it would mean the return of the open saloon."

MOLEY LAUDS SCHRAMM

High praise was given Gustav L. Schramm, Democratic candidate for Juvenile Court judge, by Prof. Raymond Moley, former assistant secretary of state, who spoke Saturday night at the Amen Corner banquet. Moley said his estimate of Schramm was based on an acquaintance of years. He said:

"One place in government more than any other must be free of politics, and that is our courts, especially children's courts. Moreover, they must be headed by able and humane judges. Gustav Schramm would be such a judge, and Pittsburgh owes it to itself to elect him. I have known him for years. He is an able man, an enlightened scholar and a socially-minded and humane lawyer."

William McClurg Donley, candidate for county surveyor, also indorsed Schramm today, at the same time asking votes for himself.

Look for the TRADE MARK

CITY STUDENTS HOLD ELECTION

All the trimmings except the rush to count the votes were present today in the election held by pupils of Pittsburgh schools.

The candidates were the same as those to be voted on tomorrow by the electors. There were ballots, voting booths, check lists, return sheets, election boards and watchers.

But the vote won't be announced until Wednesday, school authorities announced. They didn't want the mock vote of the pupils to influence the casting of ballots in the real election tomorrow.

Sun-Telegraph ballots were used in elections held by the seventh and eighth grades of the Beechwood School.

Six States Will Vote On Repeal Tomorrow

Associated Press.

Six states decide tomorrow whether prohibition shall be expunged from the Federal Constitution the first week in December.

The Roosevelt administration confidently believes it will. Postmaster General Farley predicting in New York that "this great victory will be completed Tuesday."

But Mrs. Henry W. Peabody, chairman of the Women's National Committee for Law Enforcement, asserted that the women "can win if they'll go to the polls and vote against repeal."

The states balloting are Pennsylvania, Ohio, North and South Carolina, Utah and Kentucky. Only three need to elect a majority of anti-prohibition delegates to state conventions set for December.

Other questions, too, will be considered. New York and New Jersey elect members to the state assemblies, now controlled by Republicans. New York City chooses a Mayor.

Virginia elects a Governor and a United States Senator; Kentucky, members of the Legislature; Ohio considers state repeal and old age pensions; Pennsylvania, unemployment relief.

Party lines were split in the Boston and Cleveland mayoralty elections, as in New York City.

DEFENDS BLIND AMENDMENT

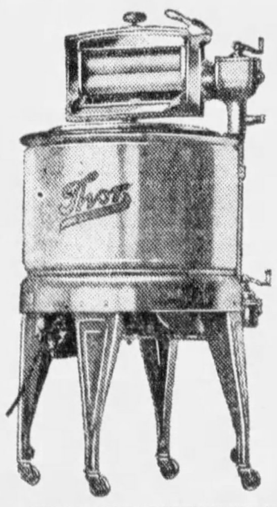
Amendment No. 1, empowering the Legislature to grant pensions to the blind, does not conflict with other relief legislation, or endanger the constitutionality of mothers' pension, H. F. Latimer, secretary's pensions, H. F. Latimer, secretary Association for the Blind, asserted today.

Latimer points out that the State Attorney General has ruled that the amendment does not affect other legislation or the consitutionality of other grants, contrary to the opinion of Richard J. Beamish, Secretary of the Commonwealth.

Dr. Marion McKay, president of the Allegheny County Civic Club, also emphasized this point in a speech favoring the amendment before the Hungry Club today.

Thor

COMBINATION SALE of Washer & Ironer



Both for Only— $74.50

Less Than ½ Price of this complete laundry equipment only a year ago

This THOR Rotary Speed Ironer will do your complete ironing in less than one-fourth the usual time. Think of it! Washer and Ironer, complete, for only 74.50. No more washday worries with this combination.

This Special Offer for a LIMITED TIME ONLY!

We urge you not to delay. This is a Special Offer for a short time only.

PHONE FOR HOME DEMONSTRATION

GAS AND ELECTRIC SHOPS

NRA

DOWNTOWN: 435 Sixth Ave., 613 and 427 Liberty Ave. GRant 7360

NORTH SIDE..... 519 Federal Stree
BRADDOCK.....620 Braddock Avenue
EAST PITTSBURGH...106 Electric Avenue
McKEESPORT.....224 Fifth Avenue

PIONEERS IN PUBLIC SERVICE

EAST LIBERTY.....6119 PENN AVENUE Hiland 6700

BEAVER FALLS....1317 Seventh Avenue
HOMESTEAD.....110 E. Eighth Avenue
BELLEVUE.....539 Lincoln Avenue
AMBRIDGE.....654 Merchant Street

NRA

DEALERS FIGHT GOV. PINCHOT'S LIQUOR PLAN

Wholesale and retail liquor dealers and hotel operators in the Pittsburgh district, today, were laying plans for consideration of Gov. Pinchot's state liquor dispensary program.

The plan, it was said by Frank L. Stein, president of the John R. Carmichael Company, wholesalers, would cost the people of Pennsylvania nearly $40,000,000 for which they would receive no return, and would effectively defeat the aims of repeal.

A committee of hotelmen will be in Harrisburg Friday to lay their objections to the plan before the Governor.

A committee of retail druggists, headed by I. G. Amsler, met yesterday, to discuss action to keep the package trade, which they have had since prohibition went into effect.

Both hotel men and druggists hope to persuade Pinchot to relinquish the dispensary plan before the special session without a public disagreement.

So far as anyone knows the dispensary plan at present calls for establishment of about 600 state-owned stores, Stein said. Should this dispensary be put into effect, he said, it soon would be discovered that 600 dispensaries cannot handle the trade. At least 3,000 would be necessary, in his opinion. He pointed to the high cost of running such places. He concluded:

"Establishment of state dispensaries would not give any more control than could be given by outlets already established. The wholesale trade has previously favored establishment of family liquor stores, with sales by the drink in hotels and restaurants. If this does not provide enough restrictions for the Governor, why shouldn't he turn the package trade over to the drug stores which have been handling it for 13 years, and which could be used effectively to control sales?

"The only thing that will end bootlegging is cheap, legal whisky, possible through an intelligent tax of not more $2 a gallon."

Jersey Governor To Run for Senate

JERSEY CITY, N. J., Nov. 6.—(AP.)—Mayor Frank Hague, state and county Democratic leader, announced yesterday that the party next year will put forth Judge William L. Dill for governor, and Gov. A. Harry Moore for United States Senator.

Moore would probably oppose Senator Hamilton F. Kean.

Women Drys' Leader Asks Last Stand

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—(AP.)—Mrs. Henry W. Peabody yesterday issued a call to the women of Ohio, Utah, North Carolina, South Carolina, Kentucky and Pennsylvania to save the drys from defeat in Tuesday's balloting on the Eighteenth Amendment.

The white-haired chairman of the Women's National Committee for Law Enforcement said:

"They could do it. I know they can win if they'll go to the polls and vote against repeal. And if women should lead such a last rally, wouldn't it be something for their children to remember!"

After 16 days of campaigning in Ohio, Mrs. Peabody came here to take what she termed her "last stand" for her cause. She said:

"My friends say to me, 'What's the point? It's gone!' Well, when my child was lying at the point of death, did I stop?"

Mrs. Peabody argued that four states remaining in the dry column would defeat immediate repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment and give the drys a chance to rally for further battle.

READ GIMBELS DOUBLE PAGE AD on PAGES 8 AND 9

GIMBELS
SIXTH AVENUE AT SMITHFIELD STREET

Treat Your Hair to new Loveliness

If your hair is a bit dull or drab, a bit coarse or stringy, lifeless, uneven in texture—if you permanent wave, dye, bleach, henna or set your hair—you need Lovalon to restore its virgin beauty and loveliness. Lovalon is something entirely new in hair beautifying—not a dye, not a bleach, not a rejuvenator.

Lovalon is a new kind of hair rinse. Take your choice from the twelve Lovalon shades, one to match each variation of the human hair. Lovalon brings a soft silk-like feel to the hair, and coats it with a lovely lustre. Try Lovalon today—you'll be delighted with the new kind of beauty it brings to your hair.

25c PACKAGE

TOILET GOODS STREET FLOOR

LOVALON

Twelve Checks

of unusual value

Of all the services that we are privileged to render, we can most heartily commend our One-Year Monthly Income plan.

After the death of the insured we deliver twelve checks, one every month for a year. A favorite amount is $100 monthly.

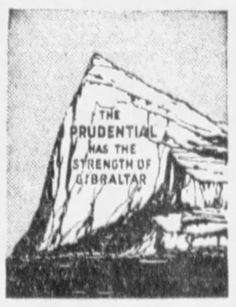
These ready dollars in that trying first year are beyond valuation. They furnish comfort and assurance; a chance to collect thoughts, revive courage and lay new plans.

The premium, paid once, twice or four times a year, runs about a nickel a day at age twenty, a dime in the early forties or a few cents more if you start later in life.

Larger amounts or longer periods can be arranged. A choice of policy forms is available. Premium referred to above is for "Endowment at Age 85."

Set up this safeguard for your home circle and they will never be caught unprepared. It will make an ideal supplement to your lump-sum insurance.

For particulars, ask a Prudential Man—or call up a Prudential Office



The Prudential

Insurance Company of America

EDWARD D. DUFFIELD, President

Home Office NEWARK, NEW JERSEY

7 LOSE LIVES IN NEW JERSEY PLANE CRASH

International News Service.

RED BANK, N. J., Nov. 6.—Four inquiries got under way today into one of the most unusual air tragedies recorded in the East, in which two New Jersey National Guard fliers and five Negroes met a flaming death when a plane piloted by Lieut. George R. Johnson, 32, and carrying Sergt. Alfred W. Poole, 35, crashed into a frame dwelling on the outskirts of this town, set it ablaze and trapped the fliers and the Negro victims.

Besides the fliers, the dead are Mrs. Margaret King, 28; her daughters, June, 7, and Patricia, 2; Cora Raglan, 25, the children's aunt, and Edward Wilson, 35, of Little Silver, N. J., a visitor at the house.

Johnson, co-leader of the Shippee-Johnson expedition which explored the Inca ruins of Peru in 1930-31, was an internationally famed aerial photographer and was formerly chief aerial photographer for the Peruvian navy. Poole had been a member of the air division of the New Jersey National Guard since its organization.

As the plane swung over a cluster of houses, it went into a side slip, plunged down and crashed through the rear wall of the two-story frame house. The ship tore away the bathroom walls, plunged through the flooring and dropped into the lower story, where the gasoline tank exploded and turned the building into an inferno.

Cause of the crash was uncertain as the four-way inquiry opened. State Commissioner of Aviation Gil Robb Wilson, who motored here from Trenton to take charge of the investigation, said he was convinced there was no mechanical defect in the plane despite statements of residents that the motor was heard sputtering as Johnson banked the ship.

Beside Wilson's probe, Maj. Robert Copsey, commanding the 44th Division, N. J. N. G., named a board of officers to investigate the crash. Department of Commerce inspectors also arrived to probe the crash and local police set the fourth inquiry in motion.

Three other persons were slightly injured a short time later when a plane piloted by John S. Whitney, amateur pilot and cousin of President Richard Whitney, of the New York Stock Exchange, crashed into a tree in a hailstorm.

He was carrying a newspaperman and a photographer from Roosevelt Field, Long Island, to cover the Johnson crash.

Student Aviatrix Killed in Crash

FRESNO, Cal., Nov. 6.—(AP.)—Six hours after she crashed while piloting an airplane over an abandoned airfield, Flo Ann Ross, 20, student flier of Los Angeles, died here last night from injuries.

Traffic Lights Forget to Go Green

The antics of downtown traffic lights that mystified autoists last night and early today were explained by Traffic Engineer Lewis W. McIntyre.

The lights changed from yellow to red, then back to yellow, he said, because of a shift in the system of regulating the time intervals of lights during rush hours. Heretofore this had been done by a traffic employe. Hereafter it will be automatically.

UNHAPPY, KILLS SELF, WIFE, SON

STEUBENVILLE, O., Nov. 6.—(AP.)—A man and his wife and their son were shot to death at Mingo, near here, yesterday in what Coroner Charles Wells said was double murder and suicide motivated by marital discord.

The dead were Simon Scott, 27, his wife, Ella, 25, and their son, Earl 3.

The family resided in a railroad camp car. Officers investigating the shooting, said Scott was shot twice in the neck and head, Mrs. Scott shot twice in the face and the child wounded in the back. A shotgun lay beside the man. Authorities said he had been drinking.

Scott filed a suit for divorce three months ago, but later became reconciled with his wife.

CHURCH HOLDS ANNIVERSARY

The thirtieth anniversary of the Episcopal Church of the Redeemer, Squirrel Hill, was celebrated yesterday morning.

The Rev. Dr. Robert Nelson Meade, rector, commented on the changes which have taken place in the community and in the world since the church was established. He declared individualism, which he defined as "promotion of self," must give way to individuality, which is "being one's self." Dr. Meade's text was "Let us run with patience the race that is before us."

Lives Century, Has No Code or Rules

CHICAGO, Nov. 6.—(AP.)—Mrs. Marie Lies Wiltgen will celebrate her 100th birthday anniversary next Saturday, and she hasn't any rules about how to live long.

Although she was born in Germany she never had a sip of beer, and she never went to a picture show, but neither fact she said, had anything to do with her good health.

YOUTHS STUDY EVANGELISM

Twenty-five training classes in personal evangelism will be conducted in Allegheny County tonight, tomorrow, Thursday and Friday nights as a part of the "Youth Win Youth for Christ" movement under direction of the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America, Pittsburgh Council of Churches and the Allegheny County Youth Council.

The program opened yesterday in Trinity Cathedral, when the Rev. Dr. Walter B. Greenway, president of Beaver College, was the principal speaker. Others were the Rev. Dr. J. Kirkwood Craig, general secretary of the Allegheny County Sabbath Association, and Prof. Baez Camargo, director of young people's work in Mexico for the World Sunday School Association.

A rally in the Shadyside Presbyterian Church November 26 will end the movement. The Rev. Dr. Hugh Thomson Kerr will speak.

Suspect in Theft Of Dresses Held

Accused of the theft of dresses valued at $300 from a dress shop at 6006 Center avenue, William Anderson, 42, who gave his address as Third avenue, was held for investigation by Magistrate William A. Means, yesterday in East End police court. Anderson was seen in the store after it had closed Saturday, Patrolman John Walker testified.

Elect Andrews Head Of Eppley Hotels Co.

F. L. Andrews, manager of the William Penn Hotel, has been elected vice president of the Eppley Hotels Company, President E. C. Eppley announced here yesterday. Andrews, who will continue his post here, is president of the Pittsburgh Hotel Men's Association.

Women of Moose Lodge Plan Party

A bingo party will be held by Women's Auxiliary of Pittsburgh Moose lodge in Moose Temple, tomorrow night.

(Advertisement)

Wins Fight Against

Stomach Ulcers

Induced by gastric-hyperacidity

After battling an acid stomach condition all his life, a Pittsburgh man has found relief. His wife writes, "My husband's case is remarkable as he has suffered from an ulcerated stomach caused by acidity and had spent a fortune. Today he doesn't know he has a stomach, for Toma Tablets have acted like magic. Everyone who knows my husband realizes what Toma Tablets have done for him."

Much study and scientific investigation have been given to this doctor's prescription known as Toma Tablets, which are specially designed for stomach ulcers, indigestion, gastritis, gas pains, dyspepsia, frequent colds, headache, bad breath, belching, lack of pep, constipation or other disorders induced by gastric-hyperacidity.

You should find out as thousands of others are doing, what Toma Tablets may do for you. Write today for our valuable free booklet, "Your Stomach and You," or send $1.00 for new trial size bottle.

Toma Inc., Dept. C-24, Ligonier, Pa.

Athlete, McGlynn Daughters Injured

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—(AP.)—Clifford Sutter, tennis player, and two daughters of Frank McGlynn, the Abraham Lincoln of John Drinkwater's play, were among five persons slightly injured early yesterday in an automobile accident.

The injured, besides Sutter, who said he was 23 years old, were Virginia McGlynn, 20; Helen, 22, her sister; Denny Wilson, 19, and Fernand Baehler, 24, a writer.

Coverdale Child Dies From Burns

Mathilda Cenea, 8, of Coverdale, died in St. Joseph's Hospital yesterday from burns suffered when her clothing caught fire as she stood before a gas stove in her home Saturday, according to a coroner's report.

Hot Stove Causes Blaze in Dwelling

Fire caused by an overheated stove caused damage estimated at $200 to the home of Mrs. Mary Swagyle, 656 Second avenue, New Kensington, yesterday.

Sothern's Estate Bequeathed to Wife

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—(Universal.)—E. H. Sothern, famous actor who died here a few days ago, left his entire estate to his wife, Julia Marlowe. The will is to be filed for probate within a week.

B. K. ELLIOTT CO.
OPTICIANS
GLASSES
The Same Fine, Courteous Service
Frames in Many Price Ranges
126 SIXTH ST.
PITTSBURGH, PA.

Modern Oil Field in Action!

DRIVING rig—power-pumped wells—receiving tank—these are only three of the 19 parts of a modern oil field now on display in the Gulf Exhibit Room. And the complete, built-to-scale, 15' x 24' model actually works! It's completely identified for your benefit. Visit the exhibit today. It's free.

THE GULF EXHIBIT
707-709 GRANT STREET

GULF

Jangled nerves sap your vitality

Every time you let jangled nerves get the best of you... Every time you bang the door off its hinges, or "want to scream," you're taking it out of yourself.

Door banging, screaming and such antics are rude to say the least, and make your family and your friends uncomfortable... But — most important, each fit of temper you give way to is sapping your own vitality, making the next tantrum easier, ruining your health, your digestion, your disposition.

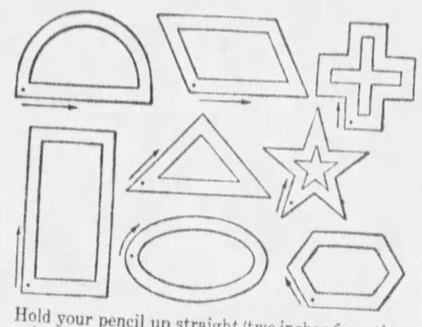
Watch your nerves. Get your full amount of sleep every night. Eat regularly and sensibly. Find time for recreation. And smoke Camels—for Camel's costlier tobaccos never get on your nerves.

COSTLIER TOBACCOS

Camels are made from finer, MORE EXPENSIVE tobaccos than any other popular brand of cigarettes!

How are YOUR nerves?

TEST No. 8



Hold your pencil up straight (two inches from the point)... Don't allow your wrist or arm to touch the table... Place your pencil point on the first dot and start tracing. The rules say you must draw your line between the two guide lines and follow the direction of the arrow. Average time to trace figures without error is 65 seconds.

James J. Dwyer (Camel smoker), famous steeplejack, traces the figures without error in 37 seconds.

Copyright, 1933, R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company

CAMELS—THEY NEVER GET ON YOUR NERVES!

OPERATOR 13 Pledged Herself, Body and Soul, to the service of Her Country —but—has any Country the right to ask a woman to kill the man she loves . . ?

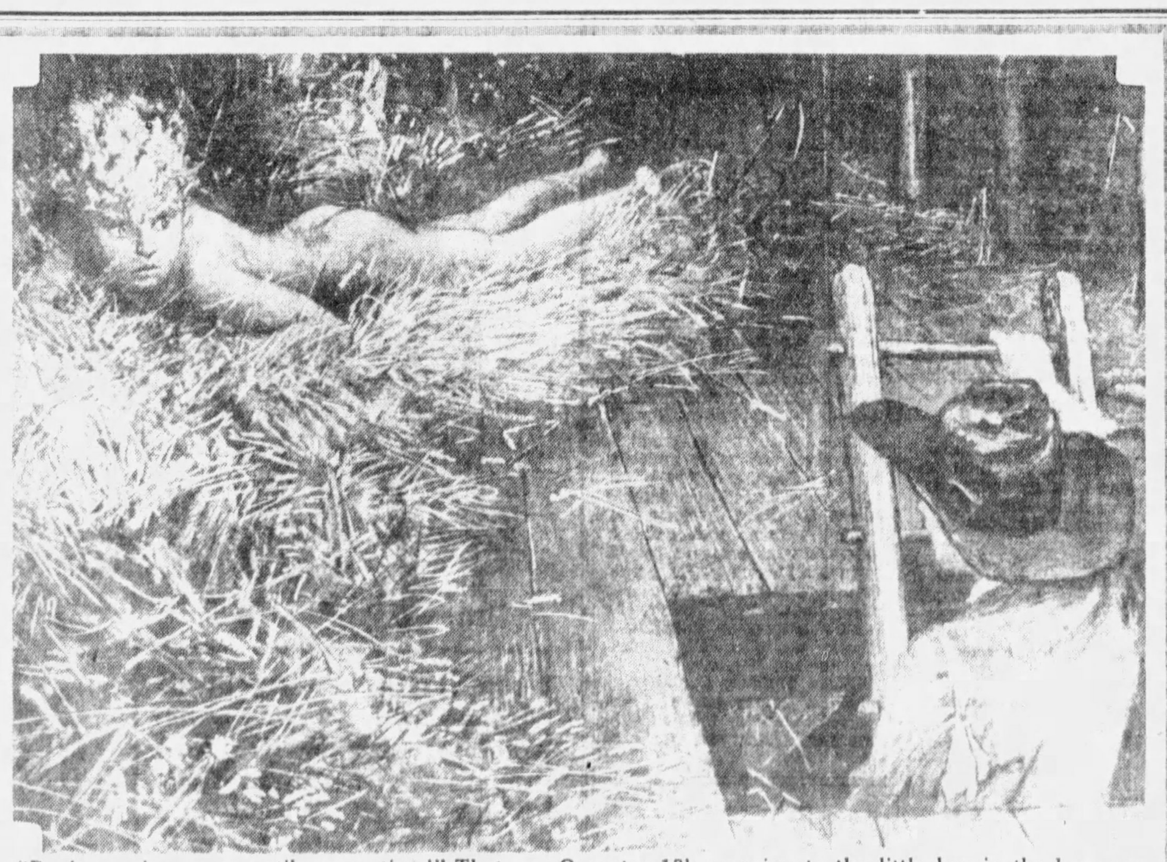
WHILE THE CIVIL WAR STORMED in terrible magnificence back and forth across the Potomac, up and down the lovely Valley of Virginia, another little war was fought within it—a war silent, secret and deadly, the war of the spies. Men and women alike — some boys and girls really, not yet out of their 'teens — they waged their endless conflict of ingenuity, of disguise and subterfuge and cajolery and stealth and daring.

And they fought, all of them, every day, every hour, in the sure knowledge that to err was to die — horribly. Captured spies, man or woman, were hanged, always at sundown. And because they all had seen, at one time or another, a dying spy, comrade or enemy, jerking grotesquely at the end of a rope against a sky of rose and gold, they came to call the death they dreaded "The Sunset Dance." And the image of that dance went with them everywhere.

Only a master writer of romance could recreate the gay courage, the breathless excitement, the quivering terror in which those devoted men and women played their unbelievable parts in the vast and tragic drama of internecine war.

And a master has done it. Robert W. Chambers, whose splendid novels of war and of peace have won him a place in the foremost ranks of modern writers, has made "Operator 13" at once a chronicle of gallant adventure, with a firm foundation in historical fact, and a romance tender, brave and beautiful.

"Operator 13" contains every element to make a story absorbingly interesting; high adventure in a Civil War setting—the love of two young Americans, each sworn to opposing causes—and all the story is woven on the loom of history with such men as Grant, Lee, Stuart, Hooker, the greatest figures of the period, playing leading parts—and much of it with Pennsylvania as a background.



"Don't you dare move until supper time!" That was Operator 13's warning to the little boy in the haymow. It is one of many humorously touching incidents you'll find among the thrills in "Operator 13."

Read OPERATOR 13

Begins in the SUN-TELEGRAPH NEXT WEDNESDAY

NRA MEMBER U.S. WE DO OUR PART

Order Wednesday's Sun-Telegraph from your Nearest Newsdealer Today—or Telephone GRant 6500, Ask for the Home Delivery Department and Have the Sun-Telegraph Delivered to Your Home.

Joseph Horne Co

PENN FIFTH AND STANWIX . . . COURT 3000

Special for Junior-Misses

$29.75

Fur-trimmed dressy coats as junior-misses like them. With much or little fur—lapin for those who want it sleek and flat; and wolf, black fox and skunk, for those who prefer the flattery of long-haired furs . . . All-black coats; and coats in brown, green and wine, with furs to harmonize.

. . . Horne's, Junior-Misses' Section, Second Floor . . .

Pick Yours, Tomorrow

FROM THIS WOMEN'S AND MISSES'

Coat Special

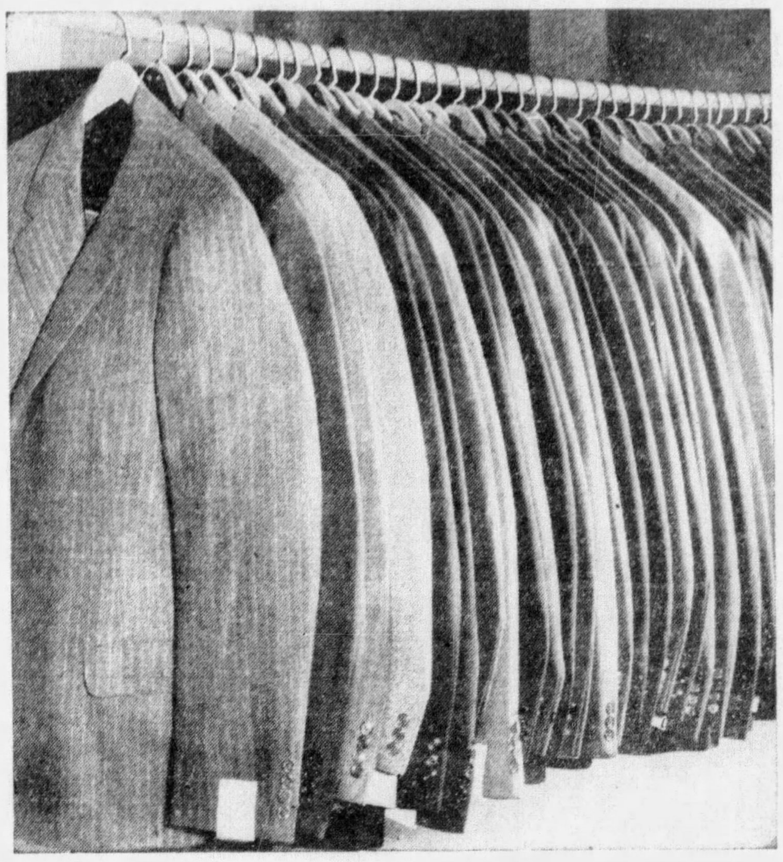
$50

It will be a choice with no regrets—carrying the assurance that it is a dependable Horne coat, selected according to Horne's exacting quality and style specifications, and priced unusually low.

You can trust the furs, whether you decide upon Jap Mink, Kolinsky, Persian Lamb, Caracul, Black Fox, Kit Fox, Dyed Fox, Wolf, Skunk, Dyed Squirrel, Natural Squirrel, Beaver or Hudson Seal (dyed muskrat).

. . . Horne's, Women's and Misses' Coat Sections, Second Floor . . .

These 200 Men's Suits $29.50



An Election Day special to give men who have a holiday tomorrow something worth while to do with it. These suits were made to our order, and express our ideas of what a good Horne suit should be. Latest single and double-breasted models in all wool unfinished worsteds, cashmeres and cheviots. Grays—plain colors, stripes, and Glenurquhart plaids; brown, tan, and blue fancy mixtures. Complete sizes, 34 to 46—regular, short, long, and stout models. Needless to say that the sale price represents a substantial concession from regular figures. Come and see for yourself!

. . . The Men's Store, Third Floor . . .

See the New Living Clothes Made of Lastex

The Miracle Yarn exclusively at Horne's

Warm as a Blanket . . Smart as a Negligee!

Flannel Robes

$5.95

A shawl collar style with contrasting binding is as swagger as a man's lounge coat . . . a notched collar robe has novel appliques that impart a more feminine attitude.

In charming shades of rose, blue, green, navy and red.

. . . Horne's, Second Floor . . .

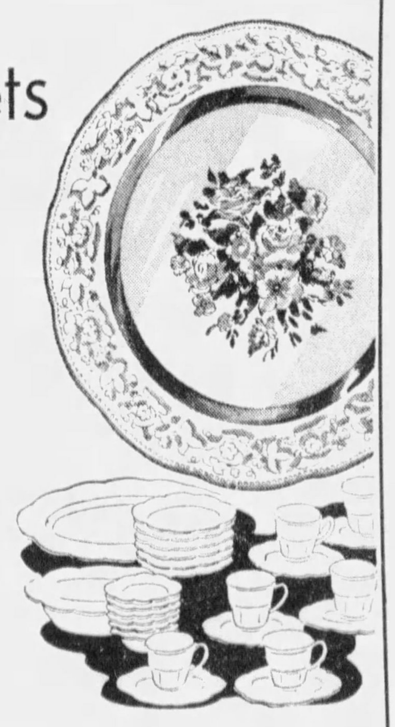
Shop Early FOR CHRISTMAS

(TUESDAY ONLY)

Breakfast Sets

32 Pieces . . . Service for 6

$2.75



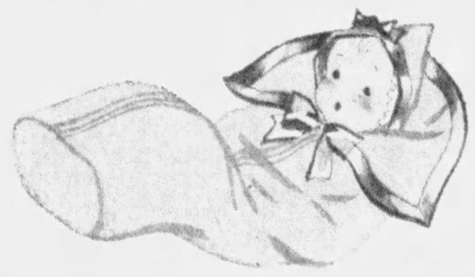
Tomorrow only . . . choice of four patterns in the better kind of porcelain sets. Clear colors, embossed edges and other ear-marks of good ware. Lovely enough for luncheons and dinners . . . low-priced enough for you to buy two, and keep one for yourself.

. . . Horne's, Fifth Floor . . .

Buy Baby Buntings!

. . . and All His Cold Weather Requirements in This Three-Day Sale of Babies' Needs

Have Baby's wardrobe thoroughly "weather-proofed" for cold weather, when the first cold wind blows! Everything he needs to keep him warm day and night, indoors and outdoors—wearables of standard, dependable Horne quality are offered in this three-day event at very definite, worth while savings.



Winter Underthings

Silk-and-Wool Vests — high neck, long sleeve styles. Contain 60% wool. 85c.

Silk-and-Wool Bands — with 60% wool. 55c.

Rayon-Wool Hose—Sizes 4 to 6. 3 prs. $1.00.

Flannelettes—gertrudes, long-sleeved gowns and kimonos. Infants' sizes only. 3 for $1.00.

Bathrobes—soft, warm blanket cloth, with side closing. Sizes 1 to 3. $1.25.

Aimcee Sleepers—warm fleecy knitted garments with feet. Each with extra pair of button-on drawers. Sizes 1 to 3. $1.30.

Flannelette Diapers — extra heavy quality. Large 30x30-inch size. Dozen $1.50.

Outdoor Togs

Baby Buntings—cozy eiderdown "bags" that bundle Baby up warm against the wind. $3.50 to $5.00.

"Mun-Robes"—with detachable hoods that protect Baby's face, too. $3.25 to $5.00.

Silk Coats—fine crepe de chine, well-lined, and warmly interlined. $2.95.

Silk Bonnets to match—lined. $1.00.

Sacque Sets—three-piece sets — crocheted wool sacques, bonnets, and bootees. $1.65.

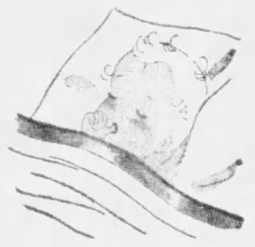
Indoor Wearables

Hand-Made Dresses—fine nainsook, entirely hand made and beautifully hand-embroidered. Lovely gift qualities. Long 1 and 2. $1.50.

"Bobby" Suits—broadcloths in attractive "little brother" styles. White and pastels. $1.00.

Wool Sweaters—slip-on and coat styles of lighter wools, with embroidered nursery motifs. $1.25.

Infants' Wool Sacques—crocheted. 85c.



Bedding

Crib Sheets—45x72 in. 55c.

Cotton Blankets—30x40 inches. 45c.

Wool and Silk Blankets — Satin-bound. 36x50 inches. $1.95.

Candlewick Crib Spreads—nursery patterns. 55c.

Embroidered Pillow Tops—popular gifts. 55c.

Woolen Shawls and Afghans—various styles. $1.00.

Furniture

Kiddie Baths—combination tub and dressing table. $4.25.

Maple Cribs—beautiful finish; very sturdily built. $13.75.

Mattresses—to fit cribs. $5.95.

Maple High Chairs—with aluminum trays. $4.95.

Vanta Electric Bottle Warmers—plug into any socket. $1.00.

Clothes Dryers—racks that take up little room. $1.25.

. . . Infants' Shop, Third Floor . . .

GIMBELS We'll Stand on This Pla

Before the Christmas Rush...Place Your Order for Hand Embroidered, Monogrammed HANDKERCHIEFS

For Men and Women

When Ordering by Mail or Phone, Please State Letter

Men's fine quality linen 'kerchiefs. Hemstitched hems or hand-rolled corded borders... 4 for 2.25

Men's quality linen handkerchiefs. Shirred hemstitched hems or French hand-rolled corded borders. Specially priced at..... 6 for 4.98

Women's beautiful fine linen handkerchiefs. Spoked or rolled hems..... 4 for 1.75

Women's sheer linen 'kerchiefs. Hand-rolled hems, corded borders..... 6 for 3.98

Women's lovely linen 'kerchiefs, 1-inch hems. Embroidered in white on Fall colors. Rust, green, brown, navy..... 4 for 1.50

GIMBELS . . . STREET FLOOR

Mothers! Phone Grant 8400 for These Little Boys' SUITS

3-Pc. Flannel Zipper Suits

3.98

Flannel sports, in brown or navy—Flannel zipper jacket to match and broadcloth wash blouse. Sizes 2 to 5 years. Grand for school.

New Tyrolean Suspender Suit

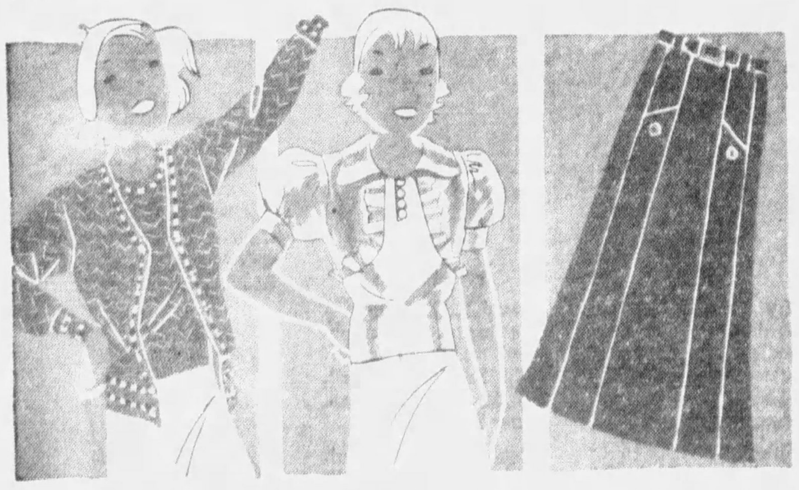
2.98

Pants and cute suspender, of wool flannel in brown or navy. Washable white or maize broadcloth blouse. Sizes 2, 4, 5 and 6 years.

3-Pc. Serge Eton Suits

4.98

Fine all wool navy serge shorts (lined), navy serge Eton jacket and pin striped broadcloth blouses. Sizes 3 to 6 years.



Girls' Wool Twin Sweater Sets

3.98

A slipover with cute puff sleeves to underneath and a cardigan jacket for top. Bright colors. Sizes 8 to 16.

Silk Blouses Like Grown-Ups

1.98

Blouses with cute ruffles, puff sleeves, fancy buttons, neatly tailored like big sister's. White, eggshell. 8-16.

Girls' Smooth Flannel Hip Skirts

2.98

Beautiful wool flannels and wool crepes. Pockets, cute belt buckles. Reds, wines, blues, greens, browns. 8-16.

GIMBELS . . . CHILDREN'S BIG FLOOR . . . THE FOURTH

Names

That Make News Tomorrow

Do you prefer to buy nationally advertised brands when you shop? Then you'll prefer also to shop at Gimbels for you'll find them 2,000 strong here. We're not slighting our unnamed brands, which may be just as good even though they are not famous. We're simply recognizing that it's the famous names that take our attention, and news about them is news indeed. So here are the names that make news at Gimbels tomorrow.

Griswold Utensils

Remember "The line that's fine at cooking time?" It's the truest slogan we know, for when it comes to cast iron cooking utensils you'll find none better than Griswold. The new chromium plated skillet is a gem. It never needs much cleaning and always looks bright and shining. No. 8 size, 1.79. Seventh Floor.

Red Cross Shoes

Designed for women to fit "all four of your feet." Your feet when you are sitting down need entirely different support from those same feet when they are walking. Hence Red Cross shoes are made to fit both your "sitting" and your "walking" feet. The news today is a smart strap of black kid with the new high vamp and elaborate stitching trim at 6.50. Second Floor.

Elgin Watches

The watchword for true elegance and efficiency. The watch that's been known for generations as a reliable timepiece. Among many models for men and women is a delightful baguette watch, 7-jewel, 10-kt. white gold-filled case with one of the smart new Fashion-Cord bands. It's a tiny, dainty thing, but it has the Elgin efficiency. 27.50. Street Floor.

Nu-Back Foundations

Thank heaven! Here's a non-elastic combination garment that will not ride up. And now there's a new straight-front, telescopic-back foundation featured in Gimbels corset department for larger figures. Firm restraining cloth that won't wrinkle at the waist-line or press at the diaphragm. Models from 3.95 to $10. But you'll particularly like one with a swami top at $5. Second Floor.

Vanta Baby Vests

Without buttons or pins to be fastened. Double-breasted, which gives complete protection to chest and abdomen. Fastened with Twistless Tape so that the shirt is always held down. A particularly soft, comfortable one is of silk and wool with 10% wool. In Gimbels Baby Shop for 1.25. Fourth Floor.

Bigelow Rugs

You'll find the famous "weaver's knot" on the back of every one of these rugs to signify that they are woven of lively wool by the skilled Bigelow weavers. Our favorite is the seamless Axminster "Fervak" because it comes in such glorious colorings and exquisite Persian patterns. Size 9x12. 39.75. Eighth Floor.

Manhattan Shirts

Gimbels carries a complete stock, always, of these popular shirts. Our favorite at the moment is the new "clip" stripe, a stripe broken at intervals by a minute design. It's very smart, yet conservative enough for any man. In gray, blue, and two colors new to men's furnishings, a faint purple or new tan. Collar-attached or two fancy laundered collars. All sizes. $2. Street Floor.

Simon Ackerman Clothes

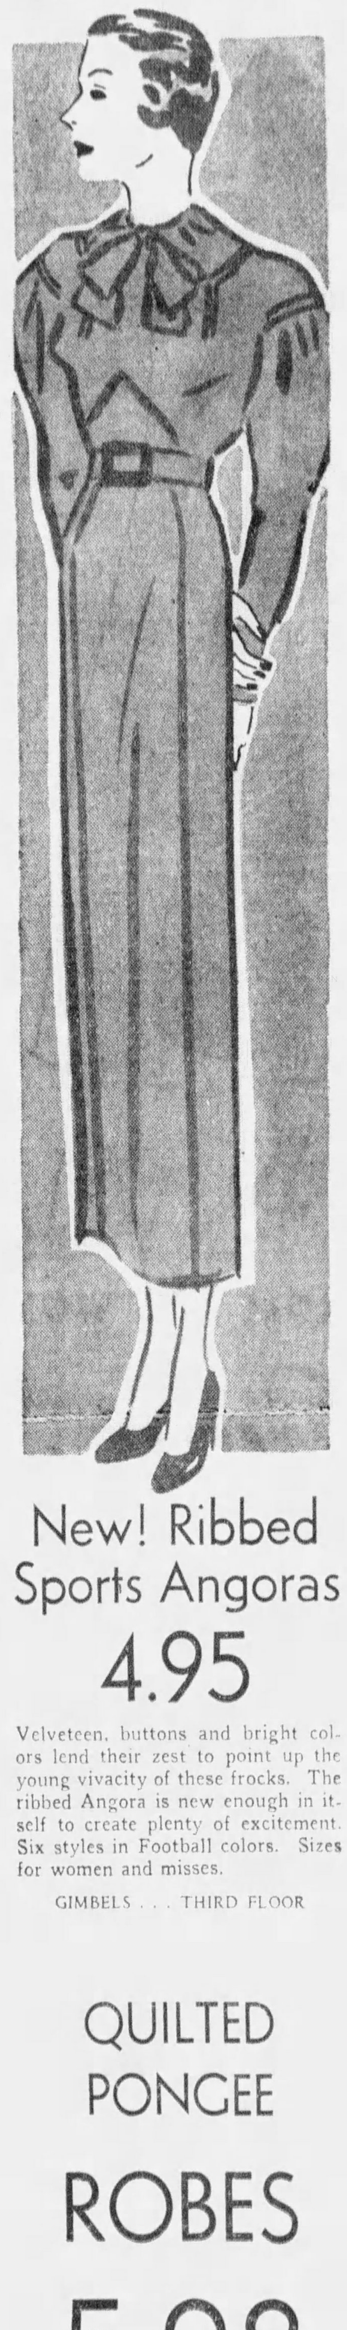
You'll find Simon Ackerman suits, topcoats, overcoats, formal afternoon and evening wear at Gimbels, every piece displaying the fine hand-tailoring that is an outstanding characteristic of this clothing. The news today in this famous clothing is the smart new checks and plaids in the comfortable, swagger Bal overcoats with raglan sleeves, 36.50 now, but they'll be higher soon. Fifth Floor.

Jr. Misses Take Bright Wools

17.50

Because gala colored Wools take them to gala affairs. Juliard's sheer crepes and feathery wools. High necklines, unexpected shoulder details, metal belts and such. Even taffeta bows as on the dress sketched here. Sizes 11 to 17.

GIMBELS . . . THIRD FLOOR



New! Ribbed Sports Angoras

4.95

Velveteen, buttons and bright colors lend their zest to point up the young vivacity of these frocks. The ribbed Angora is new enough in itself to create plenty of excitement. Six styles in Football colors. Sizes for women and misses.

GIMBELS . . . THIRD FLOOR

QUILTED PONGEE ROBES

5.98

Just about the nicest quilted robe you could imagine. Warm, light as a feather to wear—and really flattering, too. Natural color Pongee stitched in rose, green or orchid. You'll want one of these robes yourself—girls away at school will adore them—and everyone on your Christmas list who's due for an extra-special gift should be considered right now. Get them today. Small, medium and large sizes. A value you'd expect from Gimbels.

GIMBELS . . . SECOND FLOOR

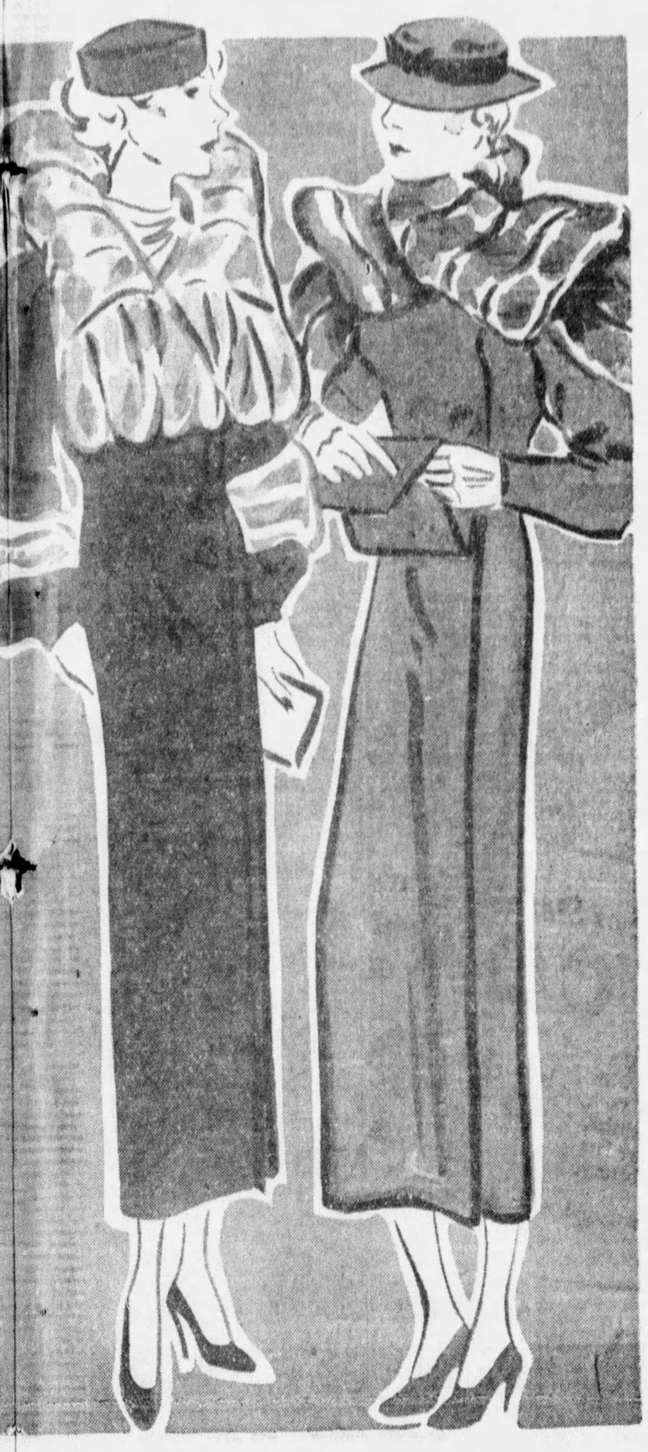
Extraor... Lad...

These coats surp... Rest assured tho... Velour de Nord ... kinds and are ma...

Lustrous Blue Persian ...

Racco... Leopa...

atform of Good Values GIMBELS



traordinary Group of COATS
Laden With Precious Furs

Made to Sell for 79.75 to 98.50 — $66

e coats surpass even the values you ordinarily expect to find at Gimbels, assured they are unmatched elsewhere in town. Even striking coats of ur de Nord are included at this price! The furs are the finest of their and are manipulated in the newest and most glamorous ways.

ous Blue Fox, Flattering Fitch, Silky, Supple Galyak, Aristocratic Persian Lamb, White, Selected Badger, Russian Kolinsky.

For Misses, Women and Half Sizes

GIMBELS . . . COATS . . . THIRD FLOOR

accoon and eopard Cat
OATS
159

he Thanksgiving
ame is just in the off-
ow. Knowing that
rls who shiver don't ome at the game, be dy with your fur coat r the kick off. Like accoon? It wears like on, you know—and is ne of the warmest of all
rs. These are exceponally fine Raccoons, ind you. The Leoprd Cats, of course, are ophisticated enough to ease any Campus queen. Swaggers with ohny or Ascot ties.
Misses' sizes.

GIMBELS . . . THIRD FLOOR

That's Right!
Large
Headsizes
$5

The woman with a large head is no longer the forgotten woman as far as hats are concerned. Right now there's nothing smarter nor richer looking for this era of elegance than Hatter's Plush. And here it is in these unusual models in headsizes 23, 23½ and 24. The same headsizes in grand felts—brimmed or otherwise for fur collars. Black, brown.

GIMBELS . . . SECOND FLOOR

REMBRANDT SHOES

"Every Shoe a Picture"

Every day more well-groomed women are coming in and asking for Rembrandt shoes. That's why we know you'll like them, too. Styled with the artistry of the old Master—they're alert and up to the minute in every detail. The high-throat step-in sketched combines Suede and Calf in an unusual —but definitely clever manner. You'll like it either in brown or black. Sizes 4½ to 8; AAA to C.

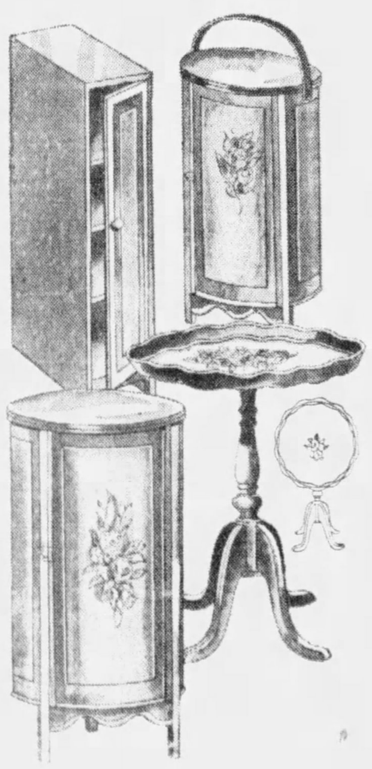
4.98
SECOND FLOOR

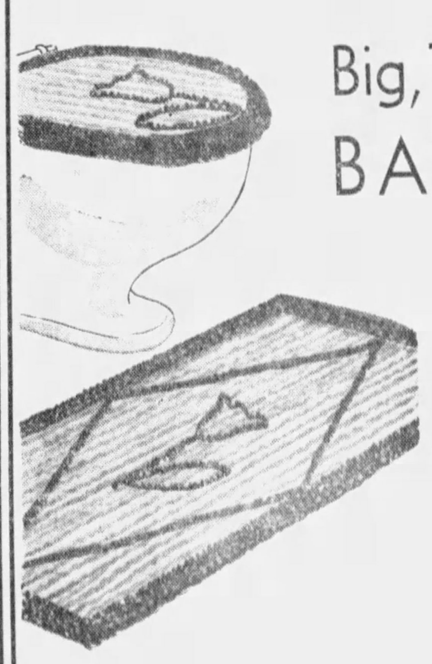
BEAUTIFUL
HAND DECORATED
Wood
Furniture

It's new and smart to have a few pieces of decorated furniture in your room. It's delightfully refreshing and cheerful! You'll want it for your home, especially since so many pieces combine the practical and ornamental. Rose, Ivory, Green, Orchid. Some Red, Blue and Walnut finish.

Oval Portable Sewing Cabinets	3.00
Shoe Cabinets	3.75
Oval Utility Cabinets	4.00
Tilt-Top Tables	7.50
Large Square Utility Cabinets (not sketched)	7.50

GIMBELS . . GIFT SHOP . . BALCONY





Big, Thick Chenille
BATH MATS
1.29

Newest Brightest Colors!

Mats you'd ordinarily expect to pay more for, they're so deeply tufted, so brilliantly colored. 19x35 inch Green, orchid, blue, coral or gold with black borders and designs. Also gold and green, orchid and green, peach and green, blue and green.

Seat Covers to Match the Bath Mats, 89c

GIMBELS . . . SIXTH FLOOR

See the NU-BACKS

Modeled Tomorrow and All Week at 11:30 A. M. and 2:30 P. M. in the Corset Department

Bothered with foundation garments that ride up? You needn't be. See this informal showing tomorrow and hear Mr. George E. Hawes tell you why NU-BACKS do not ride up. The famous non-elastic foundations that restrain perfectly and comfortably—and stay decidedly in place. All-in-ones or girdles.

3.95 to $10

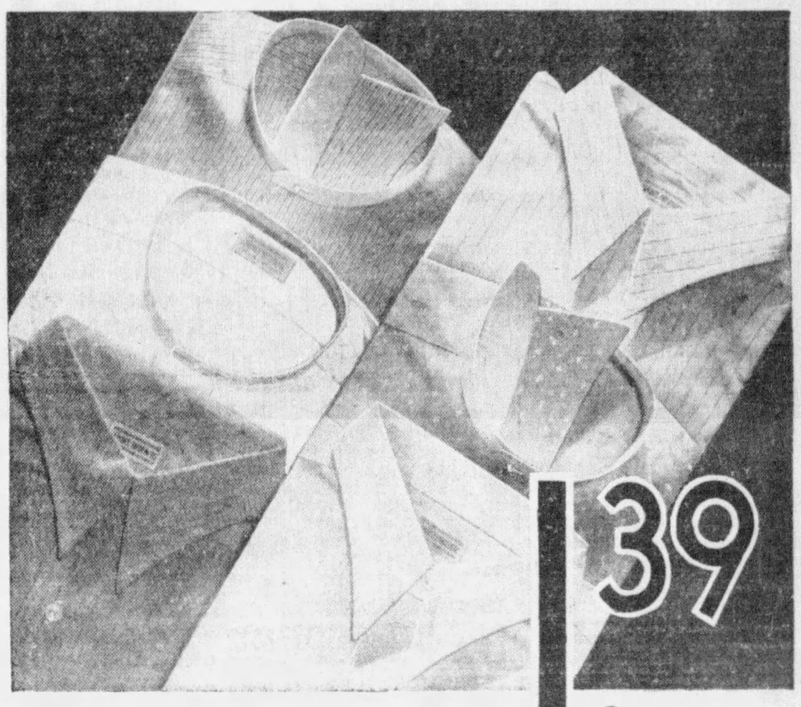
GIMBELS . . CORSETS . . SECOND FLOOR

See the
HOPI INDIANS
Do Their Weird Snake Dances With Live Snakes

12 Noon, 2:30 and 4:30 P. M. Daily on Gimbels Fifth Floor

Continuous Exhibition all this week of Hopi Indian Pottery, Basket and Jewelry Making, and Rug Weaving.

The Shirt Sale of the Year! 7500 of 'em! Ordered in June at Rock-Bottom Lows and Packed Away for this Event!



Men's Fine Shirts

Brand New and Shown for the First Time

This never-to-be-repeated low stamps this as the year's outstanding purchase and sale of fine shirts. There was never a time when prompt buying assured greater savings than RIGHT NOW. You'll want a dozen for yourself. Another dozen for Christmas gifts. Sizes 14 to 17; sleeves 33 to 35.

All With These Expensive Features:

Full Count, Pre-shrunk
Tailored Troy Collars
Fine Woven Fabrics
Ocean Pearl Buttons

These Styles and Colors

Fancy Woven Fabrics
2 Collars to Match Collar Attached

White Broadcloth
Collar Attached Neckband

Blue, Tan, and Gray Broadcloth
Collar Attached

GIMBELS . . . MEN'S SHIRTS . . . STREET FLOOR

It's Not Too Late to Buy a FINE OVERCOAT
FOR 20.00

Not as long as there's a single garment left of the 400 we placed on sale a few days ago. Naturally they're going fast, but it's not too late for you to find the very model, color, and fabric that will please you in this group. This is a value you'd expect from Gimbels.

GIMBELS . . . MEN'S CLOTHING . . . FIFTH FLOOR

ARNO FLOORED IN ROW OVER ACTRESS

(Continued from Page One.)

sation with another man, and that there seemed to be a little argument between them. Mr. Arno was irritated. I prevailed on him to sit down at the table and distracted his attention from the trouble, whatever it was. I then suggested that he play a piece on the piano, and this he did with the orchestra, and while he was doing this Mr. Steele, or whatever his name is, for I scarcely know him, passed by my table and said something about it being very nice of me to act the way I did about the little spat.

"Mr. Arno observed the man at my table, and asked me what he had said. He then went over to Steele's table and Mr. Arno struck at him suddenly."

DIDN'T WIELD CHAIR

Miss O'Neil said Steele stood over Arno, after the latter was knocked down, with a chair and that she rushed in to prevent any further hostilities. She said:

"That probably explains the report about me grabbing a chair and hitting Steele, which is utterly foolish."

Arno's Knockout Recalls His Fight With Vanderbilt

RENO, Nev., Nov. 6.—(AP.)—The knockout of Peter Arno in the Embassy Club at Hollywood early today recalled the artist's protracted battle of words with Cornelius Vanderbilt, Jr., when they were both in Reno in the summer of 1931.

An unloaded pistol, fists, target practice and a chase across the continent also reputedly figured in that dispute, but participants never agreed as to just what happened.

It started one June night in 1931 after a party when Arno, a Reno neighbor of the Vanderbilts, allegedly took Mrs. Mary Davidson Weir Logan Vanderbilt for an automobile ride. The former publisher's attorney, Samuel Platt, said Vanderbilt chased the caricaturist with an unloaded pistol, but never attempted to fire the bullets which weren't in it.

Mrs. Vanderbilt said the story was ridiculous. Arno's attorney talked of possible filing of a slander suit, and the former publisher stuck to his story.

A few days later he unexpectedly filed suit for divorce, when his wife understood a legal separation was all that was to be sought.

later Arno sought di- Lois Long, writer. Both ed extreme cruelty. nderbilts were divorced August 4, Mrs. Vanderbilt obtaining the decree on a cross complaint alleging cruelty.

Lois Long, writer wife of Arno, obtained a divorce from him June 29 on a cross complaint which alleged she lived in "abject terror" of Arno because he was so violently abusive on "hundreds of occasions."

Arno Forgot To Be Born A Gentleman, His Foe Says

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—(AP.)—Drexel Biddle Steele today telegraphed to New York his version of a night club altercation with Peter Arno, New York cartoonist, now in Hollywood. Steele's telegram, in part, said:

"A little incident occurred at the Embassy Club here in Los Angeles between me and Peter Arno which, with your good judgment, you will hush up. I was sitting with Claire Delmar, international beauty and the greatest actress in Switzerland, when he approached my table, a small supper party of 40 that I was giving in her honor, and accused me of knowing him when his name was Curtis Peters, interior decorator for Gilda Gray and an unknown identity in America.

"I arose and presented him to Miss Delmar, which she acknowledged. That was not enough for him, and I explained at that moment there was just one thing he lacked—besides being born a man he had failed being born a gentleman.

"Mr. Gordon Butler, when Mr. Arno made a pass at me, stepped in to defend not only Miss Delmar, but me, and sent Mr. Arno sailing across the dance floor, much to Miss Delmar's amusement and to Mr. Arno's surprise.

"Mr. Arno was down on the count of nine because Mr. Butler, all-American end at Princeton, laid him low. The only comment I have to make is that Mr. Arno's great mistake is he unfortunately was born a man, but forgot to be born a gentleman."

Stubborn Bull Holds Up Uncle Sam's Mail

MINNEAPOLIS, Nov. 6.—(AP.)—To a belligerent bull calf goes the questionable honor of delaying Uncle Sam's mails.

For 30 minutes he scampered back and forth across the municipal airport here while attendants sought vainly to corner him and a mail plane hovered above waiting to land.

Finally he was prodded into an unused hangar and "the mail went through."

Jesuit Educator, 78, Dies in South

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 6.—(AP.)—The Rev. James de Potter, S. J., 78, professor of philosophy at St. Charles College, Grand Coteau, La., and an outstanding member of the Society of Jesus in the South, died last night at Hotel Dieu here after an illness of six weeks. He was a native of Belgium.

Shot Passes Through Dog's Jaw, Hits Man

HARRISON, N. Y.—(INS.)—A stray bullet which first passed through the jaw of his hunting dog which was walking beside him, imbedded itself into the leg of Arthur Bates, a young hunter. The dog was not killed. Bates said he heard no shot, and police believe it was a silencer.

LAURA WHEELER DESIGNS

GARDEN SCENE PATTERN 568

Colorful Picture Stitched in Wool

Who does not love an old-time garden brilliant in its many-hued flowers? What enjoyment there is in store then in making this lovely garden scene which can be used as a picture, in a tray, or on a pillow or bag. Embroidered in wool, the flowers bloom in all colors in lazy-daisy, French knots and other simple stitches, forming a lovely border that leads up to the quaint English cottage. This and part of the sky are left without embroidery, only the roof and trim of the house being done in wool. It is really a pleasure to see the garden grow under one's fingers and to know that the finished picture will be a lovely addition to the home or a most acceptable gift for some friend at Christmas.

Pattern 568 comes to you with a transfer pattern of the picture; a color key showing exactly where each color is to be put, and directions for making the picture.

Send 10c for this pattern to Pittsburgh Sun-Telegraph Needlecraft Department, 82 Eighth avenue, New York City.

SEIZE 'RAFFLES' IN SOUTH

International News Service.

NEW ORLEANS, La., Nov. 6.—Harry Sidmor, alias Sitamore, million-dollar jewel thief, was "in again" today.

The dapper 38-year-old New York raffles whose nimble fingers lifted $250,000 in gems from wealthy social leaders at Miami Beach last winter, languished behind jail bars awaiting return to Florida to serve a 40-year sentence.

Sidmor, dressed as sprucely as a Wall street broker, strolled into the arms of a Pinkerton agent on Canal street. The detective greeted him:

"Come on, arry, it's time to go back to Raiford."

Sidmor whirled, brought up short against the mid-riff of a burley traffic policeman, and gave in.

The capture ended five months of freedom since Sidmor, making good a boast he had hurled at the judge in Miami last April when he was sentenced to 40 years, lammed out of the state prison at sun-baked isolated Raiford.

Princeton Professor Ends Talks Tonight

Frank Jewett Mather, Marquand professor of art and archaeology at Princeton University, will lecture tonight on the Thirty-first International Exhibit in Carnegie Music Hall. The lecture, to start at 8:15 o'clock, will be the third and last of a series of lectures on the exhibit.

Editor to Speak At East End Church

The Rev. D. B. Bravin will speak on "Some False Messiahs in Israel" tomorrow night at the Legum Memorial, 5809 Hays street. The Rev. Bravin is editor of "The Dawn" a church publication.

PLEASE

tell your cough-suffering friends that Primary VITAMIN A has been added to Smith Brothers Cough Drops. Eminent doctors state that this "Anti-Infective" vitamin is a potent aid in speeding up recovery from coughs and colds... and in raising resistance to re-infection...

2 kinds: Black or Menthol, 5¢. No change in the famous taste.

SMITH BROTHERS COUGH DROPS contain the 'Anti-Infective' Primary VITAMIN A

Help Kidneys

- If poorly functioning Kidneys and Bladder make you suffer from Getting Up Nights, Nervousness, Rheumatic Pains, Stiffness, Burning, Smarting, Itching, or Acidity try the guaranteed Doctor's Prescription Cystex (Sis-tex) —Must fix you up or money back. Only 75¢ at druggists.

Cystex

Loved ones need you!

—you dare not fail them

"I am so glad you are yourself again"

IS YOUR appetite poor? If you tire easily what does it mean? . . . and how can you correct it? Do you lack resistance to infectious diseases—pimples and boils . . . what does this indicate?

These are symptoms which often harass rundown, anemic persons. It is in these complaints that S.S.S. is very useful.

Modern medical research stresses the need of building up, frequently, the blood's red-cells and their hemo-glo-bin (skin and tissue purifier) content. The reason of this is that hemo-glo-bin carries oxygen from the lungs to all parts of the body—even to the skin.

Don't take chances. Infectious diseases strike without warning. Loved ones need you! You dare not fail them. Keep up your strength and resistance thru the blood.

S.S.S. is a proven Tonic . . . by experience for over 100 years . . . by modern medical research.

Take S.S.S. just before meals. No need to change your diet . . . S.S.S. will not interfere with any other medicine you may be taking. Begin a course of it today—then note your improvement. You will be happy with the beneficial results obtained. At all drug stores in two sizes. The larger size is more economical. © The S.S.S. Co.

S.S.S. builds sturdy health

Real Rest

in Midtown New York

A quiet atmosphere that allows you to relax...deep slumbrous beds that send you out on your round of daytime activities refreshed and renewed...a pleasant privacy that hints of luxury, yet is actually very easy on the purse.

Hotel Warwick management insures dignified service standards and unexcelled cuisine

The DEVON

70 West 55th Street

NEW YORK

NRA We Do Our Part

ROSENBAUM'S

Sixth Liberty & Penn ATlantic 4500

DOWNSTAIRS STORE

Here Are Coat Values ... Fashion's Newest Styles ... Fabrics & Trims

$13.95 $13.95 $13.95

$10 Is a Bargain for These COATS

Only a limited number at this special price . . . they're clever sports models for business, street, sports and school wear. Sizes 14 to 20.

Elaborately Furred or Stunning Sports

Winter COATS $13.95

If quality and beauty count . . . then attend this sale . . . they're coats with that "expensive" look! Coats with lovely furs, good lining, fine fabrics, newest style details! And you pay less than you dreamed for such luxury. Sizes for women and misses.

—ROSENBAUM'S DOWNSTAIRS

A Timely Sale! Big Values in

Men's Needs

"Spaide" Wool Talon Jackets $3.98

Guaranteed and made for comfort and wear . . . wool melton; sizes 36 to 46.

"Chalmer's" Winter UNION SUITS $1.00

This famous make of finest yarn, short or long sleeves, long legs, sizes 36 to 46.

Men's Flannelette PAJAMAS 85c

All first quality, full cut, standard make, "Wade" flannelette, B-C-D.

Men's Capeskin GLOVES $1.00

Dress or driving gloves of capeskin, warmly lined, button clasp. 7½ to 10½.

Wool and Rayon FANCY SOX 19c

This season's new patterns, irregular 35c numbers, 10 to 12.

MEN $11.95

A Price Sensation for These

2-Pants SUITS OVERCOATS and TOPCOATS

Buy now, at the beginning of the winter season! Buy now, while selections are at their best . . . Buy now . . . when you can save . . . we can't begin to duplicate this quality, bought while prices were still low, at today's prevailing market prices.

Suits $11.95 With 2 pairs trousers in blue cheviots, cassimeres and worsteds. Sizes for men and young men.

Overcoats $11.95 Smart tailoring and expert workmanship feature these warm new winter overcoats. All sizes.

Topcoats $11.95 Medium weight topcoats in tan and grey coatings. A complete selection of new fall models. All sizes.

—ROSENBAUM'S DOWNSTAIRS

Scotch Grain and Calfskin

Shoes for Men $3.45

Sizes 6 to 11—A to D

Made over combination lasts . . . bound to give foot comfort to the nth degree. Narrow heel fittings. Scotch Grain or Calfskin

—ROSENBAUM'S DOWNSTAIRS

Election Day Sales Head the VALUE TICKET at ROSENBAUM'S

SIXTH, LIBERTY AND PENN — STORE HOURS: 9 A. M. TO 5:30 P. M. — ATLANTIC 4500

WOMEN! If you want a pair of

Former $6.50 to $10 Shoes

FOR $3.85

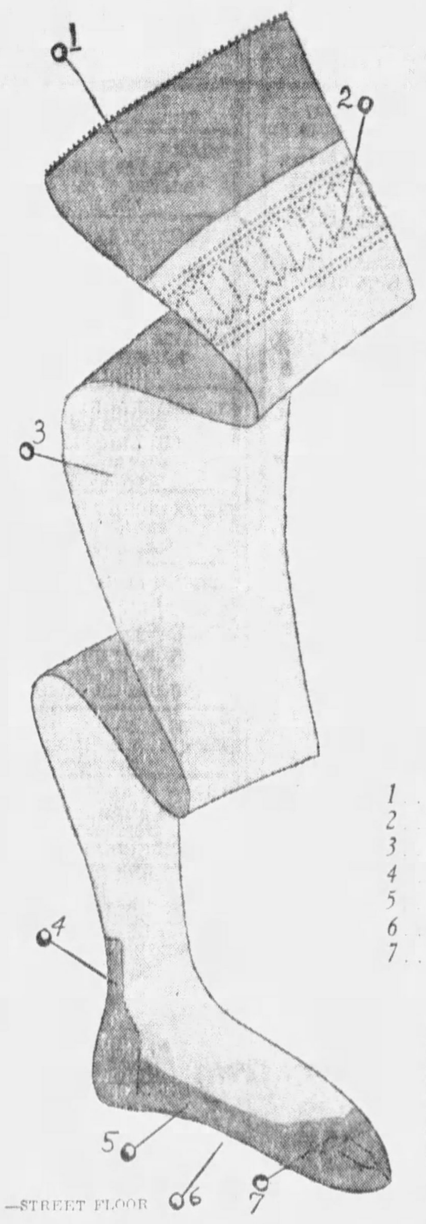
Here's Your Chance to Buy Them!

Even Arch Shoes that were originally $6.50 and $8.50 are included! Shoes for street . . . afternoon and evening . . . priced especially low to clean out stocks in a hurry! Oxfords . . . straps . . . pumps . . . in kid, calf, patent leather, suede combinations, crepes and moires (these latter two will be tinted to match evening gowns!) Sizes 4½ to 8, AAA to B in combined lot. No mail or phone orders. All sales final.

—WOMEN'S SHOES, THIRD FLOOR

NRA SPECIAL — TUESDAY ONLY

Pinning us down to the Facts About This ALL-SILK FULL-FASHIONED Chiffon HOSE



Special Purchase of Quality Hose to Sell Way Below Regular!

65c

1 . . Self Picot Silk Top
2 . . Jacquard Lace Hem
3 . . High-twist Dull Finish
4 . . French Heel
5 . . Cradle Foot
6 . . Foot Silk-Plaited
7 . . Full Fashioned

Silk hosiery such as this at only 65c becomes headline news. All-silk, even clear chiffon weave. Six Fall shades. Sizes 8½ to 10½.

No Mail or Phone Orders Filled

—STREET FLOOR

Get Christmas Cards Early!

21...for 39c

Beautiful assortment of hand colored French folder parchmentized greetings, with matching envelopes. All of the preferred medium size.

—STREET FLOOR

Timely Sale of Former $39.75 to $69.75

COATS

$33 : $53

Because we have too many coats, we are reducing prices NOW, when the demand is greatest. The furs and materials most wanted are included! For Junior Misses, Misses, Women, Little and Large Women!

FIFTH FLOOR

Above: Jr. Misses' boucle coat with grey wolf collar. $33.

Left: Large woman's coat with collar and sleeve trimming of kolinsky. $53.

$3.75

Why Not Have All Four of These TABLES

For Your Living Room?

A beautiful ensemble of smart tables which every living room could use. Walnut veneer tops, and fine construction. Fluted legs.

1—Lamp Table $3.75
2—Occasional Table $3.75
3—Coffee Table $3.75
4—Butterfly Table $3.75

—ROSENBAUM'S, TENTH FLOOR

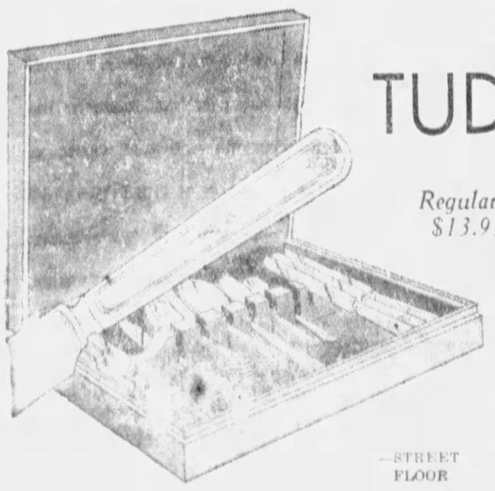
You Never Saw Lovelier Styles in Rayon Gowns and P. J.'s!

$1.59

Copied from expensive silk night wear! Some two colored combinations. Tailored, appliqued or lace trimmed. One and two-piece pajamas. Small, medium and large. Gowns, regular and extra sizes.

—Rosenbaum's, Third Floor

Make Your Hospitality a Thing of Beauty With



—STREET FLOOR

29-Piece Set TUDOR PLATE

Regularly $13.95

$7.95

A product of Oneida Community, with 35-year guarantee. "Queen Bess" design. 12 teaspoons, 3 tablespoons, 6 stainless blade knives, 6 forks, 1 butter knife, 1 sugar spoon in tarnish-proof chest.

Walter Winchell ON BROADWAY

A Columnist's Sec'y Jots Down a Few Notes

Dear W. . . That group of Toledo newspapermen and women who did "Front Page" for the Toledo poor last year would appreciate your getting another play, again . . . I suggested that they contact Ward Morehouse, author of "Gentlemen of the Press," for permission to use that show . . . This is no gag—mothers are actually using Jimmy Durante to frighten their children. If they catch the child fingering his nose, they caution: "Stop that! Do you want to grow up with a nose like Jimmy Durante?" . . . Margie Finley, of "Hold Your Horses" says she didn't strike "Lovely" back and that she (Margie) got her notice—for being a lady! . . . The Bryant Washburns settled that in-law situation. Mrs. Washburn chose to remain with her husband.

Not many listeners "got" that simple riddle the one hour and 20 minutes ankle confusing them—they fretted an hour as being 100 . . . One, however, who got it, says that now that he wins a copy of Bernie's real name—what does he do with it? . . . The Wangers phoned—said they aren't anticipating anything of the kind . . . Here's an amusing gag—strictly for the locals, though . . . One of those Times Square tailors buttonholed Mr. Ebsen and tried to make some clothes for him . . . His final plea went this way: "I make all of Skolsky's clothes!" . . . Whatever became of Lois Long? . . . A woman called. She wondered why you rarely mention the baby any more. I told her I presumed it was because Westbrook was opposed to it . . . There is positively no truth to the legend that Carnera will play the role of "Mr. Dulcimer" in the road company of "Green Bay Tree!" . . . The man who booked Vallee and fought Will Osborne so hard—is now booking Osborne as well as Rudy!

Wall Street, I hear, is now a professional market—meaning "dog eat dog" . . . They must content themselves with trying to trim each other, instead of the public which they wish they had back . . . That model in the page 69 ad in the last issue of the NYker is the new Mrs. Arthur Loew—and that bathing suit girl demonstrating a reducing machine is a ringer for the new Mrs. Tommy Manville, Jr. . . . . Ran into George N. Brown, the one-time champion walker. Told me this ironical tale. He carried accident insurance for 16 years. Then when he quit show business for another trade, he stopped the insurance, feeling he wouldn't need it. He broke both legs—and lost $220 a week! . . . Joe Morrison, who seems to be getting the sugary breaks this year—has been signed by Paramount for a flicker . . . Speaking of gags they are murdering—three "shorts" recently used "Married men make very poor husbands" . . . Frank Crowninshield published it first in 1908.

Here's a story behind the story of "Mrs. Haney," the new book just published by Payson . . . Foxall Dangerfield, the author, had it rejected by almost all the publishers who thought that because it had "only 40,000" words—it couldn't bring $2—it wasn't "commercial," they said . . . Payson, however, thinks it will click big . . . But before it was published—the author killed himself! . . . Frank Scully says if O'Neill wrote it—it would run at the Guild for two years . . . You can't pawn anything in Elizabeth, N. J. Gotta go to Newark . . . Judge never quit fighting prohibition—starting its war in Jan'y, 1920. The parting shot at it is immense.

No Bachelor

Charlie Laughton, the gentleman who is loath to keep ladies from the old mike, nobody else but Hal, himself, in "The Private Life of Henry VIII," coming Friday to the Fulton screen.

THEATER CLOCK

NIXON: Pola Negri in drama, "A Trip to Pressburg." Daily at 8:15 p. m. Matinees Wednesday and Saturday at 2:15 p. m.

PITT: Vaudeville and film, Anita Page, Alan Dinehart in "I Have Lived." Continuous from 12:00 noon until 11 p. m.

PENN: Russ Columbo, Constance Cummings in film, Walter Winchell's "Broadway Through a Keyhole." Daily at 11:22 a. m., 1:29, 3:36, 5:43, 7:50 and 9:59 p. m.

STANLEY: Dick Powell, Ann Dvorak in film, "College Coach." Daily at 11:00 a. m., 12:59, 2:58, 4:57, 6:47, 8:46 and 10:45 p. m.

FULTON: Warner Oland, Heather Angel in film, "Charlie Chan's Greatest Case." Daily at 12:16, 2:15, 4:16, 6:17, 8:18 and 10:19 p. m.

WARNER: Barbara Stanwyck, Otto Kruger in film, "Ever In My Heart." Daily at 11:45 a. m., 1:36, 3:27, 5:18, 7:09, 9:00 and 10:51 p. m.

DAVIS: Bing Crosby, Judith Allen in film, "Too Much Harmony." Daily at 11:30 a. m., 1:14, 3:02, 4:50, 6:38, 8:26 and 10:14 p. m.

SHERIDAN SQUARE: Barbara Stanwyck, Otto Kruger in film, "Ever In My Heart." Daily at 12:48, 2:44, 4:40, 6:36, 8:22 and 10:28 p. m.

ENRIGHT: May Robson, Warren Williams in film, "Lady For a Day." Daily at 12:00, 1:56, 3:58, 6:00, 8:02 and 10:04 p. m.

VARIETY: Burlesque, "Hollywood on Parade." Daily at 2:15 and 8:15 p. m.

. . . If you know anybody who thinks he can beat a friend of mine at ping-pong, lemme know. He has a standing wager of $250—that nobody can . . . Tell Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler of Columbia Univ. that resources is not pronounced "re-zources," and that if he does it again on the radio—we'll tell Dr. Vizetelly on him.

Six months ago 15 crack research men and writers were chosen, on a competitive basis, to compile and write a monumental history of social welfare in New York State—to be dedicated to the Governor and supported by the State Board of Social Welfare . . . After spending six months (in some cases a year) at $24 and $30 a week extolling the beneficence of the State toward the destitute and unfortunate, these expert research people were just informed by the Temporary Emergency Relief Administration that their salaries will be cut to $9.83 and $11.18 a week! . . . Julius Long says that $1,000 item was not from any article on Huey. The bank folded, however, and later paid off . . . Millicent Hanley is better, but she kept leaving the sick room to appear in "The Curtain Rises" against orders too . . . When you see Mr. LaGuardia tell him to be careful when he bawls out scared radio announcers that way—a lot of his temper came over the air—and a lotta faces got red.

Cuban manufacturers will flood the nation (after Repeal) with "Berreteaga," which they hope will replace Bacardi . . . Mavis King, the best known of the night club flower girls when Broadwayites were spending freely, is back peddling them, after many adventures . . . Saw Lois Wild. She says she'll never be able to dance again . . . After 15 years the very hard to crash British magazine Punch—accepted a drawing from an American. Fred Maher broke the ice . . . Neville Fleeson and Peggy Calvert have teamed for vaudeville . . . Sam Coslow says you've boosted the song "Thanks" several times, but for some reason you never mention him as being one of the writers . . . and what's the big idea? . . . Texas Guinan actually made her appearance as an Evangelist on the West Coast the other Sunday—and when she finished, she wept . . . Meta Carlyle's friend is Albert, not Allen Jones . . . I think those movie people are crazy to permit the air to use the scores of their musicals so much long before shows are seen.

Funny about Gordon and Revel getting $7,500 for those four songs in the picture. A Broadway night club owner could have had them for $100 a year ago . . . Abe Lyman called. Said the headlines read "Insull Freed in Greece" and some of the investors think it should have read "Fried" . . . Len Golos dropped in with this: "If all the mud-slinging in the current mayoralty campaign were laid end to end, some of the holes in the streets might be filled" . . . Say, you don't think that story from San Francisco about the unnamed girl turning into a man could be a stunt to sell you? . . . E. P. Dutton, the publishers, just issued a book called "Man Into Woman," and authentic record, they allege, of a change in sex! . . . That Polly Moran rumor which started on the coast has been squelched already . . . None of the names and . . . [illegible] . . . Biggest thrill of Heather Angel's life was when she awakened the other midnight and looked out the window just in time to see a pair of bandits stick up Rowland Lee, who lives in the same apartment hotel.

This Harlow girl can take it. Two days after she left the hospital from an appendicitis operation, she was with a gay party . . . Lois Wilson at the Club Ballyhoo with James Dunn the same night . . . Richard Dix is recuperating at Palm Springs. A trained nurse is in attendance . . . Robert Armstrong is one of the first to sign up for the trip east to see the University of Southern California play Notre Dame.

—Your Girl Friday.

(Copyright, 1933, Daily Mirror, Inc.)

CAMERA'S EYE -:- Snapshots From Studios And Amusement Gossip -:- MAGIC LANTERN

Jean Parker, Tom Brown Steadies

By HARRISON CARROLL

HOLLYWOOD, Nov. 6.—As youthful as the pair are, Hollywood matchmakers are crying romance between Jean Parker and Tom Brown, who are seen everywhere together since they met on their current picture, "Dark Sunlight."

Miss Parker

What makes it all the more intriguing for filmdom's younger set is that Brown beaued Anita Louise to all the parties before she left for New York, and he was supposed to be definitely interested in the little blonde actress.

Now he wears around his wrist a chain and a silver cross that Jean gave him. During her illness for the past few days, he has kept her room full of flowers and has spent much of his time at her house.

With Jean still in her teens and Tom not much older, parental reactions will have to be reckoned with.

* * *

By one of those exigencies of cutting, Abe Lyman's lines were all scissored out of "Broadway Through a Keyhole." As the film stands now, you see him chiefly over Texas Guinan's shoulder. Which inspired Leonard Goldstein to send Abe the following wire:

"Let me be the first to congratulate you on bringing back silent pictures."

* * *

Doris Duke, of the tobacco millions, is seeing Hollywood under the guidance of Ruth Selwyn and Marian Pascal, close friend of the Selwyns and former schoolmate of the Duke heiress. So far the party has ignored the late spots and concentrated on studio visits and private social gatherings. Young Miss Duke has met Lilian Harvey at Fox, Ann Harding at RKO and Constance Cummings and Jack Oakie at United Artists. She was dinner guest of the Selwyns, with Gloria Swanson and Michael Farmer, Grace Moore and her husband and various other film celebrities present.

Miss Selwyn

* * *

They'll tell you—and I merely pass it along—that the engagement of Sandra Shaw and Gary Cooper was announced at a very private dinner party last Monday night. Before she came to Hollywood, the statuesque Sandra was Veronica Balse and was quite social. She and Cooper have been seen constantly together for the past month.

* * *

What Beverly Hills stands most in dread took place before the very eyes of the police. A film child was kidnaped. But it was Baby Le Roy and the scenes were for "Miss Jane's Baby Is Stolen." Actually, this youngster is guarded almost as closely as Marie Dietrich. He has his regular bodyguard, a former member of the state highway police, and the man stays with him all the time. As the youngster is not able to afford the guard himself, the studio pays for this protection.

* * *

The comic artist Peter Arno, has been taking Nancy Lyons to the Embassy Club and other Hollywood late spots. Nancy is the girl who once was rumored engaged to Harry Bannister . . . Latest ambition of Norman Foster is to become a director. He's hired a small troupe, among them a Hawaiian girl, and is photographing a picture in Catalina . . . Biggest thrill of Heather Angel's life was when she awakened the other midnight and looked out the window just in time to see a pair of bandits stick up Rowland Lee, who lives in the same apartment hotel.

Miss Lyons

This Harlow girl can take it. Two days after she left the hospital from an appendicitis operation, she was with a gay party . . . Lois Wilson at the Club Ballyhoo with James Dunn the same night . . . Richard Dix is recuperating at Palm Springs. A trained nurse is in attendance . . . Robert Armstrong is one of the first to sign up for the trip east to see the University of Southern California play Notre Dame.

(Copyright, 1933, Key Features Syndicate, Inc.)

One-Act Plays Listed For Wednesday

Four original one-act plays will be the first offering of the Irene Kaufmann Settlement Players for the season, to be presented Wednesday evening in the Theresa L. Kaufmann Auditorium. The program is made up of plays submitted in the annual playwriting contest for residents of Allegheny county, conducted by the Irene Kaufmann Settlement. Included are "Prom Night," by George S. Kaufmann, which won first prize in the Drama League contest held last April. Others are "That's Telling Her," second prize, by William Bennett; "Ghost Years," third prize, by Robert E. Wood [illegible] non-competitive to Grace S. Kaufmann. Louis Lacey is the [illegible] director. Associated with him in the direction are Nora Kaufmann, Jack Hiles, Jr., and Howard R. Eulenstein.

Varies Characterization

MARION DAVIES APPEARS AS COLORED MAMMY IN ONE SCENE OF 'GOING HOLLYWOOD'

PLAYS AND PLAYERS By William J. Lewis

"A Trip to Pressburg," in which Pola Negri will be seen in the Nixon, opening tonight, was produced by the famous Max Reinhardt in the Reinhardt Theater in Vienna nearly three years ago. Before the curtain had fallen on the last act, a cable was sent to Lee Shubert in New York by his European agent, who witnessed the first performance. As soon as the manuscript, in German, had reached New York, translations were made and copies then passed on to at least six reputable playwrights. The play was eventually produced in Philadelphia late last season, but the producer, Lee Shubert, was not satisfied. After two weeks, although it received favorable notices, he closed it for the season. Recently, when he decided to send it on tour again, he called in Harold Johnsrud, who had previously done some work on it, and Philip Dunning to make a new adaptation. The result, directed by George Abbott, is the season's third subscription offering.

* * *

Our Summer Playhouse of Fox Chapel and Arnold School will come forth as the Pittsburgh Civic Playhouse tonight in its own theater in the Hotel Schenley. If "Pittsburgh Civic Playhouse" has an ambitious sound to you—well, we guess you'll just have to give this heretofore modest group of young players credit for a lofty aim, that was reflected in their previous chrysaloid existence, and side with them in the hope that the bursting of the cocoon is significant of a grander flight. There is room here for a civic theater, and our youngsters of the Oakland experiment have set themselves as the foundation stone, and are trusting that you will help to build the structure. Maybe that metaphor, in which our subject is first a butterfly and then a stone, isn't so hot, but don't blame the promoters for that. Instead, give them your sympathy in a substantial way. Their first play is a comedy of the last New York season, "Three-Cornered Moon," that will be presented the first four nights of the week.

* * *

The possessor of natural gifts and a rare and original spirit, Cornelia Otis Skinner, who will come to the Nixon for three days, beginning Thursday, November 16, appears to be too much the rebel to utilize them by falling into footstep with her famous father, Otis Skinner, according to Charles McClintock, McKeesport boy, her press agent. The goddess of high adventure has been her constant guide, impelling her to fashion a career for herself. Charlie maintains. Although she made her stage debut in a small role with her father in "Blood and Sand," she discovered a happier medium for her talent by departing from the legitimate stage and reappearing in a solo program of character sketches written by herself. From that time onward, she has sought for the right material with which to embody her conception of a technique which would carry her character sketches nearer to the theater. She first found such a subject to her satisfaction in "The Wives of Henry VIII" and again in her second sequence "The Empress Eugenie," and now in "The Loves of Charles II," which will be seen here for the first time. Miss Skinner's final withdrawal from the legitimate stage and her assumption of her present work came only after she had had ample opportunity to weigh the advantages and disadvantages of both forms of artistic expression. She realized that in abandoning conventional theatrical production, she would be deprived of the greatest aid to the actor, the director. She was getting out on a solitary path. Compensation were the numerous rewards for a single-handed performer. She was renouncing a vast world for a small one, but a world of her own design.

Protean

Cornelia Otis Skinner will be seen in the Nixon Thursday, Friday and Saturday, November 16, 17 and 18 in programs of clear, cut-out, vital, one-bill including "The Wives of Henry VIII," another covering the life of "The Empress Eugenie," a third being devoted to "The Loves of Charles II."

Musical Film to Have No Chorus Girl

Charles R. Rogers, independent producer, is making a musical comedy without a single chorus girl. "The Girl Without a Room," from Jack Lait's story, has musical numbers, but they are sung by the three featured players.

Molder

Wynne Gibson molds a sap into a man in "Aggie Appleby, Maker of Men," comedy coming Friday to screen of the Davis.

Thrills of Race on Screen In Hearst News

THE GLOBE TROTTER

Tragedy and thrills in pictures of the 100-lap auto race in Los Angeles are shown in the current issue of Hearst Metrotone News, with a description by the Globe Trotter. Fighting for the Pacific coast championship, the drivers take terrific chances. A car driven by George Connors is sideswiped by another, turns completely around and catches fire. Attendants are unable to aid Connors, who drags himself out of the blazing machine.

Views of a terrific oil fire, in which three persons perished and 12 were injured, come from Tiverton, R. I.

Secretary of Labor Frances Perkins and Thomas W. Lamont are seen and heard as they plead for support of the crusade for children at a rally in New York City.

Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt is accorded a tremendous reception at the World's Fair in Chicago on Woman's Day.

Champion Jim Browning and Jumping Joe Savoldi are seen in one of those amazing wrestling matches, which is won by Browning.

There is a display of streamline hats, Dame Fashion's latest fad for women. The styles are copied from the lines of airplanes, ocean liners, autos and even dirigibles.

Jackie Westrope, aged 16, new king of jockeys, is seen winning his two hundred and fiftieth race in a year at Arlington Downs, Texas.

First pictures are shown of the wreck of the Cherbourg-Paris express in which 40 persons were killed.

Primo Carnera receives a tremendous reception in the streets of Rome after victoriously defending his championship title against Paulino Uzcudun.

Attractive girls are shown taking lessons in making cocktails in the latest institution of learning in New York City—the bartenders' institution!

(Note: Owing to the necessity upon theater managers to arrange their programs on time schedules, it is possible that some of the subjects in the above issue of Hearst Metrotone News may not be shown in your theater.)

FILMLAND

LOEW'S PENN — R-KO UNITED ARTISTS
WALTER WINCHELL'S "BROADWAY THRU A KEYHOLE"
ALSO MICKEY MOUSE in "PUPPY LOVE"
STARTS FRIDAY
MYRNA LOY—MAN BAER "The Prizefighter & The Lady"

FULTON
TODAY THRU WEDNESDAY
The Marvel Murder Mystery Romance of the Year.
CHARLIE CHAN'S GREATEST CASE
WARNER OLAND WITH HEATHER ANGEL

PITT — PITTSBURGH'S new deal IN ENTERTAINMENT
OPENS 11:45 DAILY
—NOW—THRU THURSDAY—
IRENE VERMILLION REVUE
FRANK PARNUM—6 Other Acts
On Screen—"I HAVE LIVED"
Alan Dinehart, Anita Page
VAUDEVILLE

FILMLAND

STANLEY
DICK POWELL in 'COLLEGE COACH' PAT O'BRIEN—ANN DVORAK
HUGH HERBERT—ARTHUR BYRON
WARNER • SHERIDAN SQ.
Barbara STANWYCK in "EVER IN MY HEART"
OTTO KRUGER—RALPH BELLAMY
DAVIS
'Too Much Harmony'
ENRIGHT
LAST 2 DAYS!
'LADY FOR A DAY'

Warner Bros. THEATRES — For a GOOD SHOW, CALL ATLANTIC 9200
REGENT — "HER BODYGUARD" Also 'Dangerous Crossroads'
ROWLAND — BING CROSBY in 'TOO MUCH HARMONY'
SO. HILLS — WARNER BAXTER in "PENTHOUSE"
KENYON — Summerville & Pitts in "Love, Honor & Oh, Baby"
ETNA — WARNER BAXTER in "PENTHOUSE"
SCHENLEY — BING CROSBY in "TOO MUCH HARMONY"
MANOR — WARNER BAXTER Myrna Loy in "PENTHOUSE"
ARSENAL — BING CROSBY in 'TOO MUCH HARMONY'
BELMAR — "THIS DAY AND AGE"
PLAZA — KATHARINE HEPBURN in 'MORNING GLORY'
WM. PENN — 'BUREAU OF MISSING PERSONS'
RITZ — "PILGRIMAGE" Also "Man of the Forest"
CAMERA-PHONE — "WILD BOYS of the ROAD"
PALACE — JOHN and LIONEL BARRYMORE, Helen Hayes, Clark Gable in 'NIGHT FLIGHT'
AMBRIDGE — AMBRIDGE
John P. Harris MEMORIAL — McKEESPORT

TODAY'S NEIGHBORHOOD THEATERS

PARAMOUNT (N. S.) JEAN PARKER in "WHAT PRICE INNOCENCE" REGIS TOOMEY in "SOLDIERS OF THE STORM"
RIALTO (Upper Fifth Avenue) CLAUDETTE COLBERT in "THE TORCH SINGER" Walt Disney's "THREE LITTLE PIGS"
BRUSHTON LIONEL BARRYMORE in "ONE MAN'S JOURNEY" Also "DELUGE"
HARRIS, BEECHVIEW GARY COOPER in "ONE SUNDAY AFTERNOON"
HARRIS, MT. OLIVER BING CROSBY in "TOO MUCH HARMONY"
HARRIS, FAMILY BUSTER CRABBE in "TARZAN THE FEARLESS"
MELROSE "THE MAN WHO DARED" "SOLDIERS OF THE STORM" Also Shorts
TRIANGLE (E. E.) CHAS. STARRETT in "RETURN OF CASEY JONES" Also Zane Grey's "MAN OF THE FOREST"
BELLEVUE CLAUDETTE COLBERT in "TORCH SINGER"
HIPPODROME (N. S.) SPENCER TRACY in "SHANGHAI MADNESS" JOAN BLONDELL in "GOODBYE AGAIN"
ROXIAN (McKees Rocks) RICHARD ARLEN in "GOLDEN HARVEST"
BRIGHTON (N. S.) CAROLE LOMBARD in "SUPERNATURAL" KEN MAYNARD in "KING OF THE ARENA" Also Installment of "TARZAN THE FEARLESS"
GARDEN (N. S.) ALICE BRADY in "STAGE MOTHER" Also Shorts
LIBERTY (E. E.) GEORGE ARLISS in "VOLTAIRE" PAUL LUKAS in "SING, SINNER, SING"

AMUSEMENTS

NIXON TONIGHT 8:20 Mats. Wed. & Sat.
Third Play of the American Theatre Society's 33d Theatre Guild Subscription Season
MR. LEE SHUBERT Presents
POLA NEGRI
IN THE WIDELY HERALDED EUROPEAN SUCCESS
"A TRIP TO PRESSBURG"
REMARKABLE CAST OF 50—10 GRIPPING SCENES
Prices—Nights, 83c, $1.10, $1.65, $2.20, $2.75. Wed. & Sat. Mats., 83c, $1.10, $1.65, $2.20

VARIETY Twice Daily 2:15—8:15
'HOLLYWOOD ON PARADE'
MELANGE OF PRETTY GIRLS—COMEDY—MELODY.

Among the RIGHT PEOPLE in NEW YORK

The Right People have set the seal of their approval on THE LOMBARDY. Familiar with the best they recognize the suavity of THE LOMBARDY service, the authentic charm of THE LOMBARDY atmosphere, the perfection of THE LOMBARDY cuisine. And, being schooled in the tariffs of world-famous hotels, they realize that THE LOMBARDY offers superlative value.

The Lombardy
111 East 56th Street, New York
Just off Park Avenue

All in a Day

By Mark Hellinger

Answer to a Request

"DEAR Mr. Hellinger," writes Karl Gruenwald, of 528 Brompton avenue, Chicago. "I have read your column with great interest, and I am anxious to get in competition with you in the future. Will you be good enough to tell me how to gain this ability? So far I have tried in vain." . . .

Dear Mr. Gruenwald:

Thank you for your letter, and for the flattery contained in it. It is good to hear that you want to learn how to become a columnist. You'd be surprised to know how many of my readers write to my editors and request that I learn the very same thing.

But that's neither here nor there, as we columnists so cleverly say. You write me for information, and I must sit down and supply it to you. You don't mind if my other readers listen in, do you? After all, the eight of us are all friends.

As soon as you have definitely determined to become a columnist, you buy yourself an old desk and litter it with papers. You then purchase a typewriter and place it on the desk in such a manner that the papers are always in the way of the typewriter, and the typewriter is always in the way of the papers.

This is most important, Mr. Gruenwald, because after you have seated yourself and typed out a line or two, you immediately become disgusted and say:

"Oh, hell. Everything's wrong today. I think I'll use something a reader sent me, and let it go at that."

When you can say that, sir, you are already on the verge of becoming a full-fledged columnist . . .

Have you any friends, Mr. Gruenwald? You can't have many, or one of them would have told you not to be a columnist in the first place. But if you have friends, prepare to shed them now. A good column means bad friends. You can't have one without the other.

So begin to act eccentric. Smack your wife in the kisser, and show up at dinner parties in an old-fashioned nightshirt. Wear an overcoat in the summer and a Palm Beach suit in the winter. Eat crackers in bed and tell everybody you like radishes with butter on them. Shave your head and grow a beard.

And before you know it, people will be saying:

"There goes Karl Gruenwald. He's doing the craziest things these days. Why, he's acting like a regular columnist!"

You see how easy it is, sir . . .

You must, of course, begin to talk familiarly of big names in the social and theatrical world. The President is always "Frankie" to you, and you must never call John Barrymore anything but "Jack." Let it be noised around that you and Joan Crawford were sweeties back in the good old days, and that Mae West begged you to come up and see her sometime. Don't tell them whether you went or not. Act mysterious—and let 'em guess.

Big names are very important, Karl, because they help to dress your column. Let me show you what I mean:

Before you start your first column, you buy yourself an old joke book. If you can't find one that's old enough, you write to your favorite radio comedian and ask him where he gets his material. He will be only too happy to tell you where you can buy the world's oldest joke books.

As soon as the book arrives, you open it anywhere. You find a riddle that asks why the chicken crossed the road—and the answer is: "To get on the other side." You sit down, and you immediately begin to dress it up.

Before you realize it, you have your joke.

"Why," it reads, "did Peggy Joyce cross the street?"

And the answer is:

"Because Max Baer was on the other side!"

Do you get it, Mr. Gruenwald? You have employed the name of a famous pugilist and you have dragged in Peggy Joyce, who hates to be dragged except on special occasions. The joke is printed from coast to coast, and you find yourself famous.

Six months later, it is in three movies at the same time. A year later, it is in the college magazines. Two years later, it is used by the radio comedian who sent you the joke book in the first place. Three years later, a contributor sends it in to you with new names. You use it. And the whole thing starts all over again.

It's all very thrilling, Karl. Like listening to a speech by Henry Ford, or seeing some battleships in the newsreels . . .

I'm nearing the end of my space, sir, and I'm very sorry about it. There are so many other things I would like to tell you about before you actually embark on your career as a columnist.

I'd like to tell you, for example, that you must get a dog to write about. If it isn't a dog, then it should be a baby. You can't be a real columnist without a dog, or a baby, or both. Suppose you talk the whole matter over with your wife.

I've given you plenty of advice, Karl, and I hope you appreciate it. I have but one more suggestion to offer:

When you have finished your first column and are ready to submit it to an editor, you immediately tear it up. Then you throw your desk out the window, and follow it with your typewriter. Then you take your wife in your arms and say:

"I'm not going to do it honey. I'm not going to be a columnist. I'm going to stay straight!" . . .

Good luck, Mr. Gruenwald. And thanks for writing to me.

Most cordially,

Mark Hellinger.

(Copyright, 1933, Daily Mirror, Inc.)

GRAU PLANNING NEWS CONTROL

HAVANA, Nov. 6.—(AP.)—Government leaders shaped a legal bludgeon today with which to battle oppositionists who have kept the Grau regime on the brink of overthrow for weeks.

A new law of national defense will give "extraordinary powers to meet the present emergency," said Dr. Antonio Guiterrez, Secretary of War and the Interior.

For one thing, he declared, the administration will be authorized to halt a campaign of "false news" against the government's stability.

Meanwhile, students at the University of Havana planned a manifestation against United States Ambassador Welles. In a turbulent meeting at which shouts of "down with Welles" rang out, Eduardo Chibas, student directory member, asserted that the Ambassador was responsible for Cuba's economic plight.

It was after this that the demonstration was decided upon. It probably will be held those in charge of preparations said, within a few days.

FALCONS VOTE ROOSEVELT AID

Delegates representing 40,000 Polish Falcons in Western Pennsylvania, meeting in the organization's hall in South Eighteenth street yesterday, pledged support to President Roosevelt's recovery program and completed plans for a campaign of literary and physical education among Polish children.

Dr. T. A. Starzynski, national president, presided. Speakers were Mrs. M. Korpanty, vice president; G. Pieprzny, chief physical instructor, and J. L. Klosowicz, secretary.

The next convention will be held the last Sunday in January, at New Kensington.

ARMY MAN WINS NEW TRIAL FOR WIFE MURDER

International News Service.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—The Supreme Court today ordered a new trial for Maj. Charles A. Shepard, sentenced to life imprisonment after a jury held him guilty of murdering his wife at Fort Riley, Kans., in 1929.

Maj. Shepard, an Army doctor, was charged with killing his wife by giving her poison in a highball.

The appeal was based upon alleged errors in the trial, Shepard charging error in admitting a statement of Mrs. Shepard that "Dr. Shepard has poisoned me;" a statement to an Army sergeant that she believed she was being poisoned, and the court excusing from the jury panel men who had read Dr. Shepard's statement of the case in a newspaper.

Mrs. Shepard was taken ill on May 20, 1929, and lived until June 15.

The trial was held in the Federal District Court of Kansas.

Justice Cardozo read the opinion of the high court, holding the statement of Mrs. Shepard was not a "dying statement" and should not have been admitted as testimony. It was shown, the court held, that she believed that she was dying when she said that Dr. Shepard had poisoned her.

The court also held inadmissible as evidence testimony designed to show that Mrs. Shepard had indicaetd a desire to die.

U. S. Taking Bids For Canned Beef

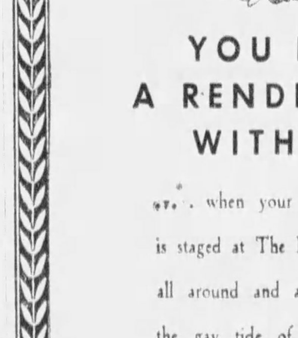
WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—(AP.)—Bids for 15,000,000 pounds of canned beef to be distributed to the destitute throughout the country were opened today at the offices of the Federal Surplus Relief Corporation.

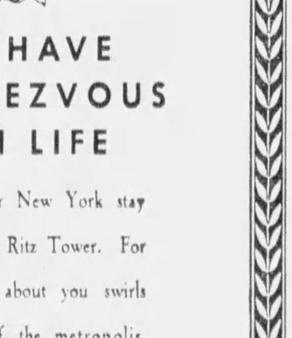
No prices were made public due to the fact that the bids are on a complicated basis, taking into consideration the price the packer is to pay the farmer for live cattle and the proximity of his plant to the area where the meat is to be used.

Cunard, White Star Lines Plan Merger

LONDON, Nov. 6.—(AP.)—The world's greatest shipping combination is expected to result from the amalgamation of the Cunard and White Star Lines, negotiations for which authoritatively were reported near conclusion today.

Are You A
COLDS-SUSCEPTIBLE?





Do You CATCH COLD Easily?

If you have 4 or more miserable colds a year—you're what medical authorities call a "Colds-Susceptible." At that first warning sign of "catching cold," use Vicks Nose & Throat Drops, the new aid in preventing colds.

Do Your Colds Hang On AND ON?

If you have much trouble in throwing off colds, you're a Colds-Susceptible! At bedtime, apply Vicks VapoRub. Its night-long poultice-vapor action . . . proved by two generations . . . brings soothing relief. Helps to end a cold sooner.

WELCOME NEWS FOR COLDS-SUSCEPTIBLES!

In clinical tests among thousands, Vicks Plan for better Control of Colds has greatly reduced the number and duration of colds. Full details of the Plan in each Vicks package.

VICKS PLAN FOR BETTER CONTROL OF COLDS

YOU HAVE A RENDEZVOUS WITH LIFE

. . . when your New York stay is staged at The Ritz Tower. For all around and about you swirls the gay tide of the metropolis, carrying you with it to heights of enjoyment no previous visit to New York has offered.

Rates are less than you'd expect . . . everything considered

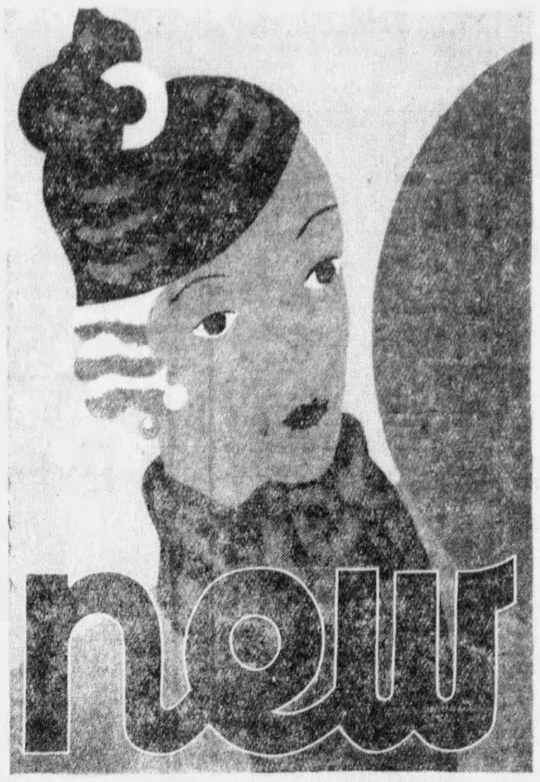
The Ritz Tower

Park Avenue • • • at 57th Street

NEW YORK

NRA

A NOVEMBER SALE



to better acquaint you with the . . .

The NEW HAT BOX . . . no doubt you've noticed that bright corner not far from the Sixth Avenue entrance on the street floor . . . just "came out" a few weeks ago, but we predict for it a very brilliant future. Its modern niches are a constant revelation of what smart heads are wearing . . . results of Paris cables and Fifth Avenue fashion reports can be found all around . . . of course they are only copies, but then they only cost around $1 or $3, and for the alert young women who wants a fabric or felt hat to accompany every costume, this Hat Box is the place for her to shop. Try it tomorrow.

McCREERY'S

These Suits Went Like "Hot Cakes" in New York!

TWEED SUITS

Made to sell for $19.75! . . .

$12.95

We said, "Why should New York be the only favorite? Send us as many as you can at this special price!" We knew there would be plenty of Pittsburgh women who would jump at the chance to secure such a suit for this low price. Best part of it all the coats are long enough to be worn separately in many cases, so think how practical they will be. There are blacks and browns, greens, and wine . . . flecked tweeds and novelty designs Sizes 14 to 40. Berets to match.

A) Tweed, collarless, double fold shoulderettes.

B) Flecked tweed, pointed shoulder, ascot tie.

C) Diagonal tweed, dropped shoulder, ascot tie.

McCREERY'S 10TH FLOOR BUDGET SHOPS

We Did Some Early Christmas Planning!

1000 PAIRS OF Crepe Boudoir Slippers

95c

We knew if we went after them now we'd get the pick of the market and WE DID! Wait 'till you see them . . . tucks . . . bows . . . buttons . . . rosettes . . . the nicest quality black crepe you can imagine with beautiful linings in blue, flame, peach or green . . . and just enough of a heel to make them comfortable. Who could ask for more . . . and think! only 95c. Sizes 3½ to 8.

MAIL ORDER-GRAM

Name .....

Address .....

City .....

Color Lining . . Style . . Size . .

☐ Chg. ☐ C.O.D. ☐ Check

(McCreery's—10th Floor Budget Shops)

Men---

leading the field by an overwhelming margin!

SUITS---
O'COATS

November Sale Priced

$23.75 each

We're not predicting who'll be elected mayor . . . BUT we do know that these are values that are amazing at $23.75!

- Two-trouser suits in serviceable worsteds, cheviots . . . in the shades and patterns most in demand.
- Overcoats—all brand new, this season's styling. Balmaccans, raglans, single and double-breasted box coats, half belted models. Sturdy fabrics . . . newest patterns and shades.

(McCreery's—Seventh Floor)

Men's Coat SWEATERS

$1.85

No ballyhoo about these. Their Winter warmth is assured. Seven buttons right up the front. Two large pockets—reinforced at all points of strain. Plain and heather mixtures in navy, brown, tan and oxford. Sizes 36 to 44.

(McCreery's—Men's Shop—Street Floor)

MELODY, DRAMA :: Wayne King K-7 Story :: ON AIR

Radio Artists May Form Union

By AIRCASTER

In the modernized wireless lexicon, the average sustaining program is "a show that you can't sell."

Back in the dim past, when ideals were fresher, it was a broadcast designed to sustain public interest; a sort of treasure island surrounded by ballyhoo—a haven to which the jaded eavesdropper and the eager artist might turn in the hurricane of hectic commercialism.

Today, the haven is a barren wilderness and those cast upon its bleak dunes are performers in whom sponsors have no interest and with whom broadcasters are only selfishly concerned.

In days before radio became strictly a salesroom, sustaining programs represented the broadcasters' duty to the public; performers on them were the cream of the profession.

There flourished a pretty theory that the audience was entitled to the best. Occasionally, sans the stigmata of the sales talk.

* * *

Milk Skimmed

But the radio chieftains lately have applied themselves to economics. Money had to be saved.

At the moment, a sustaining artist is indeed fortunate if he can sustain himself.

Unless he happens to belong to a union, and unless he happens to be a musician, there is no protection for which he may apply.

He works now for coffee and cakes, or for nothing.

It is not so amazing that the non-sponsored programs, as a rule, have lost their sparkle and appeal.

* * *

To Collect Collectively

There have been rumors for months of a radio artists' organization, analagous to Actors' Equity, for their protection.

The nucleus of this body, one hears, has begun to gather force, and will seek to put the sustaining program on a higher plane by exacting for non-sponsored performers an equable compensation.

That ought to be good news for the gangs on both sides of the mike.

* * *

Gene and Glenn

For more than a year, Gene and Glenn have been off the radio webs, and away from their habitat, Cleveland, on a barnstorming tour of Pittsburgh, Springfield, Mass., and their outlying villages.

It was strange indeed, that this team, said to have the greatest "audience pull" extant, was allowed to pass into comparative obscurity.

They're to have another crack at network performances via NBC, working out of Cleveland, for a week, beginning a week from Sunday at 8 a. m.

* * *

A Round Figure

An automobile firm, in a hurry to get on the air, yesterday extended to Mae West the offer of a contract for 13 weeks, presumably on the CBS waves.

For the first time in many offers, Mae responded:

"C'm up 'n talk t'me!"

Which is not at all astonishing.

The expectant sponsor proffered the interesting sum of $7,500 a week.

TEN BEST BETS

8:00—WCAE—Troubadours.
KDKA—Side Show.
8:30—WCAE—Floyd Gibbons.
WJAS—Bing Crosby.
9:00—KDKA—Minstrels.
9:30—WCAE—Ship of Joy.
WJAS—The Big Show.
10:00—WJAS—Wayne King.
10:30—WCAE—K-7.
11:30—WCAE—Paul Whiteman.

Monday, Nov. 6.

4:00 P. M.

WCAE—Headlines in Song.
WJAS—Mimo Bonaldi's Orchestra.
KDKA—Betty and Bob.
KQV—Radio Cutups.
WWSW—WWSW Artists.

4:15 P. M.

WCAE—Kathleen Stewart, pianist.
KDKA—Reed Kennedy, baritone.
KQV—Rita Claire Layton.
WWSW—Minnie Forbes, pianist.

4:30 P. M.

WCAE—Ray Heatherton, baritone.
WJAS—News; Welfare Fund Appeal.
KDKA—Negro Education Week Program.
KQV—The Special.
WWSW—Book Man.

4:45 P. M.

WCAE—Sun-Telegraph Family—Children's Program—Jane A. White, director.
WJAS—Artists' Recital.
WWSW—Dick Tracy.

4:50 P. M.

WJAS—Leo Lehman, speaking for Montefiire Hospital.

5:00 P. M.

WJAS—Jimmy DePalma, tenor.
KDKA—Uncle Tom and Betty.
WWSW—Radio Rascals.

5:15 P. M.

WCAE—Popular Tunes.
WJAS—The Dictators.
KDKA—Kiddies Klub.
KQV—Crazy Hill Billies.

5:30 P. M.

WCAE—Tom Mix and his Straight Shooters.
WJAS—Jack Armstrong — All-American Boy.
KDKA—The Singing Lady.
KQV—Silent until 7:30.
WWSW—Lew Heller, tenor.

5:45 P. M.

WCAE—The "Wizard of Oz."
WJAS—Cowboy Tom.
KDKA—Little Orphan Annie.
WWSW—News—Walt Framer.

6:00 P. M.

WCAE—"Prehistoric Glimpses"—John J. Burke, Carnegie Museum Education Series.
WJAS—Buck Rogers.
KDKA—News; Pat Haley, Romantic Troubadour.
WWSW—Ed. Sprague's Sport Slants.

6:15 P. M.

WCAE—Program Announcement; Xavier Cugat's Orchestra.
WJAS—Those Three Girls.
KDKA—Sports; Weather; Program Preview.
WWSW—Hahn Minstrel Troupe.

6:30 P. M.

WCAE—The Globe Trotter of the Sun-Telegraph and Hearst Metrotone News.
WJAS—McNair for Mayor.
KDKA—Evensong; Drama from Real Life.
WWSW—Happy Feet.

6:40 P. M.

WCAE—Twilight Tunes — Ruth Johnstone, pianist.

6:45 P. M.

WCAE—Black and Blue.
WJAS—Songs at Eventide.
KDKA—Lowell Thomas.
WWSW—Singing Blue Boy.

7:00 P. M.

WCAE—Roxanne Wallace, contralto; William Edmondson and Southernaires.
WJAS—Myrt and Marge.
KDKA—Amos 'n' Andy.
WWSW—Jack Brush Hawaiians.

7:15 P. M.

WCAE—Gustav L. Schramm, political address.
WJAS—Just Plain Bill.
KDKA—Baby Rose Marie.
WWSW—Dr. J. C. McBurney, tenor; Sondra Lee, pianist.

7:30 P. M.

WCAE—Lum and Abner.
WJAS—Musical Jubilee.
KDKA—Potash and Perlmutter.
KQV—Gold Room Concert.
WWSW—ABC Trio.

7:45 P. M.

WCAE—The Goldbergs.
WJAS—Boake Carter News.
KDKA—What Would You Do?
WWSW—WWSW Artists.

8:00 P. M.

WCAE—WCAE Troubadours.
Bill Calzone, violinist; Russell Smith, guitar; Tom Lombardo, piano-accordion, and Ernst Lavish, master of string bass, quartet; Tom Murdoch and Howard Price, tenors; Tom Morris, Jr., baritone, and Raymond Griffin, basso.

"When Day Is Done"

Medley—
Smiles.
I Want a Girl.
Pack Up Your Troubles.
Troubadours.
You're Gonna Lose Your Gal.
Quartet.
When Day Is Done.
Troubadours.
Carolina Moon.
Quartet.
Somewhere a Voice Is Calling.
Howard Price, tenor.
Travesty—Quartet from "Rigoletto."
Quartet.
Somebody Loves Somebody Wins.
Troubadours.

WJAS-KQV—McNair for Mayor.
KDKA—Sealed Power Side Show.
Cliff Soubier, barker. Morin Sisters, harmony trio. King's Jesters, vocal trio; Harold Stokes' Orchestra.
WWSW—Prillerman Rhythm Boys.

8:15 P. M.

WJAS—Edwin C. Hill.
KQV—Jack, Queen and King.
WWSW—News.

8:25 P. M.

WCAE—Eugene L. Connelly, address in support of proposed amendment for sports and entertainments on professional basis on Sundays.

8:30 P. M.

WCAE—Floyd Gibbons; Victor Young's Orchestra.
WJAS—Bing Crosby with Lennie Hayton's Orchestra.
KDKA—The Troopers.
KQV—Edgar Morris, tenor.
WWSW—Joe Schafer's Orchestra.

8:45 P. M.

KDKA—Red Davis.
KQV—Paradise Serenaders.

9:00 P. M.

WCAE—Mayor John S. Herron and Councilman W. Y. English.
WJAS—Manhattan Serenaders.
KDKA—Minstrels.
Minstrel show with Gene Arnold, interlocutor; Joe Parsons, tenor; male quartet; Bill Childs, Mac McCloud and Clifford Soubier, end men; band director, Harry Kogen.

"That Moaning Trombone"

I Love the Land of Old Black Joe.
You Gotta Be a Football Hero.
When the Mailman Says No Mail Today.
That Moaning Trombone.
Coon's Doxology.

Are You From Dixie?
The Daring Young Man on the Flying Trapeze.
Big Bass Viol.
Constantly.
Moonlight Jubilee.

KQV—Ship of Dreams.
WWSW—Metropolitans Quartet.
WWSW—Louise McElravey, pianist.

9:30 P. M.

WCAE—Ship of Joy.
Hugh Barrett Dobbs, guest artists; Dorie and Knickerbocker quartets; orchestra direction Meredith Willson.
WJAS—The Big Show.
KDKA—Melody Moments.

"You've Got Everything"

Excerpts from "Chu Chin Chow."
Your Eyes Have Told Me So.
Orchestra and Fogarty.
You've Got Everything.
Orchestra.
Intermezzo from "Pagliacci."
Orchestra.
The Fairy Tales of Ireland.
Orchestra and Fogarty.
Tango "Charme D'Espagne."
Orchestra.
Selections from "Strike Me Pink."
Orchestra and Fogarty.

KQV—Eddie Peyton's Orchestra.
WWSW—Air Theater.

10:00 P. M.

WCAE—Contented Program.
Gene Arnold, narrator; the Lullaby Lady; male quartet; orchestra direction Morgan L. Eastman; Jean Paul King, announcer.
WJAS—Wayne King's Orchestra.
KDKA—Country Club.
KQV—Good Night.
WWSW—Leroy Bradley's Orchestra.

10:30 P. M.

WCAE—K-7, Spy Story.
WJAS—McNair for Mayor.
KDKA—Pageant.
WWSW—News.

10:45 P. M.

WWSW—WWSW Artists.

11:00 P. M.

WCAE—William Scotti's Music.
WJAS—Gladys Rice, soprano, with Concert Orchestra.
KDKA—Weather; Sports; News.
WWSW—Joe Schafer's Orchestra.

11:15 P. M.

WCAE—King's Jesters.
WJAS—News.
KDKA—Golf Lesson—Jimmy O'Donnell.

11:30 P. M.

WCAE—Paul Whiteman's Orchestra.
WJAS—Eddie Peyton's Orchestra.
KDKA—Happy Felton's Orchestra.
WWSW—Good Night.

12:00 Midnight

WCAE—Mark Fisher's Orchestra.
WJAS—Leon Belasco's Orchestra.
KDKA—Marty Gregor's Orchestra.

12:30 A. M.

WCAE—Benny Meroff's Orchestra.
WJAS—Good Night.
KDKA—The Tent Club.

1:00 P. M.

WCAE—Weather.
KDKA—Good Night.

Ballots Explained By Mark Shields

The Sun-Telegraph Family Children's Program is heard over WCAE this afternoon at 4:45.

The Globe Trotter, voice of the Sun-Telegraph and Hearst Metrotone News, broadcasts the day's news over WCAE-WJAS at 12:15 p. m.; over WJAS at 2:15 p. m., and over WCAE-WJAS at 6:30 p. m.

Mark Shields, political editor of the Sun-Telegraph, shares tonight's 6:30 broadcast with the Globe Trotter, to explain the proper marking of election day ballots.

EARLY TUESDAY PROGRAMS

WCAE

6:45 A. M.—Health Exercises.
8:00 A. M.—Richard Leibert, organist.
8:30 A. M.—Cheer.
9:00 A. M.—Morning Time.
9:15 A. M.—The Man in Place After Abbott.
9:30 A. M.—Variety Age Orchestra.
9:35 A. M.—Bradley Kincaid, the Mountain Boy.
9:45 A. M.—Aga Press—Time Wise Shoppers.
10:00 A. M.—Aga Press—Time Tips.
10:15 A. M.—Morning Melody.
10:30 A. M.—Dr. Wynn.
10:35 A. M.—Your Favorite Song, Howard Price, tenor.
10:45 A. M.—Your Friend, Dr. Ella Oppenheimer.
11:00 A. M.—Pancha Time.
11:15 A. M.—Frances Lee Barton.
11:30 A. M.—Pittsburgh Traffic Court in Session.
Hearing.
12:00 Noon—Chet Wynn and Merry Men.
12:15 P. M.—The Globe Trotter of the Sun-Telegraph and Hearst Metrotone News.
12:30 P. M.—Maurice Cook and His Concert Ensemble.
1:00 P. M.—Morning Devotional Exercises.
1:30 P. M.—Dick Gasparre and His Orchestra.
2:00 P. M.—Merry Moments.
2:15 P. M.—The Globe Trotter of the Sun-Telegraph and Hearst Metrotone News.
2:30 P. M.—Ann Leaman, soprano.
2:45 P. M.—Father and Son Tie Program—N. Y. University Glee Club, director.
Alfred Greenlee, Alexander Kincaid, director of the Community Service of Aeronautics, N. Y.
3:15 P. M.—Bible Lesson Hour.
3:30 P. M.—Woman's Radio Review.
4:00 P. M.—Tea Dansant—Dorothea Ottochester.
4:30 P. M.—Jack and Loretta Clemens, guitar and [illegible].
4:45 P. M.—[illegible] featuring [illegible].
5:00 P. M.—[illegible] ista—Arlene [illegible] chorus.
5:30 P. M.—Dan [illegible].
5:45 P. M.—Wally Wanger.
5:50 P. M.—Pastor [illegible].
5:58 P. M.—Program announcement.
6:00 P. M.—Mme. [illegible] Xavier Cugat's Orchestra.

WJAS

7:30 A. M.—Early [illegible].
8:00 A. M.—Pittsburgh Engineer.
8:15 A. M.—Musical [illegible].
8:30 A. M.—Cheer [illegible].
9:00 A. M.—Do [illegible].
9:15 A. M.—Lavern [illegible] Gaynor.
9:45 A. M.—Melody [illegible].
10:00 A. M.—Bill [illegible].
10:15 A. M.—Morning [illegible].
10:30 A. M.—Cruz [illegible] Band.
10:45 A. M.—The [illegible] Quartet.
11:00 A. M.—Alma [illegible].
11:15 A. M.—Big Brother Mose.
11:30 A. M.—Tom [illegible].
11:45 A. M.—Carlton [illegible] London.
12:00 Noon—Voice of Experience.
12:15 P. M.—The Globe Trotter of the Sun-Telegraph and Hearst Metrotone News.
12:30 P. M.—News [illegible].
12:35 P. M.—St. Luke's Church Service—Rev. James [illegible].
1:00 P. M.—Music [illegible].
1:30 P. M.—Ka[illegible].
1:45 P. M.—Painted Dreams.
2:00 P. M.—Joseph Knight, tenor.
2:15 P. M.—The Globe Trotter of the Sun-Telegraph and Hearst Metrotone News.
2:30 P. M.—Schools [illegible] Air.
3:00 P. M.—Melody [illegible].
3:30 P. M.—Organ [illegible] Recital.
3:45 P. M.—Tea [illegible].
4:00 P. M.—[illegible] Ruth.
4:30 P. M.—Nick [illegible].
4:45 P. M.—Waltz [illegible].
5:00 P. M.—Ethel [illegible] Orchestra.
5:15 P. M.—DeMalo Ensemble.
5:45 P. M.—Phil Regan, [illegible].
5:50 P. M.—Jack Armstrong, All-American Boy.
6:15 P. M.—George Hall's Orchestra.
6:30 P. M.—Buck Rogers.

KDKA

7:00 A. M.—The Musical Clock.
8:00 A. M.—Morning Devotions.
8:15 A. M.—Don Hall Trio.
8:30 A. M.—Lew White, organist.
9:00 A. M.—Breakfast Club.
9:30 A. M.—Style Service.
9:45 A. M.—News—Weather.
9:50 A. M.—Work a Day Thoughts.
10:00 A. M.—Melody—MacBeth Grape Juice.
10:15 A. M.—Grace Lee and Em.
10:30 A. M.—Tony Cabrera.
10:45 A. M.—Rhyming Strings.
11:00 A. M.—Four Southern Singers.
11:15 A. M.—Sonny Fuller.
11:30 A. M.—U. S. Marine Band—Short-in Hour.
12:00 P. M.—News.
12:05 P. M.—Business News—Markets.
12:45 P. M.—Hank Lawson's Orchestra.
1:00 P. M.—Farm and Home Hour.
1:58 P. M.—Weather Announcement.
2:15 P. M.—Musical Originalities.
2:30 P. M.—Home Forum.
3:00 P. M.—Rochester Civic Orchestra.
4:00 P. M.—Bert and Bob.
4:15 P. M.—Concert Miniatures.
4:30 P. M.—Business News—Markets.
4:45 P. M.—Harry Owens' Orchestra.
5:15 P. M.—Dick Fidler's Band.
5:30 P. M.—The Singing Lady.
5:45 P. M.—Little Orphan Annie.
6:00 P. M.—News—Pat Haley.

KQV

7:00 A. M.—The Breakfast Club.
8:00 A. M.—Arthur Pryor, organist.
8:30 A. M.—Sports City Mountaineers.
9:00 A. M.—Hugh Sprott, Yesterday.
9:30 A. M.—Style Service.
9:45 A. M.—Old Safe and Vault Co.
10:00 A. M.—Rhythm Time.
10:15 A. M.—The Singing Lady.
10:30 A. M.—The Big Show.
11:00 A. M.—Organ Recital.
11:45 A. M.—Home Sweet Home.
12:00 Noon—Scandia Orchestra.
12:30 P. M.—Radio Revue.
1:00 P. M.—Lew Ayres in Dance.
1:30 P. M.—Kiss and Make Up—Talk It Over.
1:45 P. M.—Rhythm Boys, songs.
2:00 P. M.—Matinee Club.
2:45 P. M.—The Ma Bar.
3:00 P. M.—Lee Rogers Orchestra.
3:30 P. M.—Keystone Concert.
3:45 P. M.—Mary Weathers, soprano.
4:00 P. M.—Radio Cutups.
4:30 P. M.—The Cadaspals.
4:45 P. M.—The Special Program.
5:00 P. M.—Signature Time.

WWSW

8:00 A. M.—Bud Vicars Poor Boy.
8:30 A. M.—The Cheerio Chaps.
8:45 A. M.—Melody.
9:00 A. M.—Lest We Forget—Lt. Jack Wilson.
9:30 A. M.—Morning Shoppers.
10:00 A. M.—Dr. Leon A. Wilcox.
10:15 A. M.—Jean and Jack.
10:30 A. M.—The General Store.
10:45 A. M.—Babette and Rock a Bye Lady.
11:00 A. M.—Kentucky Hill Billies.
11:45 A. M.—Gloom Chasers.
12:15 P. M.—Prof. Tish Travelogues.
12:30 P. M.—Hollywood Show Shopper.
1:15 P. M.—WWSW Artists.
1:00 P. M.—Luncheon Ensemble.
1:30 P. M.—Rhythm Ca[illegible]s—with Hall.
2:00 P. M.—Second Presbyterian Church.
3:15 P. M.—Warren Wheeler, The Melodeer.
3:30 P. M.—Variety Turnstile.
4:30 P. M.—Organ Melodies.
4:45 P. M.—Rochester Civic Orchestra.
5:00 P. M.—Hello and Bob.
5:15 P. M.—Congress of Clubs.
5:30 P. M.—Business News—Markets.
5:45 P. M.—Harry Owens Orchestra.
6:00 P. M.—Ed Sprague's Sport Slants with Honus Wagner.

Beech-Nut Coffee

NRA

RARE FLAVOR FROM TROPIC HEIGHTS

TO GET BEST RESULTS—BUY THE RIGHT "GRIND"

"STEEL CUT" for percolating or boiling

"DRIP GRIND" for all filtering devices

(Political Advertisement)

Guard Against Fraud

Take 15 minutes off tonight to listen to the story of how the Republican Machine plans to buy or steal tomorrow's election.

Every citizen, every voter, every taxpayer should tune in on

Station WJAS at 8 O'Clock Tonight and hear how to prevent this election steal.

Globe-Trotting

By LOUIS L. KAUFMAN

Hello, ladies and gentlemen:

Science is the keynote of the column today. All kinds of science—botany, agronomy, geography, and even the domestic variety.

August Battaglia, Morningside, has a red beet that weighs ten pounds.

Mrs. B. R. Verona, advises the use of toothpicks in keeping a layer cake together so that the top doesn't slide off to one side.

* * *

Mrs. R. B.—

Plant those lemon and orange seeds in profuse quantity in a bowl that could be used for a table centerpiece. I can't guarantee results but it may be worth trying.

* * *

Angelo De Luca and Mrs. A. Morden:

Your best procedure is to report the parties for whom you are searching to the Missing Persons Bureau of the Pittsburgh police. We have in Pittsburgh a highly efficient organization to seek out the whereabouts of missing people.

* * *

J. F. Otte—We have followed your suggestion by printing the sample ballots, not only for the general election of Mayor and Council, etc., but for the various amendments as well.

Mark Shields, our political editor, will be on the air with me tonight at 6:30 and will explain those ballots again.

* * *

Jane Giffin, Stockdale—Don't destroy those magazines that you have saved. Send them to me and I'll deliver them for you to one of the institutions. Thank you.

* * *

An anonymous trotter submits the answer to the geographical question printed here a few days ago.

Publisher of Song Books Broadcasts

If you don't know Joe Mitchell Chapple, you know his books of songs. "Heart Songs" and "Heart Throbs" are as much a fixture on piano racks as is the Gideons' Good Book in hotel rooms.

Joe Mitchell Chapple is in town today, and radio listeners hear him over KDKA at 7:45 tonight in a program titled "Pittsburgh Philosophies."

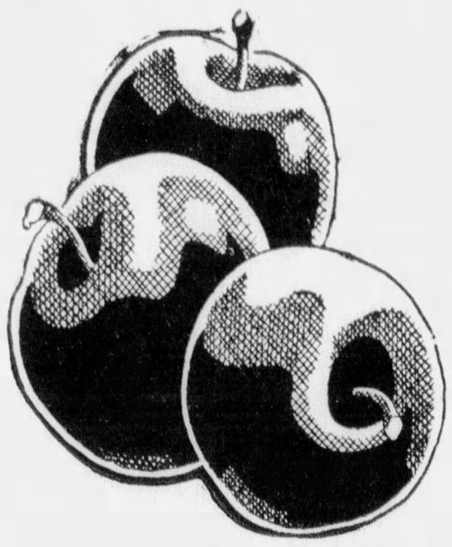
Local Highlights on WJAS Tonight

It's apparently a Blue Monday for Those Three Girls; they offer a medley of blues tunes as the high spot of their 6:15 broadcast.

Paul Gannon sings "O Paradis" from the opera "L'Africaine" as the feature of his 6:45 program.

Eddie Peyton mimics Singing Sam and Bing Crosby as the highlight of his 11:30 Frivolities.

Extra Fancy Northwestern Rome Beauty



Apples

6 lbs 25c

AT A&P STORES

Your A&P store is the headquarters, in your vicinity, for the most complete line of fresh garden produce, and luscious seasonal fruits, and the nationally famous A&P low prices are bound to save you money. Make it a habit to do all of your food shopping at A&P.

Evaporated Peaches		lb 10c
Duff's Cake Mix		can 19c
Brick or Cream Cheese		lb 19c
Good Luck	Oleo Margarine	2 lbs 25c
Cigarettes	Popular Brands	cans of 50 25c
Iona Peaches	No. 2½ can	15c
Whitehouse Milk		3 tall cans 17c
Encore	MACARONI or SPAGHETTI	4 8-oz pkgs 25c
Pumpkin		3 lge cans 25c
Pacific Toilet Paper		6 rolls 23c
Sunbrite Cleanser		2 cans 9c

ADDITIONAL BIG PRODUCE SPECIALS

Carrots California — 2 bchs 13c
Eat them Frequently for their Medicinal Qualities

Cabbage — 2 lbs 5c
Solid White Heads

Spinach — 2 lbs 15c
Garden Fresh—Crisp and Tender

Green Beans — lb 10c
Makes a Delicious Side Dish

Rutabagas — 2 lbs 5c
An Excellent Cold Weather Vegetable

NRA

Pure Lard	lb 7c
	Rendered and Refined
Nutley Oleo	4 lbs 25c
	Sold in Licensed Stores Only
Evaporated Apricots	2 lbs 25c
	Extra Choice Blenheims—Serve them Stewed for Breakfast
40-50 Prunes	3 lbs 25c
	Luscious California Fruit — 30-40 Size, lb 10c
Stringless Beans	3 No. 2 cans 19c
	Popular Iona Brand
Whole Milk Bread	24-oz loaf 10c
	Contains the Full Amount of Butter Fats—Fresh Each Day

REALLY FRESH COFFEE is ground before your eyes

BOKAR
COFFEE
lb 21c
SPECIAL LOW PRICE

Eight O'Clock Coffee lb 17c
Red Circle Coffee lb 21c

A&P Coffees are ground before your eyes just the way you want them ground. It's the only true way of getting your coffee fresh, and to have fresh coffee is to have good coffee. Try the 3 A&P coffees, one of them is sure to please you.

IN A&P MEAT MARKETS

EXTRA STANDARD
STEWING
OYSTERS
pint can 20c

Frying Oysters — pint can 25c

On Sale at All A&P Stores and Meat Markets

Lamb Chops Shoulders — lb 15c
Loin Lamb Chops, lb 25c — Rib Lamb Chops, lb 19c

Stewing Lamb — lb 10c
A Lamb Pot Pie Makes a Tasty Dish for Dinner

Pork Sausage — lb 17c
Denholm's—Link or Country Style

TUESDAY AND WEDNESDAY ONLY

Spareribs — lb 10c
Lean and Meaty
Sauerkraut — 2 lbs 15c
1933 Crop—Long Cut
A Combination of 1 lb of Spareribs and 2 lbs of Sauerkraut — both for 25c

A&P Food Stores

THE GREAT ATLANTIC AND PACIFIC TEA COMPANY

DR. GOLDENSON RESIGNATION ACCEPTED

Announcing the acceptance of the resignation of Dr. Samuel H. Goldenson as rabbi of Rodef Shalom congregation, Marcus Aaron, president of the congregation today said:

"Our congregation and our city will be poorer for his going."

The resignation, which will be effective February 1, was accepted at a meeting of the board of trustees last night in Rodef Shalom Temple, Fifth avenue. Dr. Goldenson has been elected senior rabbi at Temple Emanu-El, New York City.

In his statement, Mr. Aaron added:

"We have no alternative but to accede to his wish to be relieved here, since after much and long deliberation Dr. Goldenson has come to the definite conclusion that duty calls him to a larger field. He recognizes, as we do, that he is making a great personal sacrifice in going and that he is assuming a very difficult task. His conception of duty and his deep sense of personal responsibility have left him no alternative, but to assume the larger burden.

WOMAN AND BOY SLAIN IN FIGHT

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 6.—(AP.)—Mrs. Effie M. Wright and William Leyden, 15, were killed, and the youth's newly-married father, William P. Leyden, 49, was wounded dangerously in a shooting at the woman's home yesterday.

Police described Mrs. Wright, a widow, as the former sweetheart of Leyden, a motor car mechanic.

Detectives said the boy, a high school student, apparently was shot when he attempted to interfere in a quarrel.

Leyden's bride of two months, who came here from Birmingham, Ala., said she believed he had become demented.

Girl Runaway, 15, Writes She'll Wed

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 6.—(AP.)—A 15-year-old schoolgirl who wrote she was running away to be married and would not return until "I am past 16 and the truant officer can't get me," is being sought by police.

Grace Headman disappeared Saturday, wearing a bright yellow dress. When she did not return, her parents told police. Later they received a message from the girl.

Junior Patrol

Sports are fine, fellows, but so is good music!

On the radio almost every day is some wonderful music. Dance music is all right, sure, and we hope every boy and girl learns to like it too, but you should enjoy what is called good music—classical.

But classical is a poor name for good music. It seems to mean that good music is all old stuff, written many years ago and out of date now.

Instead, it means the most beautiful music written—some of it brand new—music so beautiful that it can make you laugh and cry, make you feel full of energy and power, or fill you with sadness.

Every Junior Patrol member should study music if he or she can. And take lessons so as to be able to play some musical instrument. The piano and violin are fine, but there are many other wonderful instruments—the trumpet, piccolo, harp, trombone, drums and clarinet to name just a few.

And if you play a band instrument, maybe you can play in a band for your school or college someday. The Junior Patrol orchestra is practicing hard.

A new member today is Harry R. Conroy, Jr., of 653 Boggs avenue, Mt. Washington. He will be seven years old this New Year's Eve! He will have a birthday even while the whistles are blowing and horns are tooting for the New Year. His friends will wish him a happy birthday and a happy New Year all in the same breath. Welcome, Harry.

Now here's a nice letter from Ruth Nicolette, of Box 170, Westmoreland City, Pa. She says:

"I would like to join the Junior Patrol. I am 12 years old and in the eighth grade. I read the 'Junior Patrol' every night and think it is very good. Here is the pledge. I will be very glad to join and I will try to get some of my friends to join. I am writing this in school."

Fine and dandy, Ruth, and we hope you have enough friends so that you can form a Junior Patrol club and elect a captain. Clubs have the most fun with parties and programs for helping others and for having a good time.

JUDGE a store by the customers it KEEPS. Almost 90% of our total business is done with our Charge Customers and accounts with Boggs & Buhl are handed down from one generation to another. You are invited to join this distinguished roster by opening a Boggs & Buhl charge account. Apply by telephone, mail or in person to our credit office.

10,000 new Customers in November

This Settles It! You Can't Afford NOT to Be a Boggs & Buhl Coat Customer

$42,000 Worth Luxurious

COATS

Now Priced $59.75

$69.75 to $79.75

NRA MEMBER U.S. WE DO OUR PART

Our Coat Department makes this unparalleled gesture to make your purchase of a Boggs & Buhl Coat irresistible! It means simply this. $69.75, $75, $79.75 coats at $59.75. We are not forced to reduce these coats. They're the season's leaders, with matchless furs—and because we want you as a Boggs & Buhl customer, we are deliberately sacrificing thousands of dollars to give you the best value you ever bought in a coat.

Thousands of women want that "Extra something" a Boggs & Buhl coat offers. Here is the opportunity to own one, at clear-cut savings of up to $20.

100 Models!
Fur Scarfs
Fur Sleeves Fur Stoles
—Little or "Loads of Fur"

Precious Furs!
Mink Persian
Foxes Russian Caracul
Kolinsky Hudson Seal*
*Dyed Muskrat

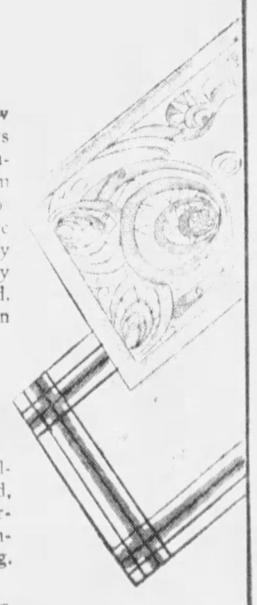
Your Size!
Misses', 14 to 20
Women's, 36 to 44
Shorter Women's, 14½-26½
Larger Sizes, 40½-52½
Juniors', 11 to 17

—Boggs & Buhl, Coat Dept., Second Floor—

HOSPITALITY SPECIAL No. 2

Damask Towels
Made in Russia

28c



The designs on these new Russian towels of ours will bring a shower of enthusiastic remarks from your guests. They're o fine white damask, exotic in pattern and typically Russian—and very, very low priced! Unhemmed. About 18x31½ inches in size.

Tea Towels 18c

Extra good quality all-linen towels with Red, Gold, Green or Blue borders all around. Soft finish. Taped for hanging. 18c each; $2.10 dozen.

—Linens, First Floor—

Maker Cannot Afford To Make Them To Sell at $7—

That's the "Why" of $7 Foundations
Closing Out at $5
All With Innerbelts

We cannot buy these good garments any more to sell at $7. We're making it up to you in this close-out of the complete line at $5. For average and large figures. Firmly boned, with innerbelt. Hurry!

—Boggs & Buhl, Second Floor—

BREAKFAST SETS
32 Pieces

$5.75

If you have to rise early there'll be comfort in breakfasting on such a gay and dainty set as this. . . This is a fine grade of porcelain, decorated with bright garlands of flowers and a narrow silver edge.

The price is unusually low. Service for six, $5.75. Dinner service for eight and twelve, $10.95 and $18.75 respectively.

—Boggs & Buhl, China, Third Floor—

BOGGS & BUHL

FREE PARKING
An unique service free to B & B customers. We will take your car at the door, park it and return it when you are through shopping. No tipping.

GREECE SCORNS TREATY BREAK OVER INSULL

International News Service.

ATHENS, Nov. 6.—Premier Panayoti Tsaldaris today indicated Greece would refuse to recognize action of the United States in denouncing the Greco-American extradition treaty.

The pact was denounced by Washington when the Courts of Appeals for the second time declined to extradite Samuel Insull wanted in Chicago on charges of fraudulent bankruptcy.

Asked whether Washington's action would prevent him to deport Insull despite the Court's action, the Premier said:

"I have no reason to interfere with the [illegible]."

The Premier indicated Greece would refuse to consider the treaty denounced and automatically expired at the end of five years.

The government is now engaged in drafting a reply to the diplomatic American communication notifying Greece of denunciation of the treaty.

Treaty Cancellation Notice Sent by U. S.

WASHINGTO[illegible] AP)—Secretary Hull [illegible] this government [illegible] ther steps to ex[illegible] still as [illegible] magnate fugitive in G[illegible]

It was as a [illegible] of these efforts [illegible] States sent a [illegible] Greece denouncing the treaty of extradition be[illegible] tries, terming the Court decision "untenable" [illegible] of the compact.

Saying it is apparent the treaty cannot be [illegible] the extradition of [illegible] who have fled to G[illegible] gives "formal notice herewith of my government's denunciation of the treaty with a view to its termination at the earliest date possible."

That date officials say is one year after the formal notice.

Extradition of the former utilities magnate to Cook County (Ill.) [illegible] was denied several months ago. Officials had felt, until the [illegible] last week, that the requisition on a subsequent federal bankruptcy charge would be honored.

In the last instance the message adds, the Greek authorities "attempted actually to try the case instead of confining themselves to ascertaining whether the evidence submitted by the United States government was sufficient to justify the fugitive's extradition."

RECIPES FOR SWEETS OFFERED

Appetizing Dainties Capture Contest Awards

Sweets predominate in the selection of today's awards in the Prudence Penny recipe contest. Included are pastries, pudding and sauce, as well as an appetizing marmalade.

The enthusiasm of Pittsburgh district housewives in submitting recipes for dainties, as well as the staple articles of diet, continues unabated.

Any housewife is eligible to compete for the $5 and ten $1 prizes simply by sending the formula for some meritorious food concoction, or more than one, to Prudence Penny, care of the Sun-Telegraph, Pittsburgh, Pa.

FIVE DOLLAR PRIZE WINNER

MRS. CHARLES MARR,
3 Arlon street.
APRICOT COBBLER

One cup cooked and sweetened dried apricots
[illegible] flour
[illegible] teaspoon cinnamon
[illegible] teaspoons baking powder
[illegible] tablespoons butter
[illegible] cup milk
[illegible] egg
[illegible] cup sugar
[illegible] cup apricot juice
[illegible] teaspoon salt

Mix one tablespoon flour, cinnamon, salt together, remaining flour, baking powder and salt. Cut in the butter. Add milk, forming a soft dough. Roll out on floured board to one-quarter inch thickness. Cut in squares. Place a piece of pastry in each of six custard cups. Add apricots and juice. Cook for three minutes. Fill cups with apricots and juice. Top with pastry. Bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees) 30 minutes. Serve with cream.

TEN $1 PRIZE WINNERS

L. R. HUCKE,
1620 [illegible] avenue.
PERSIAN PEACH PUDDING

[illegible] ingredients of a can of [illegible] peaches in a saucepan and let cook gently [illegible] minutes. Add to the [illegible] sweet whole milk or cream, [illegible] and three-fourths [illegible] flour sifted with a teaspoon of [illegible] one-fourth cup sugar, one tablespoon butter and one-eighth teaspoon salt. Cook gradually three or four minutes, stir constantly and bake until delicate brown. Serve with milk or cream.

MARGARET E. KING,
617 Hills Office Building.
SHEPHERD'S PIE

[illegible] pound round
[illegible] cup of gravy
[illegible] cup milk
[illegible] teaspoon salt
Mash of potatoes

Cut the meat into small cubes and place with the gravy in the bottom of a baking dish. Place the peas on top of that and add enough mashed potatoes to fill the dish. Season with pepper, salt and pieces of butter. Bake about 20 minutes, or until potatoes have become browned. Bake in a slow oven.

MRS. [illegible] E. ROWLAND,
[illegible] Elizabeth.
[illegible] SAUCE

One cup cranberries
One cup one-half [illegible]
Two cups sugar.

Grind the cranberries and the oranges (rind and all) in the food chopper and add two cups of sugar. Let stand two hours before serving. Do not cook.

MRS. T. G. TRUXALL,
119 Arch avenue, Greensburg.
BRAN MUFFINS

One cup flour.
Two cups bran.
Three tablespoons brown sugar.
One cup milk.
One-half cup molasses.
One teaspoon soda.
One well-beaten egg.
One teaspoon salt.
Two tablespoons melted butter.
One-third cup raisins.

Mix dry ingredients, mix liquids and beat together. Bake in muffin tins at 375 degrees about 25 minutes.

MRS. THOMAS H. ROSS,
614 East End avenue.
JOHN MAZZETIO

Cook one box noodles 26 minutes and drain. Fry one pound pork shoulder, ground, six medium-sized onions, chopped, together until done. Mix with noodles and add one can tomato soup. Ten cents sharp cheese, grated. Add salt, sugar, pepper to taste.

MRS. P. H. CHRISTIAN,
Torrance.
OLD VIRGINIA SALLY LUNN

One-half cake yeast.
One-quarter cup warm water.
Two tablespoons sugar.
One quart flour.
Two teaspoons salt.
Two eggs.
Three-quarter cup lard.
One and one-half cups milk.

Put one-half cake yeast in one-quarter cup water with two tablespoons sugar and let dissolve about fifteen minutes. Sift a good quart flour with 2 teaspoons salt. Beat two eggs light. Melt three-quarters cup lard in one and one-half cups milk.

Mix yeast, eggs, milk and lard into the flour and beat well and smooth. Set to rise in warm place. It is best baked in cake mold with a stem to insure its being thoroughly done. It should rise in three or four hours. If not ready to bake smack the batter back, it will rise again.

Bake in a moderate oven. Cover pan until nearly done, then take cover off and brown. Eat with lots of good butter.

MRS. JAMES M. ELWOOD,
Box 255, Apollo.
GREEN CORN GEMS

Two cups fresh corn cut from cob or canned corn.
One-half cup milk.
Two tablespoons butter.
Two eggs.
One-half teaspoon salt.
Two teaspoons baking powder.
1 cup grape fruit uncooked corn from cob or drain canned corn. Put through meat chopper. Add milk, butter and beaten eggs. Sift salt and baking powder with the flour and add to corn. Bake in greased gem pans in a hot oven (400 degrees) 15 to 20 minutes. Gems may be served with roast beef and gravy or with maple syrup or honey.

MRS. RUTHE E. SHANAHAN,
451 Peebles street, Wilkinsburg.
BAKED SQUASH WITH SAUSAGE

Split small acorn squashes into halves, remove the seed, and fill the cavity to brimming with sausage. Place in a moderate oven of 350 to 375 degrees and bake until the squash is tender and the sausage is browned. If scalloped potatoes or au gratin potatoes are placed in the oven at the same time and served with a salad and desert, you will have a good dinner with a minimum of labor.

RUTH KEENAN,
256 East Main street, Uniontown.
PEAR AND APPLE MARMALADE

One quart diced pears (pared and cored).
One quart diced apples (pared and cored).
Two lemons—juice and rind.
Two cups seeded white raisins.
One cup walnuts—broken or chopped.
Seven cups sugar.

Wash raisins and add to the other ingredients except the nuts. Place over low fire until the juice collects; increase heat and cook rapidly until thick and clear—about 1 hour 20 minutes. Stir occasionally. Then add nuts and cook five minutes longer. Pack in clean jars and paraffine when cold. This makes eight one-half pint jars.

MRS. MARTHA M'GEARY,
809 Freeport rd., New Kensington.
BREAD AND BUTTER PUDDING

One quart milk.
One teaspoon vanilla.
Three egg yolks.
Two-thirds cup sugar.
One teaspoon grated nutmeg (optional).
Four slices buttered bread.

Warm milk, add beaten yolks, sugar, vanilla. Put buttered bread in baking dish, then pour above custard over them. Bake slowly until custard is firm and top brown. Make meringue with egg whites and place in oven again to brown.

Housewives of This District Welcome To Compete

CLERIC URGES 'REAL' RELIGION

Make-believe religion will not do today, Dr. John McDowell, moderator of the Presbyterian General Assembly, declared in an address in the Shadyside Presbyterian Church yesterday. His address followed one in the morning in the Third Presbyterian Church, when he declared the Christian church holds in its keeping the future of the country. At the Shadyside church he said in part:

"Religion today must be real, rational, practical, fraternal and spiritual. Make-believe religion will not do. Everything is real now—education, industry, politics and amusements. Religion cannot and must not be an exception.

"The day of blind religion has passed. Religion of today must not only save men, it must train them to serve their day and generation. Selfish religion is doomed by both God and man."

SLEUTHS HUNT STOLEN NITRO

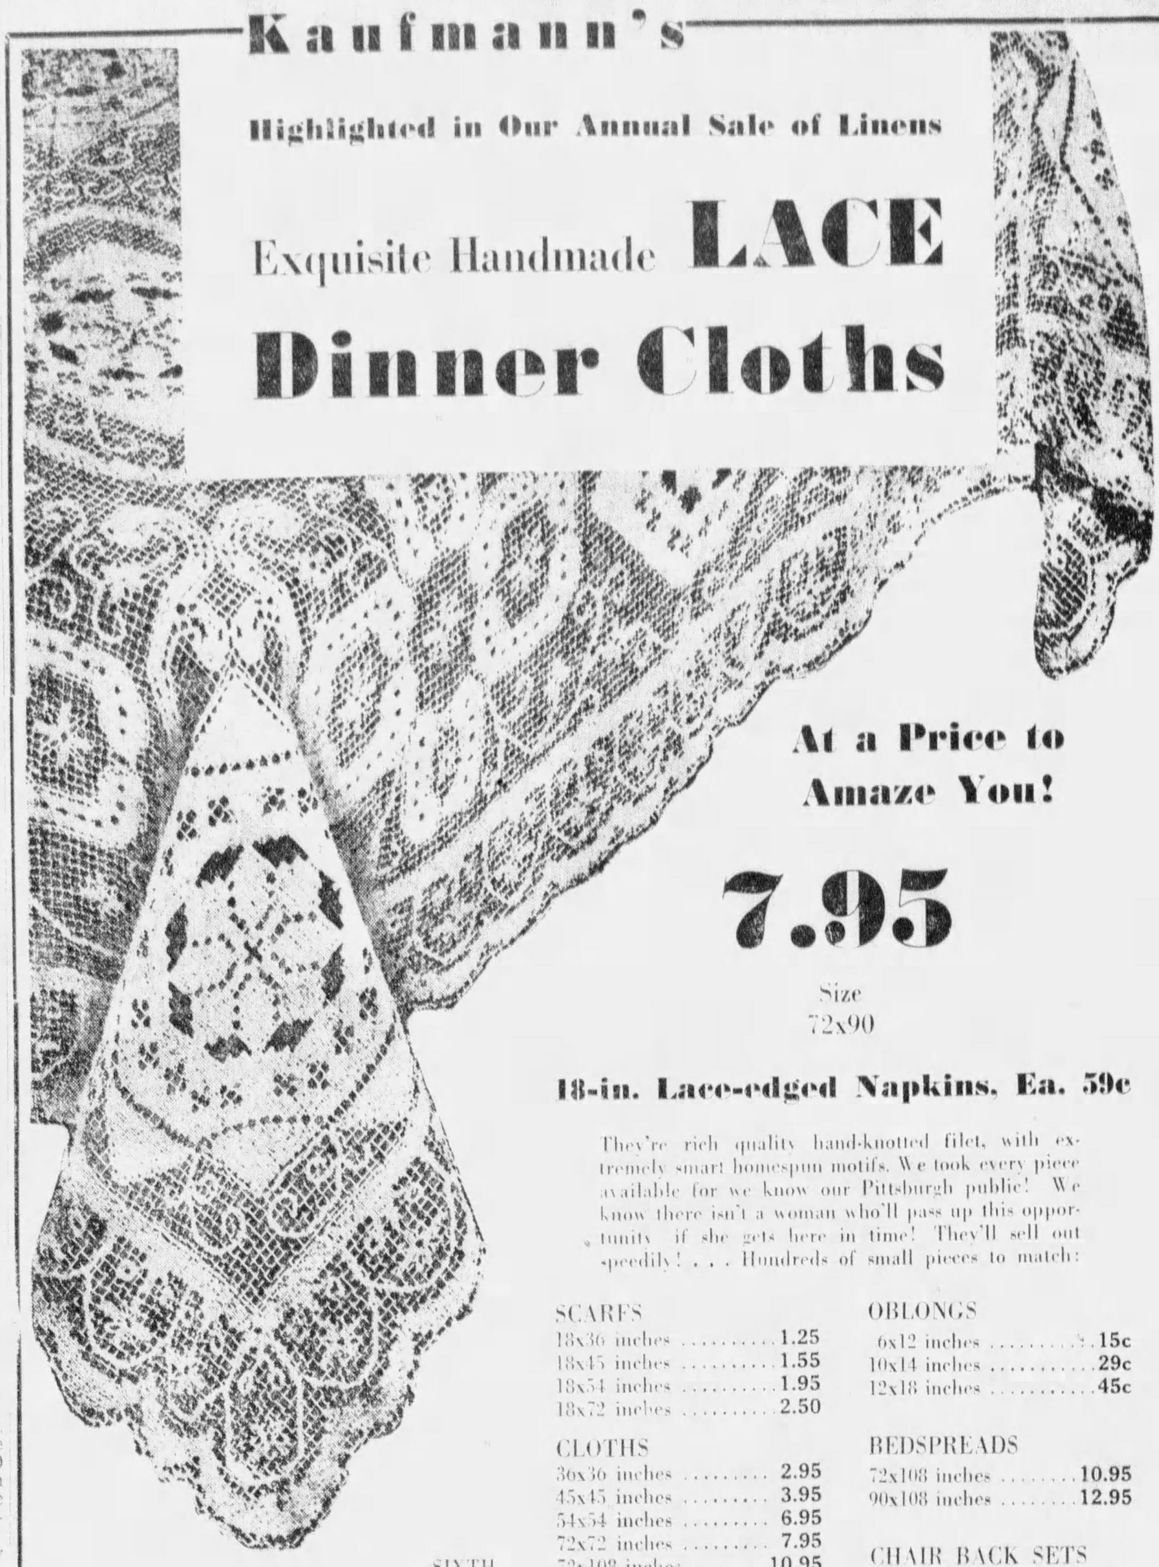
OIL CITY, Pa., Nov. 6.—City, county and state authorities are combining in an effort to trace 10 quarts of nitroglycerine, stolen from the torpedo magazine of the Ellis Hall and Sons Torpedo Company.

The explosive, it is feared, may be used by burglars for safe cracking. Considerable time was spent in gaining entrance to the magazine, which is constructed of stone, heavy timber and sheet steel.

Kaufmann's

Highlighted in Our Annual Sale of Linens

Exquisite Handmade LACE Dinner Cloths



At a Price to Amaze You!

7.95

Size 72x90

18-in. Lace-edged Napkins, Ea. 59c

They're rich quality hand-knotted filet, with extremely smart homespun motifs. We took every piece available for we know our Pittsburgh public! We know there isn't a woman who'll pass up this opportunity if she gets here in time! They'll sell out speedily! . . . Hundreds of small pieces to match:

SCARFS
18x36 inches 1.25
18x45 inches 1.55
18x54 inches 1.95
18x72 inches 2.50

CLOTHS
36x36 inches 2.95
45x45 inches 3.95
54x54 inches 6.95
72x72 inches 7.95
72x108 inches 10.95
72x126 inches 12.95

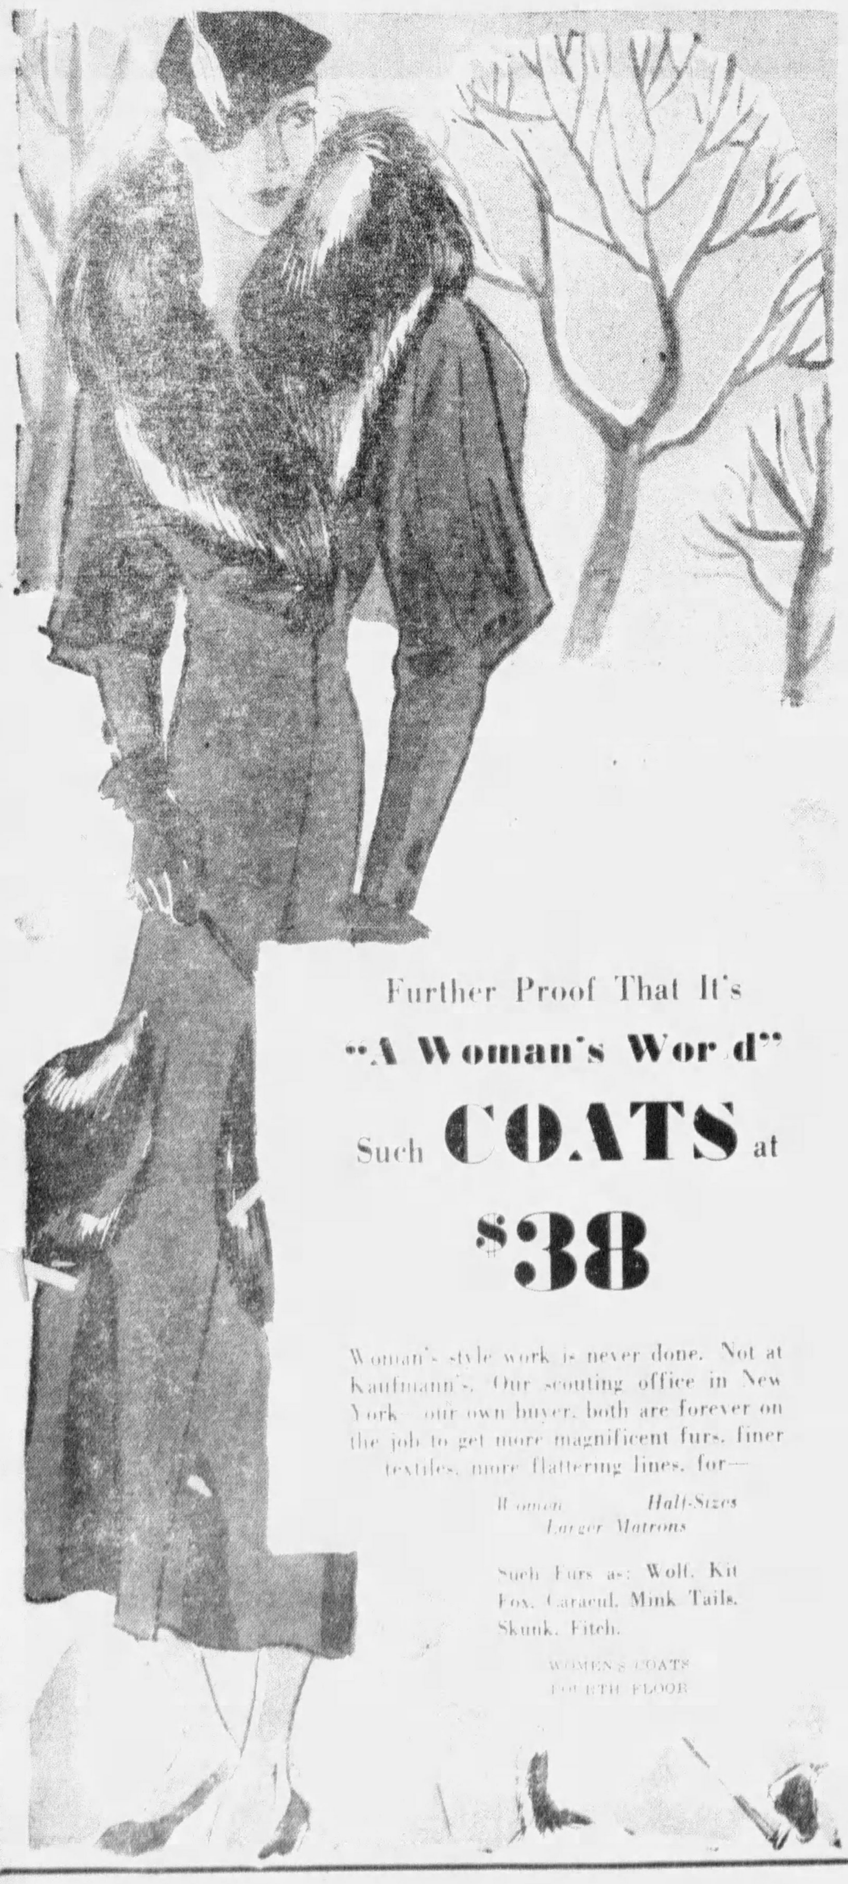
OBLONGS
6x12 inches 15c
10x14 inches 29c
12x18 inches 45c

BEDSPREADS
72x108 inches 10.95
90x108 inches 12.95

CHAIR BACK SETS
3 pieces 75c

SIXTH FLOOR

Kaufmann's



Further Proof That It's "A Woman's Word"

Such COATS at $38

Woman's style work is never done. Not at Kaufmann's. Our scouting office in New York—our own buyer, both are forever on the job to get more magnificent furs, finer textiles, more flattering lines, for—

Women Half-Sizes
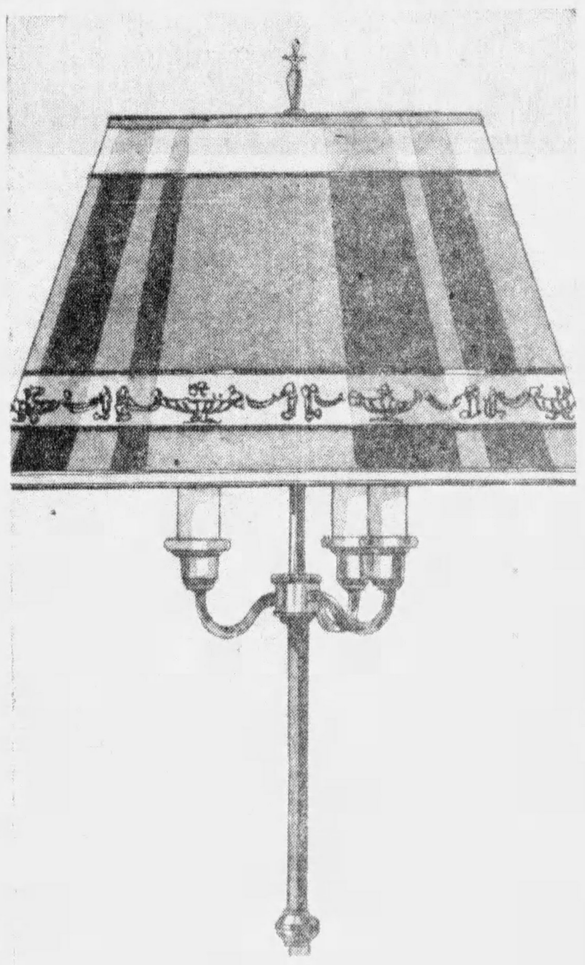
Larger Matrons

Such Furs as: Wolf, Kit Fox, Caracul, Mink Tails, Skunk, Fitch.

WOMEN'S COATS
FOURTH FLOOR



Just 100!

Floor Lamps

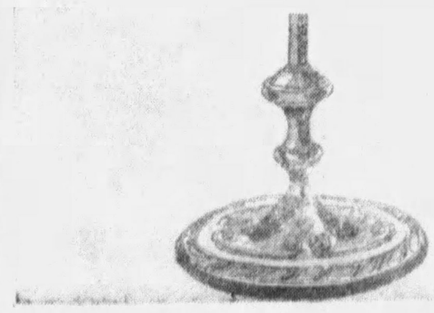
4.95

—would be 6.50 if not bought specially for this sale! Bronze-finished with 3-candle fixture . . . beautifully decorated Parchment Paper Shade.

Also Junior and Bridge Lamps in This Special Group at 4.95.

FIFTH FLOOR

Kaufmann's



Kaufmann's

Scoop! just 50 custom built plain and figured mohair frieze and mohair velvet covered lounge type

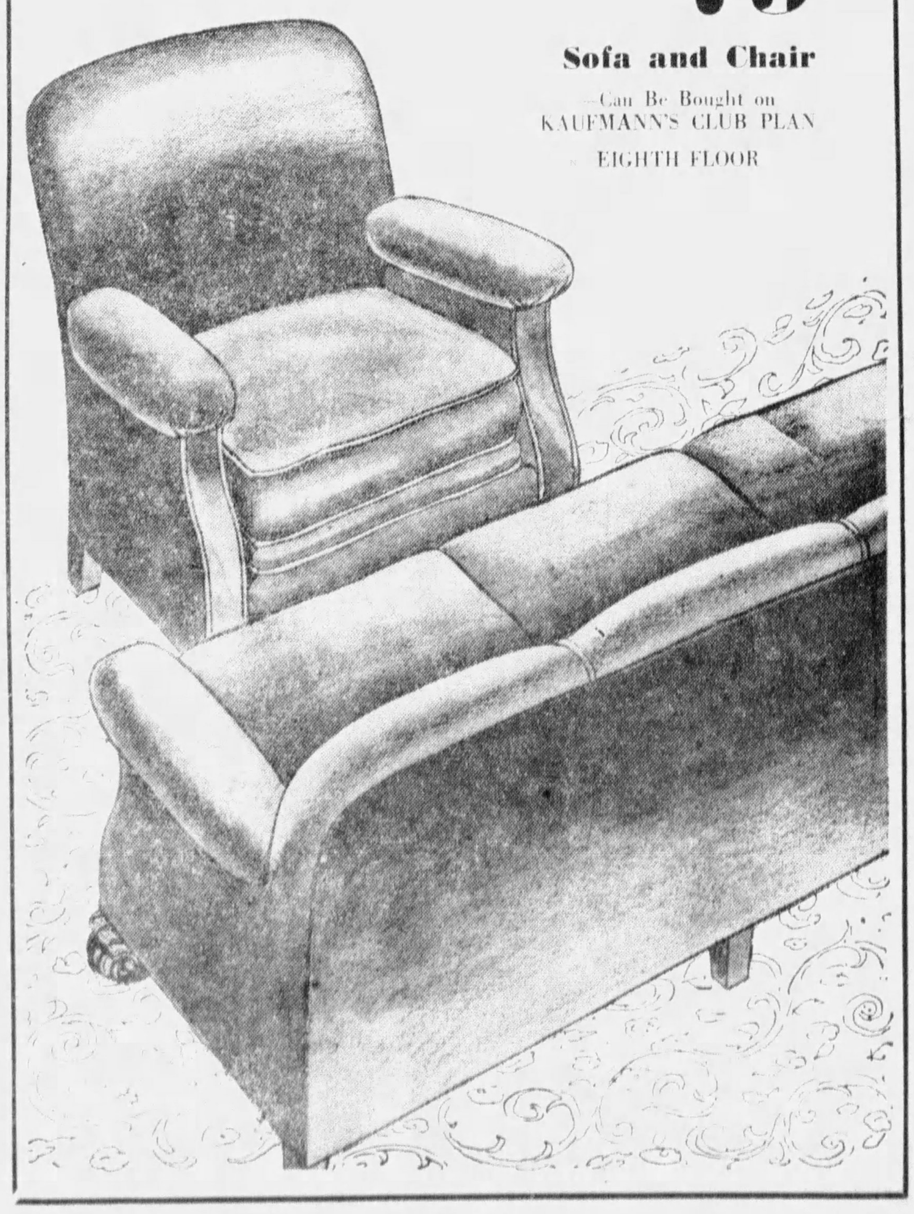
Living Room Suites

$79

Sofa and Chair

—Can Be Bought on KAUFMANN'S CLUB PLAN

EIGHTH FLOOR



CLASSIFIED ADS
BUY, SELL, RENT FOR YOU

Pittsburgh Sun-Telegraph

METROPOLITAN DISTRICT NEWS

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 6, 1933

CHILD, FALLING FROM AUTO, HIT-RUN VICTIM

POLITICS

Election Boards' Task Tremendous

By MARK SHIELDS

Whether or not tomorrow's election is close either for city and county office, the state constitutional amendments, repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment and modification of the Sunday blue laws, it probably will be late before accurate totals can be secured.

Mr. Shields

The task of election boards is tremendous. There will be four separate ballots to be counted in enlarged districts. When it appeared in a dim and distant past that voting machines would be used in the city and county the election districts were regrouped and expanded. Where vote boards had districts embracing few more than 250 electors, there now are districts with above 700.

A further complication and barrier to fast work will be the number of scratched or split tickets which will be deposited.

Republican leaders are asking for straight party votes. They will get thousands, but there will be many to vote for both Republicans and Democrats, and the vote boards must examine each ballot minutely if bent toward accuracy.

Democratic strategists are urging their followers not to vote with a single cross in the party column. They have explained that trickery and fraud is thus made possible, for when the ballots are being counted cross marks could be placed beside the names of candidates other than those on the Democratic ticket, as the Democrats charge was done in the presidential election last year.

* * *

Democrats' Advice Tends to Slow Count

If the instructions of Democratic leaders are followed—and the plan is an excellent one for any party voter—the boards will be slowed up in plowing through the individual names. It is tedious work, but the voter protects himself against having his intent altered.

Counting the city and county office ballot alone is a protracted task. Totaling the votes on the 12 state constitutional amendments also will be slow work, though not so many people will vote on these subjects as on personalities.

The repeal and blue law ballots can be counted quickly, for there is only a single question to answer, and the expression of the voters can quickly be determined.

There is no set order in which boards shall count the ballots. It is assumed, of course, that first will come the count for candidates. But after that boards will be on their individual inclinations.

It may be, of course, that if the contest for Mayor of Pittsburgh on early and scattered returns develops a sure indication of the ultimate result, the winner will be known early. But the total and accurate vote will not be so known under any conditions. If the contest is narrow in its results the ultimate verdict can be long delayed legitimately, without the holding back of returns which so often has occurred in the past in controlled districts.

If the Republicans are so certain of victory, if they wish to avoid any suspicion of holding out returns for improper purposes, they will instruct their friends on the election boards to count quickly and report promptly. This tendency to delay has thrown more odium on Republican leadership than any other phase of election impropriety.

* * *

Lindsay Animus Directed at Smith

The Common Pleas Court battle has been given a new twist by the second attack of Attorney Alexander P. Lindsay on alleged deals in the primary, his animus being directed principally against Judge Ralph H. Smith, a candidate on the Republican ticket.

It develops that the Saturday night radio time of Mr. Lindsay, himself a candidate on the Independent, Square Deal and Prohibition tickets—after being defeated in the Republican and Democratic primaries—was paid for by the Democrats. Some time ago the Democrats refused to displace one of their candidates with Mr. Lindsay to secure something approaching fusion.

Now it appears they expect to generally capitalize his dislike for Judge Smith. It is not assumed that Mr. Lindsay can be elected, but he may take votes from Judge Smith or Judge Harry H. Rowand, and thus enhance the chances of the Democratic judicial candidates who had not been conceded much chance.

There is a further assumption by the Democrats that the position of Mr. Lindsay may help their city ticket. He adds—or tries to add—a new factor to the campaign, a late element of confusion, and every increment of that nature is advantageous to the Democrats in fighting for any office.

There is a chance, however, that the episode will boomerang. Some independent friends of Judge Smith who had expected to vote split or selective tickets may resent the co-operation of Mr. Lindsay and the Democrats and in an effort to make Judge Smith's election certain and to win additional support from the Republican organization, will now vote the straight Republican ticket.

Suspect Held After Battle in Arnold

Arnold police today held Ignatz W[illegible]ster, 45, no home, for a hearing before Justice of the Peace J[illegible] W. Howe[illegible] on a charge of [illegible].

Wi[illegible]ster was arrested Saturday night in the Arnold Citizens' Club during a free-for-all fight. He is to be turned over to federal immigration authorities.

KEILLY ABSENT AT HEARING ON DISBARMENT

Court Orders Evidence Be Given Against Attorney

Attorney David S. Keilly failed to appear for his hearing today before Judges George V. Moore and John P. Egan, to show cause why he should not be disbarred for alleged improper practices.

But the court ordered the Allegheny County Bar Association counsel, James M. Graham, to present its evidence against him.

Attorney R. Murray Gibson, Jr., representing Keilly, explained:

"I received a letter from Mr. Keilly ordering me not to put in any defense on his behalf; that he was leaving for California."

DELAYS CITED

Judge Moore, after Gibson explained that the board of judges had refused to accept Keilly's resignation, said:

"He has undoubtedly slipped out of the jurisdiction of the court. The hearing was set several times and once it was postponed when the defendant was reported sick."

He then ordered the bar testimony presented.

The parade of witnesses, and the courtroom was filled with them, started.

CASH WITHHELD

The first man explained he was supposed to have received $1,600 of $2,500 damages from an accident, but Keilly only sent him $250; Attorney Graham read into the record Keilly's alleged admission that he accepted cases from "ambulance runners." It was also charged that Keilly withheld hospital bills due accident cases in which he was counsel.

Mrs. Jessie Forsythe, of McKeesport, testified two runners persuaded her to give her accident case to Keilly. She settled for $4,400 damages, she said. But Keilly gave her the money by dribs, and she had to have him arrested to get the last $1,000, she said. Wilbur Street, of McKees Rocks, said he settled a case in behalf of his son for $600, but Keilly only gave him $25.

One of the Tame Squirrels That Were Targets for Frick Woods Hunters

MASTER TOMMY JONES, 8, TEMPTING A TAME SQUIRREL WITH A NUT

A typical scene in Frick Woods, a city park, where Public Works Director Lang has asked for police help to keep November's over-zealous hunters from shooting the tame squirrels and—even the park's pheasants at feeding time.

MASTER JONES HAVING A TETE-A-TETE WITH THE SAME LITTLE SQUIRREL

The squirrel, just one of many in the park, showing how unafraid he is of one of thousands of visitors. He and his pals are spending these days begging for nuts against the coming of winter's colder days. These are Sun-Telegraph pictures.

TUMBLES FROM FATHER'S CAR ONTO ROAD

Girl, 4, Fatally Injured As Machine Door Gives Way

Tumbling from her father's automobile when a rear door flew open, Mary Helen Martin, 4, of 1126 Maplewood avenue, Ambridge, was struck and fatally injured by an alleged hit and run driver in the Green Garden road, near Ambridge, last night, according to a Coroner's report. The child, riding on a stool in the rear of the machine, was returning with her father and mother from a week-end trip to Wheeling, W. Va., police said.

Injuries suffered a week ago in a traffic collision on the George Westinghouse Bridge, caused the death early today of Rose Inglis, 18, of Greensburg. She died in Braddock Hospital.

Mrs. Alice White, 30, of 5545 Aylesboro avenue, suffered slight injuries last night when her machine collided with a parked automobile at Center avenue and Morgan street. Police said Mrs. White, who was arrested, had no driver's license.

CRASH IN HOMEWOOD

When the automobile in which they were passengers collided with another at Dallas and Hamilton avenues yesterday, Mrs. Maxine Doran, 32, and her son, Lloyd Doran, Jr., 7, suffered cuts and bruises. They were taken to the Pittsburgh Hospital.

Lloyd Doran, 31, husband of the injured woman and driver of the car, was uninjured. Leonard Steinhilper, 48, 7713 Mulford street, driver of the other car, was arrested.

Miss Eleanor Held, 23, of 5510 Stanton avenue, was taken to the Pittsburgh Hospital last night suffering a fractured ankle received when struck by an automobile while crossing Penn avenue at Beatty street. Howard Thompson, 30, of 1364 Montesuma street, driver of the car, was arrested.

YOUTH HIT BY AUTO

Clyde Brooks, 22, of 840 Concord street, was taken to the Presbyterian Hospital suffering lacerations on his head and legs after being hit by an automobile while walking on the roadway of the Fortieth Street Bridge yesterday. Kenneth Hague, 27, driver of the car, of 102 Strauss street, was arrested.

Mrs. Elizabeth Stewart and her daughter, Honora Fay, 12, of 547 Washington boulevard, are in the Homestead Hospital today suffering from injuries received when their automobile skidded against the side of Brown's Bridge.

WITHEROW ASKS AID FOR FUND

William P. Witherow, president of the Welfare Fund, in a radio address from station WCAE yesterday said that if we read correctly the lesson of the last four years, we can build a prosperity greater than any ever known, provided all groups work together, helping one another with a full measure of generosity and understanding. He added:

"The enemies against which the Welfare Fund is fighting are enemies more deadly and more powerful than guns or armies—they are disease, crime, broken homes, shattered morale, loss of faith in our whole social scheme and the insidious undermining of character and standards of living."

FREEPORT BANK FREES $390,000

FREEPORT, Pa., Nov. 6.—The new First National Bank of Freeport was opened today, making available to the community approximately $390,000, or 65 per cent of the deposits in the old Farmers' National Bank of Freeport, restricted since the banking holiday.

The capital of the new bank is made up of $25,000 in preferred subscribed stock by the Reconstruction Finance Corporation and $25,000 in common stock purchased by the community, according to R. L. Briggs, cashier.

The remaining 35 per cent of deposits, representing slow assets of the old bank, will be turned into cash for depositors as rapidly as possible, Briggs said.

Gulf Employe Lost From Tanker at Sea

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—(INS.)—Police and officials of the Gulf Refining Company today sought to determine whether I. M. Streeter, a geologist, employed by the company, leaped to his death or was accidentally swept overboard from one of the company's tankers off the coast of Haiti.

Members of the tanker's crew, arriving here last night, reported Streeter disappeared early on the morning of October 30.

Wife Hurt in Fall, Police Hold Man

Mrs. Barbara Fritz, 52, of 51 South [illegible]th street, died today in South Side Hospital from injuries received in a fall down a flight of stairs in her home.

Police held her husband, Robert Fritz, 42, on suspicious person charges. He told them his wife fell after he asked her to go downstairs to get him a drink of water.

Farmers Blow Sour Notes on Horn of Plenty

By ARTHUR (BUGS) BAER

The farmer's problem has switched seasons.

He can play checkers all winter.

But how can he get through the summer?

The horn of plenty sure has blown some sour notes lately.

About time for some mechanic to discover that we have the brakes on going up hill.

Why worry about war debts any more? Any expert can tell you the interest has absorbed the principal. Tosti wrote the theme song for that.

Everybody has a scheme to solve the problems of the world. Some are morning glories and the rest are century plants.

We should split the difference.

(Copyright, 1933, Distributed by Universal Service, Inc.)

Dance to Assist Crafton Aid Fund

A charity ball to raise funds for welfare work in Crafton will be held Saturday night at the Chartiers Heights Country Club. Dr. W. Earl Craig is general chairman. The event is sponsored by 10 civic and fraternal organizations.

Bucket Brigade Fails, House Burns

A bucket brigade formed by New Kensington firemen was futile when flames swept the home of Charles Morrow, Renton road, near New Kensington, last night. Firemen estimated the damage at $6,000.

350 TO ATTEND SHADY SIDE FETE

Three hundred and fifty reservations for the alumni dinner at Shady Side Academy tonight, in connection with celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of the founding of that institution, have been received.

There will be no program at the dinner. The alumni and former students will be joined by other friends of the academy at the general meeting at 8:30 o'clock in the Curry Gymnasium. United States Senator David A. Reed will be the principal speaker. Gordon Fisher will be chairman. Other speakers include Marcus W. Acheson, Jr., Headmaster Harold A. Nomer.

Greetings will be read from the Rev. Dr. J. M. Richmond, of Brookville, Pa., and Bishop Boyd Vincent, of Cincinnati, the only surviving members of the board of corporators of the academy.

Girl, 2 Men Hurt When Auto Hits Pole

A girl and two men, all Negroes, were injured today when the automobile in which they were riding crashed into an iron pole at Western and Irwin avenues, North Side. All were taken to Presbyterian Hospital, where it was said Miss Betty Gaines, 22, of 3711 Fleetwood street, had a fractured skull and a broken leg. Archie Haywood, 27, and Tom Watson, 40, both of Bellevue, received cuts and bruises. Police arrested Haywood on a reckless driving charge.

Two Babies Killed By Fire in Home

CLEVELAND, Nov. 6.—(INS.)—David and Arlene Riddle, aged 4 and 3, respectively, perished today in a fire that trapped them in their bedroom.

IGNORE LEAGUE IN CHACO WAR

Associated Press.

Heedless of the League of Nations conciliation commission planning peace strategy at Montevideo, the armies of Bolivia and Paraguay continued today thrusting bitterly at each other in their Gran Chaco jungle warfare.

Fighting was confined to small-scale attacks in the area behind the Ayala roadhead reaching to the Paraguay River, the boundary line that has caused international bickering for 60 years.

The Paraguayans maintained a Bolivian infantry regiment was virtually annihilated yesterday as the Paraguayans gained another half mile in the Pozo Favorito sector near Alihuata.

The Paraguayans said that within a fortnight they have slain more than 3,000 of the enemy.

Bulletins from Bolivia, indicating scant basis for the Paraguayan claims, class recent war activities in the war zone as minor.

BOMB DAMAGES LAWYER'S HOME

Universal Service.

POTTSVILLE, Pa., Nov. 6.—The home of Thomas A. McCarthy, leading Schuylkill County attorney, at St. Clair, three miles from this city, was badly damaged by a dynamite explosion early yesterday. No one was injured.

The adjoining home of M. R. Sullivan, Citizens' Bank cashier, was also damaged. The street windows in business establishments and homes were shattered.

McCarthy is borough solicitor and attorney for the Citizens' Bank, which has not been in active service since last March. Police advanced the theory that the outrage might have been committed by an angry depositor.

$7,710,639 Dodge Tax Levy Upheld

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—(INS.)—The Supreme Court today upheld federal income tax assessments totaling $7,710,639.86 against the estates of Horace E. and John F. Dodge, developing from the sale of Dodge Brothers Automobile Company for $146,000,000 in 1925.

Boys Missing Here Found in W. Va.

Two McKeesport boys, reported missing since last Wednesday, were in the hands of police in Berkeley Springs, W. Va., it was reported today.

They are Jack Doyle, 13, of 407 Penny avenue, and Golden Thompson, 12, of 909 Mary street.

FIVE FACE QUIZ AFTER RAID

Four women and a man taken into custody late Saturday in a raid on the Rythme Club, Saw Mill Run boulevard, were to be questioned by county detectives today. The five were released upon their promise to return today for questioning.

County detectives said they seized two pints of whisky and arrested Lou Gittleson and Lew Joseph, alleged proprietors, on charges of violating the Snyder act.

Joseph also faces a charge of carrying concealed weapons because a revolver was found in his overcoat pocket, according to detectives.

$50 in Prizes Weekly for News Tips

Are you alert? Do you wish to make your alertness pay? The Sun-Telegraph is presenting the opportunity. Every week it is offering a total of $50 in prizes for NEWS TIPS telephoned to the News Tip Editor, Grant 6500.

If you know of an accident, of a business merger, of a big building project—that is NEWS. Watch especially for unusual stories about children and animals and for stories that lend themselves to interesting pictures.

For the best exclusive news tip of the week $15.00 will be given for the second best, $10.00, and for the next 25 best, $1.00 each.

THUGS BEAT 2 IN STRIP

Police today sought the assailants of two men, victims of mysterious attacks in the Strip.

Joseph Koslowski, 36, of 117 Forty-third street, in St. Francis Hospital with a possible fracture of the skull, said he was attacked by a man who ran from a restaurant in Butler street, armed with a chair.

The other victim was Anthony Andrews, 21, of 212 Poplar Grove, Carrick, treated at West Penn Hospital for a scalp laceration. He said he was attacked by a gang of thugs in Penn avenue, near Thirty-third street.

Sought in Shooting After Family Row

A man ordered from his father's home after a dispute with a brother was sought today by East End police, who charged he fired two volleys of bullets through the front door of the house.

The argument started when John Gazzo, who is sought, and his brother Frank Gazzo, Jr., of 910 Brushton avenue, were visiting their father at 7501 Upland street, police said they were told.

ASSAIL PINCHOT PENSION PLAN

Declaring Gov. Pinchot's proposal to include old age pension legislation in his call for the special session of the Legislature was a "mere political subterfuge," members of the Pennsylvania Committee on Old Age Security yesterday said they hoped the Governor would ask no action on pensions at the session.

The committee, headed by Attorney M. W. Acheson, Jr., said it was impossible under the Constitution for any real legislation to be passed.

Two Girls Held Here as Runaways

Fifteen minutes after city detectives had been requested to attempt to locate an alleged runaway girl from Cambridge, O., Ruth Peters 18, and her companion, Emily Talbot, also 18, were in custody of the police. Both admitted they were runaways, police said.

WILL ROGERS SAYS

BEVERLY HILLS, Cal., Nov. 6.

To the Editor, Sun-Telegraph:

Say, you don't rush this Roosevelt into everything that is pulled on him. Thursday was refusal day with him. (He must have collected a bad stamp). The farmers sent a resolution from their convention telling him what to do. He just said "Yeah." Everyone had a plan, and he just said "Yeah." England's debt commission goes home with nothing but Wall street says the dollar must be stabilized. He just said "Yeah." They even told him a big bed vote, Congress, was coming in two weeks, and he just said, "Yeah." I looked like the "yeah" had it. It takes a lot of "yeahs" to keep you from being a Roosevelt man. Yours, WILL.

Will Rogers

(Copyright, 1933, McNaught Synd., Inc.)

UNDAUNTED BLIND MAN ENTERS BUSINESS

Insurance Salesman Ignores Handicap, Gets License

A 21-year-old Pittsburgh blind man stood ready today to pit his handicap against the shrewd competition of the world of business.

He is John Pocevich, of 2020 Larkin way, South Side, who has just been awarded a license to sell insurance in Pennsylvania following examinations in Pittsburgh last August.

Following his graduation from the Western Pennsylvania School for the Blind last June, Pocevich entered the employ of the Pittsburgh Workshop for the Blind, and devoted his spare time to the study of laws and methods involved in life insurance salesmanship.

While at the workshop, Pocevich learned to operate the telephone switchboard at the institution, which utilizes a series of balls instead of the ordinary light signals and an extensive array of buzzers. The board is one of his regular posts. He also operates a typewriter.

In qualifying for his license, he took the examination with nearly 100 sighted applicants. The young blind man holds salesmanship the best opportunity for remuneration to the blind.

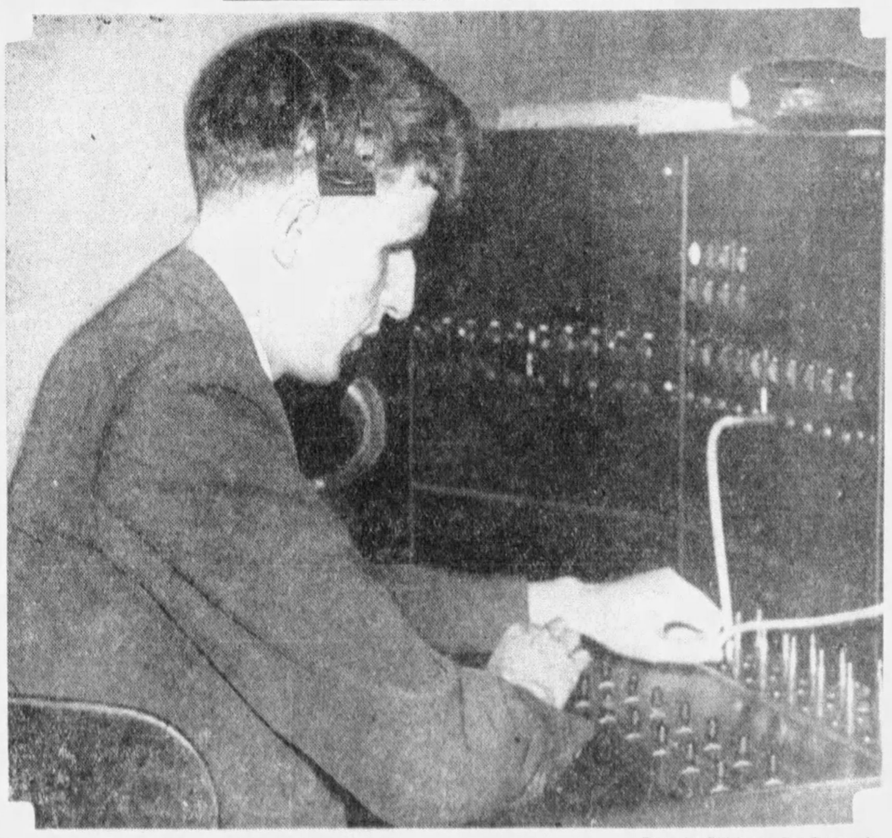

Photo by Pittsburgh Sun-Telegraph.

BLIND JOHN POCEVICH, 21, AT HIS POST . . . HE'S A 'PHONE OPERATOR, SALESMAN NOW

Churchgoer, 6 Others Die of Heart Attacks

Stricken with a heart attack during mass in St. Peter and Paul Greek Orthodox Church, at First and Viola streets, Duquesne, yesterday, Nicholas Ondrej, 50, of Catherine street, died shortly after being removed to the rectory. Dr. M. L. Porvaznik said an acute attack of myocarditis was the cause of death.

Deaths of six other persons from heart attacks were reported to the Coroner yesterday.

Mrs. Augusta M. Hoeslick, 70, of Carrick, died while visiting friends at 316 Carothers avenue, Glendale.

Mrs. Elizabeth Cooley, 70, was found dead in bed by attendants in Mayview City Hospital.

Mrs. Anna Metynger, 52, of 5112 Verona way, died in her home.

Stella Zook, 61, of 1708 Franklin street, died in her home.

Matthew M. Gilchrist, 64, died in his home at 3337 Universal street, Sheraden.

Samuel Cooperman, 59, of 5414 Beacon street, was stricken in his home with a heart attack and died in Pittsburgh Hospital.

SAFECRACKERS ROB LAUNDRY; GET $1,000

Robbery of a safe and a number of smaller thefts late Saturday night and yesterday were being investigated by police today.

A safe in the office of the Perfect Laundry, 278 North Lexington avenue, was broken open and $1,000 was taken, according to the report.

Harry Povinski reported the theft of $28 from his home at 163 South Sixteenth street, and J. M. McMahon, of 7230 Lemington avenue, reported theft of a watch from his home.

Joseph Nemeth, of 12 South Thirty-first street, reported a coat stolen from his automobile parked at Ninth street and Penn avenue. John Koulisteos, of 310 Russellwood street, McKees Rocks, said a typewriter was stolen from his parked car in Schenley Park.

Clothing or other articles were reported taken from the automobiles of Mrs. O. H. Wagner, of 352 South Evaline street, parked at Third avenue and Wood street; R. J. Stevenson, of 6201 Fifth avenue, parked at Bigelow boulevard and Parkman street, and I. S. Lazear, of 1221 Beechview avenue, parked at Center avenue and Overhill street.

Starting in Hollywood

LONA ANDRE — WILLIAM O'DELL — HELEN GRAY

Miss Andre, the hostess, with young Mr. O'Dell, Pittsburgh, and Miss Gray, who herself chosen in a world-wide search for talent to be developed for screen. This is a Hollywood party for the "youngsters." This is an International News Photograph Service picture.

FIGHT TO SPARE KIDNAPER'S LIFE

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 6 (AP)—Friends of Walter McGee, condemned leader of the kidnapers of Miss Mary McElroy, today seized upon a life imprisonment sentence meted out to his brother George, as an avenue for his escape from the gallows. Mrs. Alberta Brewer, a sister, said:

"I believe this verdict will give Walter's counsel a strong talking point for commutation of the death sentence. If it will save Walter's life I will be more satisfied."

George McGee, 22, was sentenced to a life term late Saturday by a Circuit Court jury which convicted him of participating in the $30,000 kidnaping of the 25-year-old daughter of City Manager Henry F. Meyer.

One juror's [illegible] enabled George McGee to escape a death verdict. The vote on it stood 11 to 1 in favor of granting the state's demands for the extreme penalty.

The one juror pointed out George McGee guarded Miss Elroy during 29 hours of captivity at the kidnap cottage near Shawnee, Kan., but was not one of the two men who seized her at her home May 27.

TRIPLE CRASH INJURED VICTIM INJURES 20 — OF THUGS DIES

BURLINGTON, N. J., Nov. 6 (AP)—At least 20 persons were injured, one critically, near here early today as a Philadelphia-New York bus and an automobile collided and two trucks crashed into the wreckage.

An ambulance hospital was set [illegible]

[illegible] was [illegible] a bus passenger, who suffered a fractured skull and broken leg.

Ellis H. O'Dell, 32, Philadelphia, driver of the bus, said that the automobile struck the bus and a moment later a truck with a trailer banged into them. Before the injured had all been taken from the bus the second truck crashed against the other vehicles.

Robert Blakeney, 23, of 4214 Penn avenue, died in St. Francis Hospital last night from a fractured skull received Friday night when he was attacked by three unidentified Negroes after making a purchase in a store in Hamilton avenue, near Homewood avenue.

Mrs. Blakeney said a doctor was called [illegible] yesterday, when [illegible] condition became [illegible]. He was ordered to the [illegible] where he died.

COLLISION KILLS CONGRESSMAN

DELHI, N. Y., Nov. 6 (AP)—Representative John D. Clarke (Rep.), New York, was killed here last night in an automobile collision. He represented the Thirty-fourth Congressional District of New York and was serving his fifth term. He was [illegible]

Mr. Clarke was [illegible] dirt road toward his farm, which is on the east bank of the Delaware River near here, when his car and one driven by William Foster, of Delhi, [illegible] head-on. Passengers of the other car were not seriously hurt.

SHOT IN RITZY CLUB

International News Service.

Kills Mate Cause 'Other' Woman

CHICAGO, Nov. 6 [illegible] Otto Kropp, 39, [illegible] described by [illegible] a "hound among the women," [illegible] today was held [illegible] wife, Genevieve, during a [illegible] which followed Mrs. Kropp's discovery of her husband in a beer tavern with another woman.

Grace Fahey, [illegible] custody at her home [illegible] man with whom [illegible] beer, but [illegible] asserted that [illegible] ly friendly. [illegible] shot her husband [illegible] ened her with a [illegible]

Two Men Killed In Stabbing Affrays

Pittsburgher Wins Award at Harvard

Dying Youth Clears Friend in Shooting

BRISTOL, P. [illegible], Nov. 6 (AP)—George Ober, [illegible] 20, of Philadelphia, died [illegible] Hospital [illegible] wound in the [illegible] inflicted by [illegible] ley Springer, 23, of E[illegible] with they were [illegible] Springer's home [illegible] Before he died Oberling asked:

"Don't do anything to Headley. It was all an accident."

Society Girl Killed In 'Treasure Hunt'

WINDSOR, Ontario, Nov. 6 (AP)—A [illegible] ended in [illegible] with the death of Miss Winifred Hardie, one of a [illegible] in an auto [illegible] which [illegible]

Harold [illegible] driver [illegible] the [illegible] times.

Harrisburg Club Destroyed by Fire

HARRISBURG, Nov. 6 (AP)—Fire destroyed the Colonial Country clubhouse [illegible] early [illegible]

Fire [illegible] cause of [illegible] flames had [illegible] way for the use of chemicals. Loss was estimated at $15,000.

HOW WOMEN CAN WIN MEN AND MEN WIN

The Favor of Other Men

Lover Puts by name and get what you ask for. © 1933, C.M.Co.

Official, Miscellaneous 113

TREASURY DEPARTMENT OF THE COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA

Statement of amounts in the several funds at the close of business August 31, 1933.

GENERAL FUND

Abington Nat. Bank, Clark Summit	$7,500.00
Aleppo Valley Trust Company, Verona	3,000.00
Allegheny National Bank	10,000.00
Allegheny Trust Co.	5,000.00
Ambridge Trust Co.	5,000.00
Apollo Trust Co.	5,000.00
Arnold Trust Co.	5,000.00
Ashland Nat. Bk.	5,000.00
Avalon Trust Co.	5,000.00
Bank of Bentleyville	5,000.00
Bank of Commerce & Trust Co., Rochester	5,000.00
Bank of Monessen	5,000.00
Bank of Pittsburgh, N. A.	10,000.00
Bank of Turtle Creek	5,000.00
Beaver Trust Co.	5,000.00
Bedford County Trust Co.	5,000.00
Bellevue Trust Co.	5,000.00
Berwick Trust Co.	5,000.00
Blairsville Trust Co.	5,000.00
Bloomsburg Trust Co.	5,000.00
Boyertown Trust Co.	5,000.00
Brentwood Bank	5,000.00
Brookville Trust & Trust Co.	5,000.00
Brownsville National Bank	5,000.00
Butler County National Bank & Trust Company	5,000.00
Camp Hill National Bank	5,000.00
Carnegie National Bank	5,000.00
Carroll Bank, Pittsburgh	5,000.00
Century National Bank of Sewickley	5,000.00
Chester-Northampton Trust Co.	5,000.00
Chester Title & Trust Co.	5,000.00
Clearfield Bank & Trust Co.	5,000.00
Coatesville Savings & Trust Co.	5,000.00
Columbia Trust Co.	5,000.00
Commercial National Bank, Pittsburgh	5,000.00
Commonwealth Trust Co., Columbia	5,000.00
Commonwealth Trust Co., Pittsburgh	5,000.00
Conemaugh Valley Trust Co., Johnstown	5,000.00
Connellsville State Bank	5,000.00
Continental Trust Co., Pittsburgh	5,000.00
Corn Exchange Nat. Bank & Trust Co., Philadelphia	5,000.00
Corry National Bank	5,000.00
Crafton National Bank	5,000.00
Curwensville State Bank	5,000.00
Dauphin Deposit Trust Co., Harrisburg	5,000.00
Delaware County Trust Co., Media	5,000.00
Derry National Bank & Trust Co.	5,000.00
Dollar Savings Bank, Pittsburgh	5,000.00
Dormont National Bank	5,000.00
Downingtown National Bank	5,000.00
Duquesne Trust Co.	5,000.00
Dunbar National Bank	5,000.00
Duquesne National Bank	5,000.00
East Deer Bank, Parker	5,000.00
East End Bank, Pittsburgh	5,000.00
Edgar Bank, Mahaffey	5,000.00
Elizabethtown Trust Co.	5,000.00
Elkins Park Trust Co.	5,000.00
Ellwood City Bank & Trust Co.	5,000.00
Emlenton Bank & Trust Co.	5,000.00
Fairmount Bank, Pittsburgh	5,000.00
Farmers Bank & Trust Co., Bedford	5,000.00
Farmers Bank & Trust Co., Bethlehem	5,000.00
Farmers Bank & Trust Co., Lancaster	5,000.00
Farmers Bank & Trust Co., Lewistown	5,000.00
Farmers Bank & Trust Co., Media	5,000.00
Farmers Bank & Trust Co., Pittsburgh	5,000.00
Farmers Bank & Trust Co., Tarentum	5,000.00
Farmers Deposit National Bank, Pittsburgh	5,000.00
Farmers National Bank, Bentleyville	5,000.00
Farmers National Bk., Latrobe	5,000.00
Farmers Nat. Bk., McAllisterville	5,000.00
Farmers Nat. Bk., Ronks	5,000.00
Farmers Nat. Bk., Thompsontown	5,000.00
Farmers National Bank & Trust Co., Allentown	5,000.00
Farmers National Bank & Trust Co., New Bloomfield	5,000.00
Farmers National Bank & Trust Co., Quakertown	5,000.00
Farmers State Bank, Dalmatia	5,000.00
Farmers Trust Co., Carlisle	5,000.00
Farmers Trust Co., Lebanon	5,000.00
Farmers Trust Co., Middletown	5,000.00
Fayette Deposit & Discount Bank, Dunmore	5,000.00
Fidelity-Philadelphia Trust Co., Philadelphia	5,000.00
Finance Co. of Pa., Philadelphia	5,000.00
First and Farmers Bk. & Trust Co., Montrose	5,000.00
First Bk. & Tr. Co., Jeannette	5,000.00
First Bk. & Tr. Co., Mechanicsburg	5,000.00
First Blair County Nat. Bk., Tyrone	5,000.00
First Nat. Bk., Alexandria	5,000.00
First Nat. Bk., Aliquippa	5,000.00
First Nat. Bk., Altoona	5,000.00
First Nat. Bk., Ashley	5,000.00
First Nat. Bk., Austin	5,000.00
First Nat. Bk., Avca	5,000.00
First Nat. Bk., Bakerstown, P. O. Gibsonia	5,000.00
First Nat. Bk., Bath	5,000.00
First Nat. Bk., Bangor	5,000.00
First Nat. Bk., Barnesboro	5,000.00
First Nat. Bk., Bath	5,000.00
First Nat. Bk., Berwick	5,000.00
First Nat. Bk., Blue Ridge Summit	5,000.00
First Nat. Bk., Braddock	5,002.19
First Nat. Bk., Brunn	2,000.00
First Nat. Bk., California	14,000.00
First Nat. Bk., Canton	7,000.00
First Nat. Bk., Carmichael	30,000.00
First Nat. Bk., Carrolltown	10,000.00
First Nat. Bk., Catasauqua	5,000.00
First Nat. Bk., Cecil	5,000.00
First Nat. Bk., Centre Hall	5,000.00
First Nat. Bk., Chester	10,000.00
First Nat. Bk., Clairton, P. O. Wilson	5,000.00
First Nat. Bk., Claysburg	20,000.00
First Nat. Bk., Clifton Heights	4,500.00
First Nat. Bk., Coaldale	4,500.00
First Nat. Bk., Confluence	2,000.00
First Nat. Bk., Conneaut Lake	5,000.00
First Nat. Bk., Crafton	5,000.00
First Nat. Bk., Cresson	13,002.45
First Nat. Bk., Dallas	10,000.00
First Nat. Bk., Duquesne	45,000.00
First Nat. Bk., East Smithfield	5,000.00
First Nat. Bk., Eldred	1,500.00
First Nat. Bk., Elizabethville	2,000.00
First Nat. Bk., Erie	25,000.00
First Nat. Bk., Etna	15,000.00
First Nat. Bk., Everett	5,000.00
First Nat. Bk., Exeter	12,000.00
First Nat. Bk., Fairfield	7,500.00
First Nat. Bk., Fawn Grove	10,000.00
First Nat. Bk., Fredericktown	5,000.00
First Nat. Bk., Fryburg	5,000.00
First Nat. Bk., Galeton	10,000.00
First Nat. Bk., Garrett	5,000.00
First Nat. Bk., Genessee	5,000.00
First Nat. Bk., Girardville	5,000.00
First Nat. Bk., Goldsboro, P. O. Etters	5,000.00
First Nat. Bk., Greencastle	15,000.00
First Nat. Bk., Greenville	15,000.00
First Nat. Bk., Hallstead	10,000.00
First Nat. Bk., Hastings	15,000.00
First Nat. Bk., Hazleton	10,000.00
First Nat. Bk., Hermitage	7,000.00
First Nat. Bk., Herndon	4,000.00
First Nat. Bk., Homestead	5,000.00
First Nat. Bk., Honeybrook	20,000.00
First Nat. Bk., Howard	5,000.00
First Nat. Bk., Huntingdon	15,000.00
First Nat. Bk., Intercourse	5,000.00
First Nat. Bk., Irwin	7,000.00
First Nat. Bk., Jermyn	7,000.00
First Nat. Bk., Jessup	7,000.00
First Nat. Bk., Kane	7,000.00
First Nat. Bk., Kingston	15,000.00
First Nat. Bk., Lansford	2,000.00
First Nat. Bk., Lebanon	40,000.00
First Nat. Bk., Leechburg	10,000.00
First Nat. Bk., LeRaysville	1,000.00
First Nat. Bk., Ligonier	5,000.00
First Nat. Bk., Mansfield	6,000.00
First Nat. Bk., Manufacturers Depot	5,000.00
First Nat. Bk., Marietta	5,000.00
First Nat. Bk., Marysville	3,000.00
First Nat. Bk., Meadville	13,000.00
First Nat. Bk., Mercer	20,000.00
First Nat. Bk., Meyhonnen	5,000.00
First Nat. Bk., Middleburg	5,000.00
First Nat. Bk., Mifflintown	4,500.00
First Nat. Bk., Milford	5,000.00
First Nat. Bk., Millersburg	5,000.00
First Nat. Bk., Montgomery	25,000.00
First Nat. Bk., Montoursville	8,000.00
First Nat. Bk., Moscow	8,000.00
First Nat. Bk., Mount Holly Springs	7,500.00
First Nat. Bk., McAdoo	31,000.00
First Nat. Bk., McConnellsburg	15,000.00
First Nat. Bk., McKeesport	5,000.00
First Nat. Bk., Natrona	5,000.00
First Nat. Bk., New Albany	5,000.00
First Nat. Bk., Newport	5,000.00
First Nat. Bk., New Wilmington	11,500.00
First Nat. Bk., North East	5,000.00
First Nat. Bk., Olev	3,000.00
First Nat. Bk., Osceola Mills	5,000.00
First Nat. Bk., Pittsburgh	10,000.00
First Nat. Bk., Plymouth	10,000.00
First Nat. Bk., Point Marion	10,000.00
First Nat. Bk., Port Allegany	11,500.00
First Nat. Bk., Port Royal	1,500.00
First Nat. Bk., Reigelsville	5,000.00
First Nat. Bk., Roaring Spgs.	14,000.00
First Nat. Bk., Roseto	10,000.00
First Nat. Bk., Russellton	5,000.00
First Nat. Bk., Savre	6,500.00
First Nat. Bk., Scranton	50,000.00
First Nat. Bk., Sharon	20,000.00
First Nat. Bk., Sharpsville	15,000.00
First Nat. Bk., Shippensburg	8,000.00
First Nat. Bk., Shippenville	9,500.00
First Nat. Bk., Somerset	15,000.00
First Nat. Bk., Stanchter	10,000.00
First Nat. Bk., Spring Mills	5,000.00
First Nat. Bk., State College	10,000.00
First Nat. Bk., Stewartstown	20,000.00
First Nat. Bk., Strasburg	20,000.00
First Nat. Bk., Sunbury	12,500.00
First Nat. Bk., Susquehanna	5,000.00
First Nat. Bk., Troy	7,000.00
First Nat. Bk., Williamsburg	5,000.00
First Nat. Bk., Wyoming	20,000.00
First Nat. Bk., York	15,000.00
First Nat. Bk., Youngwood	12,000.00
First Nat. Bk. & Tr. Co., Bethlehem	12,500.00
First Nat. Bk. & Tr. Co., Fleetwood	10,000.00
First Nat. Bk. & Tr. Co., Mount Joy	10,000.00
First Nat. Bk. & Tr. Co., Red Lion	10,000.00
First Nat. Bk. & Tr. Co., Tarentum	17,500.00
First Stroudsburg Nat. Bk.	20,000.00
Forest Co. Nat. Bk., Tionesta	10,000.00
Ft. McIntosh Nat. Bk., Beaver	5,000.00
Forty-Fort State Bk.	10,000.00
Freehold Bank, Pittsburgh	5,000.00
Gap Nat. Bk. & Tr. Co.	5,000.00
Glass City Bank, Jeannette	70,000.00
Glen Rock State Bank	5,000.00
Gosztony Savs. and Tr. Co., Bethlehem	7,000.00
Grange Nat. Bk. of Wyoming County, Laceyville	7,500.00
Grange Nat. Bk. of McKean County, Smethport	5,000.00
Grange Nat. Bk., Tioga	10,000.00
Grange Tr. Co., Huntingdon	7,000.00
Green Ridge Tr. Co., Scranton	20,000.00
Greenville Nat. Bk.	30,000.00
Grove City Nat. Bk.	23,000.00
Guarantee Tr. & Safe Dep. Co., Mount Carmel	4,000.00
Guardian Tr. Co., York	17,000.00
Halifax Nat. Bk.	15,000.00
Hamlin Bk. & Tr. Co., Smethport	5,000.00
Harleysville Nat. Bk.	5,000.00
Hastings Bk.	15,000.00
Hatfield Nat. Bk. & Tr. Co.	8,000.00
Ha-Nat. Bk., Pittsburgh	35,000.00
Honeybrook Tr. Co.	21,500.00
Hop Bottom Nat. Bk.	10,000.00
Houtzdale Tr. Co.
Interboro Bk. & Tr. Co., Prospect Park	110,000.00
Jefferson Co. Nat. Bk., Brookville	24,414.30
Jersey Shore Tr. Co.	15,000.00
Johnstown Tr. Co.	8,000.00
Jonestown Bk. & Tr. Co.	15,000.00
Kensington Security Bk. & Tr. Co., Phila.	2,000.00
Keystone Bk., Spangler
Keystone Nat. Bk., Manheim	23,000.00
Keystone Nat. Bk., Pittsburgh
Keystone Tr. Co., Harrisburg	10,000.00
Kingston Bk. & Tr. Co.
Lancaster Co. Nat. Bk., Lancaster	15,000.00
Leola Nat. Bk., Leola	10,000.00
Lewisburg Tr. & Safe Dep. Co.	9,300.00
Liberty Nat. Bk., Pittston	3,000.00
Liberty Title & Tr. Co., Phila.	10,000.00
Lititz Springs Nat. Bk., Lititz	7,500.00
Littlestown Nat. Bk.	20,000.00
	42,000.00
Lock Haven Tr. Co.	15,000.00
Luzerne Nat. Bk.	12,000.00
Lykens Valley Bk., Elizabethville	8,000.00
Lyndora Nat. Bk.	25,000.00
Mahanoy Nat. Bk.	8,000.00
Manufacturers Nat. Bk., Wayne	20,000.00
Marcus Hook Nat. Bk.	8,000.00
Marietta Nat. Bk.	26,000.00
Marion Center Nat. Bk.	5,000.00
Market St. Nat. Bk., Philadelphia	15,000.00
Market St. Tr. Co., Harrisburg	20,000.00
Markle Banking & Tr. Co., Hazleton	5,000.00
Mauch Chunk Tr. Co.	10,000.00
Mayfield-Jermyn Bank & Tr. Co.	5,000.00
McDowell Nat. Bk., Sharon	10,000.00
Media 69th St. Tr. Co., Media	5,000.00
Merchants Nat. Bk. & Tr. Co., Allentown	20,000.00
Merchants Nat. Bk., Bangor	10,000.00
Merchants & Manufacturers National Bank, Sharon	20,000.00
Merchants & Mechanics Nat. Bk., Sayre	8,500.00
Mercury Banking Company	8,000.00
Milton Tr. & Safe Dep. Co.	5,000.00
Miners & Merch. Bk., Wilkinsburg	12,000.00
Miners Bk. & Tr. Co., West Newton	10,000.00
Miners Nat. Bk., Nanticoke	25,000.00
Miners Nat. Bk., Shenandoah	11,000.00
Miners Savings Bk., Pittston	20,000.00
Mohawk Nat. Bk.	5,000.00
Monongahela Tr. Co., Homestead	10,000.00
Monroe Co. Nat. Bk. & Tr. Co., East Stroudsburg	8,000.00
Mont Alto State Bank	5,000.00
Mount Airy Nat. Bk. & Tr. Co., Philadelphia	80,000.00
Mount Lebanon Bank	5,000.00
Mount Penn Tr. Co.	5,000.00
Mountville Nat. Bk.	15,000.00
Moxham Nat. Bk., Johnstown	10,000.00
Moyamensing Nat. Bk., Myerstown	5,000.00
Mt. Carmel Tr. Co.	26,500.00
Nanticoke Nat. Bk.	16,000.00
Nat. Bk. & Tr. Co., Kennett Square	15,000.00
Nat. Bk. & Tr. Co. Spring City	2,000.00
Nat. Bk. of Arendtsville	10,000.00
Nat. Bk. of Avondale	20,000.00
Nat. Bk. of Chambersburg	35,000.00
Nat. Bk. of Charleroi & Tr. Company	25,000.00
Nat. Bk. of Chester County & Trust Co., West Chester	50,000.00
Nat. Bk. of Derry	10,000.00
Nat. Bk. of Girard	5,000.01
Nat. Bk. of Malvern	10,000.00
Nat. Bk. of Olney, Phila.	67,500.00
Nat. Bk. of Oxford	10,000.00
Nat. Bk. of Pembroke	5,000.00
Nat. Bk. of Quakertown	25,000.00
Nat. Bk. of Waynesboro	8,000.00
Nat. Deposit Bk., Arnold	50,000.00
Nat. Deposit Bk., Brownsville	30,000.00
Nat. Dime Bk., Shamokin	5,000.00
Nat. Iron Bk., Pottstown	5,000.00
Nescopeck Nat. Bank	1,500.00
New Bethlehem Tr. Co.	5,000.00
New Cumberland Nat. Bank	5,000.00
New Tripoli Nat. Bank	13,000.00
North Bank & Trust Company, Philadelphia	10,000.00
North Braddock Tr. Co.	65,000.00
North Broad Nat. Bk., Phila.	50,000.00
North City Tr. Co., Phila.	50,000.00
Northeast Nat. Bk., Phila.	15,000.00
North Side Bk. & Tr. Co., Aliquippa	55,000.00
Northumberland Nat. Bk.	50,000.00
Northwestern Nat. Bk. & Tr. Co., Phila.	55,000.00
Oil City Nat. Bk.	10,000.00
Old Forge Bk. & Tr. Co.	10,000.00
Palmyra Bk. & Tr. Co., New Cumberland	10,000.00
Peoples Bank, Hanover	5,000.00
Peoples Nat. Bk., McKeesport	100,000.00
Peoples Nat. Bk., Lebanon	15,000.00
Peoples Nat. Bk., Mifflin	5,500.00
Peoples Nat. Bk., State College	5,000.00
Peoples Nat. Bk., Stewartst'n	10,000.00
Peoples Nat. Bk. & Tr. Co., Connellsville	50,000.00
Peoples Nat. Bk. & Tr. Co., Monessen	20,000.00
Peoples Sav. & Tr. Co., Hazleton	52,500.00
Peoples Sav. & Tr. Co., Nanticoke	3,000.00
Peoples Sav. & Tr. Co., New Castle	10,000.00
Peoples State Bk., Jennerstown	1,000.00
Peoples State Bk., Wyomissing	6,000.00
Peoples Tr. Co., Shamokin	7,500.00
Peoples Tr. Co., Tamaqua	5,000.00
Perkasie Tr. Co.	13,000.00
Pine Grove Nat. Bk. & Tr. Co.	3,000.00
Plymouth Nat. Bank	15,000.00
Port Royal Nat. Bank	10,000.00
Potter Title & Tr. Co., Pittsburgh	110,000.00
Reading Tr. Co.	70,000.00
Real Estate Tr. Co., Phila.	185,000.00
Reliance Nat. Bk.	2,000.00
Richfield Bank	10,000.00
Ridley Park Nat. Bk.	10,000.00
Robesonia State Bk. & Tr. Co.	7,000.00
Russell Nat. Bk., Lewistown	17,500.00
Saint Mary's Tr. Co.	20,000.00
Saucon Valley Tr. Co., Heller town	2,500.00
Savings & Tr. Co., Indiana	25,000.00
Schuylkill Haven Tr. Co.	8,000.00
Second Nat. Bk., Allentown	25,000.00
Second Nat. Bk., Mechanicsburg
Second Nat. Bk., Nazareth	16,000.00
Second Nat. Bk., Wilkes-Barre	4,000.00
Security-Peoples Tr. Co., Erie	7,500.00
Sewickley Valley Tr. Co.	85,000.00
Shamokin Banking & Tr. Co.	1,000.00
Sheraden Bank, Pittsburgh	19,000.00
Silver Creek State Bank, New Phila. P. O. Silver Creek	5,000.00
Sligo National Bank
Snyder County Tr. Co., Selinsgrove	5,000.00
State Bank of Paradise	3,000.00
Summit Hill Trust Co.	5,000.00
Swarthmore Nat. Bk. & Tr. Co.	15,000.00
Tamaqua Nat. Bk.	7,000.00
Tower City National Bank	3,000.00
Turbotville National Bank	2,500.00
Turtle Creek Savs. & Tr. Co.	10,000.00
Union Nat. Bk., Mahanoy City	11,000.00
Union Nat. Bk., McKeesport	30,000.00
Union Nat. Bk., Mount Carmel	20,000.00
Union Nat. Bk., New Brighton	28,000.00
Union Nat. Bk. & Tr. Co., Huntingdon	5,000.00
Union Trust Co., Butler	10,000.00
Union Trust Co., New Castle	13,000.00
Valley Nat. Bk., Chambersburg
Valley Trust Co., Palmyra	5,000.00
Wilkinsburg-Edgewood Trust Co.	10,000.00
Williamsport Nat. Bk.	30,000.00
Windber Trust Co.	5,000.00
Wyomissing Bk. & Tr. Co.	8,000.00
Yeagertown Bk. & Tr. Co.	10,000.00
York County Nat. Bk.	28,000.00
York County Bk. & Tr. Co.	45,000.00
Com. Exchange Nat. Bk. & Tr. Co., Philadelphia	390,675.41
Philadelphia Nat. Bk.	95,338.97
Central-Penn Nat. Bk., Phila.	68,304.75
Commonwealth Tr. Co., Harrisburg	287,426.60
Harrisburg Trust Co.	43,680.16
Colonial Tr. Co., Pittsburgh	37,702.64
Diamond Nat. Bk., Pittsburgh	50,000.00
Mellon Nat. Bk., Pittsburgh	135,003.24
Citizens Nat. Bk., Washington	89,259.68
Pennsylvania Co. for Insurances on Lives & Granting Annuities, Phila.	1,693,496.65
Total Amount in Federal Unemployments Relief Fund	$9,606,894.93
MOTOR LICENSE FUND
Abington Bk. & Tr. Co.	$10,000.00
Akron Nat. Bk.	5,000.00
Allegheny Valley Trust Company, Verona	2,000.00
Altoona Tr. Co.	15,000.00
Ambridge National Bank	4,000.00
American Bank & Trust Company, Hazleton	15,000.00
American Banking & Trust Company, Mahony City	45,000.00
Armstrong County Trust Company, Kittanning	10,000.00
Ashland Nat. Bk.	25,000.00
Atglen National Bank	5,000.00
Athens National Bank	5,000.00
Banca Commerciale Italiana Trust Co., Phila.	12,000.00
Bank of Erie Tr. Co.	12,000.00
Bank of Matamoras	5,000.00
Bank of Millvale	20,000.00
Bank of S. Williamsport	5,000.00
Barnes-Westmoreland Tr. Co., Greensburg	10,000.00
Beaver Trust Company	15,000.00
Bendersville National Bank	5,000.00
Berwick National Bank	10,000.00
Berwick Savings & Trust Co.	5,000.00
Bessemer State Bank Co.	5,000.00
Bethlehem Nat. Bank	70,000.00
Bigerville National Bank	5,000.00
Blairsville National Bank	7,000.00
Blairsville Sav. & Tr. Co.	7,500.00
Blue Ball National Bank	15,000.00
Braddock Trust Company	5,000.00
Brandywine Trust Company	10,000.00
Broad Street Tr. Co., Phila.	7,000.00
Brookline Savings and Trust Company, Pittsburgh	5,000.00
Brookville Title & Tr. Co.	20,000.00
Bryn Mawr Nat. Bank	30,000.00
Camp Hill Nat. Bk.	23,000.00
Carlisle Tr. Co.	4,000.00
Catawissa Nat. Bk.	17,000.00
Cement Nat. Bk. of Siegfried	15,000.00
Central City Nat. Bk., Northampton	5,000.00
Central Nat. Bk. & Tr. Co., York	5,000.00
Central Trust Co., Altoona	15,000.00
Central Tr. Co., Harrisburg	8,000.00
Chambersburg Trust Co.	35,000.00
Cheltenham Nat. Bank	21,500.00
Chester-Cambridge Bank & Trust Company, Chester	10,000.00
Chester County Trust Company, West Chester	110,000.00
Citizens & Southern Bk. & Trust Co., Phila.	24,414.30
Citizens Bank, Wind Gap	15,000.00
Citizens Bk. & Tr. Co., Middletown	8,000.00
Citizens Bank & Trust Company, Palmerton	15,000.00
Citizens Banking & Trust Co., Brockway	2,000.00
Citizens Banking Company, Oil City	23,000.00
Citizens Deposit & Trust Co., Sharpsburg	10,000.00
Citizens Nat. Bk., Big Run	15,000.00
Citizens Nat. Bk., Connellsville	10,000.00
Citizens Nat. Bk., Hollidaysburg	9,300.00
Citizens Nat. Bk., Hooversville	3,000.00
Citizens Nat. Bk., Lewistown	10,000.00
Citizens Nat. Bk., Meyersdale	7,500.00
Citizens Nat. Bk., Shenandoah	20,000.00
Clearfield Bank & Trust Co.	42,000.00
Columbia Nat. Bk., Towanda	7,000.00
Citizens Nat. Bk., Tunkhannock	8,000.00
Citizens Nat. Bank & Trust Co., Waynesboro	25,000.00
City Nat. Bk., Susquehanna	8,000.00
Clearfield Tr. Co.	20,000.00
Collegeville Nat. Bk.	26,000.00
Columbia Co. Nat. Bk., Bentown	5,000.00
Columbia Tr. Co.	15,000.00
Commercial Nat. Bk., Bradford	19,000.00
Commonwealth Tr. Co., Pittsburgh	100,000.00
Conestoga Nat. Bk., Lancaster	5,000.00
Conshohocken Nat. Bk.	25,000.00
Conyngham Nat. Bk.	5,000.00
County Nat. Bk., Clearfield	25,000.00
County Nat. Bk., Punxsutawney	23,000.00
Crawford County Tr. Co., Meadville	5,500.00
Curwensville State Bk.	5,000.00
Dale Nat. Bk., Johnstown	10,000.00
Danville Nat. Bk.	15,000.00
Dauphin Nat. Bank	2,500.00
Delaware County Tr. Co., Chester	10,000.00
Denver Nat. Bank	20,000.00
Deposit Nat. Bk., Du Bois	10,000.00
Dickson City Nat. Bk.	15,000.00
Dimsburg Nat. Bk.	5,000.00
Dormont Sav. & Tr. Co.	10,000.00
Dover Nat. Bank	10,000.00
Downingtown Nat. Bk.	15,000.00
Doylestown Tr. Co.	7,000.00
DuBois Nat. Bank	5,000.00
Duncannon Nat. Bank	20,000.00
East Berlin Nat. Bank	15,000.00
East Petersburg State Bank	10,000.00
East Prospect State Bank	5,000.00
East Scranton State Bank, Scranton	8,000.00
East Stroudsburg Nat. Bk.	15,000.00
Easton Trust Co.	15,000.00
Elizabethtown Trust Co.	10,000.00
Elkins Park Nat. Bank	14,000.00
Emporium Trust Co.	15,000.00
Ephrata Nat. Bank	10,000.00
Exchange Bank and Tr. Co., Franklin	15,000.00
Exchange Nat. Bk

PREACHER FINDS VICE IN CITY, HE REPORTS

Strict enforcement of the law the officials' sworn duty, is the solution of the social evil, declared the Rev. Dr. M. B. Fuller, of Emory Methodist Episcopal Church, in his sermon last night. Preaching on "Clark Island or Clark street—a study of the social evil in Pittsburgh," the pastor based his discourse on a personal investigation which he made on Halloween night in the Hill district.

Clark Island, off the New England Coast, he pointed out was the spot where the Pilgrims landed during a storm, which drove them from their course. They spent Sunday there in devotions. He declared:

"This was they type of man who founded our nation. They built this institution of a Christian Sabbath into the foundations of American life. Clark street is not more infamous than other streets in the Hill district and it is only fair to state that on these streets there are living today many magnificent people, who are almost overwhelmed by the invasion of those who disregard the higher moral standards.

GAMBLING DENS

"In this section in the Third Ward, we may state with good authority that there are approximately 10 gambling dens and some 45 disorderly houses, 10 of which are in proximity of Franklin School. These same conditions are true of the Fifth Ward.

"We are basing many of these statements upon personal observation. The solution of the social evil, together with the complete elimination of other destructive dens for vice existing could be easily coped with by a strict enforcement of the law which our officials are sworn to do."

BRANDON ON TOUR

A. D. Brandon, former Morals Court magistrate, who accompanied him in his tour of observation, shared the pulpit with him.

Declaring the only contact children of the city slum areas have with justice is through police officials and police judges "who are dominated by ward politicians," Brandon said:

"The conditions I have described could not exist 24 hours without the knowledge, consent and approval of those higher up in the civic life of our great city.

"In the system that has been inaugurated in the past, the ward chairman is the arbitrator of vice concessions in the ward."

One More Mouth to Feed, But Mitzie Doesn't Care!

MITZIE AND HER SEVEN PUPPIES AND THE BABY SHE'S ADOPTED; TINY CAT WHOSE MOTHER JUST DIDN'T STAY AROUND

Mrs. Mitzie, mother of seven, pictured at the home of her owner, Mrs. Fred Weiss, 1734 Brighton road, with her brood and the two-weeks-old kitten turned out into the autumn-chilled air by its mother. This is a Pittsburgh Sun-Telegraph picture.

FARMER SLAIN, LURED BY RUSE

RONCEVERTE, W. Va., Nov. 6.—(AP.)—Called from his home, officers said, by a report that his cattle were in danger, Lewis Tyree, 31, prominent stockman and farmer of Frankford, was found shot to death in a field early yesterday.

A warrant charging murder was issued for Clyde Kerschner, 42, a temporary employe on the Tyree farm. State police and deputy sheriffs started a search for him in the Greenbrier County hills.

Officers said Tyree was called from his home by a ruse as there was no evidence of trouble among the cattle.

Twice Convicted, Killer Faces Death

QUEBEC, Nov. 6.—(INS.)—Found guilty twice on charges of having murdered his common law wife, Phillippe Trottier, said by police to be a professional mendicant, today faced execution on February 17.

Trottier was convicted of murder last June, but was awarded a new trial in August on a plea of insanity.

Dedicate Mormon Chapel in Capital

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—(AP.)—A monument to the "perseverence, integrity, honor and heroism" of the Mormon people, the new $500,000 Washington chapel of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints was dedicated yesterday by church dignitaries from all sections of the country.

Heading the delegation was President Heber J. Grant, seer prophet and revelator, who had charge of the three services.

Auto Skids on Ice, Kills 2, Injures 2

INDIANA, Pa., Nov. 6.—(AP.)—A car skidded on an icy pavement and crashed into an embankment late yesterday, killing two persons and injuring two others.

The dead are Mrs. Robert L. Hoagland, 30, of Grove City, and Miss Esther Blair, 24, of Butler. The injured are Miss Betty Lindley, 21, of Altoona, and S. C. Phills, 28, of Grove City.

Shoup to Direct Tax Cut Campaign

I. Leonard Aronson, president of the Allegheny County Real Estate Owners' and Taxpayers' League, announced today that C. V. Shoup, of the Allied Boards of Trade, had been named executive director of the league. He will direct its activities toward reduction of school taxes.

U. S. TO TEST HOME LOAN ACTS

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—(AP.)—The validity of emergency legislation designed to protect homes against foreclosure, will be argued orally this week in the Supreme Court.

It is the first of emergency relief measures to be taken up by the high court for decision. Another case challenges the validity of the New York Milk Control Act under which the minimum retail price is fixed by the State Milk Control Board.

The case to be argued this week, brought by the Home Building & Loan Association against John H. Blaisdell and others, attacks the Minnesota Moratorium Act which was passed to protect property owners by extending the time in which they may recover property sold on the foreclosure of a mortgage.

Storm Balks Mass Flight to Africa

ISTRES AIRPORT, France, Nov. 6.—(AP.)—The departure of an air armada of 30 planes, all set for a mass flight to Africa, was postponed until tomorrow or later because of a storm at Barcelona, Spain, on their route.

AUSTRIA BEGINS DRIVE ON NAZIS

VIENNA, Nov. 6.—(AP.)—A relentless drive to purge the Austrian government of all Nazi sympathizers will be opened along a wide front this week.

Tired of opposition within its own official household to his stern anti-Nazi campaign, Austria's little but mighty chancellor, Engelbert Dollfuss, declared:

"The time is coming when we will find out who really is for Austria and who is not."

Within a week, he announced, a federal kommissar for personnel reform will be named to weed out all public officials and employes with Nazi leanings.

All persons connected with the government were required to swear allegiance to "independent Austria" last May, but the Chancellor said many weren't living up to the oath.

Hitler Reiterates Desire for Peace

ELBING, Germany, Nov. 6.—(AP.)—Chancellor Hitler told thousands, gathered here in East Prussia yesterday, that the hands off policy practiced by Germany in regard to other nation's domestic affairs entitled Germany to the same consideration from foreign powers. Hitler reaffirmed Germany's desire for peace saying:

"I have seen war with my own eyes—more than many other statesmen can say—and I repeat that Germany desires nothing but to live in peace with her neighbors."

Jews of England Boycott Germany

LONDON, Nov. 5.—(AP.)—A Jewish boycott on German goods was voted at a conference yesterday of 500 delegates representing 150,000 Jews in all parts of the country.

The resolution, which was unanimously adopted, placed an official boycott on German goods and appealed to Jews in all parts of the British Empire to abstain from purchasing or using German goods or services so long as the Jews in Germany are denied the status of full equality and citizenship.

President to Receive Placque of Luther

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—(AP.)—A bronze plaque commemorating the four hundred and fiftieth anniversary of the birth of Martin Luther will be presented to President Roosevelt, Thursday, by the Lutheran Church bodies that are members of the National Lutheran Council.

E. F. Eilert, of New York, treasurer of the organization, would give the plaque to Mr. Roosevelt.

Fugitive's Return Sought by Spain

GIBRALTAR, Nov. 6.—(AP.)—Spain may ask the British government for the extradition of Juan March, millionaire tobacco king, who escaped last week from Alcala De Henares Prison where he was interned on a political charge.

A report reached here from Madrid that the Spanish government, after a meeting of its ministers, has decided to apply for his extradition.

DENY ARAB RIOT DUE TO NAZIS

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—(AP.)—Rumors from abroad that Nazi activities were connected with the recent anti-Jewish rioting in Palestine were discounted here today by the Jewish Telegraph Agency.

The Hitler government's policy of Jewish restrictions was seen as having only an indirect effect in Palestine, by giving the Arabian press ammunition for its attacks on Jewish immigration to that country.

Reports that a majority of Germany's half-million Jews would be transported to Palestine were received with resentment.

The Jewish agency says, however, that the total number of Jews which have emigrated from Germany to Palestine since Hitler came into power is approximately 6,000.

None of the stringent requirements of the immigration laws into the British mandate have been waived in favor of the refugees and German Jews can enter Palestine only under the regular immigration schedules allotted.

NAZI BRUTALITY CHARGE DENIED

BERLIN, Nov. 6.—(AP.)—The London "Brown Book" was attacked from the witness stand in the German Reichstag building fire trial today by Edmund Heines, Nazi police chief of Breslau.

Testifying in the trial in which five men are accused of arson last February, Heines branded the accusations in the book against him as a pack of lies.

(The "Brown Book" was compiled by a commission headed by Lord Marley. It purports to list what are described as authentic cases of Nazi mistreatment.)

He pointed out that he was at Gleiwitz on party business before, during and after the fire and had nothing whatsoever to do with it.

Later he remarked:

"As a representative of the storm troopers, I must say we can hardly understand the forbearance with which the accused are treated here."

LINK JAP 'RAID' TO U. S. PARLEY

International News Service.

PEIPING, Nov. 6.—A "raid" of Japanese airplanes, including a bomber, over Siberian territory was deliberately timed to coincide with preparations for Soviet-American recognition talks, a high Soviet official in Peiping declared today.

The official expressed belief that similar acts by Japanese military authorities may be expected during conversations in Washington between President Roosevelt and Maxim Litvinoff, Soviet foreign minister.

The Japanese planes flew some distance into Soviet territory near the Gulf of Amur last Friday, according to dispatches of the semi-official Tass News Agency today, causing concern to residents of several Siberian villages.

TOKIO, Nov. 6.—(AP.)—The war office directed to Moscow today a flat denial of Soviet reports that Japanese planes flew over Russian territory.

Jap 'Red' Leader Dies in Moscow

MOSCOW, Nov. 6.—(AP.)—Sen Katayama, veteran Japanese bolshevist, died yesterday. A statement from the executive committee of the Communist International praised him as the organizer and leader of the Communist party in Japan.

800 Bandits Slain In China Uprising

PEIPING, Nov. 6.—(AP.)—After a relentless all-night battle, Chinese special police, armed with heavy artillery, yesterday recaptured the City of Fuming, held by bandits for five weeks.

Their merciless fire killed 800 bandits who were led by Gen. Lao Hao Tsu, known as the "old rat." He offered to mediate a truce, but the police ignored his attempts.

FACTOR READY TO PROSECUTE

CHICAGO, Nov. 6.—(AP.)—John Factor, millionaire speculator, abducted and held prisoner 12 days by kidnapers, today said he was certain of the identity of his abductors and was ready to prosecute them to the limit.

Factor's statement came shortly after newspapers said Roger Touhy and four other members of his gang had been identified as the abductors who obtained at least $70,000 ransom from him.

Official comment was withheld, but it was revealed one man was held in jail here. The others reported identified are prisoners in St. Paul along with Touhy as the kidnapers of William Hamm, Jr., wealthy St. Paul brewer. Factor commented:

"I'm sure they got the right men. I'm ready to prosecute to the limit and will throw my entire resources into the prosecution."

Restaurant Owner Slain, Body Burned

BUFFALO, N. Y., Nov. 6.—(AP.)—John Sieczkarek, restaurant owner, was found slain and his body partly burned in his bed yesterday. His wife, Mamie, her brothers, Aloysius D. Joba and John Joba and Albert Zalewski, all living in the house where the killing occurred, and Alexander Kister, Niagara Falls butcher, were detained by police for questioning.

Minimum Wage Law Author Dies in West

PASADENA, Cal., Nov. 6.—(AP.)—Mrs. Katherine Philips Edson, 63, author of California's minimum wage law for women and a leader in social and philanthropic endeavors in Southern California, died yesterday at her home after a long illness. Born in Kenton, O., Mrs. Edson settled with her husband in Antelope Valley in 1891.

NAZI MINISTER VISITS IL DUCE

ROME, Nov. 6.—(AP.)—Hermann Wilhelm Goering, German minister without portfolio, arrived here by airplane this afternoon to confer with Premier Mussolini.

Goering was accompanied by the Prince of Hesse, son-in-law of King Victor Emmanuel. The exact purpose of the visit was not explained, but well-informed circles reported Il Duce had asked him to come to Rome to discuss the situation which will exist after the German elections, particularly in reference to disarmament.

It still is considered a strong possibility that Mussolini will call a meeting of the four powers in his European peace pact to discuss disarmament here as individual nations and not as sibnatories of the four-power pact.

It is believed the Premier also will seek through Goering Germany's fuller co-operation in working out his memorandum for economic recovery of the Danubian states.

22,000,000th Fair Visitor Given Farm

CHICAGO, Nov. 6.—(AP.)—Leslie C. McDonald, 55, farmer of Floydada, Tex., was the 22,000,000th visitor to the World's Fair yesterday and thereby annexed himself another farm.

In addition to having special honors heaped upon him as a guest of the exposition, McDonald received as a prize a 40-acre farm in Michigan.

McIlroy Will Gives $50,000 Estate to Kin

The will of William D. McIlroy, of 4512 Center avenue, disposing of an estate of $50,000, was filed for probate today. Two sisters and a brother were made beneficiaries and executors.

Co-ed 'Shines 'Em Up' To Begin Career

CHICAGO, Nov. 6.—(AP.)—A college girl is putting a practical touch to the old rule about "where there's a will there's a way."

She's shining shoes for a living in Chicago's Loop and doesn't mind the job!

She's Ruth Benton, 20, but that's not her real name. She assumed the name after coming from the East, where she said she attended college.

Ruth isn't shining shoes for experience, but is doing the job to earn her board and room rent and thus far has averaged a dollar a day.

Women, she told a reporter, apparently are shunning Ruth's shining stand. She said:

"One woman came up to me and asked me a lot of questions. She said she was a psychologist and asked me if I was doing this for experience. I said I was doing it for a living. She said, 'How interesting.'

"Apparently she was too interested to get a shine."

But Ruth isn't discouraged. Her cry: "Shine 'em up, shine 'em up," continues to ring in a cheerful voice.

WASH DOG NEW WAY

Bee Brand Shampoo quickly kills all fleas, lice, ticks, and other vermin on your pet dog or cat and its rich, creamy lather makes the hair soft, clean and lustrous. Also kills mange, it has a pleasant odor, leaves no stains, relieves itching. Absolutely safe to use on your own hair. Get the blue bottle with the red and yellow label from your grocery or drug store today. Only 30c.

BEE BRAND Shampoo

Made by makers of Bee Brand Insect Spray and Powder

"Here's my Beauty Secret"...

No more red "dishpan" hands for me! I've found a real beauty treatment. Lux in the dishpan keeps my hands wonderfully soft and white—and it's so economical. One box does all my dishes for a month—costs less than 1c a day!

LUX for Dishes

(Advertisement)

COLDS

Go Thru 3 Stages

—and They're Far Easier Relieved in the First than in the Second or Third!

A cold ordinarily goes through 3 stages: the Dry Stage, the first 24 hours, the Watery Secretion Stage, from 1 to 3 days; and the Mucous Secretion Stage. The first stage is the time to "nail" a cold.

Grove's Laxative Bromo Quinine is the treatment for colds. It is expressly a cold remedy and not a preparation good for half a dozen other things as well. It is direct and internal, which is what a cold, an internal infection, requires. It is also complete—it does the four things necessary. It opens the bowels, combats the cold germs and fever in the system, relieves the headache and grippy feeling and tones and fortifies the entire system. Anything less than that is inviting trouble. Get Grove's Laxative Bromo Quinine at any druggist, 30c and 50c. Ask for it by the full name and refuse a substitute.

BUY BEFORE WINTER

It Pays to Buy Now!

INFLATION and wage increases will raise prices on coal and coke in a few weeks. Order your winter supply now at lowest cost.

See List of Reliable Coal Dealers on Classified Page of Today's Sun-Telegraph

NRA

to KROGER'S means an unusually thrifty trip for your market basket this week

PEANUT BUTTER
Embassy—pound jar
10c

CRACKERS — SODA Wesco—2-lb. carton — 15c
P & G SOAP — 5 large bars — 19c
CATSUP — Country Club large bottle — 10c
Apricots 2 lbs. 25c — Evaporated
Peaches lb. 10c — Evaporated

COUNTRY CLUB HONEY
lb. jar 21c
This is National Honey Week. Make it an opportunity to acquaint yourself with the quality of this fine, pure strained honey.

Jewel Coffee lb. 17c
Bread Sliced or Regular pound loaf 6c
Philadelphia Cream Cheese 3 pkgs. 25c
Motor Oil PENN-RAD 2-gallon can $1.18
Seminole Tissue 3 rolls 20c
Lipton's Tea ¼-lb. pkg. 19c

SPAGHETTI or MACARONI
5 lb. pkg. 33c

VEGETABLE SOUP tall can 10c
SUNBRITE CLEANSER 4 cans 17c
QUICK ARROW SOAP CHIPS pkg. 10c
CORN BEEF or CORN BEEF HASH 2 cans 29c
GOLD MEDAL or PILLSBURY FLOUR 24½ lb. bag $1.07

POTATOES
U. S. No. 1 Grade York State and Allegheny Tableland Russets
98-lb. bag $1.75

Carrots — Fancy Washed — 3 lbs. 10c
Turnips — Medium Purple Tops — 3 lbs. 10c
Parsnips — Now at their best — 3 lbs. 10c
Rutabagas — Genuine Canadian — 5 lbs. 10c
Yams — Porto Rican Texas Grown — 3 lbs. 10c
Celery Hearts — From Ohio — bunch 10c
Jonathan Apples — Medium size — 10 lbs. 23c

SMOKED SKINNED HAMS — Small 10-14 lb. avg. — lb. 14c
Butt End, lb. 15c—Whole or Shank Half

HAM STEAK lb. 23c
Smoked—all center cuts

BACON — 6-8 lb. avg. Sliced, lb. 19c, 2-3 lb. piece — lb. 14c

ROUND STEAK — Prime Beef — lb. 19c

KROGER-STORES

In Mayfair

—With—

Patricia Pitt

The chief topic at a gathering this afternoon will be the approaching Cinderella Ball, to be given by St. Margaret's dispensary board Thanksgiving Eve in the University Club as a benefit for the hospital.

At a meeting of the board this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the home of Mrs. Gordon Fisher, Jr., Pembroke place, members will talk over plans for the ball while making bandages for the hospital.

* * *

Pittsburgher, Cleveland Girl Wed

Announcement is just being made in Pittsburgh of the marriage of a Pittsburgh man and a Cleveland girl. Mr. and Mrs. Raymond S. Dalton, of Shaker Heights, Cleveland, make known the marriage of their daughter, Miss Marjorie Hope Dalton, to Paul Clifford McMillan, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. McMillan, of Bower Hill road, Mt. Lebanon.

The ceremony took place on October 23. Mr. and Mrs. McMillan will reside in Squirrel Hill.

The bride is a graduate of Ohio Wesleyan University and a member of Chi Omega.

National Park Alumnae to See Bouts

Pittsburgh amateur boxers will put on a boxing match at the National Park Seminary alumnae benefit breakfast dance at the Pittsburgh Field Club, the evening of November 17.

The National Park group aids the Harmarville Convalescent Home as a member of the Federation of Girls' School Societies, pays the Children's Home Society grocer each month, and aids the Ward and Zoar Home and has volunteer workers at the South Side Hospital in the bargain.

Miss Harriet Hespenheide is chairman of the boxing match-breakfast dance, with Mrs. E. R. Braun, Jr., as treasurer; Miss Mathilda F. Meyer, Mrs. William M. Laird, Mrs. Elmer Thomas, Miss Willa Smith and Miss Genevieve Wright as aides.

Drama Institute Enjoyed by 300 Enthusiasts

More than 300 persons attended the second annual drama institute of the Pittsburgh Drama League which was held all day Saturday in the Pennsylvania College for Women. Many schools and colleges, among them Thiel, Allegheny and Penn State, were represented by the registrants and groups came from outlying towns to attend.

James W. Macfarlane outlined the aims of the league, Elmer Kenyon discussed the "ills of the theater," and Theodore Fuchs of the Goodman Theater, Chicago, spoke on lighting for amateur plays—all at the morning session.

Chester B. Story presided at the luncheon session at which Mrs. George Pheips Rose, founder of the Sewickley Center of the league; Irwin D. Wolf of Kaufmann's, Mrs. Charles M. Biegs of the Sun-Telegraph, and Miss Dorothy Devlin of Carnegie Tech spoke.

At the afternoon session George Seibel, of the Sun-Telegraph, spoke concerning the possibilities and advantages of a community theater, E. W. Hickman, of Carnegie Tech, conducted a rehearsal of "Man and the Masses" and after that the audience broke up into round table groups. George M. P. Baird, of the Little theater group; Mrs. Chester F. Johnston, the women's club group, and Mr. Story the school group. A theater party at night to see "Mary of Scotland" concluded the full day.

* * *

The Misses Ida Fahnestocks, of South Maryland avenue, will have a distinguished house guest today. C. E. Johansson, of Sweden, inventor of gages which measure to a millionth of an inch, and which are the standard used by American and foreign governments. He has exhibits of his gages in the Hall of Science and in the Swedish Building of the Century of Progress Exposition in Chicago.

* * *

There'll be a most interesting dinner party Friday evening, November 17, in the Twentieth Century Club, a testimonial dinner in honor of Mrs. James Stephen Martin's 70th birthday and her 40 years of service to the cause of music in Pittsburgh.

On the committee are Mrs. Taylor Allderdice, Mrs. D. M. Clemson, Mrs. W. C. Dunk, Mrs. T. C. Donovan, Miss Anne Griffiths, Mrs. William Mackie Hall, Mrs. Joseph W. Marsh, Mrs. David V. Magdsick, Mrs. Bertha M. McKee, Mrs. H. Talbot Peterson, Mrs. Milton St. John and Mrs. Lewis E. Young. Taking reservations are Mrs. Young and Mildred C. Kristol.

* * *

At the musicale-at-home which Mrs. James Stephen Martin gave in her home yesterday in honor of Mrs. David V. Murdoch, new president of the Tuesday Musical Club, Mrs. Martin had as her aides: Mrs. Taylor Allderdice, Mrs. Daniel M. Clemson, Mrs. Will Earhart, Miss Anne Griffiths, Mrs. Milton St. John, Mrs. Paxson Winsborough, Mrs. Lewis E. Young, Mrs. Joseph W. Marsh, Mrs. F. F. Rohrer.

* * *

And weddings aren't over, after all. Today there are two new wedding dates, that of Harriet Ramsburg and R. Putnam Goldsbury, on December 7 and that of Beaumont Hazzard and Charles Arbuthnot III on Wednesday.

Harriet Nourse Ramsburg, daughter of the Charles J. Ramsburgs, will marry the son of the Royal S. Goldsburys on Thursday, December 7, in the family home.

Harriet's sister, Mrs. Carey Williams, of Orange, N. J., will be matron of honor, and Grosvenor H. Goldsbury will be his brother's best man.

Beaumont Hazzard, of Asheville, N. C., and Charles Arbuthnot III, son of the junior Charles Arbuthnots, of Fifth avenue, will be married Wednesday at noon in All Souls' Episcopal Church, Asheville, with the Rev. Dr. William C. Cruiser officiating.

Only the families and intimate friends will attend. The wedding breakfast will be held in the Fred den Grimshaw's mountain lodge. They are the brother-in-law and sister of the bride.

The bride is the daughter of the late Ellis N. Hazzard, of Beauregard Plantation, Georgetown County, S. C., and a sister of the William W. Hazzard of Birmingham, Ala.

Wedding Dates Set

Pitt Team Debating Before Dormont Group

A debate on higher education will be conducted by the Pitt debating team at tomorrow evening's meeting of the Dormont Mothers Club. It is to take place at Mrs. Carroll C. Robertson's home, 6 Gilmore avenue.

Eugene Gamble, Reba Wagner and Florence Wasser, of Carnegie Tech, will sing, accompanied by Alice Lobaugh.

Patricia Pitt's Comment on Pittsburgh Society Happenings

SAILING TO VISIT THEIR GRANDPA AT BRUSSELS

PHYLLIS MRS. GEORGE L. M'COOK BEATRIX

Mrs. McCook, Pittsburgh society figure, and her two small daughters pictured as they sailed from New York for Belgium to visit Mrs. McCook's father, Brazilian Consul de Olivero at Brussels. This is an Ella Barnett News Photograph Service picture.

24 Distinct Meetings Are Scheduled This Week For College Club

MRS. CHARLES M. BREGG.

No less than 24 distinct meetings of one kind or another are on this week's calendar of the College Club. The most important of these, of course, is the regular Friday afternoon meeting when Homer Saint-Gaudens is to speak regarding the International Art Exhibit. Mrs. Charles W. McGinnis is hostess for the afternoon.

Other events on the calendar are the children's dancing classes, open house, a general club meeting (tomorrow night when Mrs. Grace Lea; will give an illustrated bridge talk) bandage rolling and Red Cross sewing, classes in English diction, parent-teacher education, elementary French and French literature, the J. Fred Lissfelt-Henry Harris lecture recital (tomorrow night), parliamentary practice group meetings, a Chinese luncheon and exhibition, with Mrs. Paul Faris speaking, a tea, the club dinner and needlecraft and reading group meetings.

The junior cotillion on Friday night, a dinner bridge on Saturday and Sunday's monthly buffet supper with music are the week's final events.

A.O.H. Auxiliary to Hold Card Party Wednesday

The county board of the Ladies' Auxiliary, Ancient Order of Hibernians, will hold a card party in the Fort Pitt Hotel on Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock.

The committees in charge include Mrs. Agnes Feineigle, general chairman; award committee, Mrs. Agnes Ferris, Miss Mary Kilgallon, Mrs. Mary Toal, Mrs. Ellen Flynn, Mrs. Bridget Coyle, Mrs. Mary McGuckin and Mrs. Sadie Euler.

The committee on cards, Mrs. Famie Meyers, Mrs. Catherine Milton, Mrs. Agnes O'Neil, Mrs. Catherine Cogan and Mrs. Margaret Leahy.

Mrs. Lenora Shea, Miss Cecilia McHugh and Mrs. Mary Fagan are in charge of publicity.

Braddock Club Devoting Wednesday to Music

The Braddock Woman's Club will devote Wednesday afternoon to music, hearing a program by Letha Frazier Rankin, soprano; Jean McCrory Newman and Viola K. Byrgerson, contraltos, and Marion Clark Bollinger, piano, with a paper on Brahms by Mrs. Charles Masters.

Mrs. A. M. Scott's home, in Jones avenue, will be the meeting place.

* * *

The Bryson Club of St. Bernard's parish, Mt. Lebanon, is giving a dance Thanksgiving Eve, November 29, in Webster Hall. A meeting of the club will be held tomorrow afternoon to announce committees and aides.

Club to Open Dance, Study Classes

Two new classes are being added to the already extensive departmental activities of the Mt. Lebanon Women's Club. A class for school children will be held Monday afternoons in the Washington School, featuring specialized instruction in ballroom dancing and etiquette, with Miss Virginia Brooks as teacher.

The class is being sponsored by the club's community service department, and is under direction of the recreational chairman, Mrs. C. H. Adams.

The educational department announces the opening of an evening class with a course of lectures on "child study," classes to be held in the Municipal Building, on the third Tuesday of each month.

The speaker for November 21 will be Dr. Martin P. Chworowsky, principal of Falk Elementary School. Mrs. Jay G. Linn is general chairman.

Dr. J. F. Guy to Speak At MacGonigle P. T. A.

Dr. J. Freeman Guy, associate superintendent of the Pittsburgh Public Schools, will be guest speaker at the first meeting of the Jane G. MacGonigle Parent-Teacher Association to be held in the Fulton School Auditorium, this evening. "Training in Citizenship" is his subject.

The school orchestra will furnish musical numbers.

Following the meeting there will be a social hour under the chairmanship of Mrs. I. A. Bernstein, and her assistant hostesses, Mrs. George A. Higgins and Mrs. Adam McNaughton.

Geography Discussion In Crafton Tomorrow

Van Loon's Geography will be discussed by Miss Agnes Nesbit before the Junior Crafton Woman's Club when the members meet tomorrow evening in Mrs. A. A. Huck's home. Miss Marie Allen, of Falk School, will discuss "Child Psychology."

Miss Mary Tesla Is Married to M. P. Trubic

Announcement is made of the marriage at 8 o'clock Wednesday morning, October 25, in St. Nicholas' Church, of Miss Mary Tesla to Michael P. Trubic. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Tesla, and the bridegroom is a son of Mrs. Katherine Trubic, of the North Side.

The bride wore ivory satin with a veil of ivory tulle caught with orange blossoms. She carried white roses and lilies of the valley. Miss Dolly Tesla, maid of honor, wore green satin with yellow accessories, and the bridesmaids were Miss Anna Trubic in blue satin with pink accessories, Miss Veronica Trubic, in pink crepe with blue accessories, Miss Stella Otiason, in yellow crepe with accessories of green.

John Oparnica was best man, and ushers included George Tesla and George Trubic.

Mr. and Mrs. Trubic will be at home in Semple avenue.

Dance of Phi Mu Alumnae to Aid Healthmobile

The Phi Mu Alumnae Association of Pittsburgh will hold a benefit dance at the Hotel Schenley on November 10, the proceeds of which will go to finance the Healthmobile, Phi Mu's welfare project in Georgia, which offers medical and dental aid in the rural sections of the state.

Miss Grace Jones is general chairman of the affair, assisted by Miss Eleanor Lutz, music; Miss Dorothy Cameron, arrangements; Miss Myrtle Wilson, Miss Valois Heintzelman and Miss Margaret Crisman, tickets, and Miss Margaret Sheppard, publicity.

Women's Welsh Club Meets This Evening

At the monthly meeting of the Women's Welsh Club this evening in the Fort Pitt Hotel, a musical program will be presented by Anthony M. Jones, tenor; the club sextet and the Rev. R. E. Williams, who will speak. New Kensington, Homestead and McKeesport Welsh clubs have been invited to attend.

James E. Rogers P.T.A. Sponsors 'Visit' Night

Reception of the parents by the teachers in the various rooms and a motion picture in the auditorium will feature school visitation night this evening under auspices of the James E. Rogers Parent-Teacher Association.

A motion picture concerning Abraham Lincoln will be shown at 7:30 and the teachers will be in their rooms at 8 to meet the parents.

The regular meeting of the P. T. A. has been moved forward to coincide with visitation week.

Ben Avon 'Y' Auxiliary To Hear Music Thursday

Mrs. Fred Houston has planned the program for the November meeting of the Ben Avon Y. M. C. A. Auxiliary which is to be held in Mrs. Edgar Hare's home, Breading avenue, on Thursday.

The music will be presented by Miss Ruth Houston and Mrs. T. M. Boles, vocalists, and Mrs. H. C. Harnish, accompanist. The speakers are Mr. and Mrs. William Montgomery.

THROUGH THE SPYGLASS
VIEWING THE NEW

Upon looking over the list of items we uprooted and trundled back for you today, we were struck with the amusing assortment . . . amused in fact! But then . . . you'll probably find that one of them is just what you've been wanting without knowing it! So call Grant 6500 and ask the ——— operator for the names of the shops in which they appear. Or send a stamped self-addressed envelope for reply.

* * *

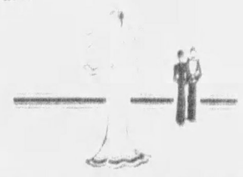
Many crimes are committed in the name of cookery when it comes to making the stuffing or dressing for your Sunday "bird" or Friday fish. Therefore, with what heaving sighs of relief did we view this new benefit to mankind . . . Poultry or Fish Dressing made up and ready to use! In boxes for 15c each . . . add a pint of hot water and STUFF! (Good Housekeeping approved, we almost forgot.)

* * *

Happening to pass someone on the street who seems enveloped in a burst of music . . . be not amazed. He or she probably has the new pocket size radio somewhere about his person. For these newcomers to radioland are just the size of the average book . . . weigh but 2 pounds . . . and cost $12.50!

* * *

If you're anything like the science human you keep your toilet articles . . . some of them . . . sitting on top of the water box in your bathroom. And sometimes they're knocked off. But never if you use the elastic rail which fits around the top of the box and which we discovered the other day. Only 59c . . . in bathroom colors . . . and doesn't allow jars to bounce off as per usual.



"Fine feathers" may not "make fine birds" but we're apt to think that they go a long way toward it. And some fine feathers which will make a last year's evening dress look like one of the season's crop are to be found here in the form of lovely bows. Green . . . red . . . black . . . white . . . and a bronzy brown. Full, waving tufts of feathers woven into "clip" effects. Only $5!

* * *

Farewell to the old family razor strop . . . which stumped Johnnie and stropped razors, both with equal ease! In its place comes the new electrical razor stropper (and which, may we add, has a peculiar fascination for us!). Just an innocent looking little whozit which you plug into the bathroom socket . . . put the razor blade in it . . . press a button . . . and watch it do the rumba until your blade is bright and shining, sharp as the snootiest shaver or shavee could wish! Just $2 . . . and makes 30 or 40 shaves possible with one blade. (Note: Not at once, silly!)

Driving in down to shop usually means one eye on the traffic and one on possible parking spaces. So welcome this news of the store whose attendants meet you as you draw up to their curb . . . take your car safely away (somewhere, we don't know where) . . . and return it to you when you are ready to leave! Best of all . . . for NO CHARGE . . . NO TIPPING! Almost like having a "Home James" of one's own!

* * *

Nobody likes to wait days and days for their necessary transformation or bob wig to be cleaned and dressed. Yet they DO need it . . . especially with the muggy weather we've been having!

So sing a song of heartfelt thanks to this shop which has a 24-hour cleaning and dressing service for $2 and $2.50! The finest work only . . . and your hair goods really CLEANED. Exclusive with them.

—DOROTHY RANDALL.

Choose from Eight Shades! IN Christy LIPSTICK

Christy is the lipstick that holds its full color all day long—stays on until you cold cream it off at night!

There's no guesswork about the right shade, either. Sample every one of the 8 scientifically graded colors, if you choose, with the Christy color chart, here at the counter . . . and find the color that suits you, before you buy.

$1.00

JOSEPH HORNE CO

. . . Toiletries, Main Floor . . .

OPPENHEIM, COLLINS 375-379 Penn Avenue

Beginning Tomorrow

A MOST TIMELY EVENT

Close-Out of Fall and Winter Suits

Our regular stock, better type suits—right at the height of the season—substantially reduced.

16.00

Misses' Sizes Only

Formerly $19.75 to $29.75

Untrimmed models: Nubby tweeds, heather mixtures, pom-pom cloth; ¾ coats; 2, 3, 4 piece types: new shoulder treatment.

23.00

Women's and Misses' Sizes

Formerly $29.75 to $39.75

Untrimmed: 2 and 3 piece Forstmann woolens; adaptations of imports. 2 piece fur-trimmed heather mixtures. Jacket styles.

No Exchanges All Sales Final No C. O. D.'s

On Sale . . . Second Floor

TELL IT TO ELSIE

Follow This Unusual Feature Day by Day

By ELSIE ROBINSON

Woman Condemns Attitude Of Jobless Husbands

Are modern wives bad sports?

Do they expect all the Best Pickings when times are good—and turn into Nags and Cry Babies when the bad breaks come?

John B.—a modern husband—thought so. And he sent us an indignant recital of what his wife did when Depression came along. And that, according to him, was an accurate picture of the Average Missus of 1933.

Now comes Martha, plenty mad. For Martha is a Modern Wife, and from her viewpoint, the Average Missus is not only a Good Sport, but a Long-Suffering Martyr.

Feeling a bit dull? Want to start a little excitement down at the office, or around the supper table? Then listen to this—and hand it along.

Dear Elsie—

Just let me answer that Poor, Abused Husband, who thinks his wife is giving him such a hard deal! Believe me, I can tell him plenty!

In the first place, did he ever stop to think of the sort of deal wives have always had from husbands, in the days when men always held the pocketbook? Everywhere you hear unemployed men being sorry for themselves, because they have to depend on some working wife for money. But they never remember that women had to endure generations of that same "shameful dependence"—and that it was just as hard on women's pride as it is now on men's pride.

Somehow, it never seems to occur to men that women have pride—that women hate dependence quite as much as men hate it—that it's as hard for a woman to go around without any spending money as it is for a man.

Men think, because women never complained in the old days, that they were perfectly satisfied. Of course, that wasn't so at all. They stood things because they had to—or starve. But you can just bet our grandmothers didn't like stingy, bullying husbands any more than modern women do!

HUSBAND HANDLES BILLS

Now things have changed. Wives have jobs now as well as husbands, and the husbands profit by those jobs. But have the husbands changed their attitude because of that? Are they willing to treat these new working wives as equals? I'll say they aren't!

Modern husbands are quite willing for their wives to work—and quite willing to profit by the results of that work. But they still expect "the dear little woman" to be a meek worm, who will accept gratefully any sort of treatment.

And if she dares raise her voice in her own defense, or demand an accounting for the use of her own money, friend husband considers himself frightfully abused, and immediately begins to talk about "unwomanly women" and "the downfall of the home.

I know, because I'm just such a working wife, with just such a husband. I have had some fine positions, where I received large wages. But my husband always expected me to hand my checks over to him, and, fool that I was, I always did! But would he ever tell me how he spent the money? Not a word! And if I even asked he acted insulted!

Now my husband is not a bad man. He isn't dissipated. I believe he loves me, and truly intends to be kind. But he simply believes that males were created to be Heads of the Home, and he can't imagine why a wife should expect to be treated like a partner. He insists on handling all bills, and never gives an accounting of either his salary or mine.

ASHAMED OF HOUSEWORK

Now he is unemployed, and I am carrying the whole load for a family of six. I'm not complaining about that. I'm glad to be able to do it, and I think it's my plain duty as a modern wife. But here's what gets me.

If my husband helps a little with the housework he acts as if he had made a huge sacrifice, and he is horribly ashamed if anyone discovers it. He still believes that housework is for women alone, and it shocks something in him to be expected to help. But he isn't shocked a bit to see his woman doing a man's work!

So there's another side to the question. I don't suppose it will wake up any of these husbands. Nothing short of dynamite would do that! But I do wish you would print it. MARTHA.

There it is, Martha. And I'll do more than just print it. Let's make it a free-for-all! This is one of the biggest questions in life today—a question that's going to make plenty of history, good or bad. So what's your vote on it?

Are modern wives sports?

Do they fade out when the hard times come?

Or is it the husbands who "can't take it?"

Are women, or men, making a better showing in our somersaulting world?

Are women, or men, showing more courage, fairness and common sense?

Who, in short, is the Big Cry Baby—Mamma, or Papa?

You say!

(Copyright, 1933, King Features Synd., Inc.)

The Boy Friend's Mother Presents a Problem, Says Fay King

By FAY KING

How to make a favorable impression on the boy friend's mother will always be an important problem to the best girl.

It was easier to be sure of the best method in the days when all mothers were old-fashioned. Infinite respect and careful consideration were sure to please her.

But nowadays some modern mothers prefer to be treated more like a pal than a parent. To "mother" them will offend. They resent the "age before beauty" technique.

Even a few old-fashioned mothers have been won over completely by the application of a little lipstick and rouge—to their own faces.

A girl really can't tell now until she meets his mother, whether it will be more favorable to be formal—or "fresh."

(Copyright, 1933, by Daily Mirror, Inc.)

Given in Marriage

A Sequel Heart Of a Wife

By ADELE GARRISON

Madge Suspects Veritzen Knows Truth About Letter

As Lillian lounged lazily out of the study, after her promise to aid me in the attempt to induce Philip Veritzen to modify his plans for the flamboyant, expensive honeymoon he was engineering for Noel and Mary, I felt my spirits rising unaccountably.

Upon one thing I was determined. I would say no word of the honeymoon plans during my coming interview with my old employer in which I knew he meant to probe my knowledge of Avis Arlen's activities with a relentless hand. I would need all the finesse and resourcefulness I could muster to deal with him, and I leaned back in my chair with the futile wish that I never had promised to shield the girl whom Hugh Grantland had described as "worthless."

I must have been more exhausted than I realized, for the next thing I knew Mr. Veritzen's mellifulous voice was saying "Poor child! It's a shame to waken you," and I opened my eyes to see him smiling sympathetically at me.

"Oh!" I exclaimed in confusion, attempting to rise. But I found myself put back in my seat with a firm hand.

"Why all the activity?" he asked quizzically, then added meaningly:

"Your trip to Patchogue must have fatigued you greatly."

I stared at him for the fraction of a second. Then my wandering wits came back to me and I said quietly:

ASKS EXPLANATION

"It did. This ankle has taken more out of me than I realized, but I could not refuse Miss Arlen when she wished so much to see me."

It was his turn to be astonished. He had not expected me to admit at once that I had gone to Patchogue for the purpose of meeting Avis Arlen, and his eyes were suddenly wary.

"Will you think me very crass?" he asked me finally, "if I ask you to tell me why Miss Arlen wished so much to see you? Believe me, I am not asking idly. There is something vital at stake."

"I do not think I am betraying any particular confidence in telling you why she wished to see me," I said with calculated hesitation. "She was very frank and open about her reason for summoning me, and she did not bind me to any secrecy whatever. You perhaps observed last summer that Mary and Avis were not upon the best of terms?"

"Two girls in love with the same man are not apt to have any particular affection for each other," he said. "Perhaps that is a conceited remark for Noel's father to make, but it is warranted, surely, in Mary's case—" He stopped, with a quizzical look.

"As she is to marry him in two days," I said, "I think you are justified in thinking she is in love with him."

GIVES ALIBI

I hesitated no longer, but plunged glibly into the alibi for Avis which Hugh had concocted for me, and in which I had drilled the girl over the telephone.

"I did not want her to come out here," I explained, when I had finished telling him the fabricated tale of Avis Arlen's wish to stage a dramatic reconciliation scene with Mary. "Of course, I did not know what she wanted from her talk over the telephone. She only said it was terribly important that she see me. But I had an intuition that she meant something of the sort, and I was unwilling that Mary should be upset by any such performance. Therefore, I told her that I would meet her at Patchogue."

There was a distinctly quizzical look in Mr. Veritzen's eyes, and I had something of the sensation of a mouse under the paws of a malevolently playful cat.

"Quite right," he said quickly. "Mary, of course, should be guarded from any annoyance at this supposedly happiest time of her life. But tell me, had you no suspicion, at the time Miss Arlen was telling you this story, that she was indulging in what is known as 'pulling the wool' over your eyes—that what she really wanted was something far different?"

A little bell of warning rang deep down in my consciousness.

"I don't quite understand you," I evaded.

"Have you conjectured how I knew that you had met Miss Arlen at Patchogue?" he countered.

(Continued Tomorrow.)

(Copyright, 1933, King Features Synd., Inc.)

How to Keep Well

By DR. ROYAL S. COPELAND

Overweight Persons Are Handicapped in Illness

No one will deny that to be excessively overweight is a great disadvantage. We always knew this. Yet it is only within the past decade that the true significance of obesity and its relation to disease have been properly understood. The old expression, "no one loves a fat man," should be changed to "no one loves to be a fat man."

Dr. Copeland

Fat it not laid on the surface of the body as with a trowel. It clogs and taxes the vital organs of the body. It places an additional burden upon the heart, kidneys and blood vessels. Likewise, it may lead to severe constitutional disturbances. For example, diabetes is a serious disease often associated with overweight and overeating.

Fat persons are more prone to heart disease, kidney disease, liver and gall bladder disturbances. Though never actually proved, high blood pressure is believed to be the result of overweight. Of course, there are many very heavy persons who do not suffer from high blood pressure. But as a rule obese individuals have a higher blood pressure than their thin brothers and sisters.

The overweight person seems to be susceptible to all kinds of infections. When a serious infection of disease afflicts a fat man he has less chance of recovery than a thin man afflicted with the same disease. This was repeatedly shown among soldiers during the World War.

Statistics of large insurance companies show that persons over 40 years of age and 15 per cent above average weight, are extremely poor risks. They also point out that those who are about 15 per cent below the average weight make "good risks" and live beyond the average span of life.

It is true that overweight may be a hereditary problem, perhaps due to a glandular condition, and beyond the control of the individual. Yet most cases can be traced to faulty dietary habits, lack of exercise, fresh air and other essentials of health. If everyone would realize the dangers of overweight, I am confident that this health risk would be more universally controlled.

I am often asked what medicine be used to bring about a reduction in weight. There is no specific medicine that will assure it. Any medicine that leads to marked loss of weight is dangerous and should not be taken, certainly without medical advice.

The weight can be controlled by diet and supervised exercise. Of course, severe dieting is as dangerous as overweight. Loss of weight should be gradual and never sudden.

The diet should be prescribed by a physician who will only advise after a complete physical examination. He will also instruct you in the necessary exercises and warn you against exercises that are harmful to you. Bear in mind that strenuous exercises and severe dieting are detrimental to the health and may lead to serious complications.

Answers to Health Queries

J. McC. Q.—What can be done for the following complaints: A burning tongue, excessively dry hands and painful swollen joints?

A.—Find the underlying cause of the trouble first of all. Watch the diet and elimination, keep the system clear. For further particulars send a self-addressed, stamped envelope and repeat your question.

(Copyright, 1933, King Features Synd., Inc.)

Contract Bridge

HOW TO PLAY and HOW TO WIN

By JOSEPHINE CULBERTSON

The Revealing Double

Theoretically, doubling an adverse contract is designed to increase the anticipated reward going to the defending players because of the opponents' overbidding or their own accurate defensive play. However, many Bridge players develop a doubling complex and double even when the margin by which they expect to defeat a contract is so narrow that the increased penalty that follows is scarcely worth consideration. The difference between 100 and 200 points for defeating a vulnerable contract one trick is too little to justify taking a chance on revealing to the Declarer the location of adversely held strength. This is especially true when the doubled contract is a Slam and the bidding of the declaring side must necessarily have revealed the holding of most of the high cards. In such an event the information given by the Double is likely to prove of great value to the Declarer and perhaps suggest a line of play which otherwise would not have been considered. Take, for example, the hand below, which was played in a Rubber game at a bridge club in New York. The Double furnished the only clue to the correct play of the hand. Without that information the Declarer would not have known the location of high cards held by the opponents well enough to have preferred that line of play to the simple taking of a finesse.

North, Dealer.

North and South vulnerable.

	♠ A 8 4 2 ♡ Q 9 8 ◇ A Q 3 2 ♣ 8 7
♠ 9 ♡ K 7 6 ◇ J 10 5 4 ♣ K 9 4 3 2	North West East South	♠ 7 5 ♡ 5 4 3 2 ◇ 9 8 6 ♣ J 10 6 5
	♠ K Q J 10 6 3 ♡ A J 10 ◇ K 7 ♣ A Q

The bidding:

North	East	South	West
Pass (1)	Pass	1 ♠	Pass
4 ♠ (2)	Pass	4 N T (3)	Pass
5 N T (4)	Pass	6 ♠	Pass
7 ♠ (5)	Pass	Pass	Double (6)
Pass	Pass	Pass

1—North's hand is too weak for an Opening diamond bid, vulnerable.

2—Having passed originally, North decides that the hand fully justifies an immediate game Raise.

3—Shows [illegible] and the King of [illegible] suit, as well as [illegible] material.

4—Disclosing the other two [illegible].

5—Slightly [illegible].

6—A very bad Double. West, however, believes that one of his two Kings must be in a favorable position, North and South each having shown two Aces in all probability on their bidding. According to the law of averages one of these Kings should be located over an Ace in South's hand. In addition, the fact that he holds four diamonds to the Knave-Ten would appear to be an insuperable barrier to the taking of more than three diamond tricks.

In the play West opened a small diamond and South won the trick with the King. He then proceeded to play six rounds of spades. West was forced to find five discards and, in order to retain guards to both his Kings, was compelled to give up another diamond, thus establishing all the diamonds in Dummy as winners. Now South laid down the Ace of hearts, for he had correctly reasoned that West's Double must show both Kings; hence the taking of the finesse in either hearts or clubs would mean the defeat of the contract. This play, known as the Vienna Coup, spelled the doom of the defending players so far as defense was concerned.

South now led his remaining diamond, which he won with the Queen, and proceeded to play the remaining two diamonds from Dummy, upon which he discarded the Knave and Ten of hearts from his own hand. West, of course, was again in difficulty. He was compelled to retain the heart King, as otherwise the Queen in Dummy would make the twelfth trick, so he despairingly bared the club King. But South, continuing the line of play he had decided upon from the moment the Penalty Double was made, led the remaining club from Dummy to the twelfth trick, refused to finesse, dropped West's King and cashed the thirteenth trick with the club Queen.

South unquestionably played the hand beautifully, but without the advantage of West's revealing Double he would, I feel sure, have adopted the simpler line of play presented by the possibility of a successful finesse in either hearts or clubs.

(Copyright, 1933, King Features Synd., Inc.)

Household Hints

When scraping new potatoes, keep the hands immersed in water to avoid the juice splashing on your clothes.

A piece of blotting paper cut to the shape of the saltcellar and placed in the bottom will prevent salt from becoming damp and lumpy.

If you have made more starch than you need, pour the balance into a glass jar and cover with a lid. Place in the refrigerator until ready to use, then dilute with boiling water.

Correct Manners

By Mrs. Cornelius Beeckman

A Left Handshake

Dear Mrs. Beeckman:

When shaking hands with a person who has his right arm off, should you offer your left hand or is it wrong? T.

Under these circumstances, I should think that it would be the best taste, because it would cause the person least distress and embarrassment, not to offer to shake hands. A cordial and friendly bow and a gracious greeting would be enough.

Another Housewarming

Dear Mrs. Beeckman:

After nine years of marriage we have at last settled in our own home, although it is not a new place, and we have been in it three months. Would it be proper for my two sisters to give me a housewarming party? F.

Although it is more usual for the hostess and the host to give the housewarming party as a welcome to their friends to their new home, it is thoroughly correct for your sisters to plan to give the party, since that is their wish.

(Copyright, 1933, King Features Synd., Inc.)

TWO-TIMERS IN DETACHABLE FURS

By PRUNELLA WOOD

EVERY woman who can think back to the passion for detachable fur trimmings that burst out on coat models a year or so ago will remember the intricate joys she had in swapping Peter to pay Paul, as it were, and developing her depression wardrobe on the fleet plan. The detachable fur gadgets are even more amenable to original wardrobe ideas this year, for they run to collar and muff sets that can be picked up and put on instead of requiring tack stitches to make them set well on various models.

There are Elizabethan effects with up-curved collars which frame the face, and turn-down portions that give a becoming shoulder line. And there are yoke-and-Ascot effects which give zip to plain costumes that appeal to severely tailor-made girls.

Not every one can go berserk with her budget and invest in enough sable or mink skins to swathe herself from top to toe, but enough of these precious pelts can often be afforded to fashion a cape or necklace scarf, and the least distinctive coat of good material can be built to undreamed of new highs by combining it with an elegant fur accessory.

If quite a generous cape is decided upon, it can be made to serve double duty between seasons as a perfectly adequate evening wrap. The woman who is looking forward to a mixed weather winter — a cold two months up north, and the balance down South—can use such a garment to great advantage at both ends of her thermometer. Summer ermine, kolinsky, mink, sable, squirrel, chinchilla and moleskin all make grand trimmings for a cloth coat, and in elbow length capes they offer fetching and protective evening wraps for subtropical winter nights.

A stunning example of the three-quarter suit of wintertime weight is shown left, in a French shower twill which has an Elizabethan capelet of Persian lamb. Extra warmth and service is given the ensemble by the coat frock, which is the "skirt" portion of the suit, and the fact that the capelet is detachable—and wearable with any other coat, jacket, or frock that a woman owns. Note the draped sleeves which complement the epaulette shoulders of the cape.

(Copyright, 1933, King Features Synd., Inc.)

YOUR BUTLER SEES WHERE—

Light Gains Make Heavy Purses

AND SEEING IS BELIEVING WITH YOUR BUTLER MAN—

DOLE'S FANCY GRADE HAWAIIAN SLICED PINEAPPLE

The Pineapple you know is fancy by the (1) that is embossed in the can end—and the label—"Paradise Island"

THE PRICE IS 15c THE BIG CAN

IT'S WORTH THAT IN HAWAII

★ TUESDAY ONLY

Produce Depts. Offer Sweet Potatoes 6 Lb. 15c

Butler's for better groceries

Meat Markets Offer Shoulder Lamb Chops 2 Lb. 25c

AMAZING WORLD'S FAIR TRIP OFFER EXTENDED!

$9.40 ROUND TRIP

WORLD'S FAIR 5 DAYS CHICAGO

2 Final Five-Day Excursions Before Sensational Fair Closes! GOING Nov. 10-11

This opportunity will never come again

Nation-wide demand is holding open the greatest of all World's Fairs until November 12. This gives you final opportunity to make the trip of a lifetime for only $9.40—to Chicago and return. Travel in safe, comfortable coaches—on regular fast, limited trains. Leave either Friday or Saturday, return any time before midnight of the following Wednesday.

ALSO: 10-DAY LIMIT, $17.15 ROUND TRIPS

Tickets good going every Tuesday and Saturday. Round trip Pullman accommodations at a fare and a half for go and return in a lower for $6.75. Other accommodations in proportion.

All other fare reductions will continue in effect.

See your Ticket Agent! Also ask him about all expense tours in Chicago—1 to 5 days—$4.50 up.

$6.80 Round Trip leaving Pittsburgh every Saturday night, returning leave Chicago Sunday night. $8.00 Round Trip leaving Pittsburgh every Friday night, returning leave Chicago until Sunday night. Inquire for train service. Coaches only.

BALTIMORE & OHIO R. R.
PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD
PITTSBURGH & LAKE ERIE R. R.

DUKES HURL IMPRESSIVE CHALLENGE AT PANTHERS

SUN-TELEGRAPH SPORTS

SPORT COMMENT

By James J. Long

New High for Duquesne.—Rockne System Defended. Only Unbeaten City Team. Dundee Rated Weak Card. Pro Gridders Come Heavy. Porto Rico Baseball Mad.

PANTHERS TO HAVE THEIR HANDS FULL

The way those dashing Dukes came through their last and hardest test prior to next Saturday's big battle with Pitt lifted Duquesne University to the highest position it ever has occupied in intercollegiate football. With Carnegie Tech suffering at Purdue's hands on the same afternoon its first reverse of the season, the great victory over W. & J. gave Duquesne the proud ranking of being the only college team in Pittsburgh that has not been defeated in 1933, and the decisive score of 21 to 6 by which the Bluffites crushed the Presidents for their eighth straight win, surpassed by far the showing of both Pitt and Carnegie against the same opponents.

Elmer Layden

If Pitt scouts had any doubts that Elmer Layden has done a coaching job this year not surpassed by any mentor in the country, they got an eyeful at Little Washington to convince them the Panthers will have their work cut out for them next Saturday. The Dukes may not yet have reached the point at which they can defeat Pitt, but they've got enough of a chance on the score of ability, backed by the fire of ambition and a belief in themselves, to make it certain that the Sutherlands are going to have their hands full. And while the matter of superiority is being settled, the fans are assured of seeing one of the most warmly debated gridiron numbers to which they have been treated in many a day.

PLENTY OF BEEF ON PRO FOOTBALL TEAMS

Pittsburgh fans thought they were looking at some pretty big football players in the National League pro games staged here this fall, but they haven't seen anything yet. A program of the Chicago Bears-Green Bay Packers game gives some staggering statistics. The Bear ends, Dick Stahlman and Luke Johnson, the latter now out, weigh 216 and 195 pounds, respectively; at the tackles, Link Lyman scales 252 and George Musso, 257; the guards are Jules Carlson, 211, and Joe Kopcha, 220; Ookie Miller, the center, goes 210; John Doehring, 212, and Gene Ronzani, 200, are the halfbacks, and Broncho Nagurski, 217, at fullback, makes up for Carl Brumbaugh, the 165-pound quarterback.

Ben Smith and Alf Rose, the Packer ends, weigh a mere 205 and 204; Cal Hubbard, from Geneva, 265, and Jess Quatse, 230, from Pitt, make a pair of healthy tackles; the guards are Lon Evans and Clyde Van Sickle, each 225; Al Sarafiny is a 235-pound center; one halfback, Arnold Herber, tips the beam at 200, and the other, Hank Bruder, at 194; Buckets Goldenberg registers 220 at fullback, and the midget of the team is Quarterback Roger Grove, 188. The Bear line averages 223 pounds, the backs 198, and the team 214; the Packer forwards average 227, the backs 200, and the team 217.

DORAIS DEFENDS NOTRE DAME SYSTEM

Gus Dorais, old Notre Dame star coaching at Detroit, rises to defend the Irish football system against the critics who have pronounced it punctured after the three defeats of Anderson's team this fall. Dorais says the success of the system at other colleges is being overlooked, and contends that the Notre Dame style still is the best that has been devised. He points out that its chief virtue is its adaptability to almost any sort of material. The double wing-back must have big, strong players, or it will fall flat, whereas a coach can take comparatively small men with speed and develop a winning combination with the shift.

Gus Dorais

Asked whether he thought Knute Rockne could have been as successful using the double wing back as he was with the shift, Dorais replied in the negative. He explained that Rockne personally liked the type of players fitting into the shifting style, and that, further, he liked the pageantry that could be developed with the shift. Its rhythm appealed to Rockne's sense of showmanship. It gave him more enthusiasm for the job, and enthusiasm was one of the main things that made both Rockne and his teams great.

PROMOTERS NOT WILD OVER NEW CHAMP

According to New York boxing critics, there is no rejoicing in the Eastern fight market, outside the new champion's immediate circle of friends and intimates, over the ascension of Vince Dundee to the middleweight throne. Promoters fear he is not the type of titleholder to bring in the customers.

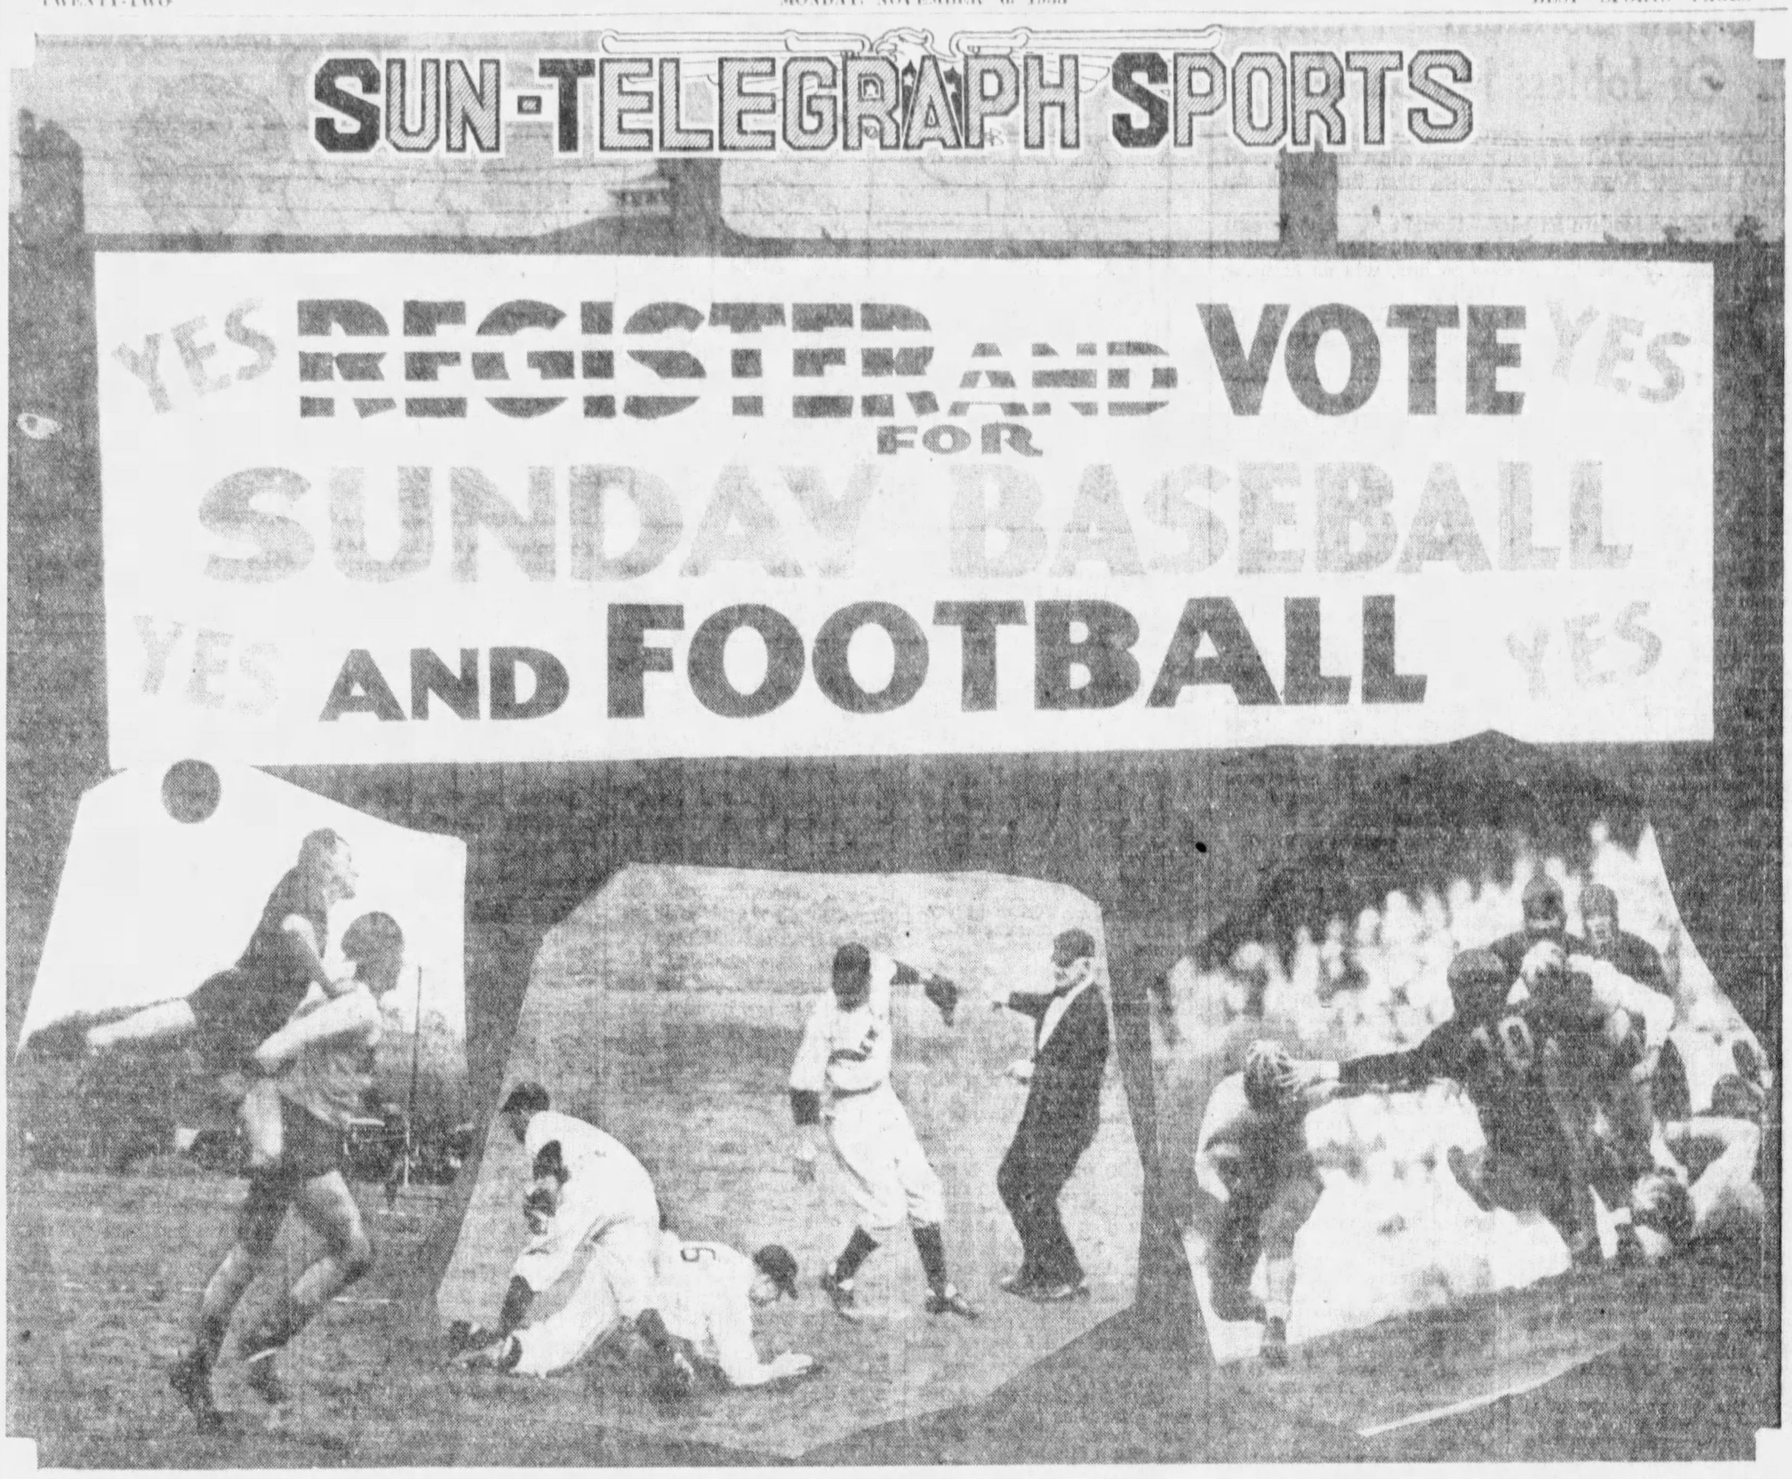
It is held that Dundee is not a colorful performer, never has been much of a card in New York, and is not likely to prove a box office magnet as a champion. Vince has been around that section a long time, and the promoters take the view that his style is so well known and so slightly attractive that he hardly will pack any arenas, for after all the crowd likes a puncher.

PACKARD REPORTS BASEBALL TOUR SUCCESS

Comes a letter from Frank Packard, Homewood baseball player, who is the property of the Baltimore International League club, reporting from Ponce, Porto Rico, the complete success of the most pretentious barnstorming tour undertaken in a long time. Frank is with a club recruited from various leagues, playing against native teams. The barnstormers plan to stay in Porto Rico for six weeks, then go to San Domingo, Haiti, for three weeks, and thence to Caracas, Venezuela, for six weeks, finishing up in San Juan and returning home about March 1.

Frank Packard

Packard reports that the Sunday double-header which opened the tour in Ponce drew 18,000 rabid fans. The tourists, permitting the natives to use visiting pitchers, won both games, 7 to 2 and 4 to 3. The remaining schedule calls for one game a week, so that the touring players may avoid staleness and report to their clubs next spring in good shape. According to the Pittsburgher, baseball is rapidly becoming Porto Rico's favorite sport. The natives gave the visiting athletes a royal reception, followed them through the streets as if they had been conquering heroes, and honored and entertained them royally. The Mayor of Ponce publicly presented scrolls to the players, setting forth that they were honored guests of Porto Rico and ambassadors of good will. The squad includes, besides Packard, who plays center field, Catchers Ralph Minetree and John Shirley; Pitchers Holshouser, Jim Green, who is manager, Buck Green, Red Ahearan, Pat Sims and Rumple; Infielders Johnny Mize, Pepploski, Jim Stroner and George Gray and Outfielder Ted Norbert. A pitcher is used in the third garden.



DO YOU WANT SUNDAY SPORTS IN YOUR COMMUNITY? . . . VOTE 'YES' IN THE REFERENDUM AT POLLS IN GENERAL ELECTION TOMORROW . . . ASK FOR THE SPECIAL BALLOT

Pennsylvania voters get an opportunity to vote for Sunday sports between the hours of 2 and 6 p. m. in tomorrow's election. An affirmative vote in any community will set aside the antiquated Blue Laws of the state. Each city, town or borough decides its own fate on a local option basis. Sabbath sports will be permitted only during the hours indicated in order not to conflict with church attendance. Under daylight saving time this means between the hours of 3 and 7 p. m. Pictures inset against Forbes Field sign above are by the Pittsburgh Sun-Telegraph.

DUKES' STARS RANK HIGH IN EAST

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—(AP.)—Two of the country's nine major football championships may be settled this week but the rest will have to await developments of November 18 or later.

With a full month yet to go before some of the final returns are in, the championship races looked about like this today:

East—Army, Princeton and Duquesne, the sole remaining undefeated and untied teams with the first two conceded the best chance of winding up that way.

Big Six—Nebraska can clinch the title beyond dispute by beating Kansas this week.

Missouri Valley—Drake will win the crown if the Bulldogs spill Oklahoma A. and M. If the champion Aggies beat Drake and then Creighton, they'll finish with a perfect Conference record of two victories and no defeats.

Big Ten—The elimination of Illinois left only Michigan, Purdue and, at the outside, Minnesota, to carry on. Minnesota's tussle with Michigan may be decisive.

Southwest—Texas and Arkansas, the only undefeated teams, meet Friday, November 24.

Pacific—Oregon, Oregon State and Southern California still in the running, but the first two clash this week.

Southeastern—Georgia, the only unbeaten and untied teams, looks best, but Alabama, Louisiana State, Mississippi and Vanderbilt all undefeated but tied can step in if the Georgians falter.

Southern—Duke, South Carolina, North Carolina and Washington and Lee survive.

Grid Doubleheader Carded at Stadium

Those attending the Pitt-Duquesne football game at the Pitt stadium next Saturday will see two football games.

Arrangements have been made by the athletic officials of Shady Side Academy and Arnold School with the athletic officials of Pitt and Duquesne for the Shady Side and Arnold junior teams to play a game between the halves of the varsity encounter.

The prep teams, composed of players ranging in age from 9 to 12 years, will play two six-minute periods during the intermission.

Squash Exhibition Matches Tomorrow

Ben Pope, Keystone Athletic club professional, will meet W. McCook Reed, city champion, in an exhibition squash match at the Keystone Club at 4:30 tomorrow afternoon. In two other singles matches H. U. Bissell, Harvard star, will oppose W. D. Bickel, K. A. C. champion, and Ed Secter, Princeton ace, will meet C. A. Ewan, Jr.

J. O. Craig and D. J. Kennedy are to oppose G. C. Kennedy and W. D. Bickel in a doubles match.

Chillysauce

By Chilly Doyle

If you don't think the baseball influence has penetrated football, what do you make of this, Watson?

I lingered at the Stadium Saturday long enough to see Dick Matesic hurl the ball twice for long distances over the heads of 20 teammates and foemen and into the sure hands of speedy Mike Nicksick, who sprinted for touchdowns. On the way through the Hill district, 30 minutes later, I saw forward passes skimming the heads of pedestrians and horses along Washington street, Wylie avenue and Chatham street.

The swarthy little Italian lads of the streets were throwing the football through the air with the accuracy of a Newman, but there were no potential Brickleys about and none of them seemed eager to kick the ball as they perfected their long spiral shots.

The daily sport pages are heavy with accounts of the forward passes and the trend has added lustre to the sport. The clever pass is something to be appreciated by everybody within the gates, whereas the monotonous line plunges of the long-hair era are passe. A good arm, a sure pair of hands and a fleet pair of legs are attributes in the diamond game and these developments are apt to increase in the grid sport, which has passed through an evolution in the past dozen years.

A sure-handed outfielder possessed of speed of foot and a great throwing arm is applauded often. Fans are thrilled when athletes like Chick Hafey, Kiki Cuyler, Paul Waner or Mel Ott cut loose with a long throw.

Speaking of the kids of the poor districts who have to do their forward passing from cobblestone formations, why have they been neglected by Council in the matter of playgrounds?

To this writer there is something sardonic in the note of the police radio which belches:

"Scout Car Soandso—Go to Wylie avenue and break up a ball game!"

It would make it a lot better for the kids, and much nicer for the cops, if the youngsters had a place to encourage their games. How about it—you councilmen who are slated to win tomorrow?

Lloyd Waner, back from his hunting expedition, is looking for a taxidermist. Lloyd returned with a beautiful specimen of the pheasant family, together with a bagful of rabbits and quail. Honus Wagner accompanied the outfielder.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter (Rabbit) Maranville have returned to their Rochester, N. Y. home after calling at the West Penn Hospital where they visited Mrs. Charles Qualley, widow of the former football star of the University of Pittsburgh. Mrs. Qualley is recovering from a surgical operation. She will be discharged from the hospital this week.

KELSCH'S GOAL GIVES PIRATES 3-3 TIE

BROOKLYN, Nov. 6.—The veteran Mose Kelsch, the pinch-hitter, or kicker, of the Pittsburgh Pirates of the National Professional League, who was playing professional football when the majority of his teammates still were in their high chairs, booted a goal from placement in the last minute of play to give the Pirates a 3-3 tie with the Brooklyn Dodgers.

Mose Kelsch

It was a dramatic finish to one of the hardest fought football battles of the season at Ebbets Field, and turned what seemed certain defeat for Pittsburgh into an even break after the Pirates had tried unsuccessfully for nearly four periods to overcome the Brooklyn lead earned by Herman Hickman's field goal in the first quarter.

GAIN ON PASSES

Kelsch kicked the placement after Tony Holm, Alabama star, and Angel Brovelli, St. Mary's backfield ace, collaborated in a brilliant 35-yard pass, Ray Tesser put the ball in position when he snagged Holm's second heave on the Brooklyn's 15-yard line.

Kelsch ran in for the seconds remaining and booted the ball over cleanly from the 24-yard stripe just as the final whistle sounded.

Brooklyn's score came about the middle of the first period after Chris Cagle, former West Point star, and Shipwreck Kelly, the former Kentucky flash passed and hit the line to place the ball on Pittsburgh's 12-yard line. Hickman, Brooklyn's guard, fell back to kick the placement.

A crowd of 15,000 saw the game. The lineup:

Brooklyn		Pittsburgh
Parker	L.E.	Moss
Lumpkin	L.T.	Engebretsen
Jorgen	L.G.	Chickillo
Morrison	C.	Oehler
Kaplan	R.G.	Jones
Kopcha	R.T.	Artman
Hudson	R.E.	Tesser
Cagle	Q.	Bolich
Kelly	L.H.	Holm
Desmarais	R.H.	Schwartz
Kaplan	F.	Hoon

Score by periods:

Brooklyn	3	0	0	0	3
Pittsburgh	0	0	0	3	3

Brooklyn substitutions: Hickman for Desmarais, Kelsch for Hickman, Hickman for Kelsch, Desmarais for Hickman

FIVE CONTENDERS FALL IN SCHOOL RACES

KEN HIGH OUT OF DOUBLE A TITLE FIGHT

School Leaders

CITY LEAGUE

Section I

	Won	Lost	Tied	Pts.	Op.
Peabody	3	0	1	44	14
South	4	1	0	58	12
Allerdice	2	1	1	19	6
Westinghouse	1	2	1	20	24
Schenley	1	2	1	25	38
Fifth Avenue	0	5	0	6	78

Section II

	Won	Lost	Tied	Pts.	Op.
South Hills	3	0	1	60	13
Perry	2	0	2	63	14
Carrick	3	1	1	52	41
Allegheny	1	3	0	19	67
Oliver	1	3	0	12	52
Langley	0	3	1	12	31

W. P. I. A. L.

*Class AA

	Won	Lost	Tied	Pts.	Opp.
New Castle	4	0	0	66	13
Jeannette	3	0	0	33	0
Greensburg	3	0	0	53	13
New Kensington	3	1	0	53	25
Charleroi	1	1	0	26	20
Clairton	1	2	0	19	41
Washington	1	2	0	26	26
Monessen	0	1	1	0	6
McKeesport	0	2	1	12	26
Turtle Creek U.	0	2	0	7	52
Wilkinsburg	0	2	0	0	26
Norwin	0	3	0	13	54

*Class A

	Won	Lost	Title Points
Scott	7	0	130 5-7
Ambridge	6	0	127½
Monongahela	2	0	125

	Won	Lost	Title Points
East Pittsburgh	5	0	123
East Huntingdon	5	0	122
Ramsay	3	0	113 1-3

*Based on games with class opponents.

By JULIUS LEVIN

Dame Fortune played no favorites in the races for the scholastic football championships of Western Pennsylvania during the past weekend, her frown of defeat eliminating one contender from each of the five divisions operating in this vicinity.

The championship of the City League, from all appearances, was reduced to one contender in each of its two sections, Peabody ranking supreme in Section I, while South Hills rested on the throne in Section II.

Peabody broke a deadlock for first place in Section I by disposing of Westinghouse while Allderdice was losing to South and South Hills moved into undisputed possession of first place in Section II by handing the heretofore undefeated Carrick eleven a 28-0 lacing to forge to the front.

PEABODY IN BREATHER

Peabody will have a chance to clinch the laurels in Section I at the expense of the weak Schenley team Friday, while the South Hills eleven must vanquish Langley to sew up the crown. If Langley ties South Hills and Perry subdues Oliver, the two teams will be deadlocked for the lead.

The only chance of Peabody being kept out of the post-season series will be a defeat by Schenley, a team that failed to score a point until it met Fifth Avenue, which also counted its first point in five years against the Oaklanders.

The field of contenders in each of the three divisions of the W. P. I. A. L. was reduced to three. New Castle scored its ninteenth straight victory by defeating New Kensington to take undisputed possession of first place in class AA. The two teams were tied prior to the game with three victories and no defeats. It was New Castle's fourth victory in the double A race.

TWO TEAMS TIED

Jeannette and Greensburg remained deadlocked for second place by scoring their third victories, Jeannette defeating Norwin, while Greensburg vanquished McKeesport. Jeannette and Greensburg meet later in the season, thus assuring no more than two contenders for the class AA title.

Like the class AA race, the field of title aspirants in class A was cut down from four to three when Scott High, of North Braddock, itself a contender for the crown now held by Ambridge eliminated Duquesne from the running.

The victory Scott scored over Duquesne was its seventh class A triumph of the season. Ambridge kept apace the North Braddock eleven by disposing of Rochester, its sixth class A victim and its sixteenth straight victory. Monongahela, the third contender, defeated a class B team in Masontown. The point averages, under which the title is awarded in event more than two schools survive, show Scott leading Ambridge, 130 5-7 to 127½. Monongahela trails with 125 points.

SCOTT IN FINALE

Scott has concluded its class A campaign and will wind up its regular season by meeting Erie Strong Vincent in a night game at North Braddock next Friday. Ambridge meets Midland in its finale at Ambridge Saturday, while the same afternoon, Monongahela faces its toughest test of the season when California is met at Monongahela.

Evans City, defeated by Zelienople, was the only team to fall in the class B race, reducing that field to three contenders. East Huntingdon defeated West Newton and East Pittsburgh swept aside Edgewood, while Ramsay High, of Mt. Pleasant defeated a class A team in Hurst.

The point figures enabled East Pittsburgh to pass East Huntingdon, 123 to 122. Ramsay is third with 113 1-3. Ramsay meets East Huntingdon in the final game, assuring no more than two survivors in this division.

While Ramsay's victory over Hurst did not count in the championship race as far as the W. P. I. A. L. competition was concerned, it was regarded as one of the best achievements of the season by Ned Culler's boys. The victory was only the second Ramsay has scored over Hurst in 17 engagements.

LOCAL BOY MANAGER

MILLVILLE, N. J., Nov. 6.—(AP.)—Herbert Jr. of Pa., scrub football manager at Millville high school, is the son of Herbert Connell, of Scranton, is captain of the football team, and Louis Kleeman and Harry Simpson, Jr., are two other Scranton boys taking an active part in the school athletics.

Believe It Or Not (Reg. by U. S. Patent Office) By Ripley

(On request, sent with stamped addressed envelope, Ripley will send proofs and details of anything depicted by him in these cartoons.)

RIPLEY'S CARTOON OF LAST SATURDAY SELF-EXPLANATORY.
TOMORROW: AN EYE FOR A PLANE.

TECH PLAYERS LAUDED FOR PURDUE FIGHT

By Howard Harpster

Carnegie Tech Football Coach, All-America Quarterback, 1928.

I was very proud of my Carnegie Tech football players for their splendid fight against a great football team last Saturday.

Purdue had the better team and outplayed us through most of the game, but there certainly is no disgrace in losing to such a powerful opponent, especially after the fine fighting game our boys played.

Howard Harpster

For 30 minutes in the first half and the last 23 minutes of the last half the Tech players fought off all Purdue scoring threats, but in the other seven minutes, those following the kickoff for the second half, things went bad in a big way for our team and the Boilermakers rolled up 17 points.

The fatal seven minutes started with Stewart kicking off for Carnegie, right down the middle of the field. The kick was high and allowed our players to get well down the field, and, because it was short, most of them still were in their lanes and hadn't converged toward the center of the field, when Carter, who was easily the fastest man on either team, took the kick after a 15-yard start while traveling at full speed.

With a couple of interferers opening up a hole in the center of the field, Carter sliced past nine of our men after running only five or 10 yards, and was quickly out in the open, where both Bevevino and Spisak failed to make good on their attempts to tackle him, and he ran unmolested for a touchdown, hardly varying his course up the field. Pardonner made the extra point with a perfect dropkick.

SERIES OF BAD BREAKS

Our boys got together in a huddle after the run and made up their minds not to let the sudden score dishearten them and to pass off the run as just one of those things which happens occasionally. Incidently, that was the first time any team ever had scored on a kickoff against a Carnegie Tech eleven.

We took the next kickoff, and, after two first downs, were forced to kick after a penalty stopped the march.

Purdue failed to gain on two running plays, and, on third down, threw a flat pass to the weak side. Joe Mihm, who played the best game of his college career Saturday, saw the pass coming and was over covering the intended receiver. The pass was short and sailed squarely into Joe's hands and he had a clear field to the goal, 50 yards away. But, in his anxiety to make the catch, Mihm allowed the ball to slip through his fingers, incomplete. With this unfortunate play it hardly seemed that Fate would be so unkind on the next one also. Purdue kicked and the ball came down in Bevevino's arms on the 14-yard line, but he dropped it and Purdue recovered.

The bad fortune didn't seem to be at an end, either, for, on the first play, Tech was offside, which gave Purdue a first down with five yards to gain on the nine-yard line. The Tech team became fighting mad, and, at the end of the third down, not only had held Purdue, but had forced it back to the 12-yard line. At this stage, Pardonner spoiled everything with a perfect drop-kicked field goal. Perhaps it was irony, but this same Pardonner, a famous touchdown goal kicker, has tried to kick field goals many times during his three years on the Purdue team, and this was the first one he ever made good.

AN IRONIC KICK

Shortly afterward, Purvis, who is one of the greatest all-round backfield stars I have seen, broke through our tired and by now somewhat discouraged line and made the most beautiful run of the day, a jaunt of 52 yards, which carried him to our eight-yard line, from where Purdue scored its second touchdown. Pardonner again kicked goal.

Trailing by 17 points, I was anxious to see what our team would do, and I was not long in finding out. The boys started tackling harder than ever, and there wasn't the least evidence of anyone giving up. Mihm picked off an enemy pass on the 23-yard line and "free-wheeled" for 77 yards and a touchdown, bowling over the only tackler on the 10-yard line. Stewart kicked the goal.

Purdue received and was forced to kick, the ball rolling to the 15-yard line. With only minutes left to play, Terebus passed his team from the shadow of its own goal, 80 yards up the field to the Purdue four-yard line. With 10 seconds left, Terebus floated back and threw a pass to one of our ends, who was standing on the goal line, but the ball slid through his arms to the ground for a touchback. On the next play the game ended.

MAKE GREAT FIGHT

Purdue has as fine a group of backfield men as I have seen on one squad, and is a very strong all-round team. Only because the Tech players fought as well as they did were we able to hold the score so low. I have nothing but praise for our players, for they faced a mighty tough job and did it well.

Soccer Game Lineups

KEYSTONE LEAGUE

Gallatin		Morgan
Campa	G	Chermich
Bailey	R. B	Reliani
Greedy	L. B	Matthews
Bedogni	R. H	Delfuffo
Pinkles	C. H	G. Hart
Patterline	L. H	A. Sitchel
Loundi	R. D	D. Hart
Grilli	I. R	F. Mitchell
Chistagi	C	Ginger
Harrison	I. L	Bimarolli
Duffy	O. L	Burns

Score at half time—Gallatin 1, Morgan 0. Goals scored—Bedogni, Loundi, Mitchell. Referee—Boyle.

Richis		Glendale
Belnick	G	Norrik
Edwards	R. B	McGrevin
Cingel	L. B	Casper
Klink	R. H	Rysko
Magera	C. H	Carmenell
Matthews	L. H	Kratovil
Zywan	O. F.	Schultz
Jaap	I. R	Shohandle
Grudevich	C	Crowrassni
Innocenti	I. L.	Figura
Smith	O. L.	Grabovich

Score at half time—2-0, Richis, Referee—McArdle. Goals scored—By Jaap, Innocent, Zywan 2, Grudevich, Figura.

Iron City		Cecil
Ambrosia	G	Wacke
Vannura	R. B	Treaux
Riddle	L. B	Pace
Mahoney	R. H	Morea
Macek	C. H	Checca
Kushner	L. H	J. Treaux
Brown	O. F.	Gollinar
Resavage	I. R	Rebich
Lloyd	C	P. Cherokee
Sella	I. L	J. Cherokee
Petrilina	O. L	Ventaesty

Score at half time, Iron City 4, Cecil 1. Goals scored—By Macek, Brown, Lloyd 3, Sella. Nags, J. Cherokee.

PANHANDLE LEAGUE

Webers		Marconi
Fisher	G	T. Lorenzo
Marcin	R. F	Conrin
Pucker	L. B	Hass
Locthero	R. H	Visnick
S. Ateas	C. H	Begor
Skippa	L. H	Cicchi
A. Zewan	O. F.	Gasoli
Jeseivich	I. R	R. Lorenzo
Chieo	C	Thomas
R. Zewan	I. L	Mesta
Cancel	O. L	McGinley

Score at half time—Weber 1, Marconi 1. Referee—Waterman. Time of halves—45 minutes. Goals scored—By L. Zewan 2, Mesta 2.

Avella		Atlasburg
Kasacrich	G	Jenick
J. Kasacrich	R. B	Wachki
Sudlasky	L. B	Dominski
Patta	R. H	McGovern
Valduzh	C. H	Cherpak
Deco	L. H	Kusych
Gimbels	O. R	Kinzer
Berrod	I. R	McGovern
Deblock	C	E. Dominski
P. Valduza	I. L	H. Cherpak
Barwidi	O. L	S. Dominski

Referee—Bryden. Time of halves—45 minutes. Goals scored—By Gendria 6, Beriot, Deblock.

Canonsburg		West Carnegie
Kilich	G	Scott
J. Dollarso	R. B	Norwath
T. Shuba	L. B	Fritz
S. Dollarso	R. H	Hlavd
Hulva	C. H	Taxed
Lesko	L. H	Ferne
Shuba	O. R	Sesko
Rodinski	I. R	Cook
Hutchinson	C	Glowark
Klasiaski	I. L	McNeight
J. Varje	O. L	Cupp

Score at half time—Canonsburg 3, West Carnegie 1. Final score—Canonsburg 6, West Carnegie 1. Referee—Rutter. Time of halves—45 minutes. Goals scored—By S. Dollarso, Hulpa, Rodinski, Hutchinson, Klasiaski, J. Varse, Glowark.

Lincoln Hill		Sturgeon
Gavin	G	Vornan
Naltany	R. B	Cox
McCartney	L. B	Kamovich
Piccolo	R. H	Telanones
Desk	C. H	Maravich
Cox	L. H	J. Notte
Evans	O. R	A. Notte
Sabolsky	I. R	Costello
Liszak	C	Wiese
Catko	I. L	Dennari
Bonazzo	O. L	Tucker

Score at half time—Lincoln Hill 3, Sturgeon 0. Goals—Liszak, Catko, Bonazzo, Cox.

Nathan A. C.		Diamond
Lenish	G	Octle
Sabiseske	R.B	Bazardo
Benkowski	L.B	Johnson
Denaro	R. H	Tovmoli
Orwaski	C.H	Shepard
Lewis	L.H	Day
Travis	O.R	Hall
Albright	I.R	Pidoloni
Gusperson	C	Bhlolani
Ohmahino	I.L	Nones
Danzo	O.L	Malley

Score at half time—Nathan 3-0. Referee—McHenry. Time of halves—45 minutes. Goals scored—By Travis, Albright 2, Gusperson, Ohmahno, Danzo, Pidoloni.

Fink A. C.		Hill Station
Sapoli	G	Krall
Patiha	R.B	Smith
L. Miglironi	L.B	H. Kirkie
Demarco	R.H	M. Kirkie
Fotzgaviche	C.H	Laine
Hershey	L.H	Davis
Corinis	O.R	B. Kirkie
Depo	I.R	Morgan
H. Williams	C	Ponte
Miglironi	I.L
Urish	O.L	Hamson

Score at half time—Fink 3, Hill Station 0. Referee—Peyvish. Time of halves—45 minutes. Goals scored—By Davis, Morgan, Williams, Urish, Miglironi 2.

Braves		Option
Reardon	G	Schaide
Farawitch	R.B	Reefle
Brown	L.B	Seibe
Obeitas	R.H	Fitz
Obringer	C.H	Amorisi
Bucher	L.H	S. Peterme
Brenkus	O.R	A. Petrone
Jaap	I.R	Maser
O'Farrell	C	Canton
Mercer	I.L	Mumise
Lewandoski	O.L	Zeiger

Score at half time—Shannon, Braves, 3, Option 0. Referee—Harry Rutherford. Time of halves, 35 minutes. Goals scored—By Jaap 2, O'Farrell, Lewandoski, Mercer, Brenhus, Canton.

Coraopolis		Houston
Jais	G	Matta
Grills	R.B	Whitefield
S. Barlow	L.B	Mura
Klobacha	R.H	Sims
Lloyd	C.H	Blake
Kanuch	L.H	Bonthuser
Whiteford	O.R	Alberson
Crank	I.R	Crow
Kuwns	C	Arnold
Cantwell	I.L	Nolan
S. Barlow	O.L	Gerose

Score at half time—Coraopolis 1, Houston Merchants 0. Referee—Hyler. Time of halves—35 minutes. Goals scored—By Cantwell, Kuwns.

ALLEGHENY VALLEY LEAGUE

Hillman		Newfield
Bakewell	G	Tubacher
Bone	R.B	Bassod
Balle	L.B	Chadwick
M. Bordell	R.H	Yacks
Guidish	C.H	H. Watson
Slobota	L.H	Conti
Fraser	O.R	P. Watson
Hamilton	I.R	J. Thomas
W. Williamson	C	R. Vickers
J. Williamson	I.L	Baskoski
Blank	O.L	M. Watson

Score at half time—Newfield 3, Hillman 1. Final score—Newfield 3, Hillman 3. Referee—Evans. Time of halves—45 minutes. Goals scored—By Fraser, Hamilton, W. Williamson, P. Watson, R. Vickers, M. Watson.

V. F. B.		Garfield
F. Venus	G	Chappell
Yost	R.B	N. Pinckesky
L. Venus	L.B	R. Morris
W. Thompson	R.H	W. Gemoss
Cemiski	C.H	W. Morris
S. Venus	L.H	Perry
Perch	O.F	Ferry
Quigley	I.R	Campbell
Beuchte	C	Beverage
Hayenka	I.L	King
Filenfeld	O.L	H. Douchesky

Substitute, McEwen. Referee—Cress. Time of halves—30 minutes. Goals scored—By Beuchte 4, by Quigley, by W. Thompson.

Soccer Results

KEYSTONE LEAGUE

Moon Run	6—Cecil	2
Rhoades Heights	5—Glendale	1
Gallatin	2—Morgan	1

PANHANDLE LEAGUE

Lincoln Hill	3—Sturgeon	1
Altasburg	8—Avella	0
Nathans	6—Diamond A. C.	1
Manown	2—Webers	1
Braves	5—Option	1
Morgan	2—Leasdale	0
Canonsburg	6—West Carnegie	1
Coraopolis	2—Houston	0
Finks	4—Hills Station	1

MON-YOUGH LEAGUE

Rainbow	1—Dunlevy	1
Speedway	3—Van Voorhis	2
Fitz Henry	4—Suterville	0
Gallatin	6—Monessen	0

ALLEGHENY VARLEY LEAGUE

Newfield	3—Hillman	3
Tuscan	1—Berton	0
Tarentum	8—Garfield	0
Harmarsville	3—Curtisville	2

By TOM BIRKS

Playing in a steady downpour of rain that lasted throughout the game, the Gallatin Soccer Club defeated Morgan in the feature game of the Keystone League yesterday by a 2-to-1 score at Gallatin.

Other contests in the league found the Moon Run club staging a comeback and defeating Cecil, 6 to 2, at Cecil, for the most decisive win of the day, while the Rielhs, of Castle Shannon, beat Glendale, 5 to 1. The fourth scheduled game between Heidelberg and Curry was called off due to the condition of the Heidelberg field.

Only a small crowd braved the elements at Gallatin to see the Sickles' aggregation win. The defense had a tough afternoon getting that ball out of the mud, but Villani, Matthews, Campa and Bailey played great ball.

Morgan scored first through the efforts of Felix Mitchell. Then Sickles opened up, and Druffa tied the count with a good shot.

The second half was a slambang affair with the defense playing brilliant soccer. The winning goal came from the foot of Begonde. Campa had saved a shot from the left wing and pushed the ball out to Begonde, who smashed the ball into the corner of the net from 25 yards out.

MORGAN BOWS TO GALLATIN ELEVEN, 2-1

DAILY PLEASED WITH LOOP

WHEELING, W. Va., Nov. 6.—(AP.)—The Middle Atlantic Baseball League is in the best shape in its history, Elmer Daily, president, told a meeting of club owners and executives yesterday.

He said that the eight-city circuit will probably remain intact for the 1934 season.

The meeting, called to close affairs of the 1933 season, was attended by six clubs, the Huntington and Beckley owners wiring regrets.

The delegates adopted a new rookie rule compelling each club to carry at least three first-year players and three who have only had one year of professional seasoning.

George Weiss, head of the New York Yankee farm system, said the management is satisfied with the Wheeling Stogies and added that the team would be continued.

Receiving Barn Proves Successful

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 6.—(Universal)—Introduction of a horse-receiving barn, designed to stamp out the use of narcotics and stimulants, has proved highly satisfactory at the Tanforan course and will undoubtedly lead the way for its ultimate adoption on all the other major race tracks in this country.

Credit for the innovation is due to the exposure by the Hearst newspapers of the crooked practice of stimulating horses just before post time.

Horses are now required to enter the barn one hour before each race. They are under the scrutiny of two veterinarians, one representing the California Horse Racing Board and the other, the track. A custodian of the receiving barn is in charge.

(Advertisement)

ON THE CHIN!

© 1933, B. M. Co.—Ingram's Shaving Cream

Bet 35c on Ingram's Shaving Cream and you'll win the Best Shave Derby by a cool, unscuffed and comfortable chin! Play your favorite—tube or jar.

DUKES DISPLAY REAL CLASS

(Continued from Page Twenty-two.)

Pop Warner's backfield coach since the Old Master left Pitt.

The Panthers made merry at the expense of little Centre, which could not get to first base when anything remotely resembling a Pitt varsity lineup was in the game. After the first period, the Golden Kitties scored easy and often and had just the sort of a tuneup game they needed for the approaching struggle with the Dukes.

Tech made a game fight against Purdue, but found the Boilermakers entirely too tough. Capt. Red Stewart played himself a fine ball game and Joe Mihm saved the locals from a shutout by grabbing off a Purdue pass and returning it for a touchdown.

Getting back to a discussion of the situation in general, we find things not so good with the Rams of Fordham, the Covenanters of Geneva, the Crusaders of Holy Cross, and, lo and behold, the Red Raiders of Colgate. Tch, tch, tch, how Mister Andrew Kerr must be bemoaning his fate today. The tough part of it for Andy was that his team came within a stride of scoring, and possibly tying the ball game. Had Bogdansky taken two more strides as he raced down the sidelines there as the final minute of play was ticking away, he'd have tallied. As it was, Tulane's star end, Roberts, knocked him out of bounds on the two-yard line as the game ended.

RAMS MEET DEFEAT

Fordham's dream of going through the season unbeaten rudely was interrupted by St. Mary's husky young men. The battering the Ram took in ekeing out a 2-0 win over 'Bama the week previous had its effect on the play of the New Yorkers Saturday. They found the Gaels entirely too tough.

Davis and Elkins left little to be desired as it ran over Geneva. It is to be doubted if even the presence in the lineup of Cliff Ault-man would have saved the Covenanters. The Senators, smarting from the sting of the tie with West Virginia the week previous, took it out on Jimmy Robertson's charges. Beating Geneva on its own field is no slouch of a feat, as will be attested by the record the Beaver Falls school held of not having lost a game in Reeves Stadium in four years prior to Sat'day.

LONG SHOT VICTOR

AUTEUIL, France, Nov. 6.—(AP.)—Prince, owned by Mme. Lucienne Boussac, won the 100,000 Franc Prix D'Automne hurdle race yesterday after the favorite, Scipion Guthmann's Saint Brice, fell. Prince finished the 4,100-meter course a length ahead of Oil G. Brun's De Beers, with H. Sadon's Farnus third. The winner paid 94 to 5 in the mutuels. The value of the purse was about $6,100.

SPORT VIGNETTES

And now we have the Duquesne University Dukes coming undefeated up to the game with Pitt, the next to last on their schedule, only Geneva College remaining thereafter. . . . And looking like a million dollars in the face of comparative records. . . . A victory over Pitt is not without the realm of possibility, and, if it should materialize, Coach Elmer Layden's Bluffites will be sitting on a very high peak at the end of the season, when Notre Dame will be casting about for a graduate coach and the tomtoms are being beaten for a Tournament of Roses team from the East.

Last Saturday, while the Dukes were coming from behind to beat W. & J., 21-6, after the Presidents had held Pitt to a 9-0 score and Carnegie Tech to a scoreless tie, Fordham, touted as the East's strongest Catholic eleven, was losing to St. Mary's of California, already beaten by Southern California and California, and Holy Cross was taking a 24-0 cuffing from Detroit University, which had lost, 14-0, to Duquesne . . . All of which bespeaks volumes for the class and strength of the Dukes.

Let's take this Duquesne record apart and see what makes it tick. . . . The Bluffites opened with an 18-6 victory over Waynesburg . . . Then they defeated West Virginia Wesleyan, 25-0, a week before the Bobcats defeated New York University, 3-0, and then followed a 19-7 win over West Virginia University . . . Followed a 6-0 win over Bucknell, which defeated Villa Nova, 19-17; Lafayette, 21-0 (which held Colgate to a scoreless tie), and Temple, 20-7 . . . Then came a 13-0 victory over Western Maryland, which last Saturday defeated Bucknell, 14-13 . . . Detroit University lost to the Dukes, 14-0, and last Saturday took that hard fall out of Holy Cross, which had beaten Harvard, 10-7, and Brown, 19-7 . . . Came then an easy victory over Westminster and that decisive victory over W. & J. . . . If the Dukes can add Pitt to their victims, they will have won over the only team which has beaten Notre Dame by more than one touchdown.

It will be hard to laugh off this record at the season's end, and Pitt, as it prepares for this newest local challenge to its superiority, can ill afford to hold the Bluffites cheap, despite its 33-0 triumph in the first meeting with the Dukes last fall. —HARRY KECK.

Nat'l Pro League

STANDING OF THE CLUBS

(Western Section)

Club	W.	L.	T.	Pct.
Chicago Bears	6	1	0	.857
Portsmouth	5	2	0	.714
Green Bay	4	3	1	.571
Chicago Cardinals	1	6	0	.143
Cincinnati	0	5	1	.000

(Eastern Section)

Club	W.	L.	T.	Pct.
New York	5	3	0	.625
Boston	4	3	1	.571
Pittsburgh	3	3	2	.500
Brooklyn	2	2	1	.500
Philadelphia	2	5	0	.286

MACKS OBTAIN A. A. STARS

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 6.—(AP.)—The Philadelphia Athletics today announced they have obtained Raymond Radcliffe, outfielder of the St. Paul American Association Club, in exchange for Pitchers Gowell S. Claset and Tony Freitas and cash.

It also was announced that the Athletics had given the Toledo club, of the American Association, Outfielder Joe Zapustis for George Detore, infielder. Zapustis came to the Athletics from Fordham University.

Heydler Visits Pirate Officials

A suggestion of baseball yesterday crept into a local sports picture otherwise crowded with football. John A. Heydler, president of the National League, stopped in Pittsburgh for a few hours and had a talk with President W. E. Benswanger and Vice President S. E. Watters, of the Pirates. Only routine matters were discussed.

President Heydler said his visit had no significance, and that he was merely making a brief call to keep in touch with the Pittsburgh angle of National League affairs while en route home to New York from Chicago, where he attended a meeting of the major and minor league advisory board preliminary to the annual convention of the minors in Galveston, Tex., November 15 to 17. The league chief left last night for the East.

Names in News

DRINMORE LAD, owned by Paul Mellon, of Pittsburgh, finished second in the Piedmont Gold Cup race at Upperville, Va. The Pittsburgh horse finished two lengths behind TROUBLE MAKER.

WARREN HELLER, former Pitt star, and GEORGE KAVEL, former Carnegie Tech star, stood out in the victory scored by Reading over Bayonne at Reading yesterday, 19-0. Each scored a touchdown.

ROSS TO BOX PETROLLE

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—(AP.)—Barney Ross, of Chicago, lightweight champion, and Billy Petrolle, Duluth welterweight, have agreed to terms for a 10-round bout at the New York Coliseum the week of December 4. The bout will be held in the interest of the New York American's Christmas Fund.

KELSCH'S GOAL BRINGS TIE

(Continued from Page Twenty-two.)

head had carried them inside the 10-yard line.

The Redskins, who banged away at the Bears' line from start to finish, battered their way to a touchdown late in the first period. Cliff Battles ran back a Chicago punt from his 25-yard line to midfield and he and Jim Musick made up the remaining 50 yards on straight bucks, the former Southern California star carrying over from the five-yard line. Late in the third session, after Glen Edwards intercepted a Grange pass and ran it back from his 15 to their 30-yard line, Battles placekicked a field goal.

HUBBARD STARTS FIGHT

CHICAGO, Nov. 6.—(AP.)—Fists swung wildly at Wrigley Field yesterday as the Green Bay Packers defeated Chicago's hapless Cardinals, 14 to 6, in an otherwise drab and dreary National Professional Football League game before less than 5,000 spectators.

The fistic outbreak occurred in the third quarter. Dick Nesbitt got off a long punt and Grove, the Packers' safety man, intended to let the ball roll by him for an automatic touchback. But the ball apparently bounced up and touched him and Kassel of the Cardinals dropped on it on the Packer two-yard line. As the officials awarded the ball to the Cardinals, Capt. Cal Hubbard, of the Packers, rushed out and swung at an official. His swing was wide and struck a Cardinal player, setting off a free-for-all among the players.

EAGLES BEAT REDS

CINCINNATI, Nov. 6.—(AP.)—The Philadelphia Eagles outwitted the Cincinnati Reds in the final minutes of play and won a National Professional Football League game yesterday, 6 to 0, after a see-saw battle in a field of mud.

It was fourth down on the Reds' nine-yard line. Expecting a pass or a try for a field goal, the Reds spread over the field. As the ball was snapped, the local secondary swarmed toward the center of the line. But on a single reverse, Jack Roberts gave the ball to Tom Hanson, and the former Temple halfback ran around right end for a touchdown.

ONE FOR GIANTS

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—(AP.)—After being held scoreless for three periods, the New York Giants put on a rally in the final quarter which earned them a 18-to-10 victory over the Portsmouth Spartans yesterday at the Polo Grounds.

PITT FROSH STAR

In winning over Wyoming Seminary, West Virginia Freshmen, and Kiski School, the Pitt Freshmen scored every touchdown from at least 50 yards out. Ninety-yard kickoff returns, 90-yard passes and 60-yard punt returns are the specialties of the Panthers. Two halfbacks, Eddie Quarantello and Stanley O'Neil, are long-run specialists.

RACE STARTER DIES

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 6.—(AP.)—Fred J. Wagner, 67, veteran auto race starter and known on almost every major speedway in the United States, died in the Covina Hospital yesterday. He was born in Covington, Ky., and is survived by his widow, Mrs. Nancy Wagner.

Leo Diegel Wins In Coast Tourney

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 6.—(AP.)—Coming from behind with a subpar 69, Leo Diegel, of Philadelphia, former P. G. A. champion, captured the Southern California open golf championship at the Fox Hills Country Club yesterday with a medal score of 282, six under par, for 72 holes.

Football Scores

COLLEGIATE

St. Bonaventure	15—Canisius	6
Niagara	7—Providence	6
John Carroll	12—St. Viator	0

NATIONAL PRO LEAGUE

Pittsburgh	3—Brooklyn	3
Boston Redskins	10—Chicago Bears	7
N. Y. Giants	13—Portsmouth	10
Green Bay	14—Chicago Cards	6
Phila. Eagles	6—Cincinnati	0

PROFESSIONAL

South Bend	6—Detroit	0
St. Louis	20—Wisconsin	0
Oklahoma City	21—Kansas City	0
Reading	19—Bayonne	0
York	23—Lancaster	0
Cleveland	45—Nashville	0
Clifton	7—Paterson Giants	6
Passaic R. Devils	12—Frankford	0
New Rochelle	6—Perth Amboy	0

INDEPENDENT

Trafford	6—Dug Orioles	0
Fleetfoot	6—Pitc A. C.	0
Universal	6—Arnold	0
Coverdale	8—Cresto	0
Union	6—McChesneytown	0
Webers	8—St. Mary Preps	0
McKeesport Colmen	6—Export	0
St. Bonaha Jr.	6—Pitcairn Mohawks	0
Union Truckers	21—Leahy Club	0
G. A. Streibs	0—King A. C.	0
West View	6—Millvale Cards	0
Malones	13—Lawrenceville	0

PITTSBURGH BUYER'S GUIDE AND BUSINESS REVIEW

TRAFFIC GROUP SAYS PREPARE FOR WINTER

Motorists should immediately check brakes, belts, windshield wipers and tires in preparation for winter driving conditions, the accident prevention section of the Better Traffic Committee suggested today.

Pointing out that November and December are two of the worst accident months of the year, the committee cited poor visibility and wet roads as the cause of many of these accidents. Its statement said:

"Stopping distance increases on wet and icy roads, and all possible precautions along the lines of improving the driver's vision and assuring adequate breaking effect should be taken."

The first few days of bad weather are the most dangerous during the winter season, according to the committee. The reason given is that motorists are undergoing a period of adjustment to accommodate their driving to wet roads and insufficient daylight.

CARE NEEDED

Extreme care with the first step being to see that the car is in proper mechanical condition, is essential during this period of adjustment, the traffic group stated.

Some highly interesting figures on traffic accidents were given by the committee. There were about 88,000 accidental deaths in the United States in 1932, and 97,415 in 1931. The 1932 total is an increase of 6,000 deaths over that of 1913.

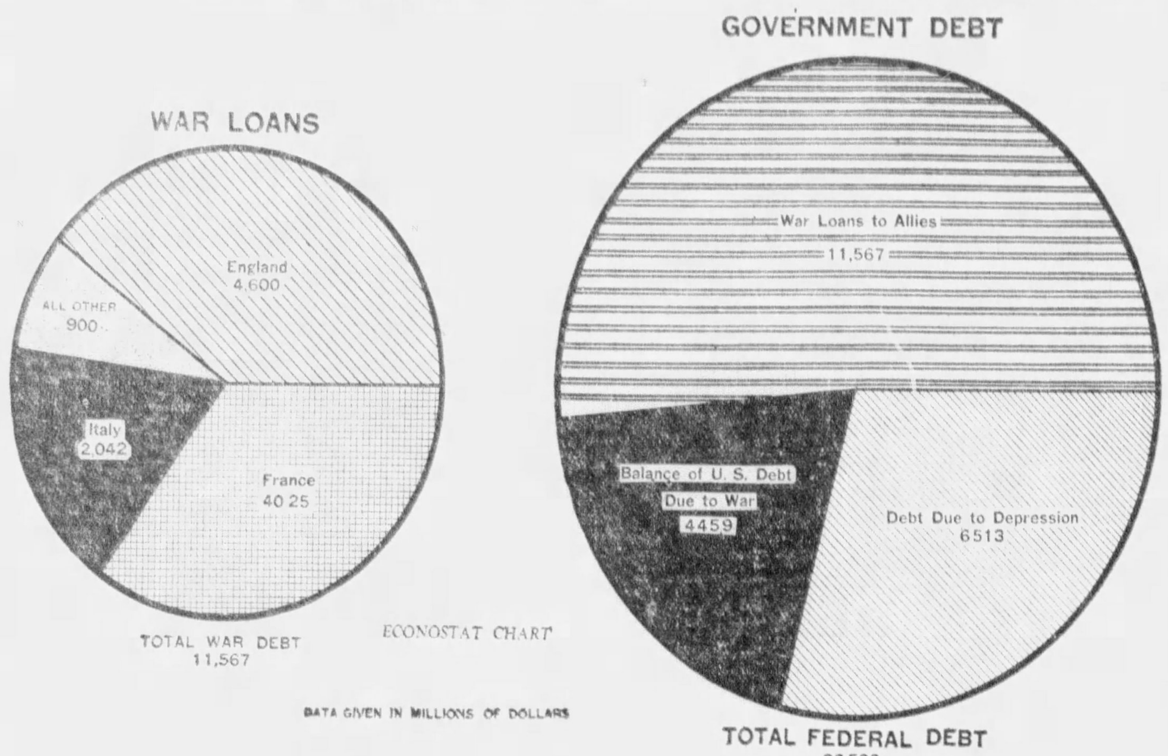
The population, however, has increased more rapidly than these deaths, so that the accidental death rate per 100,000 population was really 18 per cent lower in 1932 than in 1913.

LOSS GREAT

If a momentary value were set on the loss of life from motor accidents, millions of dollars would be lost annually. An example of such loss is the injured father whose incapacity for work necessitates the selling of the family home, the taking of children from school, and other results of a decreased or cut off earning power.

Accident prevention through a nationwide program of education, engineering and enforcement of laws, the committee said, is saving thousands of lives annually.

U. S. War Loans to Allies Chief Factor In Present Burden of Government Debt



By JOSEPH STAGG LAWRENCE
Editor, The Econostat

The representatives of Great Britain are now in Washington discussing with officials of the Treasury the subject of English war debts to this country.

As commercial ventures the loans which the United States made to its allies during and after the war have been a sorry failure; the total amount still due is $11,567-million. Total repayments, and this includes both principal and interest, amount to $2.6-billion. Repayments on principal account amount to $715,100,000 and interest, $1,891,200.

The discussion of this highly controversial subject has omitted the part which the war loans play in the present burden of government debt. The accompanying chart shows the relationship of the loans to our allies and the obligations at present borne by Uncle Sam.

Every million dollars which this government extended to the allies it first borrowed from American lenders. The interest and the principal on these debts of Uncle Sam to his own citizens have been paid punctually throughout the post war period. They have constituted a substantial item in the budgets of the federal government.

The present total debt is $22,539-million. Of this more than one-half, 51.5 per cent of the total, is due to loans made to England, Italy, France and other nations during and after the war. It may be contrasted with the balance of our present debt which is due to the war amounting to $4,459 million.

More striking still is the relation between the total of war loans and the debt which has been incurred by Uncle Sam during the last three years on account of the depression. This totals $6,513-million. Thus it appears that the amount which the allies owe to us, reflected by an equal amount of federal debt, exceeds the sum of our own net debt due to the war and the debt incurred as a result of the depression.

The three outstanding war debtors are England, France and Italy. England has made consistent and apparently sincere efforts to service her debt and to come to some agreement by arrangement with her creditors. Several of our smaller debtors, such as Finland, for example, have been likewise punctual in honoring their obligations.

This, unfortunately, cannot be said of some of our other war debtors. The two circles above are drawn to scale.

UNCERTAINTY DEPRESSES BONDS

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—(AP.)—Extension of governmental efforts to depreciate the exchange dollar to gold operations in world markets was accompanied by a decline in United States government securities and other high grade investment mediums last week.

Federal issues showed a decided heaviness of tone all through the period. Some of the Treasury loans lost considerably more than a point, receding to levels fairly close to the lows for the year.

Pressure on prime investment ratings in the corporation divisions was sporadic rather than general, but in a considerable number of cases values fell sharply because of an apparent reluctance of buyers to pay prices in the face of monetary uncertainties.

The general trend among bonds of the better class, in the opinion of market observers, tended to confirm reports which Wall street has heard frequently of late that some substantial investment holdings have been liquidated for reinvestment in equities.

Semi-speculative issues followed an irregular downward course during the first half of the week, but braced up later under the reviving influence of the rally in stocks.

Due to general lethargy and heaviness in the domestic departments, many traders turned to the foreign list and found considerable action in French, British, Swiss and other European government obligations. This group pushed ahead vigorously over a considerable part of the week, in response to sharp advances in the respective currencies against the dollar.

UNIVERSAL SAFETY
REDUCE SPEED PROTECT Life, Limb and Property
Anticipate Bad Weather
Be Prepared—Carry Chains
A LOCAL ORGANIZATION

International Harvester Company
NEW TRUCKS
Registered
In 1931 ONE in every 15
In 1932 ONE in every 11
In 1933 ONE in every 9
THIS was accomplished with 53 truck manufacturers competing for the market.
See Them at 5200 Penn Ave. or Phone for Demonstration

Let Us All Do Our Part Toward Helping Those Who Are In Need!

Local Organization

AVOID THE NUISANCE OF BLOWN FUSES

Fuses have a way of blowing at the most awkward times. Then, there's either a wait for the service man or a trip to the basement and a search in the dark for the blown fuse. The Westinghouse NOFUZE Load Center eliminates all this inconvenience. Restoring service is just as simple as dipping an ordinary wall switch. A post card will bring you complete information.

WESTINGHOUSE
Gulf Building Pittsburgh, Pa.
T-79216-A—The Westinghouse NOFUZE Load Center can be installed in your kitchen or other convenient place.

We have a complete authorized stock of
NRA "NOW IS THE TIME TO BUY" POSTERS
LIBERTY SHOW PRINTING COMPANY
632 DUQUESNE WAY
PITTSBURGH, PA.

STIMULATE BUSINESS BY TRADING IN ALLEGHENY COUNTY
A Local Organization

PHONE ATLANTIC 4328
HALL PRINTING COMPANY
W. L. HALL, Prop.
Loose-Leaf Printing and Ruling a Specialty
MODERN EQUIPMENT
4th Floor, Sun-Telegraph Bldg., Pittsburgh, Pa.

CORRECT SPEECH is Vital to SUCCESS
ENTER—NOW
Day and Evening Sessions
PUBLIC SPEAKING
RADIO BROADCASTING, SPEECH CORRECTION, VOICE, DICTION
Full Information Call ATlantic 7218
PITTSBURGH SCHOOL OF SPEECH
703 LAW & FINANCE BLDG.

ALLEGHENY STEEL CO.
Oliver Building
GENERAL OFFICE,
Brackenridge, Pa.

STEEL CENTERS HOPE ON U. S.

CLEVELAND, Nov. 6.—(AP.)—With steelworks operating at 25 per cent of capacity last week, and the general demand still shrinking, the magazine Steel said today the hope for a reversal rests upon the promptness of railroad and governmental buying.

The magazine's weekly review, noting the agreement in Washington on a price for standard rails, said the understanding would appear to clear the way for early orders, but on the other hand, added:

"The expenditure may be spread over a period of many months. For instance the $51,000,000 now finally set aside for the purchase of 1,000,000 tons of rails, and 400,000 tons of fastenings, is likely to extend over the entire year of 1934.

"At the moment, the allocation of $84,000,000 to the Pennsylvania's electrification program seems to hold more promise of early diversified business than the track material deal.

"Construction projects sponsored by PWA continue to furnish the principal impetus to the plate, shape, concrete bar, and cast iron pipe market."

Lumber Production Exceeds Year Ago

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—Lumber production for the week ended October 28, 1933, is estimated at 22 per cent above the corresponding week in 1932 according to reports to the National Lumber Manufacturers Association. Production, however, was also the lowest this year since the Fourth of July week, while new business also showed a decline.

RUSSIA'S GOLD RESERVE UP

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—(AP.)—The Amtorg Trading Corporation has issued a survey of Russian financial and trade conditions, showing an increase of $45,000,000 in the gold reserve of the note issue department of the state bank of the U. S. S. R. for the year.

The total for October 1, 1925, was 808,482,380 rubles ($416,268,000 at par), a year ago, 714,515,410 rubles ($367,978,000 at par).

For the first eight months of this year, the Soviet Union had a favorable balance of trade of 81,000,000 rubles ($41,760,000 at par), contrasted with an unfavorable balance in 1932 of 212,486,000 rubles ($109,490,000 at par).

Amtorg, the Soviet trading agency in the United States, said its outstanding obligations have been reduced from $66,000,000 two years ago to $22,000,000.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—(AP.)—formation of a committee of Wall street financiers to protect the interests of holders of Russian imperial bonds at forthcoming negotiations between the American and Russian governments was announced today.

Steel Prices.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—(AP.)—Steel prices per 100 lbs. f.o.b. Pittsburgh: Blue annealed sheets, hot rolled, 10 gauge, 2.25; black sheets, hot rolled, 28 gauge, 2.85; black sheets, cold rolled, 28 gauge, 3.25; bars, 1.75.

Financial Topics

Burlington Bond Move Dampens Dividend Expectations

Quarters which had recently been discussing the possibilities of a small dividend payment by the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy before the end of the year must have found reason for modifying their views in the road's application to issue $2,000,000 bonds. The bonds, whether sold or pledged, are to be used to bolster working capital position which, it is held, will become depleted below a reasonable level shortly. Under such circumstances it would hardly seem logical to expect directors to order a dividend at this time. Principal beneficiaries of any such action would be the Northern Pacific and the Great Northern which, between them hold all but a nominal part of Burlington's stock.

The Trader, in Barron's weekly, says, in part: "Steady investment absorption of stocks, which, because of complete dearth of new financing, affords the only outlet for inflation-pressed idle funds, is gradually brinking about a scarcity of offerings that strengthens the technical position as effectively as a substantial short interest in normal times. The slightest general scramble for equities arising from some striking inflationary development, as, for instance, 55 sterling exchange, might conceivably disclose the small stock holdings of speculators."

Hogs responded with alacrity to the almost heroic measures of producers in nearly halving receipts on the first day the processing tax became effective. Prices today were 10 to 15 cents higher than Friday with the top up to $4.40.

Supplies at Chicago were 4,000 fewer than estimated and at the seven leading western markets 55,700 head, compared with 100,400 last Monday. Packers took 10,000 direct and remained pretty well out of the trade, but small killers and shippers purchased actively. The 50 cents a hundred processing tax, which is effective the rest of November, having been pretty well discounted in advance. Most good hogs sold readily at $4.20 to $4.35.

Third quarter earnings reports of major oil companies have demonstrated that profits are returning to the industry. They have come back with a rush, considering the fact that in only a part of the period did the companies have the advantage of a profitable price structure. If the schedule proposed under the program of fixing prices for the industry is finally adopted on December 1, the oil companies will have an even stronger basis for improving earnings.

Power and light shares leaned to heaviness throughout the day, particularly during the afternoon. Shares of some of the holding company units were especially soft. United Corporation pretested for example yielding for a loss of some 2 points. Directors of the latter meet to consider the resumption on the senior issue on [illegible]

POUND HIGHEST SINCE 1914

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—(AP.)—Sharp rise in sterling against the dollar and continental gold currencies was the outstanding feature of the foreign exchange market today. At the top level of $4.92 1/8, the pound was up 63/4 cents from Saturday and at its highest since 1914. Later the rate eased to $4.81/2.

The unusual strength in British funds simultaneously with heaviness in the gold monies was attributed by some exchange dealers to a flight of capital from the continent to London because of uncertainties facing the gold standard nations.

French francs declined about .03 of a cent but later recovered partly to 6.05 cents. The Dutch guilder was down .30 of a cent, and the Swiss franc .09 of a cent. The Belgian belga ranged a shade higher. Scandinavian currencies and the Canadian dollar were higher in sympathy with the rise in sterling.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—(AP.)—The dollar, in terms of the French gold franc, was valued today at approximately 64.95 cents, compared with 64.63 cents last Saturday and 65.24 cents a month ago.

Wholesale Price Index Declines

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—(INS.)—Wholesale commodity prices, as measured by today's index of the National Fertilizer Association, last week lost a large part of the gain shown for the preceding week. The index declined four points. Five groups declined, two advanced, and the remaining seven showed no change.

Twenty-three commodities showed higher prices while 26 commodities showed lower prices.

Emergency Freight Increase Upheld

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—The United States Supreme Court, in a decision by Justice Stone, reversed a ruling of the lower courts which had sustained the refusal of the Louisiana Public Service Commission to allow the emergency freight rate increases granted railroads by the Interstate Commerce Commission in [illegible]

FARMER BUYING POWER GAINS

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—Prices and purchasing power of farm products increased in the week ended October 25, according to the Bureau of Agricultural economics. The index of prices paid by farmers for commodities they buy increased to 117.0 per cent of pre-war in October 25 from 116.5 on October 18. However the market prices of grains, cotton and some other farm products increased considerably, indicating that the level of farm prices rose from 68 per cent of the 1910-14 average on October 18, to 71 per cent on October 25, thus regaining the loss of the previous week.

Liverpool Wheat Market.

LIVERPOOL, Nov. 6.—The market was due 3/4d to 1d higher but inclined to ease later. At 2:15 p. m. the market was 3/4 to 3/4d lower, based on sterling at $4.90 3/4.

Rubber Market.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—Crude rubber futures opened steady, 3 lower to 5 higher. December, 8.26@8.29; January, 7.40 bid; March, 8.71@8.77; May, 9.00@9.03.

EXPERT JOINS LOCAL FIRM

Edward J. Fliller, one of the most prominent technical and executive lithographic directors in America, has been appointed to the staff of the Liberty Show Printing Company in the capacity of director of lithography, as announced today by Richard E. Smith, sales manager.

Mr. Fliller is widely known as an author, lecturer and technical advisor. He is one of the pioneers in the development of the photographic color offset lithographic field, and developed many of the standard practices that are being used throughout the graphic arts industry. He brings with him to Pittsburgh some new processes which are considered the greatest advances in color lithography made in the past 10 years.

Make This at Home

A Versatile Frock

Pattern 1645

Pittsburgh Sun-Telegraph 15c Practical Pattern

A jumper is very important in the wardrobe of the 6 to 14 school girl—but a jumper quite as versatile as this you've never dreamed of before. It boasts two detachable bretelles that perk out over the shoulders in a fetching way—without them you have a snappy pleated skirt belted at the waistline. The gumpe, too, does things with the length of its sleeves, and with or without its collar. Wool and cotton would combine ideally for warmth and practicality. As for its simplicity—even a junior could make it!

Pattern 1645 is available in sizes 6, 8, 10, 12 and 14. Size 10 takes 1 3/8 yards 54-inch fabric and 1 1/8 yards 36-inch contrasting. Illustrated step-by-step sewing instructions included.

Send 15 CENTS in coins or stamps (coins preferred) for this pattern. Write plainly name, address and style number. BE SURE TO STATE SIZE.

THE WINTER EDITION OF THE PATTERN BOOK WILL HELP YOU SAVE MONEY. ORDER YOUR COPY TODAY! PRICE OF CATALOG 15 CENTS. CATALOG AND PATTERN TOGETHER 25 CENTS.

Address orders to Pittsburgh Sun-Telegraph Pattern Department, 243 West Seventeenth street, New York City.

1.—Enclose 15 cents in coins.
2.—Write clearly NUMBERS of patterns and SIZE wanted.
3.—Write or print your NAME and ADDRESS plainly.
4.—If you want SUN TELEGRAPH Style Book send 10c extra.
5.—Address your request to the
PITTSBURGH SUN-TELEGRAPH PATTERN DEPARTMENT,
New York City.
243 West 17th St.,

WOODFORTH CAFE
FOURTH AT WOOD
Complete Luncheon, 30c Complete Dinner, 50c
SELECTED FOOD WELL COOKED

National Steel Corporation
Grant Building, Pittsburgh, Pa.
WEIRTON STEEL COMPANY, WEIRTON, W. VA.
THE HANNA FURNACE CORP., BUFFALO, N. Y.
GREAT LAKES STEEL CORP., DETROIT, MICH.
HANNA IRON ORE CO., CLEVELAND, OHIO
QUALITY · -:- SERVICE

Business

Decline in Production Hits Steel Plant Net Earnings.

By GEORGE H. SNYDER

STEEL COMPANIES reported outstanding improvement in their results for the third quarter, but it is quite probable that much of this ground will be lost in the final three months of the year.

Operations have been slumping at an alarming rate, and there are no prospects for any material recovery before the end of the year.

Higher prices established under the code are now in effect. While these were instituted to compensate for increased wages, it is improbable that they will achieve this purpose under the prevailing low rate of operation. The wage increases under the code extend to all departments, including those whose payrolls do not fluctuate in direct ratio with production. Accordingly overhead expenses of mills will be a greater burden than when production was at a 25 per cent of capacity rate in the past.

Profitable Point At Higher Level

BEFORE THE CODE went into effect many steel companies were able to cross the line between profits and losses with operations of [illegible] losses has been raised to a higher operating rate.

Of course, when the steel industry again enjoys prosperity the code may be expected to work to the advantage of most companies since ruthless price-cutting will be prevented.

While a large share of the steel companies were able to show profits for the third quarter, some of these may end the fourth quarter with deficits.

* * *

Quarter's Results Are Summarized

OUT OF 10 leading steel companies, six reported net profits after all charges for the third quarter. In the second quarter only four showed profits. In the third quarter of last year only one National Steel showed a profit. The following table compares net profits or losses for the third and second quarters of this year with the third quarter of last year with the final three figures omitted.

DEAD-TIRED THIS EVENING? HOW ABOUT THIS MORNING?
THE NEW SEALY "AIRWAY" INNERSPRING MATTRESS
Makes every morning a "good" morning. Undisturbed rest pays high dividends in health and happiness. On display at all first class Furniture and Department Stores.
"A Pittsburgh Product"
SEALY MATTRESS CO. 1800 Liverpool St.
FORT PITT BEDDING CO. Cedar 3365

Let Us Strive to Make Pittsburgh an Aviation Center
—:o:—
Contributed by
A PUBLIC-SPIRITED ORGANIZATION

STOCKS DRIFT IRREGULARLY LOWER

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—Stocks drifted irregularly lower in hesitant trading today, as week-end news failed to provide fresh stimulus either in business or financial developments.

The sharp rise in the pound sterling in foreign exchange dealings, well above its old parity to the highest level since the early months of the World War when British capital was called home, only served to add to the confusion. Principal commodity markets were inclined to sag a little in the early dealings, but wheat soon recovered. United States governments encountered a little selling in the bond market.

Mining shares showed a disposition to rally, helped by strength of bar silver. United States Smelting and International Silver each gained 2 points, and American Smelting and Dome were up a point. Oils and rails were fairly steady. American Telephone and Allied Chemical, however lost a couple of points, and issues off a point or so included United States Steel, Johns-Manville, Western Union, Case and Sears-Roebuck, while fractional recessions appeared in Bethlehem, General Motors, Goodyear, National Distillers and others.

President Roosevelt's refusal to accept the farm state governors price fixing program as impracticable encouraged inflationists in Wall street, since they felt that agitation for more drastic monetary measures would result. Nevertheless, despite the constantly rising gold price, Wall street generally was in a fog as to inflation and markets failed to reflect expectation of it.

Bullish quarters pointed to the vast expansion of credit possible in view of the condition of the big banks both here and abroad, the huge increase in the monetary gold base which would result from stabilization of the dollar on a depreciated level, and the eventual return of foreign funds to this center, but the prospect of possible inflation, through credit or monetary measures or both, was too confusing for Wall street to make any very definite decisions.

GOLD UP 17c, SILVER 3/4c

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—The Reconstruction Finance Corporation announced it will pay $32.84 an ounce for today's purchases of newly-mined domestic gold. This compares with $32.67 on Saturday.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—Handy and Harman quote silver, New York, 41½ cents an ounce, up ¾c.

LONDON, Nov. 6.—(AP.)—Bar gold declined 6½ pense to 131s 10d. (U. S. Equivalent $32.07 on basis of sterling opening at $4.86½).

GRAIN ADVANCE LED BY CORN

CHICAGO, Nov. 6.—Corn led grain prices upward today after downturns at the start. There was no real material selling pressure in evidence, and commission houses were moderate buyers. Opening unchanged to 1¾ lower, corn subsequently rose all around. Wheat started ½-1 cent down, and later recovered.

A rise of about a cent a bushel in corn values compared with Saturday's finish took place in short order.

Wheat at times went above Saturday's close, but advances were not maintained, and wheat setbacks served as a drag on corn and oats.

The following quotations on the Chicago Board of Trade are reported by A. E. Masten & Co.:

	Open.	High	Low.	Close	Saturday.
WHEAT
Dec.	86⅝	87	85¾	86¾	87¼
May	87¼	88	86¾	87½	88¼
July	87¼	88	86¾	86⅞	87¾
CORN
Dec.	45¼	47½	45¼	46½	47
May	52	52½	51⅝	52¼	53⅛
July	53¼	54½	53¼	53¾	53½
OATS
Dec.	34½	35	33⅝	35⅞	34½
May	37½	38	36⅝	36¾	37⅜
July	36½	37½	35½	35¾	36
RYE
Dec.	57	57	55	55	57
LARD
Dec.	5.35	5.45	5.30	5.30	5.27

DIVIDEND NEWS

Mountain-Gulf Oil.

Mountain and Gulf Oil declared a dividend of 25 cents a share, payable December 10 to record of November 20. The dividend is payable out of earnings in past years and partly out of surplus.

* * *

Sterling Products.

Sterling Products, Inc., declared a quarterly dividend of 95 cents a share payable December 1 to record of November 15. This is the first dividend since dissolution of Drug Inc., of which Sterling was a part.

* * *

Oahu Sugar Extra.

Oahu Sugar Company, Ltd., declared an extra dividend of 30 cents in addition to the regular monthly disbursement of 5 cents, both payable November 15 to record of November 6. This is the third extra of 30 cents a share declared this year.

* * *

Jantzen Mills Raised.

Jantzen Knitting Mills has declared a dividend of $1.75 on the preferred stock, payable December 1 to record of November 25. In two previous quarters the company paid 50c each.

* * *

Regular on Indiana.

Standard Oil Company of Indiana declared the regular quarterly 25 cents dividend payable December 15 to record of November 15.

CHAIN STORE SALES

W. T. Grant Company—	1933	1932
October	$ 7,112,547	$ 6,961,901
Ten months	58,294,936	55,00 429
F. W. Woolworth Company—	1933	1932
October	$ 22,031,919	$ 22,173,210
Ten months	192,521,818	196,574,070
G. C. Murphy Company—
October	$ 1,393,611	$ 1,620,267
Ten months	16,277,750	14,079,720

U. S. Treasury.

November 3

Internal revenue	$ 9,997,969.99
Customs receipts	4,179,871.74
Balance	1,359,396,001.39

NEW YORK CLOSE WITH NET CHANGES

‡Indicates actual number of shares sold. All other sales figures are in hundreds of shares (00 omitted). Closing prices in this table Year's high and low corrected to the previous close. (Volume of sales computed to 2:00 p. m.)

Ticker reported "close" at 3:06 P. M.

—A A A—

1933 High	Low	Stocks and Rate	An Div $	Sales	High	Low	Close	Net Chge
13¾	3	Adams Express..		8	8½	7½	7⅝—	⅝
21⅝	8	Adams Mills 1..		2	17⅛	17	17⅛—	½
12½	5½	Addressu-Mult ...		1	8	8	8 —	⅛
11¾	5⅝	Affiliate Prod 1.20		1	7⅛	7⅛	7⅛—	⅛
112	47½	Air Reduction 3..		1	100½	100¼	100¼+	1¼
33	11¾	Alaska Juneau...		75	25⅝	25	25½+	¼
8¾	⅛	Allegheny Corp..		2	3¼	3½	3⅝—	¼
21⅛	1	Allegy C of ww.		1	7½	7½	7½+	¼
145⅛	103⅝	Allied Ch & D 6..		6	133	131¼	132	2¼
125	115	Allied Ch&D pf 7..		1	122¾	122¾	122¾—	¾
26⅝	9	Alls Chalmers...		12	18¼	17¼	18¼+	⅛
9¼	⅝	Amat Leather....		1	4¾	4¾	4¾	0
47	18½	Amerada Corp 2.		1	43¼	43¼	43¼+	½
35	1¼	Am Ag Chem Del		1	23½	23½	23½—	1
28½	8	Am Bank Note....		1	12¾	12¾	12¾—	⅜
16¾	1	Am Beet Sugar..		2	9½	9	9 —	1
98¼	49½	Am Can 4.....		14	89½	88½	88½—	1¼
134	112	Am Can pf 7....		1	122½	122	122½	5½
39¾	6¼	Am Car & Fdy..		3	22⅞	22⅜	22⅜—	1¼
31½	3½	Am Chain pf.....		1	16½	16½	16½	....
51¾	34	Am Chicle 3b....		1	44¾	44¾	44¾—	⅛
89⅜	13	Am Com Alcohol.		21	53⅛	51½	52 —	½
19⅜	3⅜	Am & For Pow..		5	8¾	8½	8½—	⅛
44⅞	7¼	Am & For Pw pf		8	20¼	19½	19¾+	⅜
55⅞	6½	Am&For P 6% pf		1	14	14	14	0
27¾	4⅜	Am&For P 2d pf.		2	11	11	11	0
21⅛	4¼	Am H&W Steam 1		3	17¾	16¾	17	0
17⅛	3¾	Am Ice.....		1	8	7¾	7⅞ —	⅛
15⅛	4¼	Am International.		5	8¼	8	8	0
3⅛	⅛	Am La-France....		1	⅞	⅞	⅛	0
39⅛	5½	Am Locomotive..		4	26	25½	26	0
16⅞	8¼	Am Mch&Fdy Co.		4	14⅝	14¼	14⅜—	⅜
23⅜	3¼	Am Metal		16	19¾	18¾	19¼+	¼
72	15½	Am Metal 6% pf.		.....	75	75	75	3
19¾	4	Am Pow & Lt....		5	7⅞	7⅞	7⅞—	⅛
35	9	Am P&L 5% pf1¼		1	16	16	16 —	½
19	4⅝	Am Rad&St San.		14	12¾	12⅜	12½—	¼
31½	5⅜	Am Roll Mill....		3	16	15⅝	16	0
4½	⅛	Am Ship & Com.		3	1¼	1⅛	1¼+	⅛
62½	19⅜	Am Smelt & R..		20	46⅞	44½	45⅞+	1¼
51¼	32½	Am Snuff 3½b...		2	49	49	49	0
27	4⅜	Am Steel Fdry....		.....	18	18	18	0
74	21½	Am Sug Ref 2..		3	55	54½	54½—	1
112¾	80	Am Sug R pf 7.		2	105¾	104⅞	105¾+	⅛
134⅜	86½	Am Tel & Tel 9..		29	113¾	112½	113⅜—	1½
99½	49	Am Tob 5.....		3	73	72	73	+1¼
94⅜	50⅜	Am Tob B 5....		14	74½	72½	74¼+	¼
120	102⅜	Am Tob pf 6....		3	110½	110½	110½—	1½
43¼	10½	Am W Works 1.		8	19¼	18½	18¾—	½
17	3½	Am Woolen.....		3	11⅞	11¼	11⅞ —	⅛
61⅜	22⅝	Am Woolen pf...		1	58	52	52 —1¾
10⅜	2¼	Am Zinc & Lead.		1	6⅞	6⅞	6⅞+	⅛
22⅜	5	Anaconda Copper		41	14⅝	14⅜	14⅝—	⅛
30¼	8½	Anch Cap Cp .60		1	20¾	20¾	20¾—	¼
9¾	1	A P W Paper....		1	5½	5½	5½.....
29¼	9¾	Archer-D Mid 1..		1	24½	24½	24½—	⅛
90	41	Armour Del pf 7.		3	73	72½	72½+	2½
7⅜	1⅞	Armour of Ill A.		2	3¾	3¾	3¾	0
5	⅝	Armour of Ill B..		7	2½	2¼	2¼—	⅛
93	7	Armour of Ill pf		28	42	40⅜	41½+	1½
47	15	As Dry Gd 2d pf		1	44½	44½	44½	0
80½	34⅜	Atch T & S Fe..		17	50	49	49⅜—	⅝
79¾	50	Atch T&S F pf 3		1	56	56	56 +	¾
59	16½	Atlantic C Lines.		1	32¼	31	31 —1¾
26	4½	Atlantic G & Wi.		1	18	18	18	.....
31½	12⅜	Atlantic Ref 1..		19	29⅛	29⅝	29⅞+	⅛
39⅛	9	Atlas Powder....		1	22¾	22⅛	22¾+	½
30½	1½	Atlas Tack		8	30⅞	30⅞	30⅞+	⅛
84½	31	Auburn Auto 2....		4	39	38½	39	0
16⅜	5½	Aviation Corp ..		14	7⅞	7½	7¾—	⅛

—B B B—

17⅝	3½	Baldwin Locomo.		25	11⅝	11⅛	11½—	⅛
37⅛	8½	Baltimore & Ohio		17	23¾	22	22¾—1
39¼	9½	Baltimore & O pf		4	23¾	23	23½	0
41¼	20	Bangor & Aroos..		3	33⅜	33	33⅜—	⅛
11	3	Barnsdall Corp A		11	8¼	8⅛	8⅛—	⅜
12½	3½	Belding-Heming ..		1	8¾	8½	8½—	⅜
96½	62¼	Belg NR pf 4.09.		1	93½	93½	93½—	⅜
21¾	6⅜	Bendix Aviation..		14	13¼	13	13¼	0
14⅞	13½	Benet Ind L 1.50..		3	14⅛	13⅞	13⅞—	⅛
49¼	10⅛	Bethlehem Steel..		37	30	29	29¼—1
82	25½	Beth St 7% pf..		1	48½	48	48½—	½
54½	9	Bohn Al&Brass 1		3	46	46¼	46 —	⅛
3⅝	1⅝	Borden & Co 1.60		11	22⅞	22⅛	22⅝+	⅛
21½	5½	Borg Warner.....		6	16	15½	15⅝—	⅝
14⅝	2⅜	Briggs Mfg Co....		3	8¾	8½	8½—	⅛
36⅜	20	Bristol Meyers....		2	33½	33¼	33½+	¼
41¼	21⅝	Brooklyn M T....		33	30	27⅞	30 +1⅝
9⅜	3½	Brooklyn & Q T..		1	5⅝	5	5 —	⅛
57⅞	28½	Brown Shoe 3....		1	43¾	43¾	43¾+	¾
12½	2	Bucyrus-Erie		1	6	6	6	0
9⅛	⅝	Budd Mfg Co....		2	5¼	5	5 —	¼
5¾	1	Budd Wheel.....		3	3½	3½	3½	0
13¼	2½	Bullard Co.....		1	6⅝	6¼	6⅝+	⅛
20⅞	6¼	Burroughs AM .40		17	13¾	13	13½	0
4¼	½	Butte Cop & Zinc		1	2⅝	2⅝	2⅝+	⅛
2⅛	1	Butte & Superior.		1	1½	1½	1½	0

—C C C—

2¼	⅝	Callahan Z & L..		1	1	1	1	0
8	2	Calumet & Hecla..		2	4⅞	4⅞	4⅞—	⅛
41½	7½	Canada D G A ..		3	27¼	26⅜	27 —	⅝
20⅛	7½	Canadian Pacific.		26	13	12¾	12⅞—	⅛
103½	30½	Case (J I) Th Ma		18	66¼	64¾	65½—1	⅞
29⅜	5½	Caterpillar Trac..		5	19½	19⅜	19⅜—	⅛
58⅜	4½	Celanese Corp....		25	43½	42½	43 —	½
41	14	Cen Aguirre 1.50.		1	28⅝	28⅝	28⅝—	⅜
44⅜	5½	Cerro de Pasco C		86	37¾	36	37⅜	1⅞
49¼	24⅝	Chesa & O 2.80..		18	40⅛	39½	40 +	⅛
52½	14⅜	Chesapeak Corp 2		1	33½	33½	33½—	⅛
16	1¼	Chi & N West....		4	8	7⅝	7⅞—	⅜
11⅜	1	Chi M & St Paul		4	5⅜	5¼	5¼—	⅛
18¾	1½	Chi M&St Paul pf		8	8¼	8	8⅛	0
12⅜	2¼	Chi Pneumatic T		28	8½	7¾	8½+	⅜
25¾	5½	Chi Pneum T pf.		1	19	19	19	0
10⅜	2	Chi R I & P....		1	4	3¾	3¾—	¼
10	2½	Chi R&P 6% pf		1	5¼	5	5 —	¼
52⅛	27¼	Chrysler Mot .50g		68	41⅜	40⅝	40¾—	¼
25	7½	City Ice & Fuel 2		4	16	15¾	16 —	¼
3⅝	⅛	City Stores.....		36	1⅛	1	1	0
41½	10	Cluett Peabody 1.		3	26	25	26 +2¾
105	43½	Coca Cola 6.....		1	97½	97	97½—	¼
48⅛	41	Coca Cola A 3..		1	48¼	48¼	48¼—	¼
17⅜	3½	Col Fuel & Iron.		2	4¾	4¾	4¾—	⅛
28⅛	9	Colum G & E .50f.		28	12¼	11¼	12⅛—	⅛
83	59	Col Gas&E pf 6		7	60½	55	55 —	5¾
27⅜	6⅜	Col Pictures ctfs.		1	22½	22½	22½+	⅛
19	4	Com Credit.....		2	14⅞	14½	14½—	¼
43½	18	Com Inv Tr 2....		8	33½	32¾	33½	0
97⅜	84	Com In I cvpf 6h		1	89¼	89¼	89¼+	¼
57¼	9	Com Solvent .60.		77	33¾	32¼	33⅜—	½
6⅜	1⅜	Com & South....		48	2⅛	2	2⅛	0
60⅜	21	Com & So pf 6..		2	31	31	31 —	½
27⅜	7⅜	Congoleum-N 1...		4	22½	22½	22½—	½
5¾	1¾	Cons Film		2	3	3	3	0
14¾	5¼	Cons Film pf		5	9⅜	9⅛	9⅛—	⅜
61⅜	38¼	Consol Gas 3....		31	40	39¼	39¾+	⅛
99	83	Consol Gas pf 5		3	84	83⅜	84 +	⅜
15¾	5	Consolidated Oil		40	11½	11¼	11½	0
10⅜	1½	Con RR of Cub pf		1	3	3	3 +	¼
3¼	¼	Consol Textile....		2	1⅛	1	1 —	¼
10¼	1¼	Container Crp A..		.....	7⅛	7	7 —	⅛
4½	¼	Container B.....		1	2½	2⅜	2½+	⅛
69	33½	Cont Can 2.50....		2	64	64	64	0
14⅜	3½	Contin Diamond..		1	8½	8½	8¾+	⅛
36⅜	10⅛	Contin Insur 1.20		3	26¼	25½	25½—	¾
4	1	Contin Motors ..		3	1⅜	1⅜	1⅜ —	⅛
19⅜	4½	Contin Oil		26	17½	17¼	17⅛—	⅜
90⅞	45⅝	Corn Prod Ref 3		13	72¾	71½	72⅜—	⅛
5½	2⅜	Coty Incorp.....		5	3⅝	3½	3½—	¼
59⅜	25	Cream of W 2.40		2	28½	28½	28½	0
65	11¼	Crown C & Seal..		1	33	32	33 —	½
31½	9	Crucible Steel ..		2	17	16⅞	17 —	¼
11½	1¼	Cuban-Am Sugar..		2	4¾	4⅝	4⅝—	⅛
32¼	6½	Curtis Publish...		9	17	16½	17 +	¼
66	30	Curtis Pub pf...		3	42½	42	42 —	⅛
4⅜	1½	Curtiss-W Corp..		9	2¾	2¼	2¼—	⅛
8	2	Curtiss-W Corp A		1	4¾	4¾	4¾	0

—D D D—

49	24⅞	Deere & Co		25	30⅝	29⅝	30⅛—	⅛
93¾	31⅝	Del & Hudson..		5	51	50½	51 —	1⅛
46	11¾	Del Lack & W....		8	23¾	23¼	23½—	½
19⅜	2	Denver RG&W pf		.....	5¾	5¾	5¾	0
29⅜	11½	Diamond Match 1		2	26	26	26	0
31	26⅛	Diamond M pf1½		2	29¼	29	29¼—	⅛
59⅜	12	Dome Mines 1.80b		26	36⅞	35½	36¼—	⅜
26⅜	10½	Donn Stores 1.20		4	20½	20½	20½+	¼
18¼	10¼	Doug Aircraft .75		7	14	13⅛	13⅞—	⅜
14⅜	⅜	Dunhill Internat..		2	9	9	9 —	1
83¾	32½	Du Pont de N 2..		19	78½	77½	77¾—	1
117	97⅜	Du Pont dN deb 6		1	113	112	112 —	½

—E E E—

89⅜	46	Eastman Kodak ..		1	72½	72	72 —	½
16	3½	Eaton Mfg Co .80		1	11	11	11 —	¼
5¼	⅝	Ellimgon Schild..		3	2¾	2⅝	2¾+	⅛
24	5	Ellimgon Schild 1p		1	20¼	20¼	20¼—	⅜
4¼	1	Elec & Mus Ind ..		10	3¾	3⅝	3⅝—	⅛
27⅜	10	Elec Aut-Lite..		6	14⅞	14¼	14⅜—	⅛
8¼	1	Electric Boat.....		4	8¾	8½	8⅝+	⅛
15⅜	1⅜	Elec P & Lt....		31	5⅝	5⅛	5¼—	⅛
18½	7⅜	Elec P & L pf..		17	13	11¾	12¼—	⅜
42⅞	8⅜	Elec P & L 6% pf		3	10¼	9¾	10 —	¼
54	21	Elec Stor Bat		1	39¾	39¾	39¾	0
4	⅛	Elk Horn Coal...		1	⅞	⅞	⅞+	⅛
6	⅝	Elk Horn Coal pf		1	1½	1½	1½	0
47	15⅛	Engineers P S pf..		1	15⅛	15⅛	15⅛—	⅛
49⅜	15	EPS 6% 1 of ww		1	16	16	16 +	½
55	17⅛	Eng P Ser 6½ pf..		1	17⅛	17⅛	17⅛—1
13⅝	6⅜	Equit O Bldg 1...		2	9¼	9	9¼	0
25⅜	3⅜	Erie R R		2	15⅛	15	15⅛	¾

—F F F—

4⅞	⅝	Fed Screw Works		1	1¾	1¾	1¾—	¼
31⅜	9⅝	Firestone I&R 40		2	20	19½	19⅞—	⅜
45	42	Firestone I&R pf6		2	71⅜	71½	71⅝—	⅜
70¾	43	First Nat S 2.50		3	52½	51½	52½—	⅛
23	4⅝	Foster Wheeler...		1	14½	14⅜	14½+	⅛
26¼	13⅝	Fourth N in 1.10		3	19	19	19	0
47¾	16⅛	Freeport Texas ..		3	44⅞	44	44⅝—	⅛

—G G G—

12	2⅝	Gen Am Inv		8	7½	7¼	7½	0
27	4⅜	General Asphalt..		1	14¾	14½	14¾ —	⅛
20⅞	11¼	General Baking 1.		1	13½	13½	13½+	⅛
48⅝	28½	General Cigar 4...		1	28⅝	28⅛	28⅝—	⅜
40⅞	10½	Gen Elec .40....		92	20¼	19⅞	20¼+	½
12⅞	10⅛	Gen Elec Spc .60		7	12⅜	12	12⅛+	⅛
19⅛	21	Gen Foods 1.80..		12	38½	38	38½+	¼
2⅜	⅛	Gen G & Elec A..		3	1	⅞	⅞—	⅛
41	16⅝	Gen Mills A.....		2	63½	63½	63½—	¼
59⅛	19	Gen Motors 1....		106	28½	28	28⅛—	¼

—G G G—

1933 High	Low	Stocks and Rate	An Div $	Sales	High	Low	Close	Net Chge
95	65½	Gen Motors pf 5.		2	86¼	86½	86½+	¼
19¼	2½	Gen Outdoor Adv		4	4½	4	4 —	⅛
8¼	2	Gen Pub Service.		1	3¼	3¼	3¼	0
49½	13¼	Gen Rail Sig 1..		1	29½	29½	29½—	½
4⅝	⅝	Gen Realty & Ut.		4	1⅝	1⅝	1⅝	0
20¼	9⅜	Gillette Saf Raz 1		9	11½	11⅜	11⅜—	⅛
7⅝	⅝	Gimbel Brothers..		1	4¼	4¼	4¼	0
20	3⅜	Glidden Co .25....		3	14⅞	14¾	14¾—	¼
16	3	Gobel Incorp....		2	7⅛	6¾	6¾+	⅜
27⅝	12	Gold Dust 1.20...		5	16¾	16½	16¾—	¼
105	97	Gold Dust pf 6....		2	100	100	100	.....
21½	3	Goodrich Rub....		10	13⅝	13	13 —	½
47½	9¾	Goodyr Tire & R		16	33⅜	32½	32½—	1
80½	27¾	Goodyr T&R 1p 2		3	58	57¾	57¾+	¼
5½	1	Granam Paige Mt		11	2⅝	2½	2⅝+	⅛
15⅝	3⅝	Granby Copper..		6	9½	9½	9½	0
36⅜	20	Grand Union pf 3.		1	23¾	22¾	23¾+	⅛
36⅜	15¾	Grant (WT) Co 1		1	26⅜	26⅛	26⅛—	⅝
16⅝	5½	Gt Nor Ore ctfs.		3	9⅝	9⅝	9⅝—	⅜
33⅞	4⅝	Gt North pf.....		11	18	17⅝	17¾—	¾
40⅛	7	Gt West Sug 2.40.		30	37⅜	37	37⅛—	½
4⅝	⅝	Grigsby Grunow..		3	1¾	1⅝	1⅝—	⅛
4½	¼	Guan Sugar.....		3	1½	1½	1½—	⅛

—H H H—

9½	1⅜	Hahn Dept Store.		2	5	5	5 —	¼
38½	9	Hahn Dept St pf		1	20¼	20¼	20¼—	¾
25½	6¼	Harbison Walker.		5	12	12	12	0
102	69½	Helme (GW) Tb.		1	100	100	100	0
10½	2⅜	Holland Furnace.		2	4¼	4⅝	4¼	0
6⅜	1	Houd-Hersh B....		1	3¼	3¼	3¼	0
4⅝	1⅞	Houston Oil new.		1	4½	4⅜	4⅜—	¼
33	5½	Howe Sound 1....		30	31⅞	30	31¼+	1½
19	6½	Hud & Man.....		3	10⅛	10	10⅛+	⅛
16⅝	3	Hudson Motor...		2	10⅞	10⅛	10⅛—	⅜
7¾	1⅝	Hupp Motor.....		2	3⅜	3⅜	3⅜—	⅛

—I I I—

50⅝	8½	Illinois Central...		14	26¾	26	26 —1¼
82½	24	Indus Rayon 4....		6	72	71½	71½—1¾
78	19⅛	Ingerson R 1.50.		3	54½	53½	53½—	½
9½	2	Inspiration Cop..		6	5½	5¼	5½—	¼
11⅝	6½	Interboro Rap T..		17	10¼	9¼	10 —1¼
12	2⅛	Interlake Iron...		3	5½	5⅛	5⅛—	⅜
10⅝	2⅜	Inter Carriers .20		1	5¼	5	5 —	⅛
40	6½	Internat Cement.		1	32⅜	32	32⅜—	⅜
46	13⅝	Inter Harvest .60		10	37⅞	37¼	37¾—	¼
13⅝	2½	Inter Hydro Elec		3	5½	5½	5½+	¼
22⅜	6¾	Inter Nickel Can		56	20	19½	20 —	⅛
10	⅛	Inter P & P A..		1	3⅜	3⅜	3⅜ —	⅛
5¾	⅛	Inter P & P B..		1	1¼	1¼	1¼—	¼
4	⅛	Inter P & P C..		4	1¼	1½	1½	0
22½	2	Inter P & P pf..		1	9¾	9⅞	9⅞—	⅛
27¾	13⅜	Internat Salt 1.50		8	21½	21½	21½—	1½
59½	9¾	Inter Silver.....		12	41½	38½	41½—	3½
21¾	5⅛	Inter Tel & Tel.		40	12⅝	12¼	12½—	⅛

—J J J—

60⅜	12¼	Johns-Manville Co		14

SCORE LACKING IN MARKET'S 'GRID GAME'

By LEWIS HANEY
Professor of Economics, New York University

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—The stock market has developed into a sort of professional football game, in which no scoring is being done. The most one can say is that the bull team's line is holding, so that the ball has not been pushed back.

The averages at the close Saturday remained practically unchanged from a week ago. The utilities had lost a little. The rails showed some gains. The industrials were hardly altered.

The week's performance may be summed up saying that on Monday there was a break, and that in a last-hour push on Friday there was a mark-up which regained the ground lost.

But this is encouraging to chart readers, since the tops of previous rallies had been getting lower and lower. The ability of the market to come back has resulted in holding the averages above the descending top line of a "triangle."

FURTHER RISE SEEN

Thus there has been a little break through on the up side, which suggests the possibility of a more considerable rise. This should at least indicate caution to the bears.

The markets recent action shows that, while there has been little activity in buying, there also has been little selling pressure. The absence of many issues from trading, and the small total volume, tend to the conclusion the rise may be resumed.

The most active leaders sold off on Saturday, but these furnished but a small part of the total trading and a majority of the issues traded were up. These included most of the rails.

DESCENT CHECKED

A frank and unbiased analysis must lead one to admit the indications are not strong enough to allow any certainty or positive statements. But perhaps it is worthwhile to vote that the bad break a week ago did not produce any "follow through" on the down side and was checked short of the October low.

Also the Friday push up, was equally vigorous, although it, too lacked "follow through."

The suggestion is that the liquidation of stock bought to support the market at the October low was not difficult. At least there is little tendency to press stock for sale on any weakness.

Therefore, always barring unforeseeable "news," it is not unreasonable to assume the moment of the current push may carry the averages at least a point higher before critical resistance is met.

CAUTION NEEDED

Then one should watch market action very closely, if no volume developes on a rising trend, and especially if prices are bid during the day only to fall back at the close, it would be clear the selling would be "better" than the buying. It would show stock still for sale on bulges. A reaction would then follow in due course.

But if these signs should not develop, the averages might be expected to work up to the October highs, which are three-quarter points up.

Aside from market action, there is little to say on the bull side, except that the administration still seems to be committed to the inflationary policy. It is depreciating the dollar in foreign exchange, "pegging" the price of corn, and getting deeper into debt. Government bonds are weak.

BEAR FACTORS

On the bear side, the business news is unfavorable, commodity prices show little response to inflationary moves, and uncertainty prevails. Market strength has depended so largely upon "inflation" that even the discovery that many people still favor "sound money," acts as a bearish factor, especially as to metal stocks.

If we knew what the President will do next, we could make some definite forecast. As things are, all plans must begin with an "if."

But if you take him at his word, and believe he is going to push commodity prices up to the 1926 level or thereabouts, and that the gold buying move is really a "policy" and not an "expedient," you may count on real currency inflation eventually. If he stays put, the "inflation stocks" are still good.

Cross, Pop-Eyed Cow Texas Man's Claim

TYLER, Tex.—(INS.)—A cross-eyed, pop-eyed cow is owned by S. H. Brookshier, of Walnut Grove, community near here, who claims to own the only cross-eyed cow in the world. Other than that, Bossy is a fine specimen of Jersey breed.

Man Kills Adder Fighting House Cat

GREELEY, Col.—(INS.)—Roy Grady went to the aid of a house cat when he found it engaged in a battle to the death with a spreading adder, and dispatched the snake with a spade. He insisted however, that the cat was getting the best of the snake.

10 Women's Wigs, Value $362, Taken

KANSAS CITY, Mo.—(INS.)—A bandit with a yen for tonsorial disguises recently burglarized a hair company here and stole 10 women's wigs. One was a platinum blonde, four ordinary blonde, four brown and one brunette. They were valued at $362.

Dog Keeps Death Watch Beside Pal

CHICAGO.—(INS.)—A wire-haired terrier belonging to Mrs. Ralph H. Norton recently kept a 16-hour vigil of sorrow alongside a departed dog pal whose life had been snuffed out under the wheels of an automobile.

NEW YORK BOND MARKET

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—(AP)—Transactions in the most active bonds on the New York Stock Exchange today were as follows, 000 omitted in sales column. United States bonds in dollars and thirty-seconds or dollars.

UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT BONDS

Sales		High.	Low.	Last.
13	3½s Liberty	102	102	102
28	4½s 1st	107	106	106
49	4½s 1947-52	107	106	106
8	4s 1944-54	107	106	106
4	4s 1944-54	107	106	106
9	4s 1944-54	107	106	106
322	3½s 1943-47	106	106	106
85	4s 1944-54	107	106	106
61	3½s 1946-56	105	105	105
47	3½s 1940 Aug.	106	106	106
154	3½s 1943-47	106	106	106
68	3½s 1941-43	106	106	106
674	3½s 1941	106	106	106
104	3½s 1946-49	106	106	106
87	3½s 1951-55	106	106	106

CORPORATION BONDS

Sales		High.	Low.	Last.
2	A. & Stra. 5½s	93	93	93
5	Alb. & Susq. 4½s	86	86	86
5	Alleghany 5s	44	44	44
8	Do 5s	49	49	49
9	Do 5s	50	50	50
2	Am. & F. P. 5s	26	26	26
5	Am. Ice 5s	53	53	53
2	Am. I. G. Ch. 5½s	49	49	49
21	Am. Metal 5½s	34	34	34
21	Am. Rad. Mill 5s	38	38	38
38	Am. T. & T. 5½s	43	43	43
5	Do cv. 4½s	46	46	46
40	Do 5s	60	60	60
11	Do 5s	65	65	65
10	Do cv. 4½s	39	39	39
4	Do 4s	36	36	36
4	Am. W.W.E. 6s	75	75	75
11	Do 5s	34	34	34
6	Armour Del. 5½s	43	43	43
5	Do 4½s	39	39	39
4	AT&SF 4½s	48	48	48
2	Do cv. 4s	50	50	50
1	Do adj. 4s	35	35	35
5	Do adj. 4s	35	35	35
5	Do 4s	50	50	50
1	Do 4½s	50	50	50
5	A. & L. Line 1st 4s	52	52	52
1	Do 4½s	61	61	61
1	Atl. & Dan. 1st 4s	48	48	48
23	Atl. Rfg. 5s	37	37	37
5	Baldwin L. 5s	40	40	40
27	B. & O. 5½s	66	66	66
18	Do 5s	58	58	58
4	Do 4½s	47	47	47
4	Do 4½s	60	60	60
5	Do 5s	60	60	60
8	Chgo. U. T. 5½s	72	72	72
2	Do 6s	32	32	32
27	Do 6s	66	66	66
2	Int. Cement 5s	48	48	48
1	Int. Gt. N. adj. 6s	52	9	9
1	Do 1st 6s	52	30	30
26	Int. Hyd. Elec. 6s	44	43½	43½
4	Int. Mer. Mar. 6s	41	45	45
2	Int. Paper rfg. 6s	50A	36	36
5	Do cvt. 5s	47A	50	50
1	Int. Pw. C. A. 6½s	47	48	48
17	Int. T. & T. deb. 4½s	52	44	44
29	Iowa Ill. Gas 5s	47	43½	44
2	Inves. Eq. 5s	47	86	86
4	K. C. P. & L. 4½s	61	102	102
6	K. C. South. 5s	50	68	68
4	K. C. Term. 4s	60	91	90½
1	Lehi. V. Coal 5s	44	90	90
5	Len. Val. 4s	2003	45	43
1	Lewis. Inc. 6s	41	84	84
1	Long Isl. deb. 5s	37	97	97
1	Lou. & Ark. 5s	69	43	43
3	Lou. G. & E. 5s	52	93½	93½
4	Lou. & N. 5½s	2003	96	96
1	Ludlum Steel 4½s	41	101	101
5	Do 5s	48	99	99
6	Manati Sug. 7s	57	59	59
1	Manh. Ry. 4s	90	40	40
2	Marion Str. Ry. 6s	47	38	38
2	Market St. Ry. 7s	40	62½	62½
2	Mass. Gas 4½s	51	89	89
2	Mead Corp. 6s	43A	49½	49½
21	Midvale Steel 5½s	36	97	97
1	Minn. E. & I. 5s	31B	71	71
8	Miss. River Pow. 5s	51	93½	93½
1	Mo. Pac. 5s	49	8	8
1	Do 5s	65	7	7
2	Do 5s	78	7½	7½
1	Do 5s	78	7½	7½
1	Do gen. 5s	78	12	12
1	Mont. Pow. 5½s	43A	85	85
14	Nat. Dist. 5½s	48	81½	81½
1	Nat. El. Ma. 4½s	50	87	87
1	Nat. Str. 5s	56	87	87
1	Nev. Cal. El. 5s	56	103½	103½
1	N. Y. Dock 4s	51	70	70
1	N. Y. Edison 5s	44	103½	103½
1	N. Y. L. & W. 5s	37	103	103
1	N. Y. Rys. 5s	65	40	40

CITY'S SHARE BY RAIL LOAN 60 MILLIONS

Conservative estimates today placed Pittsburgh's share of the Federal Public Works Administration's $135,000,000 railroad loan between $50,000,000 and $60,000,000.

Pittsburgh steel mills are declared likely to get approximately $17,000,000 as their probable part of the $51,000,000 government loan for 1,000,000 tons of new rails. In addition to this Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing Company can be counted upon to receive at least two-fifths of the $84,000,00 order for electrification of the Pennsylvania Railroad, according to responsible authorities.

Two years ago, 90 electric locomotives were ordered from Westinghouse by the railroad. Thirty-seven were equipped and delivered, according to Westinghouse officials, leaving 53 still to be made, if the government funds are allotted for that purpose.

The Pennsylvania's electrification program calls for equipment totaling $15,850,000; 132 locomotives, $16,525,000; 7,000 freight cars, $16,000,000; 28 multiple unit cars, $1,087,000; widening of Baltimore tunnel, $2,611,000, and reconstruction of the line at Elkton, Md., $750,000.

A majority of the freight cars will be built at the Pitcairn shops, keeping the hundreds of men employed there throughout the winter months, according to well informed persons in close contact with the railroad.

'RING' PROBERS INDICT TEN

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 6.—(AP.)—The federal grand jury today indicted 10 alleged members of so-called Shleikman-Rosoff liquor ring. It was the jury's second indictment in its investigation of three organizations reputed to dominate the liquor traffic in Philadelphia.

An admitted bootlegger testified in the liquor conspiracy trial that Mervyn B. Turk, of defense counsel, asked $2,000 to "fix" another liquor case. The witness, Charles Schwartz, of Chester, testified Turk told him three county judges and three detectives were to get $1,750 of it.

Turk, who was not in court at the time, asserted Schwartz's statement was "perfectly ridiculous."

Judge George A. Walsh, presiding over the trial, drew the jury's attention to the fact that "there has been no evidence whatever" that Judges Albert Dutton MacDade, W. Roger Fronefield or John M. Broomall "had the slightest knowledge of what Turk said."

Schwartz said he had been told by Jack McClure, cousin of State Senator John J. McClure, that the alleged "protection" organization had approved his operation of a speakeasy in Darby.

WALLACE PLANS FARM TOUR

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—(AP.)—Secretary Wallace will make a swing through the corn belt during the next 10 days to make four speeches which will formally open the farm administration's $500,000,000 corn-hog production control campaign.

He will speak in his home city, Des Moines, Ia., twice next Saturday, and on the following Monday will address representatives of the land grant colleges there. Tuesday evening he will speak at a banquet in Muncie, Ind.

The secretary will appear before the Iowa Legislature by special invitation of Gov. Herring, who returned to Iowa by plane Saturday after conferring with Wallace and President Roosevelt on the Midwest governors' price-fixing farm program.

Asked what he intended to tell farmers of Iowa, the secretary said he was "uncertain."

EX-BEER BARON 'FEARS' REPEAL

CHICAGO, Nov. 6.—(AP.)—Dressed in a startling ensemble of white, green and yellow, Joe Saltis strolled into Judge Matthew Schiller's felony court today and heard a vagrancy charge against him again continued because his lawyer was absent. He said:

"Well, I suppose prohibition will have been clean forgotten when they get around to this case."

Saltis, a former Chicago beer baron, now engaged in farming in Wisconsin, added:

"I'm not afraid of the charges. I'm a farmer, and I work at it."

Saltis wore a brilliant green suit, yellow topcoat and his hat was chalk white.

The state alleges Saltis is a vagrant because he still dabbles in Chicago gangdom.

Salvation Army Heads Meet Here

All day council sessions were being held by Salvation Army officers of 40 Western Pennsylvania branches here today.

The officers will attend a rally at the Salvation Army auditorium tonight, marking the close of the Young People's Congress. Commissioner and Mrs. John McMillan, of New York, will be special speakers.

OBITUARY

Miller Funeral.

Funeral services for Mortimer Miller, 77, retired member of the law firm of Knox and Lee, who died Saturday, were to be held this afternoon in his home, 610 Morewood avenue. Interment was to be private.

Mr. Miller was born in Port Perry, Pa. He was graduated from Princeton in 1879 and attended Ann Arbor law school. He was one of the oldest members of the Duquesne Club, his membership dating from the first year of the organization.

Mr. Miller leaves his wife, a son, Torrence Miller, associated with Kay, Richards & Co., a daughter, Mrs. Roy Arthur Hunt; two brothers, John F. and Joseph T. Miller, and four grandchildren.

Moore Funeral.

Funeral services for Miss Louise M. Moore, who died Saturday, were held at the home of her brother, Dwight E. Moore, 113 Biddle avenue, Wilkinsburg, today.

A native of Avon, N. Y., she was a resident of West Bridgeport, Pa., form any years before making her home with her brother in Wilkinsburg.

She leaves four nieces, Mrs. W. D. Lautman, Jr., and Miss Madeleine Moore, both of Wilkinsburg; Mrs. Joseph Marquis, of Coraopolis, and Mrs. Joseph Greenberg, of Los Angeles. She was a member of the First Presbyterian Church.

Weldon Funeral.

Funeral services for Capt. William I. Weldon, 67, were to be held this afternoon at the Samson funeral home, 537 Neville street. He died Friday in the United States Marine Hospital.

Capt. Weldon was active in river trade more than 40 years. He was born in Racine, O., and had been a resident of Dormont and Duquesne Heights. He was a member of the Mt. Lebanon Methodist Episcopal Church. He leaves a son, Paul R. Weldon, and two daughters, Lucille Weldon and Mrs. Mildred Wedemeyer, of Pittsburgh.

Cooperman Funeral.

Funeral services for Samuel H. Cooperman, 58, who died Saturday at his home, 5414 Beacon street, were to be held at 1 p. m. today from the residence.

Mr. Cooperman had been a furniture dealer in East Liberty 25 years. He leaves his wife, Annie Cooperman; four sons, Abraham, George, Milton and Theodore Cooperman; three sisters, Mrs. Sophie Smith and Sarah Cooperman, both of Pittsburgh, and Mrs. Esther Goldberg, of London, England, and a brother, Isaac Cooperman, also of London.

Greenberg Funeral.

Funeral services for Mrs. Jeanette Greenberg were to be held at her home, 5506 Jackson street, East End, this afternoon. She died at her home yesterday. Mrs. Greenberg was the widow of Israel M. Greenberg, merchant.

She leaves a son, Attorney Albert L. Greenberg, and two daughters, Mrs. Blanche Green and Mrs. Frances Cohen.

Interment was to be in Beth Abraham Cemetery.

Harbison Funeral.

Funeral services for Mrs. Emma J. Harbison, 86, were to be held this afternoon. She died Saturday at her home, 1101 Davis avenue, North Side.

Mrs. Harbison was the widow of Samuel P. Harbison, founder of the Harbison-Walker Refractories, and one of the founders of the McClure Avenue Presbyterian Church.

She leaves two sons, William A., of White Plains, N. Y., and Ralph W. Harbison, of Pittsburgh.

Safford Funeral.

The funeral of Mrs. Anna Craig Safford, widow of James B. Safford, former burgess of Crafton, who died Saturday in her home at 95 Crafton avenue, Crafton, was to be held at 4 p. m. today from the family home.

She leaves a daughter, Miss Anna Laura Safford, at home, and a son, H. Robinson Safford, vice president of the Missouri-Pacific Railroad, at Houston, Tex.

TROOPS GUARD MAN IN COURT

International News Service.

LEESBURG, Va., Nov. 6.—Armed with pistols, riot guns and tear gas bombs, 25 Virginia state troopers today guarded the courthouse as George Crawford, Negro suspect in the Ilsley murders, was brought here to attend a hearing on a motion to quash the indictments against him.

Crawford, charged with the murder of Mrs Agnes Boeing Ilsley and her maid, Mina Buckner, was brought into court under the escort of six heavily armed troopers.

Several times Judge James L. McLemore, of Suffolk, Va., named by Gov. Pollard to conduct the hearing, threatened to clear the room for silence.

Crawford was represented by Charles H. Houston, of the legal faculty of Howard University, a Negro college in Washington.

The battle to save Crawford is based on the fact that there were no Negro members on the grand jury which returned his indictment.

Gas Blast Shatters Room, Babies Sleep On

CLEVELAND.—(INS.)—What is an explosion in the young lives of Richard Tobin, 2, and his sister, Mary Angeline, 5?

When a gas blast rocked an east side apartment building here and sent 35 families scurrying from the building, Richard and Mary slept through the disturbance.

The force of the explosion tore a large hole in the ceiling of their bedroom, showering them with bits of plaster, but it failed to arouse them from dreamland.

FOUR MILLION BACK TO WORK

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—(AP.)—Code control and the President's re-employment agreement were said today by the American Federation of Labor in its November survey of business to have put 4,000,000 back to work.

Of these, it was said that over 1,700,000 were re-employed in the July to September period while industry was declining, workers' total buying power was raised 8 per cent. The statement added:

"This was done by shortening work time by five hours per week through voluntary agreements and raising wages 2 cents per hour.

"Unemployment was still decreasing in October, according to trade union figures, which showed 21.9 per cent of the membership out of work in early October compared to 22.5 in September.

"Retail buying by wage earners has increased, and trade is well above the early part of the year, although higher prices brought a decline in September."

U. S. TO ACCEPT BRITISH SUM

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—(AP.)—The acceptance by the United States of another token payment from Great Britain on its large December 15 war debt installment is expected to be announced in an administration statement today or tomorrow.

This intimation was forthcoming today from authoritative quarters, along with word that the probable terms of the token payment would be the same as England made on her June 15 installment.

The United States then received 10 per cent of the amount due, approximately $11,000,000, all in silver at 50 cents an ounce.

The official communique is expected to reflect the failure of the Anglo-American debt negotiations, which have been in progress here for weeks past.

Indications have been given at the State Department that conversations might begin this week with Finland and Czechoslovakia, the other two nations that have requested a debt hearing.

Silk Strikers Told To Return as Test

ALLENTOWN, Pa., Nov. 6—(AP.)—In a "test of good faith of the manufacturers," leaders of the American Federation of Silk Workers have advised striking employes to return to their machines tomorrow.

Having failed to learn from most of the manufacturers their attitude toward the National Labor Board's suggestion that weavers be paid a basic wage of $25 a week and other workers proportionately, union leaders decided on the test.

Death Notices 1

BERNER Sunday, at 6 a. m. HENRY L., husband of Anna Dietrich Berner. Funeral on Wednesday, November 8, at 8:30 a. m., from his home, 1812 Rialto street, Troy Hill. Requiem mass in Most Holy Name Church at 9 o'clock.

BOGGS Saturday, November 4, 1933, at 9:30 p. m. ISABELLA GRIER, beloved wife of Frank Boggs. Funeral services at her late residence, 920 Gerrard street, Wednesday at 1:30 p. m. Friends are invited.

ENNIS Saturday evening, November 4, GEORGE P. ENNIS. Funeral from his late home, 7336 Kelly street, Homewood. Survived by two sisters, Anna M. and Mrs. Margaret Simms, and one brother, Thomas. Funeral services Tuesday at 9:30 o'clock. Friends invited.

GEITMAN Monday, November 6, 1933, at 7:30 a. m. PHILIP GEITMAN, in his 70th year, beloved husband of Mary (nee Herring), loving father of Mrs. Charlotte Geitman, Mrs. E. J. Land and Wilbur Geitman, of Altoona, Pa., at his home, 339 South Aiken avenue, East End. Notice of funeral later.

HUDDART Saturday, November 4, 1933, at 1 p. m. JOSEPH HUDDART, beloved husband of Martha Parry Huddart, in his 62nd year. Funeral services at the family home, 2750 Todd avenue, Banksville, Pittsburgh, Pa., on Tuesday, November 7, at 2 p. m. Friends invited.

KONOLD Monday morning, November 6, 1933, at 10:40 o'clock, WILLIAM F. KONOLD, husband of Mathilda Schmitt and father of Mrs. Selma Illingworth. Funeral from his late residence, 1047 Evergreen avenue, Millvale. Time announced later.

LEIX Monday, November 6, 1933, at 2:40 a. m. GEORGE J., aged 56 years, husband of Harriet Marie Leix. Funeral from his late residence, 830 Norwood avenue, North Avalon, Pa., Wednesday at 9:30 a. m. Solemn high mass of requiem at the Church of the Assumption, Bellevue, at 10 a. m. Members of Bellevue Council, No. 1400, K. of C. and friends invited.

McCARTHY Monday, November 6, 1933, at 2:30 a. m. JOHANNAH O'BRIEN McCARTHY, wife of Thomas B. McCarthy, mother of Mrs. Martin McGeough, Mrs. Leonard Krausch, Dorothy, Thomas and John McCarthy, at her residence, 1801 Letsche street, Carrick. Funeral Thursday, November 9, at 8:15 a. m. Solemn high mass of requiem at St. Basil's Church at 9 a. m. Friends and members of Branch 1059, L. C. B. A., are invited.

MILLER MORTIMER, on Saturday, November 4, 1933, at 7:30 p. m., husband of Rachel McMasters Miller. Funeral services at his late residence, 610 Morewood avenue, Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Interment private. Please omit flowers.

PORTER Saturday, November 4, 1933, at 10:30 p. m. WILLIAM J. PORTER, Jr., beloved husband of Mae Kennedy Porter. Funeral services at his late residence, 6004 Almeda street, Wasbington, on Monday evening, November 6, at 8 o'clock. Friends are invited. Interment Tuesday, at 2 p. m.

PROBST Monday, November 6, 1933, at 8:45 a. m. ARTHUR G. PROBST, beloved husband of Lotta A. Rentes Probst, aged 37 years. Funeral services at the family home, 439 Mapleton avenue, Mt. Lebanon, Wednesday, November 8, at 2:30 p. m. Friends invited.

ROBERTS-MAHER At her residence, 362 Reeder street, Saturday, November 4, at 4:15 p. m. MARY MAHER, widow of Henry Roberts. Funeral from the funeral home of John A. Fitzsimons, 5506 Fifth avenue, Wednesday, November 8, at 8:30 a. m. High mass of requiem at St. Agnes R. C. church at 9 a. m.

SAFFORD Saturday, November 4, 1933, at 12:50 noon ANNA CRAIG SAFFORD, widow of James B. Safford and mother of H. Robinson Safford, Homewood, Tex., and Miss Anna Laura Safford, of Crafton, Pa., at her late residence, 95 Crafton avenue, Crafton, Pa. Funeral services Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

SALISBURY Monday, November 6, 1933, at 6:40 a. m. JOHN T., husband of the late Sarah Davis Salisbury, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Roy Ziegler, 1252 Selma street, Scaife Hall. Funeral Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Services to be held at the Church of the Redeemer, 5700 Forbes street, at 2:30 p. m.

SCULLY Monday, November 6, 1933, MARY JANE SCULLY, nee Farrell, wife of the late Bernard Scully. Funeral from her late residence, 115 Orchard street, Knoxville, Friday, at 8:30 a. m. Solemn high mass of requiem at St. Catherine's church at 9 o'clock. Friends invited. Take car 41.

UHINGER Suddenly, on Saturday, November 4, 1933, at 9:30 a. m. FRED C. UHINGER, Sr., husband of the late Catherine Wingerson Uhinger, and father of Mrs. Elizabeth Carey, Mrs. Minnie Conners, Mrs. Catherine Lemrie, Fred C., Jr., Helen, Colette and Clara Uhinger. Funeral from his late residence, 1507

Death Notices 1

Beaver avenue, North Side, on Wednesday, November 8, at 8:30 a. m. Solemn requiem high mass at St. Joseph's R. C. Church, Liverpool street, at 9 a. m. Holy Name Society, Allegheny Council, No. 435, R. A., and friends are invited.

WHITE Sunday afternoon, November 5, at 1:30 o'clock, JEANNETTE ESTELLE, daughter of Charles and Yetta Hirsch White. Services at her parents' home, 5711 Roosevelt street, Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Friends invited.

ZOOK Friday, November 3, 1933, at 10:45 p. m., ESELLA E. ZOOK (nee Burns). Funeral from her late residence, 1708 Franklin street, North Side, on Tuesday, November 7, at 8:30 a. m. Requiem mass at St. Joseph's R. C. Church, Liverpool street, at 9 a. m. Friends invited.

ALLEGHENY COUNTY MEMORIAL PARK INFORMATION PHONE ATLANTIC 9847.

MOUNT ROYAL MAUSOLEUM
Entombment space available. AT 3629.

Funeral Directors 1-D

FUNERALS COMPLETE
FROM $100 UP
Grime & Blair
4112 Main St. Schenley 3000

Lost and Found 2

DOG—Black Scottie, female, 3 mos. old, lost Sat. aft., Sq. Hill; reward. SC 2448.

DOG—Part airedale and police, male, answ. "Skippy," Shadyside Dist.; rwd. MA 8536.

DOG—Boston bull, male, lost Hazelwood; reward. HA 5648. 5262 Second ave.

LOST—Dark brown briefcase Sunday evening, $25 reward. Return to "Desk," Sun Tele. No questions asked.

PEARL necklace, 117 pearls, diamond clasp, lost between Sq. Hill dis. and Schenley Apts.; liberal reward. Mayflower 0329.

PEKINGESE, Lost, Devonshire-Morewood-Center ave. dist. Reward. MA 1740.

RACCOON coat lost Saturday evening in Wilkinsburg; reward. Montrose 1818.

WRIST watch, lady's, "Armella," Sat., nr. Club Mirador; reward. CA 1420-J.

FOUND ON STREET CARS AND BUSES
WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 1.
Cigaret case, route 54-77.
Purse, route 70.
THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 2.
Earrings, route 88.
Glasses, route 38.
FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 3.
Purse, route 75.
Money, route 75.
Hosiery, route 67.
Purse, route 88.
SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 4.
Pin, route 2.
Wallet, route 81.
Purse, route 44.
Information concerning these articles may be had by calling Pittsburgh Railways Company Lost Department, Grant 7450. Ask for Extension 148.

Personals 3

COLVIN APPLIANCE CO.
301 Forty-Sixth Court 0470
WASHER REPAIRS PARTS
WRINGER ROLLS

CASH FOR OLD GOLD, silver, diamonds. COOPER GOLD REFINING CO., 317 CLARK BLDG. AT 5616.

DIVORCES IN MEXICO—10 days; free information. International Law Office, 411 1st National Bank Bldg., El Paso, Tex.

SKIN DISORDERS treated and all facial blemishes removed. Dr. Helen Ott Nixon Bldg., Atlantic 1194. (Licensed.)

PROHOXOL, for Psoriasis, other skin disorders. Reduced price. Write to Maxton Laboratories, Canton, O.

PIGMENTO vibratory nail glow and violet ray, Inc. appl. $1; reg. $2.50. Sun. 1-7. AT 5559.

FREE MARCELS—Maison-Felix Beauty School, 202 Sixth Theater Bldg.

MANICURING LICENSED OPERATOR. MAYFLOWER 6294.

Male Help Wanted 4

COSMETIC SALES MANAGER.
Woman over 28 to organize and manage sales force and sell cosmetics for nationally known firm in Pittsburgh; also openings available in McKeesport and surrounding territory. Must have car and be able to devote full time. Exceptional opportunity. No investment. Write for personal interview, Box M 207, Sun-Telegraph.

THE J. R. WATKINS CO.
Can use 3 men for food routes in McKeesport, Rankin and Crafton; prefer men over 30 years, living in these localities; sales experience not necessary, training starts immediately. Apply 5407 Penn ave.

WANTED—Coal salesmen in all districts. Schenley 6344.

WE WANT four high-class men of neat appearance, with cars, who are capable of qualifying for executive positions. If you are not over 35, and are looking for something really worthwhile, see Mr. Phipps, Hotel Pittsburgher, Monday or Tuesday, 10 to 12, 1 to 4.

Male Help Instruction 4-A

WANTED — Names men-women, 18-50, wishing govt. jobs; $105-$175 month; many exams.; 25 coached free. Write today for full particulars. W 208, Sun-Tele.

Male Help Special 5

CORRESPONDENCE school salesman—Excellent opp. for exp. hard-working man; liberal commissions; Pittsburgh territory; must have auto. E. S. Smith, Federal Schools, Inc., Minneapolis, Minn.

Female Help Wanted 6

GIRL, white, experienced housework. 6381 Douglas st., Hazel 7241.

OFFICE assistant, part time work, high school or college graduate, write briefly, age, education. Box M 155, Sun-Tele.

WHITE woman, reliable, capable and educated, to assist mother in raising 2 children. Write J 111, Sun-Telegraph.

WHITE girl, general housework, small family. HA 3280-J. 160 beechwood n.s.

WOMAN
Manufacturer of kindergarten equipment desires the services of woman 25 to 40 years. Educated and refined, who can meet people easily. Can earn $3,000 first year. Must be free to leave city. Give references and phone. Write N 62 Sun-Telegraph.

WOMAN over 30, intelligent, active, good health, hosts, 9 to 5, must have good appearance. Call for appointment. AT lantic 2678.

Female Help Special 7

MAXICURE FREE
Tuesday, Nov. 7, 10 a. m. to 4 p. m.
417 Penn ave., Second Floor.

Work Wanted 10

CARPET and linoleum laid, new wk measured, sewed and laid, remodeling a specialty; estimates furn. Penhurst 7198.

COLORED chauffeur will work for room and board. HA 5897.

CURTAINS, Made to order, including materials, $1 pair. CH 3225.

Cleaned & glazed, $3.50 up. 14 cts. sq. ft. Jackets made from old. 14 cts. sq. ft. coats, $19.50; gtd. LO 2403-J.

HAULING. Light truck for hire by hr., day or week. Low rates. Fairfax 4216.

JAZZ Piano 10 lessons, easy method, 50c. Radio artist Teddy Rose, 540 Lost Ohio st., CE 2561.

Paper hang. & varnishing, $2.50 rm. wk. gtd. Nesbit Bros., MA 0645.

Paper — & hanging, plastic paper, $4.50 rm. comp.; wk. gtd. AT 3209.

PAPERHANGER, 10 yrs. exp., 1st class, $2 per room, paper wholesale. CH 4101.

PAPERHANGING, Inc. paper, $4.25 per room; work guaranteed. MA 1257.

PAPERHANGING, $2.50 rm.; trim both sides, 4 c. more. Collins, Hemlock 4317.

PAPERING, $2.25 avge. rm., exc. paper sold, 40 cents piece. Hunter, FE 3011-J.

PIANO MOVING AND HOISTING. WALTER, CEDAR 2628.

PITTSBURGH ASSN. IMP. OF POOR. Free Employment Bureau.

SKILLED MECHANICS, HANDY MEN, Carpenters, Painters, Plumbers, Electricians, etc., Coal Carriers, Housemen, Orderlies, Handy Men, Farmers, Pick and Shovel, etc. Curable dependent family men personally known to us. Help us find these men work. Free Employment Bureau, 428 Duquesne way, Atlantic 418.

25c PIANO class lessons, all grades, jazz 50c; taught in a few easy lessons. F. E. Studio, MO 7193.

Situations Wtd., Female 11

CYCLOMOTIC and press feeder, binder wk., neat, wkr. Box F 28, Sun-Tele.

DAY'S work, cleaning and laundry, experienced lady. Best ref. HI 5962 R.

DAY'S work or wk. at any kind, reliable white woman. CL 0135.

DAY OR WEEK WORK. HI 5197-J.

EXPERIENCED telephone operator needs permanent employment; will consider part time. Write X 207, Sun Telegraph.

EXP. couple desires good cook, chauffeur-houseman; city ref. Atlantic 2787.

GEN. housework, American Protestant girl desires position; adult family. Gen. exp. plain cook. Ref. MO 6094.

LAUNDRESS, 1st class white wk. Tues., Wed., Thurs. MA 3381 after 7 p. m.

Liquor & Drug Treatm't 18-B

IS YOUR HOME being robbed of peace and happiness by "HIS DRINKING"? Proper treatment corrects this. Free information.
SHADYSIDE SANITARIUM,
FORMERLY KEELEY INSTITUTE.
265 Shady Ave. Emerson 9382.

BUSINESS WANTED

INDIVIDUALS AND FIRMS LISTED HERE ARE OFFERING BETTER SERVICE AT REDUCED PRICES.

Beauty Aids

PERMANENT waves, $1.50 and up, includes shampoo and finger wave; other work at bargain prices. Ruth's Beauty Shop, room 602, 339 Fifth ave. AT 0213.

Blinds

BLINDS CLEANED Acme Pro. CH 1910.

BLINDS CLEANED AND TURNED. Lowest prices. 1-day service. Isel ST 2653.

Bowling

MEET and bowl; enjoy spacious lounge. MURRAY-BEACON BOWLING ALLEY, 1916 Murray Ave., Sq. Hill. HA 6099. Reservations for parties invited.

Fur Cleaning and Repairing

FUR coats make a jacket as low as $15; fur jackets cleaned, $2; plain fur coat and lining cleaned, $3.50. FIRTKO, 425 Penn avenue, near Horne's, second floor, opposite Hotel Mayfair.

Furnace Repairing

Furnace Repair
WHOLESALE PRICES ON PARTS.
Cheapest bids on repairs in city. LE 0713.

Mattresses Rebuilt and Renovated

MATTRESSES rebuilt and renovated like new; $3, all work guaranteed. FA 9323.

Old Gold Wanted

CASH FOR OLD GOLD
Bridgework and Silver.
H. & I. GOLD REFINING CO., 515 CLARK BLDG. AT 0621. Federal License P-212.

Parking

PARKING, all day, 10c. Congress st., off Fifth ave. In and out privilege.

Radio Repair

DAILES RADIO HOSPITAL—Comp. service, 50c; work gtd. 1 year. FA 7918.

Water Proofing

WET cellars made dry; perm. guarantee; wall white as snow. Wiggin, CE 2428.

Sale, Business Opportun. 12

BEAUTY shop, mod., good business, low overhead; sac. acct. health. CA 1086.

FOR SALE—DRY CLEANING STORES. With established business in desirable locations in Pittsburgh and vicinities. Inquire at McKeesport Cleaning & Dyeing Co., 2301 Walnut st., McKeesport, Pa.

INSURANCE agency, exclusive rights in Western Penn. Splendid opprty. GR 3355.

PARTNER wanted with $3,000; interest and salary in mfg. business. Write P. O. Box 332, Oakland Station.

RESTAURANT—Bus. inc.; good patronage; sell on acct. of leaving city. SC 8925.

RESTAURANT, modern equip., good business; must sell acct. other bus. HO 2021.

MENTION THE SUN-TELEGRAPH WHEN ANSWERING ADVERTISEMENTS.

Dressmaking 15

DRESSMAKING, coats lined, ladies $2; men's suit, coats, $2; fur coats alt. LI 6736-R.

DRESSMAKING, alterations, remodeling, coats relined, 1st class work. MA 0503.

DRESSES, $3.50; coats relined $2.50; alterations, first class work; ref. ST 1106.

DRESSES, $2.50; coats lined, $2; alterations; first class work. WA 1059-J.

DRESSMAKING, alterations, dresses, coats, furs, hats, very reasonable. EM 0972.

EXCLUSIVE dressmaking & evening gowns. Margaret A. Hickey, 7205 Kelly st.

DRESSMAKING, alterations, linings, draperies, $2.50 pair. CO 1948.

Schools and Instructions 16

PRIVATE TUTORING
524 Federal. Room 606. FA 4455.

ENROLL now in Pittsburgh's first beauty school, Maison Frederic Beauty School, 207 Fifth ave. Atlantic 0884.

ENROLL now, Keller Dressmaking School. Day, eve. classes. Century Bldg. AT 4863.

Moving and Storage 19

MOVING, STORAGE
SHANAHAN
3460 Fifth Ave. 7535 Penn Ave.
Mayflower 7800 Penhurst 7201

Ed Werner Transfer & Storage. Fireproof warehouse. CA 4425.

HASLEY BROS. TRANSFER & STORAGE, LOC., LONG DIST. MOVING. FA 6104.

BLANCK'S Moving, Storage, 6344 Penn ave. Hiland 0166.

WANT return load from Boston, N. Y., C. all way pts. Thos. James, Jr., MA 4174.

MENTION THE SUN-TELEGRAPH WHEN ANSWERING ADVERTISEMENTS.

Moving 19-A

WILL accept salable furniture for moving charge. Belmar Storage. CH 3164.

Coal, Oil and Wood 21

Lump Coal $3.85 Egg Coal $3.70
Black Diamond Coal Co.
LO 1678

ACME COAL & COKE CO.
SPECIAL LOW PRICE THIS WEEK ONLY
SCHENLEY 0441

Domestic Coke $6. MO 6820, HI 1302-J.

LUMP COAL, $4; furnace, $3.75; run of mine, $3.50; early delivery. HI 0216-R.

LUMP COAL, $4. LI 3558-M.

$3.85—Special lump. Furnace, $3.60. Wetzel guaranteed. WE 1183.

AAA Castle Shannon, reg. prices. Also Mac & Mac sizes; lump, $4.25. SV 2758.

$3.50 Run-of-mine, $3. A-1 lump, egg $3.90. Union lots. Hiland 1292.

A A A Best clean furnace nut, $3.25; immed. delivery. SC 7555.

Furn. Egg, $3.50 ton. CE 3331.

NO. 1 BEST lump, $4.10. No. 2 lump $3.90 and $3.75; furnace $3.65. Hiland 2408-M.

COAL—COKE—CORDWOOD
IMM. DELIVERY. PHONE LINDEN 3250.

Good Lump Coal, $3.50. WA 2047-J.

BEST SCREENED LARGE LUMP, $4.50; RUN OF MINE, $3.25. MONTROSE 4224.

AA double-screened lump coal, $4.25 ton, chute or shovel in free. FA 9396.

A-1 BEST CLEAN LUMP $4; EGG, $3.75; FURNACE NUT, $3.25. SC 1212.

WILDWOOD COAL.
Lump, $4.10; egg, $4; furn. $3.40. MO 7645.

E. A. JENKINS & SON. SCHENLEY 2255.

HUNTING DOGS ARE SELLING

Here's plenty of evidence. Each of the following advertisements appearing in the Sun-Telegraph this week sold dogs for cash.

REAL rabbit dog on trial. Fairfax 581.

6 BROKEN RABBIT HOUNDS VERY CHEAP. CALL CARRICK 3329-J.

FOR SALE—Rabbit dog that will hunt. 41 Walnut st., Etna, Pa. Sterling 3171.

3 RABBIT dogs, reasonable. 4137 Viersing, Ingomar. Perrysville 871-J.

HUNTING DOGS
All Kinds—Sold on Trial
Most popular veal. Glenside 551.
Greentree Kennels
R. D. No. 8, Crafton, Pa.

If you have a hunting dog or any other kind of dog for sale, let the Sun-Telegraph readers know about it, or if you want to buy a particular breed of dog and don't know where to get it, call Miss Ross, 5400 Grant. She knows.

NOW IT'S
THE SUN-TELEGRAPH
FOR BEST WANT-AD RESULTS

FOR RENT Furnished Rooms 30

DORMONT—2nd fl. rm., nr. bath, h. w. ht., fire pl., conv. location. LE 0763.

DORMONT Room, adult home, gentleman; unlim. phone, nr. cars. $4. LE 3072.

DORMONT—Large room next bath, newly furn., ½ block cars. LO 2373-J.

E. E.—709 College—Well furn. warm, $4; near cars; garage opt. MO 4827.

FURN. OR UNFURN. ROOMS FOR LIGHT HOUSEKEEPING, E. E. DIST.; RENT REASONABLE. MA 1809.

IF YOU do not find what you want in this column phone Rental Service, Grant 5400, for additional listing of furnished rooms.

McKEE Pl. 241—Nr. Forbes st., single room, running water, 2nd fl. SC 9059.

PERRYSVILLE Ave. 2619—Comf. rm., adult home gent; h. w. ht.; $4. FA 9909.

PERRYSVILLE ave., 2236—Well furn. front rm.; furnace ht., gar. opt. FA 0177.

MENTION THE SUN-TELEGRAPH WHEN ANSWERING ADVERTISEMENTS.

Unfurnished Rooms 31

HABERMAN ST., 125—3 rms., 1st fl., gas elec., furn. ht., frigidaire, $25. EV 5521.

N. S.—2128 Wilson ave.—3 1st fl. rms., separate meters; private; reduced rent.

N. S.—713 Moravian St.—2 rms., bath, 1st floor, yard, cellar, $15. FA 6072.

PHONE Rental Service, Grant 5400, for additional listing of unfurnished rooms.

Housekeeping Rooms 32

ALDER st., 5962—Bed-liv. rm., kitchen for business girls; other rooms.

BAUM BLVD., 5217—2 lge. rms., dinette, kitch., inst. h. w., frig., gar. MO 2847.

BROOKLINE—2 or 3 rms., ht., gar. included, low rent. LE 6013-J eves.

DORMONT Dist.—2 rms., all conv., priv. home, adults pref., $6. Lehigh 4094-R.

E. E.—5743 Center—Large bed, living rm., kette apt., ht., h. free park., $6.50 wk.

OAKLAND—3 rms., beaut. furn., priv. h., entr., nice loc. HA 7459M bet. 1-4 p. m.

953 W. North Ave., N. S.—2 rms., kitch'te, 1st fl.; 2 rms., all conv., 2d fl.; $5.

WILK., 325 Pitt—3 rms., bath, completely furn., unlim. phone, $30; adults. CH 6074.

Rooms With Meals 33

BEN AVON, 7051 Woodland—Rm., board, priv. home, fr. trains, cars; rear. LI 2780.

MENTION THE SUN-TELEGRAPH WHEN ANSWERING ADVERTISEMENTS.

Apartments Suburban 35

FIRST CLASS 1st fl. apt., conv., heat inc. Gar. opt.; fr. & back pches. LI 1101-W.

WHETHER you have a few suitcases or many rooms of furniture to be moved, you can find some one for the job by consulting today's classification 19 Transfer and Storage.

Apartments, East End 36

PENN AVE., 7227-39
Mod., 6-rm. apt., 2 baths, heat, refrig. fan, serv.; conv. to cars, bus, rear. Sun eves. call EM 0373. Daily, BR 1443.

SHADYSIDE, near 5th—5 or 4-rm. apts., well decorated, frig., janitor. MA 4070.

E. E. DUPLEX, 1ST FLOOR, 4 ROOMS, SUN PARLOR, BATH, $35. MO 6860.

BAUM Blvd., 5217—3 lge. rms. & kette, 2d fl., at ht., priv. ba., gar., reas. MO 2847.

E. E.—Newly decorated mod. 5-room duplex, fine loc., greatly red. BR 1470.

Apartments, South Hills 37

GRANDVIEW AVE., 112, Mt. Washington—4 rms., bath, $25 and $27.50. FOURTH & GRANT REAL ESTATE CO., 304 Berger Bldg. Court 4750.

Mt. Lebanon's Most Beautiful Apartments. FURNISHED OR UNFURNISHED. THE EMBASSY, 230 Beverly Rd. LO 1500.

CARRICK, $30; mod. 4 rms., bath, h. w. htd., dr.-bed, range, linol. h. inc. EV 2834.

BROOKLINE—2 rms., bath, priv. porch, range, ht. heat, gar.; $20. LE 5695-J.

DORMONT, 1129 Wisconsin ave.—5 rms., tile bath, laundry, gar.; reas. LE 4614-M.

DORMONT—1215 Illinois ave., 4 rms., bth., ht., ht. gas included, $35. LE 1327.

MENTION THE SUN-TELEGRAPH WHEN ANSWERING ADVERTISEMENTS.

City, Suburban Houses 39

BEN AVON dup., 4 rs., t. b. fur., frig., gar., $37.50; 7-r. hse., $40. LI 5340-R.

WHETHER you have a few suitcases or many rooms of furniture to be moved, you can find some one for the job by consulting today's classification 19 Transfer and Storage.

East End 40

BARGAIN—East End residence, $85 mo., 10 rms., 3 baths, double gar. EM 1468.

North Side 41

SUPERIOR AVE., 1423—6-5 rms., bath, ref. $30; $22.50 mo. free. Landy, CO 4187.

Furn. Apts. & Houses 45

SQ. HILL—Attractively furnished 8-room home, reasonable to desirable tenants; convenient location Hazel 5299 or write H 100 Sun-Telegraph.

NEELD AVE., 3 rms., pr. bath, prof. wk., heat, near cars, bus; adults. LE 4732-R.

CARRICK, 2704 Brownsville Rd.—2 rms., tile bath, shower, h. w. heat. CA 0894.

BROOKLINE—Lease my home, 5 rms., automatic furnace, garage, 920 Norwich ave.

HOMELIKE furn. apt., 4 and 5 rms., priv. bath, furnace, 10 min. to city. WA 4371-J.

OAKLAND—Attractive mod. comp. furn. 5-rm. house, gar. opt.; reas. JA 0246.

Offices and Desk Room 50

$5.00 MO. Downtown office address, furn. office, $20 mo. Also desk space. Phone calls taken free. 207 Investment Bldg.

MENTION THE SUN-TELEGRAPH WHEN ANSWERING ADVERTISEMENTS.

FOR SALE City & Suburban Houses 60

NEW houses and lots for sale, will build $3,500 up. Frank Steffneger, MI 1389-R. 5-7 p. m.

East End Houses 61

HUSS BROS. Realtors. E. E. properties. 5972 Baum blvd. Montrose 8684.

Lots For Sale 71

BEECHVIEW, cor. Dalmar and Harpershire aves.; lot 30x100, corner. CE 2331.

Sale Farms—Acreage 72

THOMPSON RUN ROAD
5½ acres, level and rolling farm, 7 rms., bath, frame bungalow, new steam heated greenhouse,

The Girl Who Won

By MAY CHRISTIE

(Continued from Saturday.)

CHAPTER XXIV.

Nollie's first impression of Rhoda Vane was that she was beautiful.

Rhoda was tall. There was a certain classic regularity in her features.

She looked as though she'd had lots of money always. She was elegantly dressed.

She wore an enormous picture hat that cast a becoming shadow on her face.

It was of the color known as "egg shell," and her satin cloak was golden.

Indeed, Rhoda looked a golden girl out here in the greenness of this garden.

Her shoes, her gloves, her sweeping chiffon dress, even the roses on her shoulder were all golden.

Gold was the color of her hair, too, which she wore in classic bands and fastened in a knot behind.

Her head was small. So were her feet and hands. Her figure was long and lissome.

Nollie bowed shyly as the introduction between the two girls was made by Mrs. Judson.

Rhoda gave a swift, comprehensive glance at the younger girl's toilette. Her practiced eye could tell the value of that chiffon.

Also of Nollie's shoes and hat. Those eyes for the moment were like gimlets.

She turned her back on Nollie, dismissing her with a nod that was quite insolent.

"Another protege, old thing?" she drawled quite audibly to Mrs. Judson.

"No. A little friend of mine from the—er—country."

YOUTH LIKES NOLLIE

"So?" The vision raised her brows. "Come over by the pergola where I can talk to you privately."

So she carried Jinny off. Nollie, relieved at her departure, continued to play with the nice boy at clock golf.

Presently Nollie, being defeated at the game for she was entirely a novice, they wandered down to a wild rose hedge.

It divided the lawn from the shore which lay below them. The tide was far out.

"Lovely place, isn't it?" said the nice boy. He thought Nollie very pretty. She had such a sweet face.

"Yes. Look at those yachts, like lovely seagulls or white swans." Her eye went waterwards.

"Oh, you like boats, then?" The boy was enthusiastic. "I've one of my own a couple of miles from here. Are you coming tonight to the Yacht Club dance?"

"Oh, I don't think so. I'm motoring with Mrs. Judson towards the north."

His face fell. "I wanted to book some dances now. But it's always the same way. When you meet someone you really like, you lose them before you've even time to get acquainted!"

His tone was earnest. Nollie was amused. At the same time, because he was good-looking, and well-bred, and of this world she had strangely and suddenly stepped into, she was elated.

Why? She asked herself.

Because it meant she wasn't so much like a fish out of water, after all, despite Rhoda Vane's impertinence.

THINKS OF TONY

At the back of her mind was another thought, heart-warming, breath-catching.

If she could interest a nice lad like this who must be run after by a number of girls, she might still have a chance with Tony O'Brien.

"A penny for your thoughts," asked the nice boy, moving nearer to her on the wild rose hedge that divided the shore from the garden.

Her eyes roamed to the graceful yachts that were gliding by, their sails curving in the wind.

"I was thinking how easy life is for some people . . . drifting along in the sunshine."

"For you, you mean. Why shouldn't it be? You're lovely, ornamental."

She smiled at that. "If he only knew the struggle my life had been," thought she, "one long grind of work!"

"Why shouldn't a pretty girl have everything she want?" went on the boy argumentatively. "Just by looking as you do just now, you're fulfilling what a woman was meant to fulfill in this world."

Nollie laughed outright. How young he was, how ingenuous.

"I suppose we all have ambitions—"

He supplemented to her surprise: "And I suppose yours is to make a rich marriage?"

"What?" Under her shady hat her blue eyes widened.

"Well, aren't all pretty girls that way, these days?"

Then he began to question her.

Where had she been hiding herself? Where did she live? Why in thunder hadn't he previously met her anywhere?

"You don't step with Jinny Judson's crowd, and I haven't seen you at all? D'you live in the country?"

"I did. In a little town, that is." Nollie flushed awkwardly.

Oh, why be ashamed of what she'd been? She felt deceitful.

But the boy was soon talking of himself, his new car, his yacht, his speed-boat.

Presently Nollie suggested—as the wind was getting chilly—that they go back into the house.

WIDOW APPROVES

They did, the boy reluctantly, for he had taken a great fancy to this pretty, elusive girl.

In the living room someone was playing the piano, and couples were dancing. Others were playing bridge in the library.

The sun-parlor still contained its devotees of cocktail-drinking. And the butler and a servant were carrying around trays of refreshers.

Mrs. Judson introduced some more people to Nollie. She quite approved that Nollie didn't drink. Although she liked a cocktail herself, she took a kind of reflected pride in Nollie's abstinence.

"We'll have a sort of buffet supper soon. We're going to stay the night right here. Then you and I and the chauffeur will set off on the road early tomorrow morning."

Lamps were lit, and with the guests moving hither and thither the long living room looked charming.

Like a motion picture "set" it was, with many of the women stagily beautiful.

"Come on. I'm going to tell your fortunes," announced a short, dark girl to Nollie's group.

Nollie and some men followed the young "seer" to a crackling fire that had been lit at one end of the room.

"Me first! Oh, PLEASE!" shrilled a high, imperious voice, and Rhoda Vane descended on them. "And please, Shirley, please see a dark, handsome young man in my fortune."

The men laughed easily, chaffing the newcomer. Rhoda Vane thrust Nollie aside, so that she might gain a better place. Nollie knew that Rhoda did not like her.

(Continued Tomorrow.)

(c) 1933, King Features Syndicate, Inc.

Junior Patrol Mail Box appears on another page today.

Synopsis

Nollie Day, stenographer at an exclusive hotel, is befriended by wealthy Mrs. Judson, a widow. Nollie goes to a theater in place of Mrs. Judson, where she meets handsome Tony O'Brien. She reveals her own identity but Tony does not hear her. Next day, Tony telephones and learns Mrs. Judson has gone abroad. Nollie wants to clear her identity, but is unable to get in touch with Tony. Nollie secures a new position as secretary to Jack Brilling, of Galbraith & Co. Miss Galbraith, Brilling's fiancee, is jealous and warns Nollie. Mrs. Judson returns and gives Nollie a letter Tony had written her abroad. They learn that Tony is on vacation. Mrs. Judson asks Nollie to become her secretary and visit her ranch. Nollie accompanies Mrs. Judson to a garden party and meets Rhoda Vane.

Now Go On

The Beauty Box

By HELEN FOLLETT

Concentrate on external loveliness, pretty one, because it pays. But don't overlook the charm of nice manners, tolerance, amiability and friendliness. A nagging wife with a handsome, elegant nose is every bit as hateful and tiresome as the one with an ugly beak. A snob is a snob no matter what she looks like. There's many a girl with the face of an angel and the soul of something else again, and everybody is wise to her, she doesn't get anywhere. There are plain women who are beloved for qualities of charm and fascination that rate higher than carnation cheeks, rosebud lips and ambrosial locks. Beauty is made up of many elements. Go get 'em.

Before the eye tissues start to do a flop and take on creases, use an anti-wrinkle cream. You'll find them in the shops now. If you would prefer your own home-compounded, I'll send for the purpose of thwarting time's mean motives. In the morning bathe the eyes with hot water, then with cold. Dry and put on cream. Yes, maybe it will make the lids shine, and what of it? They're prettier when they look moist and misty, somehow the oiled surface puts a pretty glint in soul lanterns.

JUNIOR PATROL PLEDGE

I promise to help children less fortunate than I am.
I promise to do my best to make my parents proud of me.
I promise to watch carefully when crossing streets and to aid other children in keeping out of danger.
I promise to study hard and do errands willingly.
I promise to be a 100% Junior Patrol member.

Signed .....
Date of Birth ..... Address .....
School .....

Address this pledge to the JUNIOR PATROL, Sun Telegraph, Pittsburgh, Pa. Upon its receipt you will be registered as a member of the JUNIOR PATROL and will be forwarded a membership card and an official emblem.

PICTORIAL EDUCATION FOR SCHOOL PUPILS

Compiled by MARY DE SALARDI for the Pittsburgh Sun-Telegraph

NOVEMBER 6, 1933. (For Section B.)

Approved for Pittsburgh City Schools, Allegheny County Schools and Parish Schools of Pittsburgh Diocese

Courtesy of Carnegie Library.

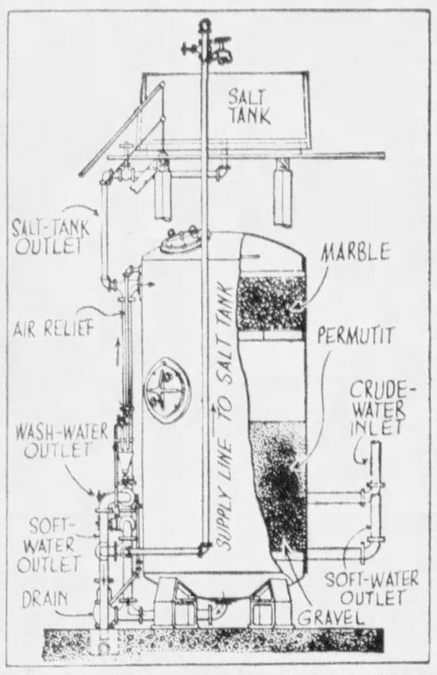
SIGNING DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE

Though fighting the British, many of the colonists clung to loyalty for King George III. An English emigrant, Thomas Paine, pointed out this inconsistency in a pamphlet, "Common Sense," January, 1776, greatly clearing public opinion. On July 2, 1776, almost all members of the Congress passed the solemn resolution, establishing the united colonies as a nation: "The Declaration of Independence." It was proclaimed July 4, 1776. (United States History)

SCHOOLS ARE STRONGHOLDS OF EDUCATION

Wealth, influence, friends may vanish. Education, the systematic training of moral and intellectual faculties, always will bear fruit. It is one's weapon in the ever-raging war against the most cruel enemy: ignorance.

Take your parents to your school! They should see how their most valuable crop is cultivated. (Problems of Democracy)



Courtesy of The MacMillan Co. (Holmes: Introd. College Chem.)

WATER SOFTENING BY ARTIFICIAL ZEOLITES

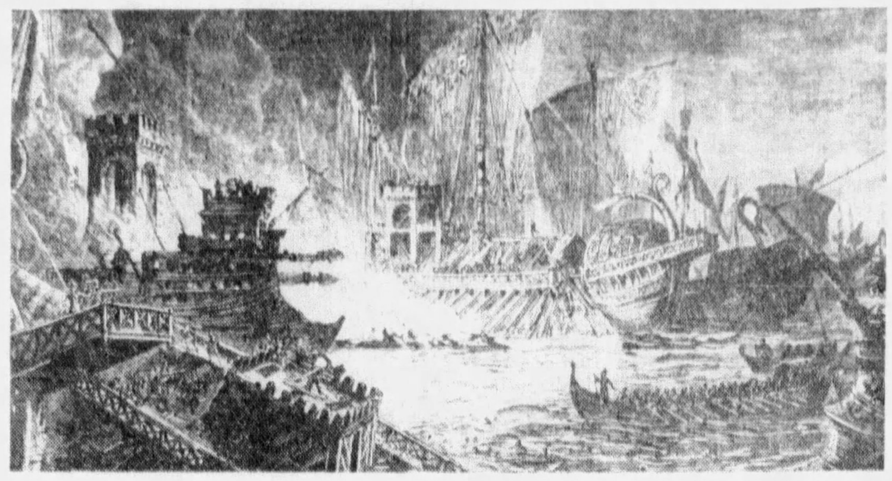
Zeolites are decomposed rock; they are artificially produced by fusing together silica or quartz, alumina or kaolin with carbonate of soda (soda zeolite Na_2O . Al_2O_3 . $5SiO_2$) or with manganese compounds (manganese zeolite).

Artificial zeolites are called also permutit.

Hard water filtering through a zeolite bed will be softened: $Ca(HCO_3)_2 + 2Na$. zeolite $= 2Na\,HCO_3 + Ca$. (zeolite)$_2$.

The Na. zeolite can be regenerated by salt water: Ca. (zeolite)$_2 + 2NaCl = 2Na$. zeolite $+ CaCl_2$. Thus the zeolite can be used 20 years and longer.

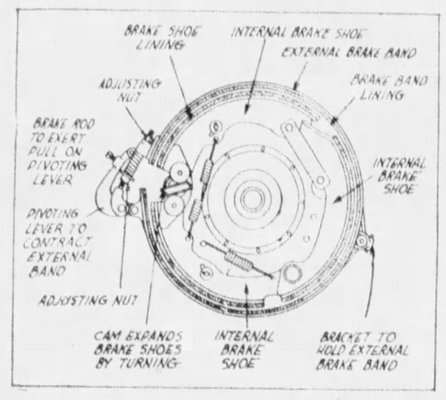
After filtering water through the zeolite bed (above) and thus softening it, salt water is introduced at the top tank, the zeolite regenerated and the softening resumed.



Courtesy of F. R. Nightsch. (Ellis: Story of the Greatest Nation)

OCTAVIANUS DEFEATS ANTONIUS IN THE NAVAL BATTLE AT ACTIUM (31 B. C.)

Assassination of Julius Caesar (44 B. C.) drew Rome again into civil war. Octavian, Antonius and Lepidus formed a triumvirate, defeating the republicans at Philippi, Macedonia, 42 B. C. Dividing the empire, Octavianus ruled in Italy and the West, Antonius in the East and Lepidus, until 36 B. C., in Africa. The dissolute life of Antonius (Mark Anthony) and his passion for Cleopatra, Queen of Egypt, brought conflict with Octavianus, his brother-in-law. At Actium, Antonius was defeated at sea, fled to Cleopatra followed by the victor, who then dispersed the army of the fugitive. Octavianus became sole ruler and, in 27 B. C., received the name Augustus (sacred). What an example of emptiness of titles! During his reign "Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea in the days of Herod the King," and Roman domination. Jesus' life, teachings and crucifixion have profoundly influenced all succeeding generations. (World Hist.)

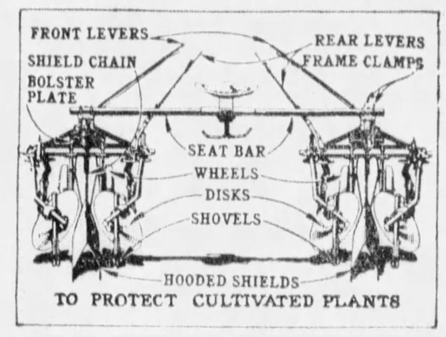


Courtesy of Lincoln Motor Car Co. and Johns Manville Co.

AUTOMOBILE BRAKES (Transportation)

Moving bodies have kinetic energy (proportionate to the square of their speed) to be converted into other kinds of energy in order to stop. Applied brakes convert the kinetic energy of the auto into heat by friction. Auto brakes consist of drums fastened to wheels, brake shoes inside the drums and brake bands outside, arranged so that they can press against drums by the pulling of a hand-lever (emergency brake) or stepping on a pedal (service brake); both are independent. While drums revolve with wheels, brake shoes and bands stand still. Above: Brake (wheel, drum omitted.)

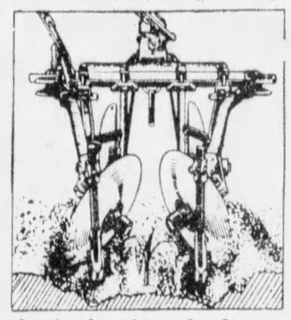
At 10 miles an hour, either brake should stop the car within nine feet. At a speed multiple of 10, stopping distance in feet should not be more than nine times square of speed ratio. E. g., if speed is $2x10 = 20$ miles, stopping distance should not exceed $2x2x9 = 36$ feet, by the same lever or pedal force on hard, level road. The Pennsylvania auto law requires service brake that stops car within 50, emergency brake within 75 feet from speed of 20 miles per hour.



Courtesy of McGraw Hill Book Co. (Smith: Farm Machinery)

TWO-ROW RIDING LISTER CULTIVATOR (General Science)

Cultivating means stirring the soil around the young plant to destroy weeds, loosen mulch, promote retention of rain, bacterial activity and aeration of soil. Cultivators may have shovels, knives or discs and, according to design, are walking, riding, surface or lister cultivators.



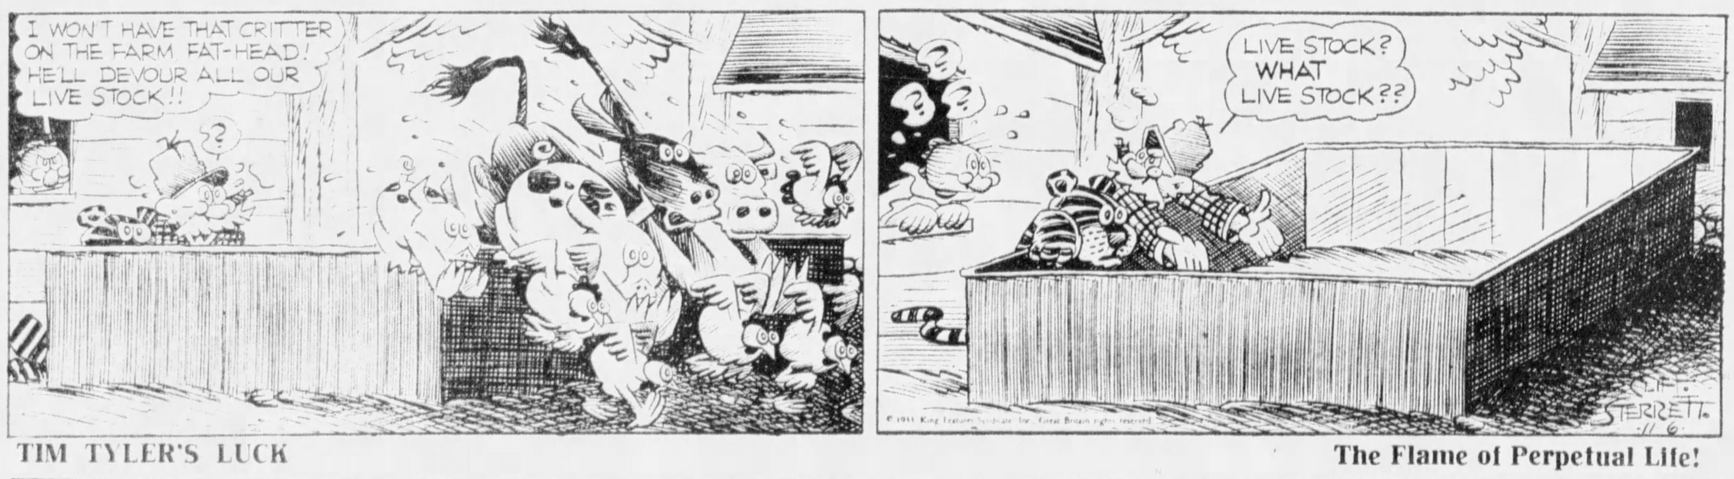
Above: A two-row lister cultivator for crops planted in listed furrow, trench or below ground. Left: First operation. Discs throw ground away from plant protected by shield (not shown); shovels stir edge of trench. In second operation discs are set to throw soil into trench around plant.

THIMBLE THEATER—STARRING POPEYE

POLLY AND HER PALS

Now Showing—"Sweet and Low"

The Deserted Village



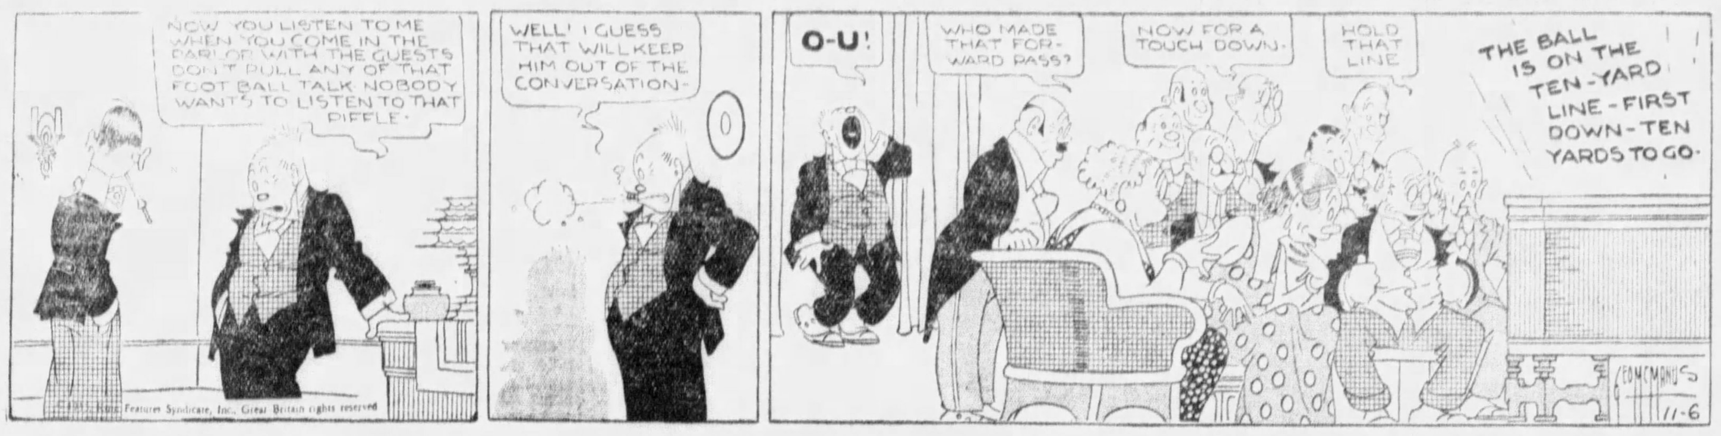
TIM TYLER'S LUCK

The Flame of Perpetual Life!

THE JUNIOR PATROL

Wonder If Junior'll Break Up the Party!

...G UP FATHER



TILLIE THE TOILER

Everybody Interested

MICKEY MOUSE

It's No Message of Joy to Mac

THE NEBBS

They Did That Very Thing!

LITTLE ANNIE ROONEY

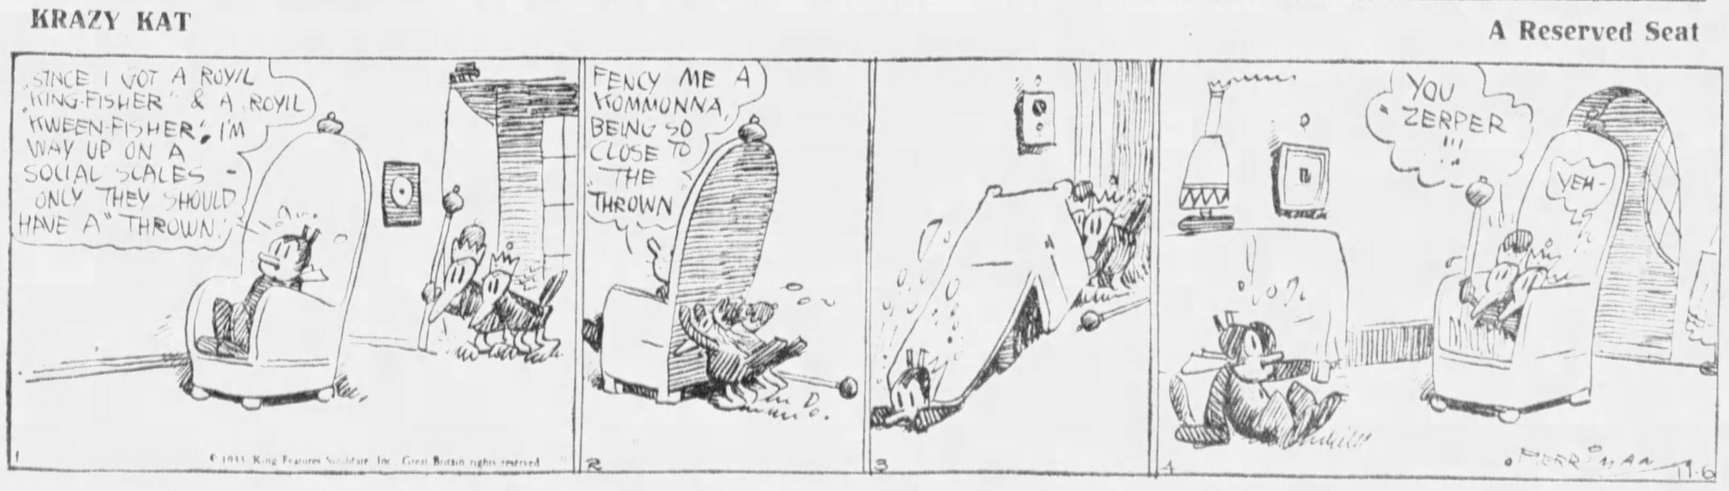
Keeping Down Expenses

THE BUNGLE FAMILY

From Producer to Consumer

KRAZY KAT

On Time



A Reserved Seat

Bugs Baer

The Sippers Are Coming Back

On December sixth the oldtimers will show us how they used to oldtime.

It will be long remembered as a rednose letter day on the calendar. Congress designates it as the official end of tracks for prohibition.

On the evening of the sixth the connivial graybeards will gather at the groaning board and sip the spidery vintages of the fermented past.

They say they will show us new timers how to absorb the bubbling nectar, how to chin the glass and how to hold your cargo. As the sixth falls on a Monday all the oldtimers should fall on a Tuesday.

There is a technique in fingering a long shanked wine glass little known to the modern mob of gulpers, snorters and tosser-offers.

Still, the oldsters know nothing of the thrills and perils established by bootleg elixir. To touch the back of your hand on your damp chin meant a shock of at least 20,000 volts.

You had to stand on a rubber mat, insulate your elbows and take a last, deep breath before you muzzled the corrosive sublimate of denatured third-rail. All we know of the bouquet is that it was made of lilies.

We have watched the connoisseurs of wobble fluid drink their cognac in Paris. They pour the liquid in a large glass. After rubbing the glass with their hands they smell the aroma. In fact, an expert will have his nose in one glass all night. Over here, we prefer our beaks in cellophane. It takes a Frenchman an hour to thumb his glass like Aladdin rubbing the lamp. The next three hours are wasted inhaling the bouquet. By the time he decides to take a sip everything has evaporated in transit.

On this side of the unpalatable ocean they learned to drink in a hurry, pay cash and fall with their faces to the foe.

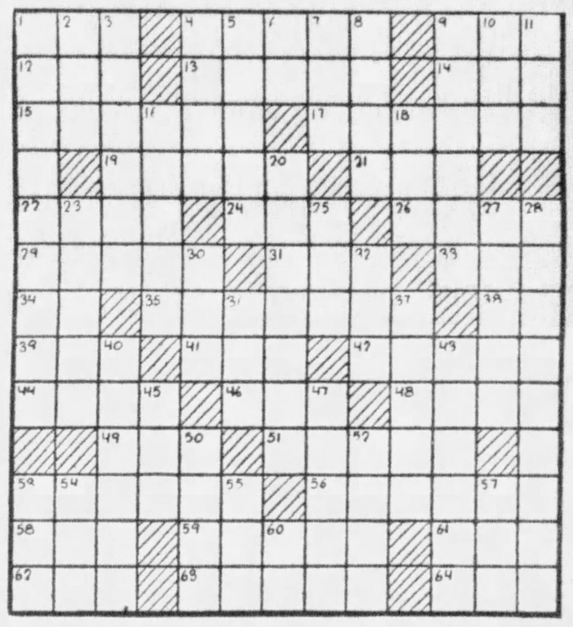
That was because you never knew when the place was going to be raided or the proprietor was going to toss you out.

The tempo of drinking is no more important than a slow fuse or a fast fuse on a charge of dynamite. When it explodes you might as well be driving 60 miles an hour.

Before the evening of the sixth is half over those venerable humming birds will be wishing they had claws like pelicans. They will toss away their soda water straws and grab funnels.

(Copyright, 1933. Distributed by Universal Service, Inc.)

Today's Crossword Puzzle



HORIZONTAL

1—Likely
4—Puts at liberty
9—Prefix meaning before
12—Disfigure
13—Artist's frame
14—Place
15—Small opening
17—Woolly
19—Observes
21—Small child
22—Measurement
24—Stain
26—Cried
29—One-horse spring-cart
31—Cunning
33—Form of address
34—Avoirdupois (abbr.)
35—Snake
38—Musical note
39—Sleep
41—Pastry
42—To join by a mortise
44—Slender
46—Printer's measures
48—Household utensils
49—Brawl
51—Satisfied
53—Harvested
56—A book
58—Dexterity
59—Fruit
61—Household god
62—Tiny
63—Loved ones
64—Printer's measure

VERTICAL

1—Inhabitants of U. S.
2—Compensate
3—Ground excavation
4—Parts of the body
5—Estimated
6—Plural ending
7—Fish
8—Thin, narrow strip of wood
9—Dishes
10—Rodent
11—Organ of sight
16—An Indian blacksmith
18—Present time
20—Orderly combinations
23—Pertaining to the navy
25—Measure of length
27—Guide
28—Conveys from one person to another
30—Knock
32—Besides
36—Bind
37—Repulse
40—Sea bandit
43—A measure of proportion
45—Wipe up
47—Taste
50—Unite.
52—Unit of weight (pl.)
53—In a natural state
54—Before
55—River in Scotland
57—Male
60—Mother

Herewith is the solution to Saturday's puzzle.

O	P	U	S	■	S	O	W	S	■	C	A	P
R	E	S	T	■	E	X	I	T	■	R	I	O
B	R	E	A	S	T	■	G	O	■	A	D	O
■	■	R	E	A	D	■	W	A	V	E	R	■
S	H	A	T	T	E	R	S	■	B	E	■	■
C	E	L	L	O	■	A	E	S	■	N	E	W
U	R	■	E	N	T	I	T	L	E	■	R	E
M	E	T	■	S	U	N	■	A	L	O	N	E
■	■	H	E	■	G	E	S	T	U	R	E	D
G	R	I	M	E	■	D	E	E	D	■	■	■
R	A	N	■	N	O	■	D	R	I	V	E	S
A	R	K	■	D	R	A	G	■	N	I	L	E
Y	E	S	■	S	A	M	E	■	G	E	A	R

(Copyright, 1933, King Features Synd., Inc.)

READ THE SUN-TELEGRAPH

WANT ADS FOR BEST RESULTS

Follow "Inspector Day" in Adventure Plus Mystery—New Cartoon Strip in Next Wednesday's Sun-Telegraph

WHY PITTSBURGH IS GREAT
It Is a City of Churches as Well as of Mills

Pittsburgh Sun-Telegraph

BE A PITTSBURGH BOOSTER
To Your Friends in Other Cities

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 6, 1933

Established 1927, by Pitt Publishing Co., Pittsburgh, Pa. President, William Randolph Hearst. Published by Hearst Consolidated Publications, Inc., Charles E. Hodges, A. W. Clark, Managing Editor. Entered as second class matter at the postoffice at Pittsburgh, Pa.

National advertising representatives, Paul Block and Associates, 247 Park avenue, New York; Palmolive Bldg., Chicago; General Motors Bldg., Detroit; Little Bldg., Boston; Guarantee Trust Bldg., Philadelphia; Russ Bldg., San Francisco; 1151 South Broadway, Los Angeles.

The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use for republication of all news credited to it or not otherwise credited in the paper and also the local news published herein. All rights of publication of special dispatches herein are also reserved.

'Ins' Versus 'Outs'

Strenuous Efforts to Arouse the Voters Meet With Little Success.

A rather dull campaign draws to a close.

Tomorrow the people will elect a Mayor and five Councilmen, seven judges, a Coroner, a Sheriff and other county officials, and will approve or disapprove 12 proposed constitutional amendments, repeal of prohibition and Sunday ball games.

Notwithstanding the importance of the public business involved in the election, the people have refused to become very much excited. There have been some largely attended meetings, to be sure, and plenty of noise; but professional politicians and their followers, we believe, have been responsible for a large part of it.

The apathy may be traced to a widespread feeling that so far as the candidates are concerned no vital issues are involved, that the campaign has been little else but a battle between two organizations of professional politicians, just a contest between the "ins" and the "outs."

Mayor John S. Herron and his Democratic opponent, W. N. McNair, are both, in our opinion, able and intelligent. Herron, of course, has had more experience in municipal affairs. McNair is more progressive in his outlook on various matters.

The personal integrity of both these gentlemen was unquestioned until the last week of the campaign, when the Democrats tried to make Herron's acquisition of a piece of East End property several years ago look suspicious. But they did not present a scintilla of proof, and the insinuation fell rather flat.

Mayor Herron is criticized for being in alliance with Senator James J. Coyne and the Coyne organization. McNair has been criticized, by members of his own party during the primary campaign, for being in alliance with David Lawrence and Joseph Guffey and their organization. Indeed, some of the opponents of McNair in the Democratic primary went so far as to charge that Coyne and Lawrence were in alliance, and pointed, in substantiation, to Coyne's support of Lawrence when the latter ran for County Commissioner several years ago.

These things have tended to make a good many of the voters feel that it does not make a great deal of difference to Pittsburgh which of the two groups is successful.

Herron has the solid support of the Republican organization. McNair has the solid support of the Democratic organization. Both candidates are far from ideal from the independent standpoint.

But many independents will prefer Herron to McNair because they think he has a stronger personality. Herron's election will be looked upon generally as a victory for himself, while the election of McNair will be looked upon as a victory for the Democratic organization.

Some bitter-end independents will vote for McNair because of their hatred of Coyne, disregarding the Senator's previous connections with Lawrence. Others feel the Guffey-Lawrence influence to be too strong for McNair to overcome.

Some feel Herron's election would make the Mayor leader of the Republican party, with the opportunity to be a first-class Mayor, and better able to determine his own course than McNair would be, under Guffey-Lawrence influence.

In the election of Councilmen it is not important that the successful candidates shall be absolutely in harmony with the ideas of either Herron or McNair.

It would be beneficial to the city to have in Council men of the type of John J. Kane and Thomas J. Gallagher, Democratic candidates, whose attitude on social legislation in the Legislature showed them to be forward-looking men, alert for the welfare of the people, and Frank L. Duggan, Republican candidate, who has the capacity for a fine type of public service. Ex-Mayor William A. Magee is, of course, assured of election, being on both tickets.

It is to be borne in mind that there is a sharp difeernce of viewpoint between the Democratic and Republican candidates for Council on several matters. The Democrats, for example, favor a long-term garbage contract, on the ground that it would encourage competitive bidding and reduce the cost of this service; the Republicans prefer to retain the one-year contract.

In the judiciary contests there is no particular issue at stake, except, perhaps, in the election of a judge of the new Juvenile Court.

Charles G. Lane, Jr., the Republican candidate, unquestionably owes his nomination to the Regular Republican organization—a fact which might be of importance in filling the many jobs in the new court.

Gustav L. Schramm, the Democratic candidate, is in a more independent position; for he was given the nomination on the plea of social workers that politicians keep their hands off the Juvenile Court.

Schramm has been indorsed by the majority of the social service organizations as the candidate best fitted for the place. He has special qualifications and special training which Lane lacks.

Of the proposed constitutional amendments those of most importance, in our opinion, are No. 8, authorizing a $25,000,000 bond issue for the relief of the unemployed and the state-aided hospitals and colleges; No. 5, eliminating the tax requirement for voting, and No. 11, authorizing the formation of a Greater Pittsburgh, which will take in all of Allegheny County. All three deserve an affirmative vote.

The Sun-Telegraph favors repeal of prohibition and authorization of Sunday ball games.

Be sure to vote, whatever your attitude on these questions.

Remember that there are four separate ballots; see that you receive all of them.

Gold in Them Thar Shoes

Plenty Of It.

How many Americans leave any money when they die?

Not one out of ten, we imagine.

Most of us, when we shuffle off this mortal coil, haven't enough to see ourselves decently buried.

Relatives have to take care of that—or the county, and among our most sincere mourners are our creditors.

Pietro Ierardi, an American, died last year.

Now the appraisal of his assets reveals that, unlike the majority of Americans, he left his family $121,091.

This is not a vast fortune, but Pietro built it up out of nickels and dimes from shining shoes.

He was a bootblack at Grand Central Station in New York City for many years, and he saved his money.

His gross estate was over $150,000.

He had most of it salted down in 11 different institutions. Also, unlike a lot of his fellow citizens, he had no use for stocks as an investment.

It is not necessary to moralize at length on Pietro's case, but it does draw attention to the old truth that steady plugging and reasonable common sense pay.

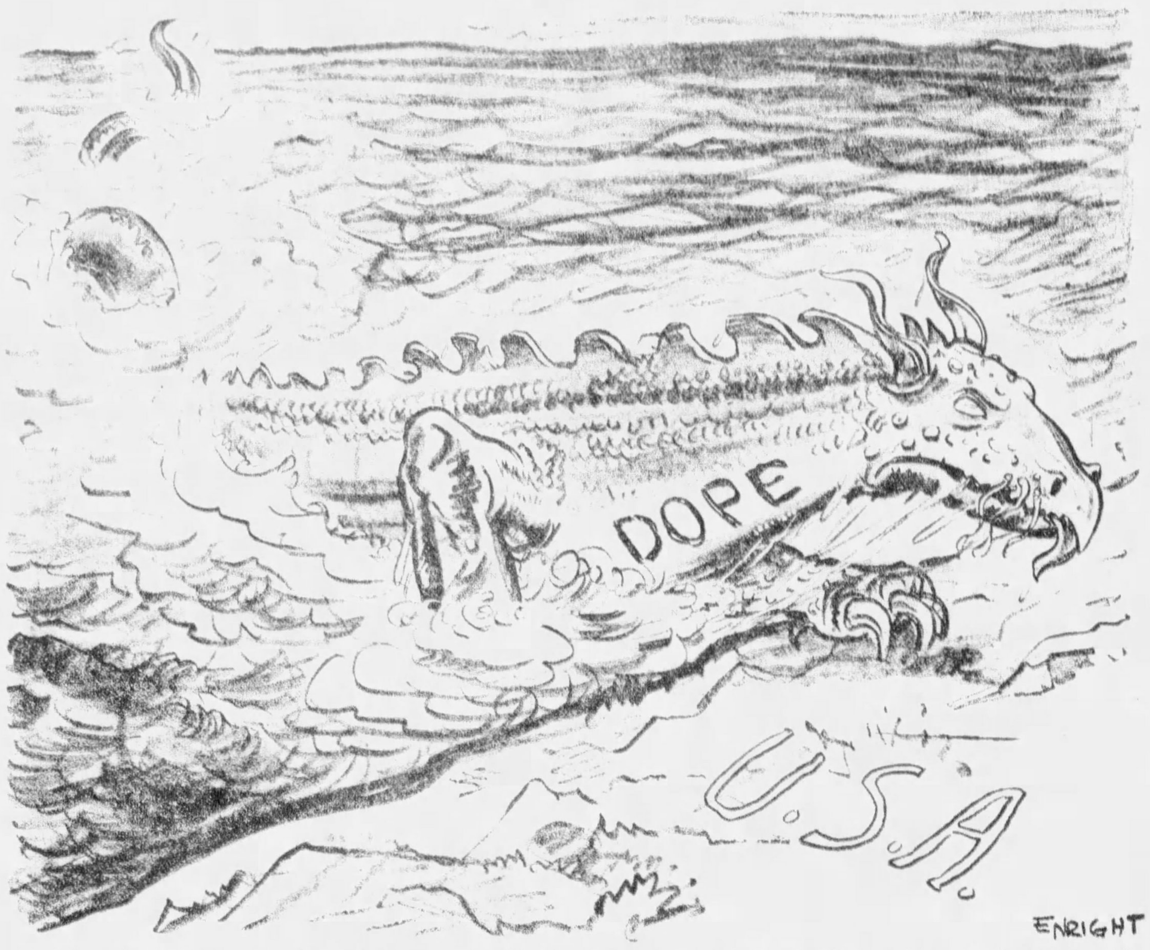
Few persons would see much of a future in bootblacking.

Many persons have thought they saw a future in stock market gambling.

Pietro stuck to bootblacking and let others gamble.

We have an idea that he died happier than many who were "cleverer" than he.

Western Invasion



"For the first time morphine is being smuggled into our Pacific Coast ports from China and Japan!"

That warning, repeated from an editorial in the columns of the New York American, must be heeded at once.

To provide provincial revenues the poppy fields of conquered Jehol are producing narcotic poisons for sale illicitly in the United States.

Cheap Oriental prices for these narcotics mean easy sales to thousands of addicts and thousands of new addicts to be made.

The menace arises at a time when the Federal Narcotics Bureau funds have been so reduced as almost to wreck its work.

If our people are to be protected from the new narcotic invasion the Bureau's working appropriations must be made sufficient immediately.

NEW YORK DAY BY DAY

By O. O. McIntyre

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—Diary of a modern Pepys: Up and a gold badge from Mayor Bacharach articling me to the Atlantic City detective force. And wearing it at breakfast my wife sniffed: "Maybe you will be able now to sleuth around and find your hat after you take it off."

To an inn to meet Ralph D. Blumenfeld, London gazetteer, then back to my typing, but Anne and Bill Hamilton and Erskine Gwynne got on the telephone and so much hanky-panky I got little done. So to farewell the Arthur Somers Roches against their journeying to Palm Beach.

Eventide to Margaret Whiteman's dinner at the Colony and was holpen thrice to a meat-pie. Afterward to sit at the restaurant where Paul is conducting and tilted platitudes with Mrs. Larry Waterbury, Phyllis Seeman and the wife of Andy of Amos and Andy of the radio. To bed late.

* * *

They were recalling fright-wig horrors. My vote goes to a bravura in which Messmore Kendall was innocently involved at a highly original dinner Matt Brush gave on the old Waldorf roof. To carry out a circus effect John Ringling turned over animals in their cages and freaks of the sideshow. Brush designated guests to make each one of "the strange people" feel welcome. Kendall's was the armless and legless lady, propped in a sort of bowl. As Kendall tried to talk to her in native German she suddenly swayed and fainted. He managed to catch her before she fell and in looking around for assistance saw all the guests had gone in to dinner. He did the only thing possible, held her and yelled for help until circus attendants came.

* * *

Octavus Roy Cohen tells of a speakeasy patron who ran up a quick and nervous $18 bill and explained to the bartender his sudden discovery he was out of funds. The barkeep sing-songed it was O. K. and for the customer merely to write his name on the wall back of him. "But," expostulated the customer, "people will see it." To which the server replied: "O, no they won't. Your overcoat will be hanging over it."

* * *

Then George Buckley's story of the Cockney Arnet walking down Artillery Lane with something wrapped in butcher's paper. "Buying liver?" a friend saluted. She replied she wasn't. The package held the ashes of her Alf.

"I didn't think you lykked Alf so much!"

"I didn't and I don't. But all his life he forced me to take in washing and scrub floors so he could buy his pot of ale. Now I'm taking his ashes home for the hour glass. He'll work for me from now on, the blighter."

* * *

Personal nomination for the best diction on the screen—that of Genevieve Tobin.

* * *

I like the restraint of P. G. Wodehouse's Englishman who spoke of Niagara Falls as "moist."

* * *

Bagatelles: Frank Craven has smoked one pipe 28 years . . . George Ade writes to friends on yellow ruled paper with pencil . . . Nunnally Johnson never leaves the typewriter when turning out a short story until it's finished . . . Anita Loos will tell no one her age . . . Upton Sinclair is "Uppie" to intimates . . . Harry Leon Wilson, against doctor's orders, recently downed three cups of black coffee and immediately whoopee, turned on the radio . . . Jack Warner is one of Hollywood's best after-dinner impromptu speakers . . . Nina Wilcox Putnam cannot work in a room where there's a clock . . . Until Paul Whiteman's recent return to Broadway, Mrs. Larry Waterbury had not been in a night club since Armistice night . . . Al Smith has 18 executive jobs . . . Billy Burke's auburn hair is now threaded with becoming silver.

* * *

Rob Wagner's favorite is about the actor in a salary rise suit who exclaimed: "I'm the best actor in the world!" His actress wife was furious and said he embarrassed her horribly. "But what could I do?" he sighed. "I was under oath."

* * *

At Dinty Moore's they were reading Hollywood gossip about a former Broadway show girl who complained that while she only had small bit parts directors were forever inviting her to lunch and to late parties. "Just trying to make a little extra!" sighed Lou Holtz.

(Copyright, 1933, McNaught Synd., Inc.)

Wise Words

The sinner's conscience is the best expositor of the mind of God under any judgment or affliction.—South.

The objects that we have known in better days are the main props that sustain the weight of our afflictions and give us strength to await our future lot.—William Hazlitt.

No nobler feeling than this of admiration for one higher than himself dwells in the breast of man. It is to this hour, and at all hours, the vivifying influence in man's life.—Carlyle.

LISTEN, WORLD!

By Elsie Robinson

You're Lonely If You're Wise. You're Hated If You're Strong. And Yet—

"How I envy you!" she writes. "If I could only have a job like yours! To write such a wonderful column and have every one admiring you, because you're wise and brave and strong."

Thanks, lady, for those well-meaning words. But you're wrong on all counts. This column isn't wonderful. Nor am I wise and brave and strong. Nor—and you can bet your last nickel on this—would people admire me if I were!

This column, as a matter of fact, is a rather pathetic affair. It's written by a person who has never been able to practice what she preaches—by a blind woman who loves stars but has never seen them—by a cripple who hungers for mountains but has never climbed them.

It isn't even a column! It's just a foolish, bewildered sad—and frequently very mad—person mumbling to herself as she goes along, wondering what in heck it's all about. And, if there's any value to this space, perhaps that's why. For I suppose that we're all more or less like that. And maybe I'm such a fool that I manage to make the rest of you feel Plenty Smart by contrast!

So now you know the worst. Disappointed? But rest assured, poor stick though I am, you'd like me even less if I were the combination Samson-Solomon-Caeser that you have fondly imagined. For believe me, my dear—

The wise aren't merry—
They are very lonely;
The brave aren't popular—
They are a Public Nuisance;
The strong aren't rewarded—
They are put on the spot.

Nor is the reason for this hard to find. Wisdom, courage, strength and all the other virtues listen lovely in theory but are darned difficult and dangerous in practice. They are so difficult and dangerous that we lazy, cowardly, conceited humans duck practicing them whenever possible.

Accordingly we have made for ourselves a social framework which looks heroic and civilized but which actually requires the minimum of sense, strength and courage. All one needs to do to be respectable and respected in our smug, silly little world is to sit pretty and look wise.

Then along comes someone who isn't bluffing; someone who is really wise, brave and strong. And what happens?

Why, of course, we hang wreaths, hand out medals and applaud madly—as long as he doesn't try to meddle in our affairs or show up our racket. But just let him start anything like that, and what happens?

Page Socrates, Joan of Arc, Debs, Mahatma Ghandi, Edith Cavell, Abraham Lincoln—or a young Hebrew carpenter called Jesus of Nazareth—and they'll tell you what happens. They, too, upset the Status Quo and defied the Stand Patters. Immediately they were shot, poisoned, crucified—and dropped from all the bridge clubs.

Which, of course, is the only logical thing for us to do to agitators and reformers if we intend to remain as we are. For by their record they raise heck with ours. Their wisdom humiliates our conceit, their courage challenges our cowardice, their strength shames our weakness. Naturally, we're forced to put such people into the dog-house, or go there ourselves!

And yet, though I know that Wisdom, Courage and Strength bring these certain penalties, personally I'd rather keep reaching for them than have all the safety, comfort, profit and popularity which the Stand Patters enjoy. For life's over so soon, at best, for the comfortable cowards as well as the sad saints.

And then—maybe there isn't any more. No more crusades. No more adventures. Never again a chance to strut your stuff like a god, even though you well know you're only a pigeon-toed faker.

So, things being that way, I'M FOR LIVING HIGH, WIDE AND HANDSOME WHILE THE LIVING'S GOOD.

(Copyright, 1933, King Features Synd., Inc.)

MARRY-GO-ROUND

By Helen Rowland

Don't Kid Yourself

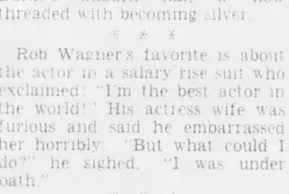
Four-flushing and bluffing have been out of fashion for a long time, now—but there are still lots of people who go right on kidding THEMSELVES. Kidding himself is the average American's greatest weakness.

* * *

It is so much more comfortable and easy to ADMIT everything—that you're poor; that you're not so young or so beautiful any more; that you made a fool of yourself playing the stock market; that there ISN'T any Santa Claus! Admit it and be cheerful about it. That's not pessimism—that's common sense.

* * *

If you're a woman, don't kid yourself that the looking-glasses are not so reliable as they used to be or that the menus are printed in finer type. Get a pair of glasses and stop touching up your hair. You're not sick—you're FORTY.



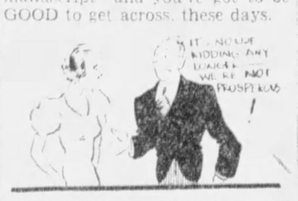
If you're a man, don't kid yourself that the sweet young things (half your age) are always "out" or dated when you call up, and that their languid manner when you dance with them is because they're tired. It's because you're bald or fat or 60, and they're longing to dance with somebody their own age.

* * *

If you're running along on the rim financially, don't kid yourself that a flashy new car bought on time and a v-ermine coat will impress anybody in THESE days, when so many ex-financiers are riding on street cars and eating at the automat. It will only make those who are trying to pay their debts and help their fellow-men despise you—or laugh at you.

* * *

If your book never landed a publisher or your play didn't get across, don't kid yourself that it is because you're "too highbrow, or too advanced" for your times. It was probably a mediocre book or a dull play or an immature manuscript—and you've got to be GOOD to get across, these days.



It's foolish to try to kid yourself that you look younger or appear more prosperous or important than you are. It doesn't "get by," any more, and it merely makes you look silly or pathetic.

* * *

Of course the world is still full of climbers and "show-offs;" but the day of the four-flusher is over. His sun has set—and his "game" is less and less effective in a world where frankness and simplicity are the mode of the day. The younger generation are not going to be able to bluff each other nor to kid themselves, at all. They know too much about the "phonies," and they've seen too many of them lose out.

* * *

It's really a great relief to stop KIDDING YOURSELF—just like taking off a pair of tight dancing pumps and slipping your aching feet into a pair of soft, roomy old house-slippers! TRY it!

* * *

It's smart, de rigeur, comme il faut, modish and all that sort of thing to be CANDID these days. Even with yourself!

(Copyright, 1933, King Features Synd., Inc.)

Isn't It So?

It takes a man longer to acquire fame than it takes others to forget him.

Why does a woman never skip a newspaper article on "How to Be Beautiful?"

When marriage is a trial, the husband always is a defendent who never hears the verdict "not guilty."

There are lots of little things that wise men do not understand, but it is generally believed that hens lay eggs because they can't stand them on end.

Text for Today

And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.—Philippians, iv:7.

(Today's text is suggested by the Rev. Dr. Clarence Edward Macartney, pastor, First Presbyterian Church, Downtown.)

Human Side of the News

Cass Gilbert and Slum Clearance—Bernt Balchen and His Heroic Exploits in the Air

By Edwin C. Hill

MR. CASS GILBERT, who will be 74 years old next month, is still as young in ideas as when he came out of Zanesville, O., to give New York the monumental Woolworth Building and the impressive Fort Lee Bridge. These are but two of the architectural gems which have won for him the citation of having "contributed most conspicuously to the modern movement in architecture, especially towards the development of the skyscraper age."

This thorough workman and charming gentleman returns from Italy to tell us that Rome is the most interesting of cities, and that Mussolini has been doing much to improve it by cleaning up the slums and removing old buildings without in any way impairing the beauty of the Eternal City.

This slum clearance which impressed Mr. Gilbert in Rome is quite the movement of the day. All over the world in the past decade cities, states and countries have gotten slum-conscious and are working to do away with these breeding grounds of poverty and crime.

Our own United States has the Federal Relief Corporation pouring millions of dollars into projects destined to do away with the wretched tenements which disgrace New York and other large cities. The Rockefellers and the Hecksher and other such philanthropic houses have been carrying on similar work in private capacities.

Germany has been at it since the war and its cities are studded with model blocks of new homes for the working classes, built largely with American capital raised during the great bond selling era of the late twenties.

* * *

London Noted For Its Slums

LONDON'S slums are famous, or rather, infamous. From Dickens to Edgar Wallace, they have housed all that is vile and base of fact and fiction. But it appears that the novelist of the future will now have to look elsewhere for his Bill Sikes. Even Limehouse is on the spot, with a royal commission ready to bump off 120,000 slum buildings in the next five years at a cost of $150,000,000.

Figures are dry, but personalities are interesting, and a personality of the slum-clearing movement is one—Michael Santangelo, a man of 67. Down in the heart of New York's East Side, in Oliver street, where Al Smith was reared, Michael bought in three old five-story rookeries that nobody would live in. He turned out the innards entirely, leaving nothing but the outer walls. Then he rebuilt the rookeries into two, three and five-room apartments with electric iceboxes, incinerators and a heating plant. He provided for sunlight and planted shrubbery around the building, and today he's getting $10 a room each month for the two hundred odd rooms. Which shows that a good heart and good business sometimes do mix.

* * *

Balchen Stands For Firm Resolve

IF Col. Lindbergh symbolizes the intrepidity of aviation, Lieut. Bernt Balchen stands for its inflexible resolve. It was Balchen who guided the monoplane America, with Byrd, Acosta and Noville aboard, through dense fog over Paris in 1927, and brought her out of peril of pitch-black and stormy night to a magnificently successful landing off the French coast. And it is Balchen now who prepares with Lincoln Ellsworth to make a 2,900 mile non-stop flight in the Antractic, over the South Pole.

When the trans-Atlantic plane, Bremen, crossed in 1928 and came to earth on desolate Greenly Island, Labrador, Floyd Bennett and Balchen, both, curiously enough, sick at the time, flew from Detroit to aid them with supplies. Bennett's cold became pneumonia. Balchen had to push on from Quebec without him. Bennett died tragically, gloriously. Balchen found the German-Irish crew and brought it to New York.

Balchen's accustomed to that sort of thing. If you were to call it heroics, Balchen probably would snort and smile a half smile. What would be strong meat to the subway rider with an umbrella under his arm is ordinary fare, indeed, to this deep-chested, ruddy, blonde, blue-eyed young aviator.

It may be trite to say so, yet surely it is true that there is Viking blood in his veins. He's a native of Norway, you know. And the Vikings, you will recall, sailed out from Norway in little ships and gazed ahead with steady eyes as they moved on through the unknown of vast waters. Balchen's like that in the air.

* * *

Holds a Degree In Engineering

BORN at Topdal, Norway, the son of a surgeon, Balchen is 32 years old. He ranked a lieutenant in the Norwegian Naval Air Service from 1918 to 1926 and was awarded a degree in engineering at a Swedish university. Boxing and skiing appeal to him.

When Commander Byrd was at King's Bay in 1926 preparing for a flight to the North Pole with Floyd Bennett, he met Balchen. The young Norwegian gave him pointers that helped a lot to make the North Pole venture a success. Byrd decided that Balchen was a good man to have around and brought him to this country. That he was right was proven by Balchen's handling of the America on the trans-Atlantic flight. Fog, fog, fog—to phlegmatic Balchen it was a dull trip. Thrilling? Hardly! Subsequently, he piloted Byrd over the South Pole.

Balchen doesn't smoke or drink. He talks little and doesn't like hats. In 1930 he married in New Jersey a girl who went to school with him in Norway, and he became an American citizen.

Wherever he is, Bernt Balchen will be found strong, sure. The Canadian government was engaged in construction work in the Hudson Bay district a few years back. It was necessary to carry dynamite by airplane. Who was the pilot? Balchen. How would you like to fall out of the sky with a load of dynamite? But that never happened to Balchen!

(Copyright, 1933, King Features Synd., Inc.)

Porto Rico's Governor 'Unfortunate' Choice

By James T. Williams, Jr.

AGAINST the administration of the Roosevelt Governor of Porto Rico, the students of the University of Porto Rico have struck in protest.

This is only the latest of many manifestations of disapproval of Mr. Gore's appointment to this office. The other day, according to reports, an attempt was made to wreck the Governor's residence.

If Mr. Gore's political ambition had been realized, he would not be Governor of Porto Rico today, an office for which he apparently possesses few, if any, qualifications. His ambition was to be United States Commissioner of Internal Revenue—one of the most powerful political offices in the gift of the President.

When Mr. Gore's application for this office was rejected, an earnest effort was made to satisfy him with an office of lesser importance in the Treasury Department. But the one offered him he is said to have turned down, and he was finally given the Governorship of Porto Rico.

The people of Porto Rico are well aware that the appointment of Mr. Gore is entirely political—in the nature of a reward for political service rendered. They know that this appointment was not recommended by those who had at heart the welfare of Porto Rico. This is the reason why protests against the appointment are still made in spite of the fact that the Roosevelt administration is striving to pour oil on the troubled waters by offering Porto Rico assistance toward economic relief and recovery.

* * *

Politics Seems To Be Back of It

IF Porto Rico were a state of the Union her Senators and Representatives in Congress would have something to say about the selection of her federal officials.

But Porto Rico is dependent upon the President for the kind of Governor she gets. And in the case of Mr. Gore, his appointment appears to have been dictated by the exigencies of Democratic politics rather than by the needs of Porto Rico.

The result is that the people of Porto Rico resent the use of their chief office for political purposes, and the Administration loses much more in prestige by making such an appointment than the politicians can give in return for obtaining such a political plum.

Most of the governors of Porto Rico have been selected because they appeared to be well qualified to administer intelligently, sympathetically and acceptably the government of that island.

There was a lamentable exception to this rule during the Harding administration. A Kansas City politician, who had supported Mr. Harding's nomination for President when the leaders of Missouri were against him, earned the gratitude of Mr. Harding, who disregarded the welfare of Porto Rico in order to reward his Kansas City supporter.

* * *

Hurts Prestige Of United States

THE result was a protest by the people of Porto Rico, a loss of American prestige in the islands and a loss of prestige for the Harding administration throughout the country.

Before Porto Rico was finally rid of this incompetent Governor, repercussions of this blunder were heard throughout Latin America.

Unfortunately the flare-up in Porto Rico over the choice of Governor comes on the eve of the convening of the Seventh Pan-American Conference at Montevideo.

Of course the Pan-American republics have nothing to say about whom the government at Washington sends to San Juan to govern Porto Rico. But the Porto Ricans are Spanish-speaking people. And the better Governor they have, the better reputation the United States has among Spanish-speaking people to the South.

President Roosevelt has made so many excellent appointments, he has disregarded so completely, in many cases the inordinately greedy demands of the pork-barrel politicians of his own party, that in fairness to him it should be remembered that the way in which the Porto Rican Governorship was filled is an exception to the rule.

If only a sovereign state, instead of a dependent people, were the victims of this unfortunate selection, the blow to American prestige would not be so heavy.